SYRACUSE, March 25.—While Jesse Bronson, 16 years old, was fishing in the Seneca river at Baldwinsville the decomposed body of a man rose to the surface of the water close to the boat. The lad pulled the body over the gunwale and as he did so was horror stricken by the discovery that the corpse was that of his own father, Lafayette Bronson. The elder Bronson, 45 years old, had been missing since Dec. 2 last, leaving no clew. The body evidently had been under the ice all winter.

Several men have taken up the occupation of pearl hunting in the localities.

AGREEMENT IN SIGHT

Cuban Convention Likely to Approve Platt Amendment.

COMMERCIAL INTERESTS UPPERMOST

Radicals Are Already Adopting the Principles Advocated by the Conservatives—Many Ask For Reciprocity.

HAVANA, March 25.—The action of the Republican party in Santiago in indorsing the Platt amendment and instructing Senors Gomez and Ferrer of the Satiago delegation to the constitutional convention to vote for the amendment, together with the letters of General Sanguily and the mayor of Cienfuegos advising acceptance, were incidents of the week just past that have tended to clear up the political atmosphere, until now there are few who do not expect the convention to approve the amendment.

The visit of American senators and congressmen has had an excellent effect, as in no instance have the radicals received any encouragement in the notion that if action is delayed until the next congress there might be a change in the demands of the United States.

The radicals, however, insist that they cannot recede from their former position without loss of dignity, and they still hope that some concession, no matter how insignificant, may provide a sufficient excuse.

Already the radicals are taking their cue from the conservatives and pointing out that commercial interests demand recognition. There is a possibility of uniting the convention along this line. The platform of the conservatives calls for a reduction of American import duties on tobacco and sugar and approves any scheme of relations which the United States government sees fit to impose.

In fact, the situation is leading to a point where commercial interests will be the chief question under discussion at the next session of the convention, and is is not unlikely that a resolution will be adopted asking for a reciprocity treaty.

Mrs. Nation Goes to Cincinnati.

KANSAS CITY, March 25.—After an eventful day at Leavenworth, Kan., Mrs. Carrie Nation arrived here last evening and left immediately for St. Louis, en route for Cincinnati, where she is booked to deliver half a dozen lectures. It was believed she would make an attempt at joint smashing at Leavenworth, but two policemen remained with her all the time she was in that city. She wanted to make a speech in the Leavenworth Opera House, but this was locked against her. She then attempted to speak in the public square, but officers stopped her. Later she went to the southern part of the city and addressed an audience of 500 persons on a vacant lot. She visited the National Soldiers' home at Fort Leavenworth and began abusing Governor Rowland for allowing a canteen to be run on the grounds. After listening to her a short time the governor called a captain of police and had her escorted off the grounds and placed on a car for the city. Along the route from Leavenworth to Kansas City she made rear platform speeches at every stop.

Faithful Employees Remembered.

NORFOLK, March 25.—The will of the late Henry Dubois Van Wyck, formerly of New York, proprietor of the Academy of Music here and owner of much real estate, leaves sums of from $1,000 to $10,000 each to friends and faithful employees. One of the legatees is unknown to the testator save that he had been superintendent of the Pullman Car company in Chicago in 1891. He was L. W. Deivepeck and was left $1,000 for kindness shown Mr. Van Wyck in bringing home his wife's body ten years ago. He makes the city of Norfolk a partial residuary legatee for the purpose of extending the public library. The gift will materially aid the city in complying with the terms of Mr. Carnegie's recent offer.

It is understood that the salary to be received by Mr. Aldridge will be $10,000 a year.

New York Vice Committee Raids.

NEW YORK, March 25.—Raids were made by the committee of fifteen Saturday night upon ten illegal resorts, only three of which were devoted to gambling. These raids were under the direction of John McCullagh, who has done all of the detective work for the committee.

LATEST WAR RUMOR.

Japanese War Minister Issues Urgent Instructions.

A SQUADRON HAS SAILED FOR KOREA

The Feeling Throughout the Country Said to Be Intensely Anti-Russian, and the Situation Regarded Serious.

LONDON, March 25.—"A Japanese squadron, Admiral Tsuchima commanding, left Nagasaki Saturday for Korea," says the Yokohama correspondent of The Daily Mail. "The general opinion here is that the situation is serious. Urgent instructions have been issued by the minister of war, General Viscount Katsoura, to the commanders of forts to attend a conference in Tokyo to consider questions of home defense.

"The war rumors are causing a fall in prices on the various bourses. The feeling of the country is uneasy and intensely anti-Russian, but the cabinet shows no indication of its policy."

The dismissal of Mr. McLeavy Brown from the post of director general of Korean customs is regarded in London as another score for Russia. In 1895 and again in 1898 Russian pressure was exerted to procure his removal. In the latter case he was only reinstated after a British squadron had moved to Chemulpo.

As recently as a few months ago Russia strongly opposed an attempt by Mr. Brown to raise a loan for the Korean government to purchase shares in the railway from Seoul to Fu-san. As a result of her opposition the negotiation for the loan failed.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of The Daily Mail asserts that M. Pavloff, Russian minister at Seoul, has protested against Korea taking foreigners into the government service with the exception of Russians and demanded the appointment of the latter, but Korea seemed determined, with the help of the powers, to defend her integrity.

Rutland (Vt.) City Hall Burned.

RUTLAND, Vt., March 25.—The city hall here caught fire about 8:30 o'clock last evening, and despite the efforts of the entire fire department it was completely destroyed within an hour. Fortunately all the records in the city clerk's office were saved, but the balance of the contents of the building was burned. The city hall was a brick structure three stories in height, the low r portion being used by the city officials, while the upper part of the building was taken up by a large hall. It was in this hall that the fire was first discovered, and it is thought that it had its origin in a live wire.

Train Lost In the Snow.

GRAND RAPIDS, March 25.—A train load of passengers has been lost in snowdrifts on the Manistique railroad several miles from Seney since Tuesday last. When they were last heard from, their supplies of food and fuel were short, and it is feared the travelers and train crew are suffering hardships. The news was brought to Seney by five passengers, who escaped after a perilous journey on foot to Seney. They were half a day in fighting their way three miles through the blizzard and the great piles of snow.

A Bad Freight Wreck.

CLEARFIELD, Pa., March 25.—A disastrous freight wreck occurred at Kerrmoor, 20 miles south of here, on the Beech Creek division of the New York Central railroad. Twenty-one cars were smashed. Joseph Galbraith of Clearfield, engineer, was caught under his engine, and it is thought he is fatally injured. The fireman escaped with slight injury. No other person was hurt. The wreck was caused by the failure of the airbrakes to hold the train while a crippled car was being switched out.

Traction Employees May Strike.

PITTSBURG, March 25.—At a meeting of the employees of the Monongahela Traction company, held to take action on the company's refusal to reinstate several discharged men, it was voted to extend the time for the company to answer until Wednesday next. The demand that the men be reinstated was again made the issue, and the sentiment among the men seems to be that a strike will be declared on Wednesday should the company refuse to accede to their demands.

AMERICAN TRACT SOCIETY.

General Howard Outlines Its Work at the Annual Meeting.

WASHINGTON, March 25. — The Washington annual meeting of the American Tract society was held yesterday in the Gunton-Temple Memorial church, the Rev. Amasa S. Fiske, pastor, presiding. The Rev. Judson Swift, field secretary of New York, presented a brief report of the society's work. General O. O. Howard delivered an earnest address, setting forth the object and needs of the society. He gave from his own experience a somewhat detailed account of the Tract society's work in the army, emphasizing how much good it accomplished during the recent Spanish war. He also told of what was being done in our island possessions. General Howard is the society's president and is deeply interested in its work.

The society has been able to publish the gospel truth in 153 languages or dialects and has aided the denominational mission boards in their work at home and abroad. During the year between 4,000,000 and 5,000,000 pages of Christian literature in the Spanish language have been distributed in our island possessions, and 1,000,000 pages of selected reading have been distributed to the army and navy.

An effort is being made in Utah to place tracts in every Mormon home by means of colporteur wagons and colporteurs, thus reaching the children and youth. New publications have been issued during the year in English, Spanish, Polish and German.

CUT HERSELF TO PIECES.

Amputated Toes, Ears and Nose With Pair of Scissors.

TOLEDO, March 25.—Mrs. G. Brunschneider, residing near the city limits, occupies a ward at St. Vincent's hospital and is in a serious condition as a result of horrible injuries self inflicted.

Armed with an ordinary pair of scissors she cut off all the toes of her left foot, both her ears close to the head and about an inch of her nose. She then cut out a portion of her right cheek, inflicted five gashes in the left cheek and finally began on her arms. Beginning at her left forearm, she removed every vestige of skin, laying bare the muscles. She also lacerated the right arm in a horrible manner.

Nothing was known of the affair until her husband, who was absent during the night, returned home yesterday morning and found her in bed in a semiconscious condition. A surgeon was called at once, and she was taken to St. Vincent's hospital. Her recovery is doubtful. The woman is about 50 years of age. It is thought that she was temporarily insane on account of domestic troubles.

Chicago Jews Ill Treated.

CHICAGO, March 25.—Twelve men assaulted in Chicago each day for no other reason than that they are Jews, with the average of one death a year growing out of these assaults, were figures presented at an indignation meeting of Jewish peddlers. The police, the speakers declare, make little effort to protect members of their race from the attacks of hoodlums. In several instances it was said the police had looked on when such attacks were being made and had failed to interfere. After half a dozen speakers had spoken in protest the Chicago Protective league was organized to demand that the police protect the Jews. A committee was appointed to perfect the organization and arrange for a mass meeting next week for the purpose of arousing public interest in the movement.

A Central Train Held Up.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., March 25.—Word was telephoned to this city from Karner last evening that a gang of tramps had held up a New York Central freight train just before it reached that place and was terrorizing the crew. Officers Fairlee, O'Connor and Lathrop were put on the case, and when the train reached this city it was stopped at Edison avenue and searched. Three men were found in a box car and captured after a lively fight. They were taken to police headquarters, where they insisted they had not taken part in the hold up. They were held.

AFFAIRS AT ALBANY.

A Live Week Promised For New York Legislators.

ALBANY, March 25.—The threatened complications over state police legislation as well as other unforeseen delays in the progression of numerous important bills leads to the belief that the final adjournment of the legislature will not take place at the very earliest before April 18. During this week the legislature, outside of possible state police legislation, will likely engage itself with charter revision for New York, the state board of charities bill, mortgage tax bill, private bankers' tax bill and the collateral inheritance tax bill. All of these measures have shifted around from one legislative scene to another, but it is expected that the next few days will settle their fate for good. Although there is opposition to all of them, still the administration is for them, and this is sufficient to carry them through.

The governor, it can be authoritatively stated, has consented to modify his original single headed state board of charities scheme. This is in deference to the opposition of a great many representatives of religious orders. The governor, it is understood, will appoint a Protestant, a Hebrew and a Catholic on the board. This will give each of these religious faiths a larger proportion of representation than they enjoyed before, and on this account the bill as amended will meet with general satisfaction.

The Greater New York charter revision bill will include about 80 per cent of the recommendations made by the charter revision commission. It will contain the single headed New York police commission idea, the new bureau of elections scheme, the tenement house bureau proposition and most of the suggestions that the commissioners incorporated in their report. The other 20 per cent of amendments will include nothing radical, being chiefly devoted to minor changes in the machinery of city departments.

The general corporation tax bills will very likely reach the governor during the week. They have not caused the fierce opposition up to now that was expected.

There is likely to be a lively fight over the mortgage tax bills. Senator Stranahan has introduced one that is along the lines of measures that were killed by various legislatures during the last five years.

Platt Forced to Yield.

NEW YORK, March 25.—Senator Platt has given out the following statement: "The general opinion of those at the conference held yesterday at the Fifth Avenue hotel was that the police conditions existing in New York ought to have the attention of the legislature, but that it would be useless to pass any bill, as the governor has declared that he would veto it. Some of those present favored a state police law and others favored a metropolitan district, but it was conceded by all that nothing should be done at present. I regret the situation, as I believe that some action by the legislature is important for the city and the Republican party, and I think that such will be the general public opinion soon. But if nothing is to be done and if the present bad conditions are to be submitted to, the legislature is not responsible for that. If it turns out in the next municipal election that the judgment which I have formed upon this subject has been wrong, then I shall be glad that Tammany has been left in control of the police."

CZAR IS FRIGHTENED

Sunday Conference With Cabinet at St. Petersburg.

THREATENING LETTERS TO MINISTERS

Sunday Passed Quietly In the Russian Capital, but Renewed Demonstrations Are Expected—A Prince Disgraced.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 25.—The political situation is so serious that Emperor Nicholas held a meeting of the ministers yesterday to consider the state of public affairs. Threatening letters have been received by Lieutenant General Kouropatkine, minister of war; M. N. V. Mouravieff, minister of justice, and M. Sipiaguine, minister of the interior.

Renewed demonstrations on a great scale are expected tomorrow.

It is reported that Prince Viazemsky has been disgraced for petitioning the czar to consider the grievances of the students.

Lagowski, the provincial official who last Friday attempted to assassinate Privy Councilor Pobedonostzeff, procurator general of the holy synod, is a disciple of Count Leo Tolstoi, and he has asserted that the act was one of revenge for the excommunication of Tolstoi.

According to a special dispatch to the Rossya, the governor general of Kiev, General Dragomiroff, has published a riot ordinance similar to that published by General Klejgels in St. Petersburg and declaring that the military will be called out unless the ordinance is strictly obeyed.

The day passed quietly in St. Petersburg. Some 40,000 persons promenaded about noon along the Nevskoi prospekt, particularly in front of the Cathedral of Our Lady of Kazan. The crowd dwindled to normal proportions when it became apparent that nothing would happen. The promenaders were for the greater part curiosity seekers.

Karpovich, the assassin of M. Bogolie-poff, Russian minister of public instruction, has been sentenced to hard labor for life. He will be imprisoned in the Schluesselburg fortress, on an island in the Neva.

A Plot to Kill the Czar.

LONDON, March 25.—The Daily Mail publishes the following, dated March 24, from its St. Petersburg correspondent: "Yesterday (Saturday) 500 workmen from the Obuchower metal works paraded on the Nevskoi Prospekt. On the way thither they demolished the state brandy booths. Eight hundred Cossacks, with drawn swords, met the workmen, and a sanguinary encounter ensued. The number of killed and wounded is kept secret. The police have discovered a plot against the life of the czar. It appears that a group of students drew lots and that the fatal choice fell to the son of a prominent general. The student told his father, and the latter informed the czar, imploring him to leave St. Petersburg."

The St. Petersburg correspondent of The Daily Express says, "In the last encounter at Narva Gate 100 workmen are reported to have been killed or wounded by the Cossacks."

WEST POINT, N. Y., March 25.—The list of successful candidates in the recent examinations held throughout the country for admission to the Military academy includes Sherman Miles, son of Lieutenant General Nelson A. Miles, candidate at large, and Charles Dudley Daly of Massachusetts, captain of Harvard's football eleven last season. With the admission of Lieutenant General Miles' son the descendants of four distinguished generals will be on the roll of the academy. The battalion roster already bears the names of Cadets Sheridan, Grant and MacArthur.

A Home For Schley.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A home is to be purchased for Rear Admiral Winfield Scott Schley in Cleveland Park, a suburb of this city, by popular subscription. This announcement was made after a meeting of the committee of one hundred organized some time ago for this purpose. At the request of Rear Admiral Schley the home is to be very modest and not to cost more than $10,000. Six thousand dollars has been subscribed, and it is expected that the full amount will be raised by the time the fund closes on April 15.

A Riot Stops Races.

BRUSSELS, March 25.—The races at Groenendael yesterday were suspended on account of a riot among the spectators. In the first race three horses were left at the post. The judges permitted the result to stand. Enraged at this decision, the spectators invaded the track, broke the rails, set fire to the paddocks and only desisted from the work of demolition when the judges promised to return all bets on horses left at the post.

FISHKILL LANDING, N. COMING EVENTS

March 25—Meeting of Board of Governors of of Muhlenberg Hospital.

The Tax Rate.

It is an old and homely saying that "you cannot have your cake and eat it too," but there is a wonderful lot of truth in it just the same. It is as applicable to the conduct of municipal affairs as it is to anything else. It is an indisputable fact as every one, who gives the subject any thought, will realize that municipal improvements cost money and that an extremely low tax rate and many improvements can not exist at the same time in any municipality, no matter how capable the officials.

At the April meeting of the Common Council next Monday evening, the annual budget will be presented and the Council will decide just how much money is to be raised for the expenses of the city government in its different departments. As is stated in another column, it is probable that the tax rate will be slightly increased. If such is the case, there is quite certain to be the usual outcry over the increase.

It is not child's play to manage the municipal affairs of a city the size of Plainfield. This city is particularly fortunate in having men of integrity and well-known business ability in charge. While their opinions as to how the city affairs should be run may differ from some of the rest of us, no body who is at all acquainted with them questions their honesty of purpose.

It has been the policy of the local administration during the last few years to maintain the city departments on as an efficient plan as possible without making the tax rate exorbitant. As to when the best interests of the city end and undue extravagance begins, it is simply a question of opinion. That a majority of the citizens take the view that the present administration is satisfactory may be deduced from the fact that the administration was strongly endorsed at the charter election last December.

If Plainfield is to continue to enjoy its present system of good roads, its excellent public schools, its fine public library, its efficient fire department, and the numerous other attractions which are provided for largely out of the public purse, the citizens must not expect a reduction in the tax rate. Occasionally mistakes are made and it is necessary to rectify them. Something must be done at the city's sewage disposal beds and it rests with the Council to provide the proper remedy. That must be paid for eventually by the people of Plainfield.

After the charter election of December when all the retiring members of the Common Council were re-elected to that body, the people of Plainfield cannot expect any change in policy. The members of the Council felt, as they were entitled to do, that it was the will of the citizens, as expressed by ballot, that they would continue along the present lines. As long as they follow that course, they will be simply obeying the mandate of the people. It means simply a continuation of city affairs on their present lines, allowing for the natural growth of the city, but any attempt to go further will undoubtedly meet with much opposition as while the people seem willing to bear the present burden, they have not signified their willingness to stand any material addition.

Persons who have noted the tendency to make all wants known to the public through the newspapers, remarks the Philadelphia Record, have not been surprised by the increasing number of insurance, financial, telephone, street railway and other corporations and of churches, book publishing houses, etc., which have recently adopted the publicity methods of the enterprising merchants. The action of the Wisconsin Bar Association in amending the code of ethics so as to allow lawyers to use newspaper space as they may choose is significant of the growth of the tendency, and it is believed to be only a question of time when all other classes of professional men will follow this example. Indeed, the specialization of professional work has made newspaper advertising necessary in the interest of the people as well as of the professional men.

One of the last acts of the retiring State Senate was to approve a number of appointments sent to them by Governor Voorhees. Among that number was the appointment of Senator Edward C. Stokes, of Cumberland county, to succeed Lewis A. Thompson, of Somerset county, as clerk in chancery. The term is for five years and begins March 30, the salary being $6,000 annually. For years, Mr. Thompson was the Republican leader in Somerset county and was an influential man in State circles. Then came the fight for supremacy between Mr. Thompson and Senator Charles A. Reed. The failure of Mr. Thompson to secure a reappointment is only another evidence of how completely Senator Reed has been victorious.

Those who remember what Mr. Riker and other officials of the old Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company said when the Common Council wanted a few concessions from that company, will find some significant facts in the statement of President Young, of the Elizabeth, Plainfield and Central Jersey Railroad Company, which has succeeded the other company. It only goes to show the truth of the contention of The Daily Press at that time that the franchise was a very valuable one and that the company could well afford to give the city more than it did.

According to the reports of the local real estate dealers, there is unusual demand for homes in Plainfield by out-of-town people this spring. While there were a number of changes last year, they were principally among those already residents here and very few additions were then made to the community. The advent of many strangers to this place is greatly to be desired and they should be well cared for and induced to become permanent residents of Plainfield.

Among the appointments confirmed by the Senate at the last night of its session, was that of Samuel St. John McCutchen, of North Plainfield, as a member of the State Board of Education from the Fourth Congressional district. The term is for five years. Mr. McCutchen has been a very efficient member of that body.

The wreck on the Jersey Central Railroad yesterday morning which resulted in the partial destruction by fire of the village of Glen Gardner was one of the most peculiar in the annals of that railroad. Such a combination of disasters, the one the direct result of the other, is seldom heard of.

The spring rush is beginning at the bicycle stores. Last year it seemed as if everybody had bicycles, but there is a great demand for them this spring.

It is remarkable what a difference Republicans and Democrats can find in the accomplishments of the New Jersey Legislature during its last session.

The city authorities do not seem to be in any hurry to take action regarding the cleaning out of Green brook.

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence.)

Dunellen, March 25.—While there were enough citizens present at Friday evening's preliminary meeting of the Board of Trade, it was the prevailing sentiment that formal action be deferred for one week in order to secure better results. During the interim, a committee appointed for the purpose will explain the benefits to be derived from such an organization and by so doing secure the assistance of all men whether in business or not. A gratifying number of names have already been placed on the pledge list for membership and before the next meeting, which is to be held next Friday evening, it is expected that enough names will be secured to warrant the final steps being taken towards permanent organization.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

Clippings From Other Newspapers Which May Be Of Interest to Plainfield and Its Citizens.

The Congressional redistricting plan has become a law, and this district, now to be known as the Fifth, will comprise Union, Morris and Warren counties. This being the case it will be well for Union county people to cultivate the acquaintance of the people of Morris, and to this end there should be built, without unnecessary delay, a trolley road between Elizabeth and Summit, this is now more of a necessity than ever, because political conventions will be held in Elizabeth or in Morristown—often in the latter place, it being central in the district—and there will be no way of getting to and from these cities except by the long and tedious route by the way of Newark and through the two congressional districts of Essex county. A road to Summit has ever been necessary; it is now more so than ever before.—Elizabeth Journal.

* * * *

We beg to thank and compliment Hon. James E. Martine, of Cedar Brook, Plainfield, for urging all Jerseymen, of whatever section of the State, to unite in saving the noble Palisades. The Elizabeth Journal well says that his appeal comes at a proper time. This is a liberal treatment of a Democrat by a Republican organ. We wish, however, that The Journal had the courage to come out against Senator Reed for his shillying and shallying on the Palisades subject, and worse; for he has been positively discourteous, heretofore, in his reception and treatment of the representatives of the league for the preservation of the most remarkable natural formation on the North American continent, now threatened by the merciless commercialism of the time. To the latter Senator Reed appears to be rendering his aid; while he must very well understand that this noble piece of natural scenery is venerated, as well as admired by every thoughtful citizen of the State. The Journal goes; but it doesn't go far enough. It is well to praise Patriotic Martine; it is just as well to condemn unpatriotic Reed.—Westfield Standard.

Cure SLEEPLESSNESS
"I have derived much benefit from Ripans Tabules," writes a Philadelphia, Pa., gentleman. "I was troubled with a nervous, tired, worn-out feeling, shortness of breath and a general breaking down of the nervous system. I am a grocer on Girard Ave., Philadelphia, and forty years of age. I was troubled with my kidneys for a long time and suffered at night with sleeplessness. Ripans Tabules came to my notice about a year ago. I was telling a customer of mine how I felt and he told me to try a box of Ripans, so I bought a five-cent carton that same day and started to take them. I can truthfully say that they have done more for me than any medicine I have ever taken, in fact they have done more for me than my doctor. Since I have taken them I feel like a new man. No need of lying awake at night if you take Ripans. I know of cases where they have done wonderful good."

MARRIED ANOTHER MAN.

Expected Groom Failed to Come at the Appointed Time, So the Bride Chose a Stranger.

"The quickest wedding and honeymoon trip I ever saw," said an old minister who lives in West Virginia, and who is now visiting Chicago, to a Tribune reporter, "occurred at my house when I was living in North Carolina. The bride had come to my house alone on horseback, and said her best man would be along pretty soon, and that they were to be married. While waiting for the groom the woman gave her name, age and place of residence. She said she reckoned I would not object to giving a newly-married couple a dinner for a send-off. It was not far from the dinner hour, and I extended the invitation. The groom, however, failed to come, and we sat down to the feast without him. The woman did not appear much concerned over the disappointment.

"Later in the day a man halted his wagon in front of my place and asked the road to a certain town. He was an immigrant, and said he was on his way to the far west. He asked if he could get something to eat, as was common with travelers in those days, and I told him we had the remnants of a feast which had been cooked for a wedding but as the groom didn't come we had plenty left.

"He asked me if the disappointed woman took it much to heart, and, when I said she didn't act as if she were going into a decline, he replied that she must have a good deal of sand, as he expressed it, and said he would like to see her.

"She consented, and met him while he was eating the remnants of the feast. I had occasion to leave the room for a few minutes, and when I returned they were standing together, hand in hand.

"'Rather than disappoint a lady,' said the traveler, 'I shall take her myself. Go ahead with the necessaries.'

"I married them, and in less than an hour they were on their way to the new country. She had her nag hitched to the tail end of his wagon. Ten years after that they came back on a visit to the old Tarheel state, and he told me he reckoned there never was as good a wife as his, and she said she had thanked her stars many times that the other man didn't show up, as she reckoned the man who came along afterward was one of the best of the world."

MIXED THE BABIES.

A Little Comedy of Errors Which Amused a Crowd at the St. Louis Union Station.

Nurse-girl sociability mixed up two babies, threw two mothers into hysterics, made a family miss a train, troubled a policeman and amused a crowd at the Union station in St. Louis the other night. Mr. and Mrs. G. B. George, of Fort Worth, Tex., and Mrs. J. C. Coleman, of Atlanta, Ga., their babies and colored nurses played the parts in the scene.

The Colemans wanted to leave at 8:10 p. m.; the Georges at 9:10. Meantime each couple had decided to dine up town. The nurses were left with the babies in the waiting-room.

"I'se gwine to Chicago," said Georgiania.

"I'se gwine there, too," replied Susanna.

Time flew after this. The babies were bunched and forgotten. The clock boomed eight and Georgiana, in terror lest she should miss the train, grabbed the Texas baby and fled. Anxious Mrs. Coleman was about to bundle the strange baby in the moving train when she discovered it was not her own. Then she shrieked. Mrs. George in making a similar discovery did the same thing. Then the search was started. Two frantic women hunting lost babies were followed by two terrified nurse girls. Finally the mothers met, babies were swapped and both families waited for the midnight train

Margaret Calhoun, the Vassar senior who is the champion all round athlete among the college girls of America, would have made the fine lady of 50 years ago faint with horror. Then the direst bad name that could be applied to a little girl was to call her a "tomboy." Now, if the name is ever applied at all, it implies a compliment rather than otherwise for the strong and active girl child who is fond of the sports in which her brothers delight. The difference between her and the girl child of half a century ago is that that hapless creature was repressed physically, while she of today is not, if her mother is, up to date. Miss Calhoun, the woman's college champion, has been tested in the 200 yard dash, the fence vault, the running high jump and the other "high jinks" in which college students gain physical strength. As compared with the records made by college men she is from a third to a half below these. Some of the inferiority is to be laid to the door of the hampering, heavy draperies in which old Grundy still insists on clothing even girl athletes doing exercises. But now the beginning is well made. We shall have a stronger, handsomer race of Americans because of the girl athletes. Miss Calhoun says she obtained her health and strength through being a persistent tree climber in her childhood.

A law college for women, with a corps of 18 professors and lecturers, has been opened at Washington. So far as I know, there is no other such. Three years' study in the college will graduate a woman as bachelor of laws and four years as master of laws.

One of the most promising fields for woman's exploitation is that of photography. Katharine Weed Barnes gave by her splendid amateur pictures a great impetus to the art of photography among her sex. Since then numbers of women have taken up the business professionally, with signal success, particularly in the making of artistic views and portraits, for which the feminine eye and fingers as well as the feminine taste are especially adapted. In New York city the photographers who receive the highest prices for their work are women. One of them gets $25 a dozen for cabinet photos. Miss Frances Johnston of Washington is noted the country over for artistic photography.

"I wonder," said the man, "what is the reason why women are never willing to tell their age?" "I'll tell you," replied the woman. "It is because men are always so dead anxious to find out."

Here is opportunity for some scientific woman to earn $1,000, enough to maintain her two years while she studies abroad in any city of Europe. This sum is to be given to the woman who sends to the Association For Promoting Scientific Research by Women the best essay on any branch of biological, physical or chemical science. To get this prize a woman cannot run to the nearest library and nose among its encyclopedias, as the writers of papers for women's clubs do. The essay must give the results of the woman's own independent laboratory research. She must take a topic and think it out carefully and experiment on it herself till she learns something worth knowing in the field of science. Here is a rare chance for women to contribute to the world's scientific and useful knowledge. There will be plenty of time for study and research between now and the time for delivering the essays. They must be handed in before Dec. 31, 1902. Florence M. Cushing, 8 Walnut street, Boston, is secretary pro tem. of the association and undoubtedly will give any information wanted. The manuscripts themselves must have no names signed to them, but must have inclosed a sealed envelope bearing the title which is on the thesis itself and the name and address of the author.

Country girls ought to try for the $1,000 prize offered by the Society For the Promotion of Scientific Research by Women. Country girls never train their powers of observation as they should do. Nature's glorious book is all before them, yet not one in three knows the names and habits of the birds in her neighborhood or the names of the trees and flowers. I myself was a country girl, and I never knew till years afterward the priceless heritage of knowledge and power I had let slip through my fingers.

I have seen lately the picture of a beautiful clubhouse built by the exertions of some ladies in a western city. While they were at it the women made the structure so large that they could rent out meeting rooms to societies and clubs other than their own, men's as well as women's. This is the true plan to erect a house large enough, by means of movable partitions and otherwise to accommodate all the unhoused organizations in the place, then make it a source of steady revenue. This can be done by club women even in cities of a few thousand inhabitants.

HOW LIGHT TRAVELS

One of the Utterly Incomprehensible Wonders of Infinity.

Numberless Worlds Are Around Us, All Framed by the Same Divine Artist and Conducted by His Unerring Hand.

[Special Correspondence.]

IT IS a long journey from Chicago to New York. An express train traveling at its highest rate is on the road almost 24 hours from city to city. Yet, in that day, the train has traveled over less than one-twenty-fifth of the circumference of the earth. That distance is 25,000 miles, a gigantic dimension, almost beyond our mental grasp.

Now let us carry these dimensions step by step further. Look at an astronomical map, and you will see that the earth itself is but a dot when the distance to the moon is shown, and the moon in turn seems to be fairly hugging the earth, as compared with the long, long road to the sun.

This distance from the earth to the sun is 93,000,000 miles. No human mind can begin to conceive of such a dimension, and the only way to judge it is by comparison—taking first one distance and considering what an enormous jump it is, and then figuring that this jump is duplicated, again and again, a thousand times. In fact, the figures for space in astronomical heavens run up into such countless billions and trillions of miles that no scientist thinks of putting them in these terms. Instead, he measures space in time of light. That is to say, taking the distance traversed by a ray of light in a second, a minute or a year, he says that such and such a star is so many light years away from us.

Light, as we know, travels with enormous rapidity; and the distance of a "minute of light" is therefore prodigious. In the case of the sun, for instance, which, as already stated, is 93,000,000 miles away, the light reaches us in only 8 minutes and 19 seconds. Now imagine what a "light hour" or a "light year" must mean.

We all know that the star nearest to the earth is our sun, and that according to a commonly accepted theory the other stars that seem to us mere specks are also suns with their planets and moons like the solar system. Looking up at the heavens on a clear night we may well conceive that some of these stars are so far away that it will take the light much longer than eight minutes—an hour, two, three or four hours, possibly, to reach us. Perhaps, we think, there might be a star at such a prodigious distance that the light rays shot from its orb do not begin to reach until the night after we first espy it. What a stupendous, awe-inspiring dimension that would be! Over 200 times 93,000,000 miles away.

Now let the astronomer give us the real figures. Almost above our heads to the south is the constellation known as the Corona, a cluster of bright stars grouped close together. In it is the star outside the solar system, nearest to this mud-ball of ours. How long does its light travel until it reaches us? Three years and several more weeks.

And that is the star by far our nearest neighbor. The one next to it, Cygnus 61, is almost eight light years distant. The rays that are leaving its great mass of luminous matter at this minute will reach us in 1909, eight years from date. Those sharp scintillations that are penetrating to our eyes to-night started there back in 1893, the year of the great panic. Do you remember something you were doing some night in 1893? Perhaps you were young and romantic then, and you looked up to the stars and thought they were watching you. But they were not. They have not begun to see what you were doing until just now.

A new star has suddenly appeared in the constellation Perseus. As a result astronomers all over the world are astir and hundreds of telescopes are nightly sighted at the wonderfully bright speck called Perseus Nova. It is a star of the first magnitude, the scientists tell us, and is in a group among those nearest to this little earth of ours, from 20 to 30 light years. Now let us see how far from us it is, and let us take it step by step by the following comparisons:

Many, many of the stars will not begin to see aught of the happenings of this earth until long after you are dead. For the heavens are studded with suns so far out in space that it must seem to them as if the Corona and our own solar system could lock arms. Here is what Simon Newcomb, the eminent astronomer, says: "We may conclude with considerable probability that most of the stars visible to the naked eye lie at distances which light would traverse in between 50 to 300 years. If we suppose that the smaller telescopic stars have a general average of about the same intrinsic brilliancy, these are at a distance of from 50 to 50,000 years."

Now let us conceive of an infinite mind possessed of physical senses. Or to take the theory of thought transference, which is now accredited by many eminent psychologists—supposing by instantaneous thought transference our minds could transfer themselves from star to star. Then on going to such a star as Sirius, the brightest in the heavens, we could see the things that were happening on this earth about 18 years ago. We could see President Arthur, young Boulanger just rising into power, Queen Victoria at the height of her reign, the iron chancellor of Germany strengthening the bonds of his empire. Transferring ourselves a little further, we could get to a point where the light rays that portray the American and the French revolutions are just reaching. We could see George Washington inaugurated, then by a quick jump to a nearer star we would witness Napoleon devastating the fields of Europe. Or going further away, we would see the medieval popes at Rome, Martin Luther, John Calvin, Ignatius Loyola.

We might travel on in thought to the constellation of the great dipper, and there, planted on a cool spot on some planet, we could watch the developments in that great period of history following the birth of Jesus. Every single light ray is reaching there now, not one of them lost, not the move of a hand, not the turn of a head. It seems a fanciful speculation, and yet—with the development of this sixth sense of thought transference, combined with the sharpening of physical instruments, who knows what the future may reveal of the past?

(Jupiter and Two Stars Seen Through a Telescope.)

With the naked eye we can see from 5,000 to 8,000 stars on a clear night, although we cannot easily distinguish, much less count, that number; with a telescope the total is raised to 50,000. All this is merely the beginning. All the stars we can distinguish are but the comparatively minute particles of a single cluster. Science has not yet definitely proved the assumption, but it is believed that all these systems, including our own, belong in a group of which the milky way marks the outward edge. That is to say, astronomers reason that all the stars we know are spread out on a big plane. Some of them may be trillions and trillions of miles away at a perpendicular to our planet, but this dimension is trivial compared with the horizontal dimension—just as a pancake may be thick, but is thin nevertheless compared with its horizontal dimension.

Sometimes stars have been "discovered" long before they were seen, simply by noticing some minute deflection in the path of a known star. This, for instance, was the case with the planet Neptune. The paths of the erratic comets are known, and reference to a chart will readily tell an astronomer at what time this or that famous comet will return. The one espied in 1858, for example, will return after a trip of 15,000,000,000 miles in the year A. D. 3820. By these calculations historians, also, have been aided; for the phenomena described in ancient times were traced, and important dates of battles have been fixed.

By calculations on the star of Bethlehem we know that Jesus of Nazareth was born four years before the date assigned for the beginning of the Christian era—a date that historians for centuries were incapable of fixing accurately. One of the most startling results of astro-historical research has been accomplished in reference to Egyptian anthology. In this case the astronomers have figured on the processions of the equinoxes, the poles swinging around in a small circle once every 26,000 years, thus changing the aspect of the heavens from the earth's point of view. As a result they profess to know that some of the events in the valley of the Nile transpired as long as 15,000 years ago, upsetting the claims of historians, and forcing geologists to revise their figures.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

In Washington Ireland's Patron Saint Has Many Admirers.

And So Has Sheila Who, According to Some, Was the Saint's Wife or Mother—Spring in the National Capital.

[Special Washington Letter.]

SPRING is already here, and so is St. Patrick's day. Spring has not yet come to the people of the northern border of our imperial republic, but St. Patrick's day comes everywhere at the same time.

Patricius, the sainted, is celebrated in song, story and legend, and in no community of the same size is his calendar day made greater holiday than in our national capital city. In all of the executive departments, on every thoroughfare, in all public places, men and women are seen "wearing of the green;" the leaves, leaflets and sprigs being worn by thousands who are Protestants and who have no real heart throbs for the traditions concerning that remarkable man of whose history so little of fact is known.

Now, did you ever hear of Sheila or of Sheila's day? And did you ever know that it follows St. Patrick's day? Did you ever hear it said that Sheila was the wife of St. Patrick? Of course, all of the readers of this paper are not Irish, but all are interested in the folklore of that wonderful country, its history and its peculiar legends.

In the congressional library, where everything literary can be found, the writer unearths a story which accounts for the weather which usually comes with St. Patrick's day. It is said that because Sheila, on the day following St. Patrick's day, cried all day in regretful expression of Ireland's patron saint having taken too hearty enjoyment of fervent liquor, therfore there is always a spitting of snow and a weeping of rain on the 18th day of March.

The statement is also made that "the Irish celebrate the 18th day of March, which follows St. Patrick's day, under the name 'Sheila's day. Who Sheila was is uncertain. Some assert that she was the wife, and others that she was the mother of St. Patrick. Hone says: 'All agree that her immortal memory is to be maintained by potations of whisky. The shamrock worn on St. Patrick's day should also be worn on Sheila day, and the shamrock is to be drowned in the last glass of liquor late at night."

All of this, while interesting, does not tell us who this mysterious Sheila was. Her memory is kept green not only by the annual potations, but also by a poem entitled:

TO SHEILA NI' GARA.

Out of the wind and out of the rain,
Sheila come to my arms again;
Close though your grave clothes wrap you round,
Come from your quiet underground.

Near your head though the rose root grows,
Out in the free air lifts the rose,
Sweet with sweetness that's half a pain,
Sheila, come to me once again.

The little green leaf that's one in three,
Will greener grow when you come to me,
The strong hill fern of your foot will be fain,
Sheila, come to me once again.

My door is open towards the night,
My hearth is waiting and warm and bright
Your children wait, of your coming fain—
Sheila, come to me once again.

But yet we have no knowledge from any source who Sheila was. It is admitted that St. Patrick had a mother, but neither history nor tradition demonstrates that he had a wife. Learned and literary Irishmen who celebrate Sheila's day admit that they cannot learn nor tell anything concerning this mysterious woman, but all believe that she was a substantial entity—a glorious woman in some way associated with the life and work of the great patron saint.

One writer, signing the name of Malone, which indicates his nativity, says: "In Ireland, the part from which I came, Sheila is the name applied to Irish women in general. It is simply a feminine of 'Pat,' as every Irishman is called. For instance, we would say: 'There goes a Patty,' or 'Hello, Pat,' whether his name is Pat or not, just as long as he is Irish; so we would say: 'There goes a Sheila,' or 'Hello, Sheila,' it being immaterial what her name is so long as she is Irish."

But that is only another view, or opinion, and there are as many views and opinions on this subject as there are Irishmen; but their views and opinions do not supply the missing facts concerning mysterious Sheila who has a substantial calendar day which is observed as faithfully by thousands of good people as they remember the authorized saints' days of the church.

So much for St. Patrick's day and Sheila, and for the revelations of the congressional library; and now as to the coming of spring. While other parts of the country are still snow-bound and ice-bound, our parks and lawns are beautifully clad with emerald mantles of lovely texture. The first certain harbinger of the renewal of life in the vegetable world is the coming of the trailing arbutus, Pennsylvania avenue being lightened and livened by the indescribably lovely pink blush lavishly displayed by curb-stone merchants and push-cart venders. Most of you know it well. Even earlier in the season, under the snow, it hides itself but blushes so modestly and prettily when you brush aside its icy robe.

In rocky New England they profess that in all the world there is not such a flower. One of their writers said: "Was ever such a tufted carpet spread beneath a hesitating foot? Even now, along the lichen-dappled walls upon the summit, I see the lingering strip of show, gritty and speckled; and at its very edge, hiding beneath the covering of leaves, those modest little faces looking out at me—faces which seem to blush a deeper pink at their rude discoverer. No other flower can breathe the perfume of the arbutus; that earthy, spicy fragrance, which seems as though distilled from the very leaf-mold at its roots." This beautiful rhapsody can be appreciated by those who have sought these charming clusters of baby pink and white with each recurring spring.

Spring will very soon also bring to us the delightful liverwort and fragrant columbine. This is the choice season of the year to visit this city and see its parks, trees and every phase of developing vegetation. About the rocky wooden slopes of our surrounding hills whole troops of laughing liverwort blossoms play bo-peep among the leaves, and they enjoy the fun themselves, for we can see their bonny faces dimpling with sheer merriment. Standing on one of the altitudes of the capitol dome, with a field glass, we can almost see their eyes, while we witness whole clumps of woodland blushing and laughing with the color of their cheeks.

And there comes the columbine, which is better known as honeysuckle. Over the hills there are troops of boys climbing after it, for every boy knows that it contains the sweetest of honey. Along the craggy ridges about Arlington there is nothing more attractive than the red blossoms of this vine, drooping from the many crevices. If each flower were posed by an artist it could not be more attractive, and the foliage is so delicately and clearly cut that one who thinks, as well as enjoys, wonders what is the power, and whence came the power, to bring about these marvels and miracles which are repeated quietly and unpretentiously before the eyes of mankind year after year.

But we are not satisfied to witness these glories from afar; we must go up into the land and possess them. Thus it happens that on Saturdays great crowds of boys and girls, young men and fair maidens, go tramping to the woods, hills, crags and ridges for the arbutus, columbine and liverwort. And it is said that the "weaker sex" just simply brings back the "sterner sex" all fagged out after the day is done.

A girl or woman in search of wild flowers never grows weary. She has a love for the beautiful which the average fellow, built for money-making and wage-earning, does not understand nor in half a sense appreciate. There are some men and youths who have a keen love for the beautiful, but even they have not more than a tithe of that which inspires the women and girls. Hence, they are puffing and blowing and wheezing, just when the women folks are beginning to enjoy the day's recreation. And they do say that those lovely creatures go to supper tables and eat like hired hands from the wheat and corn fields.

Wonder if Sheila ever gathered heather that way?

They call it heather beyond the sea. There was an Irish editor in this country who was a hard-hearted scoffer at everybody and everything. The news gatherers all believed that he was the chilliest and least sentimental thing that ever came over. But one spring day he carried a little package in his hand, and a misty look in his eyes, while his voice was tremulous, when he answered an inquiry, saying: "It's heather I have; just a bit of heather for the little ones at home." He said that it was grown in a hothouse here, and added, with a quaver: "It brings back home and boyhood to me, when the purple heather darkened each moor."

He had a heart, after all, and we all liked him better after that. Some of us even learned to love the man, because the coming of spring had brushed aside the ice and snow and permitted his real heart to peep forth like the modest trailing arbutus.

SHALL KNOW THEM.

Rev. Mr. Harney Talked on the Hope of Meeting Friends in Heaven.

A much larger audience than usual was present at the evangelistic meeting in Reform hall last evening and the congregation seemed to be very well pleased with the discourse given by Rev. Gilbert Harney. Miss Clara Mears sang at the beginning, "Let the good angels come in," and at the close, "Shall we know each other there?"

The subject chosen by Rev. Mr. Harney was "Shall we know our friends in Heaven?"

He called attention to the fact that one's hopes must be according to one's desires and tastes. When these are trained and controlled by Christ, hope is pure, unselfish and Christ-like. All should want to go to Heaven, not merely to keep out of Hell, but to be with Christ and their friends. All shall know no less there than here. Friends shall recognize each other, not from appearance but in the same way friends always know friends—by the spirits.

WILL ORGANIZE.

Meeting of Borough Board of Education Will Be Held This Evening.

The trustees of the North Plainfield schools will meet this evening in the Somerset street school building for the purpose of organization.

Superintendent Wightman will submit his report on the teachers' work during the past year. A few vacancies in the teaching corps are expected to arise, and these will most likely be filled immediately.

The only name mentioned in connection with the presidency of the board is that of S. St. John McCutchen, the present incumbent, and he will undoubtedly be re-elected. Slight changes in the makeup of the various committees will be made in order to give appointments to the newly elected member, James R. Joy. Dr. J. H. Cooley will be urged to continue in the capacity of chairman of the building committee, his services during the last year having given utmost satisfaction.

AT THE THEATRES.

Something About the Attractions Which Plainfield Theatre-Goers May Care Ito Witness.

Tomorrow night at Music Hall, the White Rats Association of America, will present their first entertainment of high-class, refined vaudeville, under the title of the big White Rats Carnival. It is probably well known by this time that the Rats are an organization composed of the leading vaudeville artists throughout the country, and has for its object the protection of the interests of their several members. The association is affiliated with the Knights of Labor, and this entitles them to hearing and patronage of all classes. But aside from this the entertainment announced for tomorrow is one that calls for more than passing mention. Headed by a fellow townsman, George Thatcher, the other performers who will appear, are representative "head liners" and such a gathering of star talent is seldom seen in the theatres outside the metropolis, and then only on extraordinary occasions. To accommodate those desiring to secure seats in advance, the box office at theatre, will remain open until 9 o'clock tonight.

The colored quarters on a southern plantation in old slavery days form the scene produced in Harry Martell's mammoth production, "South Before the War," which occupies the stage of Music Hall next Saturday afternoon and night. Buck and wing dancing, a cake walk for gold and silver medals, jubilee songs and dances, an old time colored camp meeting, past times on the levee are a few of the novelties offered. The performance of the play is the best representation of negro life on a plantation ever attempted and it is a pronounced hit wherever produced. It is absolutely unique and different from anything of the kind ever expected. The company number some fifty people who travel in their own palace car and who take part in a parade which starts at noon on day of performance.

In the character of Chuck Connors, in "The Stowaway," which will be presented by the Little Irene Myers Company at Music Hall Monday evening, Little Irene has made one of the greatest hits of her theatrical career. The character is that of an English newsboy, a very difficult one, requiring for its proper interpretation the Cockney dialect, which she is said to have mastered to perfection.

Night Was Her Terror.

It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

TROLLEY MAGNATES WORKING.

THE JOHNSON SYNDICATE IS PREPARING TO ENTER TRENTON.

Will Have an Overhead Track For the Through Traffic—Engineers Surveying Route.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, March 25 —Johnson Bros., the Ohions, who propose to build and operate a model through trolley system between New York and Philadelphia, and also a local line in this city, have already commenced to accept the options obtained some time ago on the properties along the west side of Calhoun street, where it is proposed to lay tracks. By the middle of April a gang of men will be put to work tearing down the dwellings acquired in the purchase and before the first of June all will be removed and the way made ready for laying the tracks.

Through this city the road will be a double track line, one elevated and one surface, so that only the width of a single track will be required. The through express cars will be run on the elevated road, while the surface line will be used for local passenger service exclusively.

The cars will be run in this order over the Calhoun street bridge and this will necessitate strengthening the present structure, which will be done by substituting iron supports in place of the wooden ones now used. An effort is being made to urge the company not to build nearer the street than the present building line of the properties adjoining those purchased.

Among those especially interested in this effort are the widow of the late General Stryker, Gen. S. D. Oliphant and Charles G. Roebling and others, residing on State street opposite C. H. Cook's lot, at the corner of Calhoun and West State streets, which the company has already agreed to buy. Mr. Cook, himself, is helping his neighbors as much as he possibly can. He is withholding the surrender of the deed to his property, while this matter is unsettled but, he is aware that, having made a contract with the company, it is beyond his power to dictate further.

HAD A WHEEL.

Moses Bender Identified it as His Property and Jones was Held for Grand Jury.

Walter Jones, a colored individual, who gained considerable fame and a prefix to his name a few years ago by appearing in the celebrated "conjunction" case, was arraigned before Justice Nash this morning charged with the theft of a bicycle from Moses Bender, of West Second street.

Jones was trundling the wheel along that street Saturday night when he was met by Patrolman Higgins, and in response to queries as to where he obtained it gave such conflicting replies that the officer decided to hold him. In court this morning Bender identified the wheel as his and stated that it was removed without his consent from the alley in the rear of his shop just off Park avenue.

Jones offered several flimsy excuses for having the wheel in his possession but none were accepted, and the Judge held him in $100 bail to await the action of the Grand Jury. Up to noon he had not succeeded in obtaining the required amount, and he will probably be taken to Elizabeth tomorrow.

Robson, of Boston, national secretary, only five days ago. It was prompt payment and speaks well for the order.

West Indian Hurricane.

The United States weather bureau has lately published a bulletin on West Indian hurricanes prepared by Prof. Garratt. A list of recorded hurricanes since 1493 is given and the tracks of recent hurricanes are mapped. It appears that the hurricane months are between July and October, although such storms may occur in every month of the year. An examination of the maps shows that in September the tracks of such storms approach very near to the eastern coast of Florida, while in the other months the tracks lie further to the east. The study of these storms is of importance to our own territory and not only to the West Indian islands. Porto Rico is, as is well known, subject to visitations of the sort.—Scientific American.

Odd Names for Girls.

In a volume of "Girls' Christian Names," recently compiled by Helena Swan, there are some that are decidedly queer and odd, but to which a girl or woman answers, and which have found their way into printed lists, as some of them have been coined expressly for their possessors. In Miss Swan's compilation "Bibiane," "Grizzie," "Creirdyddlydd," "Victoriola," "Yelett," "Ibbott," "Edilitrudis" appear. In this volume the history and derivation of several thousand names for girls are also given.—Golden Days.

Mikado as a Sportsman.

The mikado of Japan is a man of much energy and endurance, in spite of the fact that he is a great cigarette smoker. He is fond of outdoor sports and has warmly encouraged the introduction of football into Japan. He is a hunter and fisherman of no mean reputation, and is a good shot with a rifle. His devotion to lawn tennis is marked, and he is clever as a wielder of the racket.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Seven Were Immersed.

At the Park Avenue Baptist church last evening, Rev. J. W. Richardson preached an excellent sermon on "Baptist Heroes." It included noted Baptists from the biblical period down to those of modern times. At the close of the service seven new church members were immersed. They were Miss Elsie Giles, Miss Emily Runyon, Miss Annie Clark, Miss Mary Clark, Mrs. Frey, Herbert Brokaw and Mr. Johnson.

SHOULD CITY CONTROL WATER SUPPLY WORKS?

The Daily Press Will Give Tax Payers a Chance to Express Themselves on The Subject.

MANY PEOPLE AROUSED.

THE RAISING OF WATER SUPPLY BILLS CAUSES MUCH INDIGNATION.

People of City and Borough do Not Like It—What do They Want—Daily Press Will Try to Get Fair Expression of Opinion.

There is no doubt but that there is much dissatisfaction among the people of Plainfield and North Plainfield over the changes made in the amounts of the house rentals by the Plainfield Water Supply Company. The subject is being discussed at every hand. What do the people wish to do about it? Are they generally in favor of the municipal ownership of the water supply plant? These are questions which everybody wants to know and which the members of the Common Council are very desirous of having answered. Tomorrow The Daily Press will inaugurate a plan to secure a fair and general concensus of opinion regarding this much talked of question of municipal ownership.

There is not any doubt but that the people of Plainfield and North Plainfield are more thoroughly aroused over this question today than they have been on any other municipal problem that has presented itself in years. A majority ot the customers of the Plainfield Water Supply Company have had their bills increased. There are also a number who have had their bills reduced. The office of the water company during the last few days has been the Mecca for crowds of irate citizens in search of satisfaction. To all the explanation has been the same, the company has simply revised its accounts with its customers so as to make them all conform with the schedule of prices established when the company received its franchise from the city in 1891.

In the eyes of many, it is not a question as to whether or not there has been any increase in the schedule of prices, but simply that they have to pay more money for their daily supply of water and they don't like it. Some house holders have refused to pay it and declared their intention of moving elsewhere. In some cases, weary landlords have paid the extra charge to keep irate tenants.

If the people are not satisfied with the present arrangement, what do they want? Is it municipal ownership? That is what The Daily Press is going to try and discover. A plan has been perfected which will give every citizen and tax payer in city and borough a chance to express his or herself on the subject. The full details of this plan will be made public in these columns tomorrow.

The Daily Press favors the principle of municipal ownership. If it is the sentiment of the people of the city and borough that Plainfield should own its own water supply plant, then The Daily Press will use its best endeavors to see that it is secured. If you want to see the control of the water supply in the hands of the city instead of a private corporation, see that the attempt of The Daily Press to secure a general expression of opinion is furthered as much as lies in your power.

In addition to the attempt to secure an expression of opinion of the citizens of city and borough by ballot. The Daily Press will gladly open its columns to contributions of limited length on the subject, either for or against, provided the writers will sign their own names to the communications.

NEW JERSEY WHIST CONGRESS

WILL BE HELD IN ROOMS OF JERSEY CITY CLUB THIS WEEK.

Begins Thursday With Contest For Metropolitan Trophy Which is Now Held By Knickerbocker Club.

The whist four of the Park Club, of the borough, did not contest for the Metropolitan trophy Saturday as was expected. During the play for that trophy this winter, it has changed hands several times, going to the New Jersey Whist Club, then to the Brooklyn Whist Club and finally to the Knickerbocker Whist Club, of New York. The Parks were to play the Knickerbocker Club, but on account of the closeness of the annual congress of the New Jersey Whist Association, the match was given up.

The annual whist congress will be held at the rooms of the Jersey City Club, at Jersey City, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. As usual, it will be one of the events of the season in State whist circles and will see some great matches. The Park Club will be represented by its regular team: Arthur A Freeman Fred H. Freeman, Ralph T. Willis and Albert O. Woltmann.

The programme for the congress is as follows:

The Metropolitan trophy contest, which is between teams of four men of all clubs belonging to the American Whist Association, who are with a radius of 100 miles of New York city.

The preliminaries in this contest will begin Thursday evening at 7:30, and the semi-finals which will be played between the four teams having the four best scores, will be played Friday evening, and the finals Saturday evening.

Thursday evening there will also be held a pair contest, which is open to all members of the State Association.

Friday evening a progress match for fours will be played. This game is open to as many fours from each club in the State Association as desire to enter.

Saturday afternoon will be the usual compass contest and is open to al members of the New Jersey Whist Association and their friends, together with the members of the women's whist clubs in this State and the clubs in the Metropolitan Association. Last year there were 180 contestants in the game, and from present indications the game next Saturday afternoon will be larger.

Saturday evening a progressive contest of pairs will be played upon a compass method between members of the State Association.

Missionary Meeting.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Crescent Avenue church will hold a foreign and home missionary meeting Friday evening, at which time prominent speakers will address the meeting.

ANTI-SPRING ELECTION LAW IS SUSTAINED.

Court of Errors And Appeals Decided That Meeker Act Is Perfectly Constitutional.

BY A VOTE OF 12 TO 1.

VOTE TAKEN AFTER BRIEF CONFERENCE OF THE COURT YESTERDAY.

Judge Vroom, of Trenton, Was Only Member of The Court Who Voted Against It—Decision Dispells Much Anxiety on Part of Republicans.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, March 26.—The Court of Errors and Appeals by a vote of 12 to 1 yesterday sustained the constitutionality of the Meeker act abolishing spring elections. The vote was taken after a brief conference of the court yesterday morning. Judge G. D. W. Vroom, of this city, who was recently appointed a member of the court, alone voted in the negative. The opinion of the court will be filed within a few days by Chief Justice Depue, while Judge Vroom will write a dissenting opinion. The decision finally disposes of the constitutionality of the act, which was sustained in a pro forma judgment rendered in the Supreme Court. The court's decision dispels all anxiety as to the somewhat grave complications which would have followed an adverse decision, in view of the fact that it would have been almost impossible to hold elections this spring at the usual time, which is only two weeks distant.

The Meeker act provides for the extension of the terms of present elective and appointive city officials until January 1 of the year following the one in which their terms would otherwise expire.

NEIGHBORS AT WAR.

Mary Vitalo Charged With Clubbing Mrs. Hanna Murphy With a Base Ball Bat.

Mary Vitalo, an Italian woman, living in Morse's row, on West Fourth street, attacked Mrs. Anna Murphy, a neighbor, it is alleged, with a base ball bat yesterday. The Vitalo woman succeeded in disfiguring Mrs. Murphy's head. A warrant for her arrest was sworn out yesterday afternoon.

Justice Nash sat at police headquarters this morning for the purpose of hearing the case, but Lawyer Walter L. Hetfield, who has been retained by the defendant, asked for a postponement on the ground that he had not had sufficient time to prepare his case. Justice Nash adjourned the hearing until Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

DEATH OF YOUNG WOMAN

Miss Mary Ennis Passed Away After Fatal Attack of Pneumonia.

Miss Mary Ennis, aged 20 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ennis, of Ashland, Schuylkill county, Pa., died last night at the home of Mrs. Pliny Fisk, West Seventh street, where she has been employed for some time past. Death was due to pneumonia.

During the latter part of her sickness her parents have been with her and every effort was made to effect recovery. The remains were shipped this morning by P. Casey & Son, undertakers, to Ashland, where the funeral services will be held at the convenience of the family.

SETTLING CLAIMS.

Peculiar Law Suit Has Resulted From Fire Which Destroyed the Chapot Glove Factory.

An interesting suit has resulted from the Chapot fire which occurred last fall. It is between John R. Marsh and the Etna and Home Insurance Companies, and was agreed upon between the parties as the most amicable way of settling their differences.

Marsh held a mortgage on the Chapot factory for $5 000 and as collateral security had two insurance policies of $2 500, one in each of the companies named. The policies were payable to Marsh in case of fire as his interest might appear. Since the fire the companies have refused to settle until he established what his interests were by virtue of his mortgage in the premises. Marsh accordingly began suit through Lawyer R. M. Clark in the Court of Chancery in order to establish the amount of his claim against the insurance people.

TEACHERS TO MEET PARENTS.

RECEPTION GIVEN BY TEACHERS OF THE PLAINFIELD HIGH SCHOOL.

Will Be Held In Franklin Building Tomorrow Afternoon—Addresses By H. M. Maxson and Dr. E. W. Hedges.

The informal reception and afternoon tea to be tendered to the parents of the Plainfield High School pupils by the teachers in the chapel of Franklin School tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock promises to be a very successful affair. Invitations have been sent to a great many parents and the responses will undoubtedly be many.

The subject of the affair is to bring the parent and teacher in closer touch and the need of this has been felt for some time past. "The Home and the School" has been selected by Superintendent H. M. Maxson, as an appriate topic for his address to the guests.

A matter interesting to both parents and teachers will be the subject of an address by Dr. Ellis W. Hedges. He will speak on "Right Conditions of Health for High School Teachers."

The committee of teachers having charge of arrangements are A. B. Meredith and Miss S. Lena Bass. The various classes of the High School held meetings yesterday and appointed committees to decorate the chapel for the affair. The members of the committee representing the respective classes are: Senior class, Miss Elsie Smith, W. H Titus and C. A. Brooks; Junior class, Miss Mary VanDeventer, Harold Nomer and Frederick Lounsbury; Third class, the Misses Florence Martin and Dorothy Waldo, and J. Hervey Doane; Fourth class, the Misses Jean Douglass, Jessie Burt and May Batchelor, and Harold Davis.

NO ACTION TAKEN.

Large Attendance at Meeting of Board of Governors of Hospital, But Committee Didn't Report.

Nearly every member of the Board of Governors of Muhlenberg Hospital was present at the meeting of the board last evening with the expectation that some action would be taken on a site for the new hospital buildings. The committee on sites, of which DeWitt C. Ivins was chairman, was not ready to make a report, however, so the meeting proved to be a very uneventful one, only routine business being transacted.

The committee on sites has a number of possible locations in view, including the site offered the board by James E. Martine. The weather of late has not given the members of the committee the chance to personally look over these sites that they wished, so they were not ready to give a decisive report last night. Rather than give an incomplete report, the committee announced that it would merely report progress and report in full at some other meeting.

Funeral of Mrs. Giebelhouse.

The funeral services of Mrs. George Giebelhouse were held from St. Mary's church this morning with many relatives and friends in attendance. Rev. Father J. A McGeary officiated. The floral tributes were numerous and handsome. The pall bearers were Messrs. Holden, Bowlen, Schoepher and Giebelhouse. At the conclusion of the service the remains were taken to Woodlawn, N. Y., for interment.

Horse Died From Neglect.

Jacob Bergen was found by Patrolman Gamo, last evening, on Cottage place in a drunken stupor. A horse, he had been driving, died during the night from Bergen's neglect of the animal. City Judge Runyon, at the hearing this morning, was of the opinion that the loss of a horse and a night's detention in the police headquarters was sufficient punishment and he discharged Bergen.

MILLION AND A HALF OF TROLLEY BONDS.

Elizabeth, Plainfield and Central Jersey Railway Co. Placed Its Bonds on Market at Premium.

BONDS PAY FIVE PER CENT.

PRESIDENT YOUNG TELLS OF FRANCHISES COMPANY OWNS.

Also Hints of Net Earnings Which He Pictures Are Very Great—Bright Prospect Ahead of Company at Present.

The Elizabeth, Plainfield and Central Jersey Railway Company, of which the Plainfield Street Railway Company forms an important link, has placed on the market $1 400,000 worth of 5 per cent. 50 year bonds, quoted at 102½ and interest. The bonds are for sale by Graham, Kerr & Co., of Philadelphia; Redmond, Kerr & Co., of New York and The Fidelity Trust Co., of Newark.

The company pictures the investment in the most glowing terms, stating that their franchises are practically perpetual and that the road is now paying richly with larger prospects in the future The following letter from the president, David Young, may be of interest to Plainfielders and prove an important factor when concessions are asked for in the future:

"The Elizabeth, Plainfield and Central Jersey Railway Co. was formed by a consolidation of six street railway companies, owning 59 miles of trolley roads and serving the following cities and towns in Central New Jersey: Elizabeth, Roselle, Cranford, Westfield, Clark, Rahway, Fanwood, Plainfield, Woodbridge, North Plainfield and Sewarren.

"The population of these cities and towns, according to the last U. S. Census, was 104 106 In addition the interurban population very considerably increases this number.

"The company forms one of the three largest railway systems which control and operate practically all the trolley roads in northern and central New Jersey.

"The bonds are secured by a first lien upon the property of the company, including real estate, equipment, franchises, and all other property now owned or hereafter acquired, subject, however to $100,000 of bonds of the Plainfield Street Railway Co., which bonds are subject to call in 1904 and which are a prior lien on only 13½ miles of the property of this company. Upon their retirement the Elizabeth, Plainfield and Central Jersey Railway Company bonds will be an absolute lien upon the entire property.

"The present issue constitutes less than 70 per cent of the actual cost of the properties acquired.

"The property is in excellent physical condition, a large portion of the track being practically new, and the rood is amply equipped with cars in first-class condition. The company owns considerable real estate, on which are situated car barns, offices and other necessary buildings. The company also owns in fee the right of way for its tracks granted by owners of property for a considerable portion of its line, thus securing protection for the company in the future and insuring the permanency of its franchises.

"The franchises of the company are of great value and are practically perpetual, and cover not only the highly remunerative and well-established street railway business of Elizabeth and Plainfield, but likewise include other popular towns, ten in all, in Northern and Central New Jersey. These franchises are extremely comprehensive and provide not only for the present business of the Company, but also for the rounding out of the system and for the warding off of possible competition.

"The net earnings of the combined companies, while operated under separate management, were more than sufficient to meet all fixed charges upon the present issue of bonds. As a result of the consolidation and the improved management made possible thereby, these earnings will undoubtedly show a very large increase in the future."

Permit For Fine Residence.

Building Inspector T. O. Doane has granted a permit for the erection of a $45,000 residence on West Eighth street, west of Plainfield avenue. The dwelling will be the home of Mrs. Lincoln, of New York. John Abbott has secured the contract for the carpentry work and Wm. Pangborn for the masonry.

SUPREME COURT TO REVIEW IT

TIER-BENNER CASE IS STILL BEING FOUGHT IN COURTS.

This Time Lawyer Clark Managed to Get Case Certioraried Into the Supreme Court to be Reviewed.

Lawyer R M. Clark, of this city, scored a point against his opponents in the Tier-Benner case yesterday when Judge VanSyokel granted a writ of certiorari which removes the proceedings to the State Supreme Court. The matter will now undoubtedly come to a speedy settlement. Although but involving a small amount, it has already been tried several times.

The case had its origin on January 19 when Lawyer Clark, acting for William Tier, brought suit against John A. Brenner before Justice Moffett for a bill and received judgment for $31.80, interest and costs. An execution was issued and Constable Weaver went to the premises of the defendant and made a levy. On February 13, John W. Benner, the defendant's son, Mrs. Lizzie Zimmer and H. Clawson & Son served notice claiming separate sets of chattels which took in all those levied upon. All three then instituted suit before Justice Huff to establish their title.

At the time the case was tried Clark objected to its being tried on the ground that the three had no right to combine, that the justice's docket was defective, that Benner's son being a minor had no right to serve notice individually, and that Clawson & Son could not claim the goods by virtue of a chattel mortgage. Justice Huff ruled against Clark in every point, and a jury found they owned the goods as claimed. The matter was then laid before Judge VanSyckel who made known his decision yesterday.

STREET WORK IN BOROUGH.

CAMPAIGN FOR COMING SUMMER WILL SOON BE PLANNED.

Petitions for Macadamizing Streets in Order to be Effective, Will Have to Reach Committee Soon.

A meeting of the street committee of the North Plainfield Council will be held in the Council chamber tomorrow evening. The members of the committee, as at present constituted, are Messrs. Clark, Northrop and Coddington. There is much business of importance to occupy the attention of the committee at this time.

At the next meeting of the Council special notice will be taken of street work. It is the desire of the committee that all property owners who wish any improvements made on streets upon which their properties abut should make early petition to the Councilmanic body for such work as may be deemed necessary.

The petitions should be filed prior to the next meeting on April 5, so that proper arrangements may then be made for the improvements desired. The earlier petitions will receive first attention and as the appropriation for such work is fixed the improvements will be stopped when that fund is exhausted.

The work on Somerset street will be done first and then other streets will be attended to in the order in which the petitions are received. It is known that a number of the streets will have to be gone over, and therefore the advisability of early action on the part of property owners can be readily seen.

Improving City Streets.

The work of resurfacing Plainfield avenue, from West Front street to the railroad bridge, has been commenced by Contractor C. M. Meeker. A force of men and a steam roller are engaged at present, and on its completion the finishing touches will be given to the macadam on West Front street, between Central and Grant avenues, which was put down last fall. Owing to the lateness of the season the top-dressing was not added and this will now be done.

Automobile Club Coming.

The Automobile Club of New Jersey proposes to make a run to this city Sunday April 14. The members will dine at a local hotel before leaving on the return trip.

Getting Ready to Publish.

The stockholders of The Evening Times, the new Democratic Elizabeth daily, will meet this evening to make arrangements for issuing the paper.

BOROUGH BOARD OF EDUCATION ORGANIZED

S. St. John McCutchen Was Elected President of Board —The Committees.

FEW CHANGES IN THE SAME.

BOROUGH MAY GET MORE MONEY FROM THE STATE.

As a Result of the Change of Method of Dividing Appropriation—Will Give Out All Business at Board Meetings Hereafter.

The Borough Board of Education met last evening in the Somerset Street school building and perfected an organization. Samuel St. John McCutchen made an address on his re-election to the presidency of the Board and also announced the various committees.

Mr. McCutchen, in accepting the presidency, said that the expenses of the school should receive careful attention and be kept as low as they possibly could be without damaging the present efficiency of the schools. He announced that the borough is likely to receive an unexpected sum over $1,000 by reason of the law enacted Friday by the Legislature which bases the appropriation to schools on the attendance instead of on the census as heretofore. Mr. McCutchen expressed the wish that any money thus received should be retained this year and be placed as a balance on hand in the treasurer'r report for the year.

Robert Fountain succeeded himself as clerk of the board and his salary was placed at the usual figure, $200. The report of Superintendent Wightman, on the work of the teachers, was received and placed in the hands of the teachers' committee. The committee had not received the resignation of Miss Alice Thompson as yet but as soon as Miss Thompson desires to leave the vacancy will be filled.

The subject of truancy was discussed at some length and the facts, of one particular case, were submitted to Former Mayor John H. VanWinkle, a member of the board, who will furnish a legal opinion in the matter. It was determined that a physician's certificate will be required of the parent in case any pupil, should frequently give sickness as an excuse for absence. This was determined upon as the best method of meeting the evasion of the school law in this respect. The board decided to hereafter furnish the public with full information, when requested, as to any matters of moment, transpiring at the board meetings.

The committees appointed by President McCutchen are: Finance, McGee, Hallock and Fountain; teachers and text books, McCutchen, Honeyman, McGee and Joy; supplies, Fountain, Overton and Cooley; grievances, VanWinkle, Cooley and Honeyman; auditing, Hallock and Overton; buildings and grounds, Cooley, Overton and VanWinkle.

The only changes in the make up of the committees are: Cooley, as chairman of buildings and grounds, in place of Waring, whose term has expired, VanWinkle, as chairman of grievence committee, in place of Cooley and Joy, the new member is added to teachers and supplies committee.

GUTTER GAVE WAY.

John Cose Had a Fall of Twenty Feet as a Result and was Seriously Injured.

John Cose, a slater, living at the corner of Spooner avenue and West Fourth street, sustained serious injuries yesterday afternoon while at work on Woodull & Martin's new barn now in course of construction on Washington avenue.

Mr. Cose was putting slate on the roof and in moving about he rested his feet on a galvanized gutter that he thought was secure. The gutter gave way and Cose fell a distance of twenty feet. His nose was broken and he sustained internal injuries. He was taken home at once and a physician summoned. While Mr. Cose's injuries are very painful and quite serious, it is not believed that they will prove fatal. He will be laid up for some time.

LITERARY.

Scribner's Magazine for April, in addition to articles of travel, adventure and art, by Walter A. Wyckoff, John Fox, Edwin Lord Weeks and others, contains six short stories, three of them by new writers and three by writers whose work is familiar. On its art side this number is also rich and varied. It has a colored cover by Foringer. It contains eight pages of illustrations by Frederic Dorr Steele, reproduced in color in a novel way to illustrate the story of a "Blue Ribbon Horse." The frontispiece, which is a very delicate pen-and-ink drawing by Pelxotto, is reproduced with a tint; Edwin Lord Weeks, the traveler and artist, contributes a very elaborate illustrated article on "Two Centres of Moorish Art" which reveals his wonderful skill as a painter of Oriental subjects. Among the other artists are Christy, Yohn, Will H Low and Henry McCarter. Altogether, both in the beauty and richness of its illustrations and in the variety of its contents, this is a spring number of extraordinary attractiveness

Richard Harding Davis' "The Princess Aline" in dramatized form, illustrated by Charles Dana Gibson, is a feature of the April Ladies' Home Journal. "The Beautiful Jewess Who Was Called the Princess of Her People" and "The Lovers of a Cheerful Giver" are two other articles of interest in the same issue. Miss Griscom, the American woman golf champion, shows "How Golf is Played" in a series of photographs. Edward Bok further emphasizes the value of simpler living, and Helen Watterson Moody offers guidance through "The First Tragedy in a Girl's Life." "A Stucco Country House for $7 500," "A Shingled Country House for $2,500," and "Some Artistic Little Homes," have a practical value to those planning to build homes. There are three short stories by Gelett Burgess, W. A. Fraser and Laura Spencer Portor Much space is devoted to fashions, and there are articles on gardening, the lawn, floriculture, cooking, etc. By the Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia. One dollar a year; ten cents a copy.

TEA TABLE TALK.

Short and Cossipy Sketches That Are Not Always News, But Just as Interesting.

The report of the Hospital Book and Newspaper Society recently published must interest many Plainfielders. It shows that 7,046 books, 28,000 magazines, 51 841 weekly and illustrated papers and 270,000 newspapers were distributed to the inmates of the various hospitals and public institutions during the past year. The boxes provided by the society for the reception of discarded reading matter at the Liberty street ferry, the large box on the right and small one on the left have been used by many railroad travelers who, instead of throwing away the book or paper that has beguiled the journey has simply put it in these receptacles and it has gone on its way of entertainment and instruction to the unfortunate, perhaps the erring.

A continued practice will ultimately become a set habit and this is true both as regards speech and action. People grow accustomed to various stereotyped expressions in word and action and this is performed unconsciously. A story is told of a man, who after taking a bath dried himself with his newspaper and sat down to read his towel, and this reminds one of a young Plainfielder who is an automobile enthusiast. He is frequently riding about and the actions used in controlling his auto have been second nature to him. One day this winter while skating another fellow, gliding over the ice, crossed his path. In his hurry to prevent an accident the automobilist instinctively raised his right leg and brought his skate down heavily on the ice. The method of stopping an automobile with the brake, he had unconsciously used.

—The lingering cough following grippe calls for One Minute Cough Cure. For all throat and lung troubles this is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Prevents consumption. L. W. Randolph.

—Several recent converts are expected to come before the First Baptist church tomorrow evening at the mid week prayer-meeting for membership

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry VanMiddlesworth and Mr. and Mrs. Lindsley Woolley, of Elmwood place, moved today to Plainfield avenue, in one of Miss Ella Serrell's houses.

—Prof. Ivison, of Lonaconing, Md., suffered terribly from neuralgia of the stomach and indigestion for thirteen years and after the doctors failed to cure him they fed him on morphine. A friend advised the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and after taking a few bottles of it he says: "It has cured me entirely, I can't say too much for Kodol Dyspepsia Cure." It digests what you eat. L. CHINA'S ABILITY.

Ministers Investigate Before Fixing Amount of Indemnity.

PEKING, March 26.—The special committee of ministers appointed to consider the question of China's ability to meet the indemnity claims is already well forward with the work of investigating the resources of the empire. Sir Robert Hart, director general of the imperial maritime customs, has been examined, as have also the managers of representative Chinese banks, many pawnbrokers and other Chinese financiers. The consular reports for a number of years back have been closely read.

It now appears that from all sources the annual revenue aggregates about $65,000,000 in gold, derived from the land tax, the grain tax, the likin, the customs, the opium tax and miscellaneous imports. The largest two items are the land tax, which brings in $14,000,000, and the foreign customs, which yields $12,000,000.

In the opinion of all the foreigners who have participated in the examination the land tax could be doubled and even trebled without much hardship, and the salt tax could be raised from $6,000,000 to $20,000,000.

It is believed that the total increase could be made to amount to $150,000,000. If, then, the imperial expenses could be reduced to $45,000,000, there would be left available for the liquidation of the interest on loans and the indemnity fund the sum of $105,000,000.

Making all allowances, it would be possible to pay the indemnity within 20 years.

HANNA TALKS.

Prosperity Everywhere—Bright Outlook—On Private Business.

NEW YORK, March 26.—"Prosperity rules everywhere in the country. Money is being put into new enterprises, trade is increasing, labor is in demand, from one part of the country to the other the mills and factories are in full operation." So said Senator Mark A. Hanna at the Waldorf-Astoria last night.

"More than that," he continued, "the outlook is even brighter than the existing conditions. Signs all over the country point not only to the maintenance of the prosperity of which I have spoken, but to its increase. The volume of trade is constantly growing, and our products find a ready market."

The senator spent a busy day yesterday. He made several calls in different parts of the city and during the morning visited the offices of J. Pierpont Morgan. The purpose of his call upon Mr. Morgan he declined to say anything about. "I am not in the habit of discussing my private business affairs publicly," he said. The report published in an afternoon paper that he had agreed to dispose of his shipping interests to the United States Steel corporation was shown to him. "That paper," he said, "is away behind. I sold out my shipping interests two years ago."

Senator Hanna will remain in this city probably until tomorrow, when he will return to Washington. He denied the report that it was his intention to take a trip to Europe shortly.

The Rice Estate In Texas.

HOUSTON, March 26.—F. A. Rice, brother of William Marsh Rice, deceased, has been appointed permanent administrator of the estate in Texas. His bond was fixed at $300,000. The latter came up on the application of O. T. Holt, administrator of the estate of Mrs. W. M. Rice, for letters on the Rice estate, which he alleges is indebted in a large sum to the estate of which he is administrator. James A. Baker, Jr., the temporary administrator, is the attorney for F. A. Rice, as he was the attorney for William Rice.

The trip is taken by Mr. Heath for the purpose of securing a rest, and most of the time will be spent in Italy. During his absence from the city the headquarters of the Republican national committee in this city opened after the November election will be closed and will remain so for some time.

FIGHTING IS RESUMED

British Defeat Delarey and Capture Convoy.

MANY BOERS KILLED AND WOUNDED.

Boer Resistance Not Likely to Be Crushed Out For Some Months. Kruger Said to Have Suggested Terms.

LONDON, March 26.—The war office has received the following dispatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, March 25:

"Babington's force, including Shekleton's column, attacked Delarey, 1,500 strong, southwest of Ventersdorp and, having defeated him, followed him up rapidly, with the result that the Boer rearguard was driven in and their convoy, including the guns, captured at Vaalbank.

"Our troops displayed great gallantry and dash. They captured two 15 pound guns, one pompom, six Maxims, 320 rounds of big ammunition, 15,000 rounds of small ammunition, 160 rifles, 53 wagons and 24 carts, besides taking 140 prisoners.

"Our losses were slight. Many Boers were killed or wounded."

The official casualty list issued last evening indicates a renewal of active operations since the failure of the negotiations between Lord Kitchener and General Botha. At Hartebeestfontein March 22 and March 23 two officers were killed and three wounded and about four men killed and 20 wounded. There also seems to have been heavy fighting at a place near Gredgedacht March 18 and near Ventersburg March 16.

Ventersdorp, the scene of the defeat of Delarey, is about 25 miles northeast from Hartebeestfontein. It is possible, therefore, that the advices as to fighting at these points really refer to the same engagement.

The Pretoria correspondent of The Standard says that it is obvious some months must pass before Boer resistance can be crushed.

The Amsterdam correspondent of The Daily Express says he understands that Mr. Kruger has advised Acting President Schalkburger to formulate peace terms.

French Troops Guard Mines.

MONTCEAU-LES-MINES, France, March 26.—An extraordinary scene was witnessed yesterday in Montceau-les-Mines, where a mining strike has been in progress for several months, when the government took the unusual step of utilizing troops to insure liberty of work to nonstrikers. Heretofore a large number of men willing to work had been intimidated by the menacing demonstrations of the strikers, who call themselves "reds" and the nonstrikers "yellows." Early in the morning strong detachments of infantry and cavalry were unexpectedly massed at pit heads in various parts of the town. Before the "reds" realized the situation bodies of "yellows" had descended into the mines. The strikers assembled quickly, but were overawed by the troops. It was feared that there would be trouble when the "yellows" left the mines for the day. During the afternoon an immense and threatening crowd assembled, but the strikers were helpless in the face of the rigorous precautions taken.

Kind Hearted Burglars.

PITTSBURG, March 26.—Rev. Henry T. McClelland, member of the freedman's board of missions, former professor of theology at the Western Theological seminary and one of the best known Presbyterian divines in the country, had a sensational encounter with burglars Sunday night. The robbers, three in number, partook of luncheon down stairs before proceeding to operations up stairs. When the doctor was awakened and opened his bedroom door, he was confronted by two revolvers, and one of the men behind the guns said, "You'll die if you don't keep quiet." The men then entered the bedroom, and while two of them held revolvers pointed at Dr. and Mrs. McClelland the third ransacked the room, but got little for their pains outside of $5.81 missionary money. When the captain of the robbers discovered he was in a clergyman's house, he apologized and allowed Dr. McClelland to keep his gold watch, which was a valued present.

New Limited Trains to Chicago.

CHICAGO, March 26.—The Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad company announces that it will place in service early in April new limited trains between Chicago, Buffalo and New York. Each train will consist of a baggage car, buffet library cars, dining car, drawing room sleeping cars and an observation compartment car. All conveniences known to modern railroad travel will be utilized on the trains. They will be lighted throughout with electricity, and each section will be provided with a reading lamp that will enable passengers to read after retiring for the night. A maid as well as a porter will be in attendance in every car.

Court Critics Punished.

ATLANTIC CITY, March 26.—Former Senator William L. Newell and Hugh Collins, proprietor and editor respectively of the Pleasantville Press, were each sentenced to 60 days' imprisonment for contempt of court in publishing a series of articles criticising the court and the public prosecutor. To Mr. Newell's sentence was added a fine of $1,000. Collins was also fined $500, and the term of imprisonment was temporarily suspended.

Cashier Getty Dead.

HOOSICK FALLS, N. Y., March 26.—Addison Getty, cashier of the First National bank, died suddenly yesterday, aged 52 years, of acute indigestion. He left the bank apparently well at 1 o'clock and died four hours later. He was prominent in business and banking circles, and his estate is estimated at $70,000.

Important Naval Changes.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Two important naval changes have been announced at the navy department. Captain F. W. Dickens has been assigned to the command of the cruiser Brooklyn on the Asiatic station, relieving Captain C. M. Thomas, transferred to the command of the Oregon.

Students Killed In Korea.

LONDON, March 26.—At Intschau, Korea, collisions have occurred between the people and missionary students, according to the St. Petersburg correspondent of The Daily Mail, and several students have been killed or wounded.

A DEADLY TORNADO.

Alabama Towns Are In Shapeless Ruins.

APPALLING LIST OF DEAD AND INJURED

Birmingham Hit Hard—Twenty-five Killed—Scores Hurt, Many of Them Fatally—Heavy Loss of Property.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 26.—The fearful tornado which swept over the southern section of this city yesterday morning caused fearful destruction to life and property.

The number of killed is estimated at 25. Only five of them are white. The destruction of property is placed at $250,000. Eighteen bodies have been recovered from the debris already, and scores of injured have been removed to the hospitals.

The storm destroyed more than 200 homes, the greater part of which were occupied by the negro families. The dwellings were as if they were made of paper. Dr. G. C. Chapman, a leading physician, alighted from his buggy, seeing the heavy clouds, and went into Minter's grocery store on the Highlands to escape the rain. The store was torn down, and the doctor was killed, as was W. P. Dickerson, who was with him. Dr. R. V. Mobley, another physician, was on the Highlands responding to a call when the wind came along and picked his horse and buggy up as if they were toys and tumbled them over and over. He now lies in a precarious condition. The residence of the Hon. Robert J. Lowe, state chairman of the Democratic party, was shattered like an eggshell. His wife and infant son were killed instantly. The residence of Professor Fred L. Grambs was torn asunder, and his wife and mother-in-law were hurt.

The dead are Dr. G. C. Chapman, Mrs. Robert J. Lowe, infant child of Mrs. Lowe, J. Alexander, little daughter of B. B. Hudson, F. Myro, colored, collector Union Mutual association of Mobile; Carrie Hudson, colored; Maggie Blevins, colored; Carrie Henry, colored; Lizzie Glenn, colored; cook for B. B. Hudson, colored; unknown carpenter, struck by flying lumber.

The fatally injured are Mrs. B. H. Thomas, Mrs. W. H. Thomas, Mrs. D. D. McLaughlin, Mrs. J. Ferguson, Mrs. Mylum and Carrie Elin, colored.

The storm struck the city in the extreme southwestern corner and plowed its way eastward, leaving a path 150 feet wide through the entire southern section extending from Green Springs on the west to Avondale on the east and continued its course on until its fury was spent in the mountains beyond Irondale, a small town six miles east of the city.

Clouds began to gather, and shortly after 9 o'clock sharp lightning flashed from the southwest. The air became heavy and stifling. The velocity of the wind suddenly began to increase, and soon from out of the overcast sky the dreaded funnel shaped cloud made its descent. Hugging close to the earth, it passed through the city in leaps and bounds with terrific force and was away to the east before people generally realized what had happened.

The altitude of the cyclone was not more than 75 feet. The negro shanties and cottages in the lowlands in the path of the storm were the principal sufferers. The larger residences on the higher ground suffered only slightly. The large trees on the hillside of St. Vincent's hospital were torn up by the roots, and large masses of stone were twisted out of the ground and broken and scattered all over the driveways of the entrance to the institution.

Continuing in an eastward direction, the storm swept everything in its path of 75 yards in width until it passed beyond the city limits and struck the Lake View hotel about Thirty-fourth street. There were no houses of any description in its path after it had passed the city limits, and consequently there was no damage until it reached Avondale. Just south of Avondale a number of persons were seriously injured and many houses badly damaged.

Onward the cyclone swept, and at Irondale again repeated its work of destruction. Houses and fences were leveled to the ground, and up to this writing several bodies have been recovered. A number of injured were reported, and great property loss was entailed.

Bessemer, Pratt City, Ensley, North Birmingham and other suburban towns were visited by the storm, and in each of these places much destruction was wrought, but no loss of life is reported. Many houses were demolished at Pratt City, including a number of churches.

At Powderly there was also much damage and destruction, and at Cleveland Mrs. George Hatt was struck by lightning and will probably die.

Birmingham, a city of 38,000 inhabitants, is situated in Jones valley, Jefferson county, Ala. The valley lies between two ranges of hills running northeast to southwest and is from two to five miles in width. Within ten of the city there are nearly a score of small mining towns ranging in population from a few hundred to 6,000.

Jones valley is frequently visited by cyclones and severe windstorms in early spring. In 1883 a storm that passed within five miles of the city through a thinly settled section of hills blew down every tree and house in its path for a distance of seven miles and a width of one mile. North Birmingham is a residence suburb two miles from the city. It contains a large park, but the population is small.

House and Cotton Mill Wrecked.

ROME, Ga., March 26.—A rain and hail storm raged here yesterday morning for an hour. Several business houses had their fronts blown in and their stocks ruined. No fatalities have been reported. Six inches of rain fell in four hours, according to the weather observer. At Chambers, six miles from Rome, the gale blew down J. A. Rounsaville's home and wrecked the cotton mill and three barns belonging to Rounsaville and brother. Many head of live stock were killed.

Floods In Wisconsin.

MILWAUKEE, March 26.—The heavy rains and thaw throughout Wisconsin for the past three days has caused high water in many places throughout the state, and business has been interrupted temporarily at least. Sheboygan, Oshkosh, Fond du Lac, Saukville and this city are having the worst experiences. The flood in the Menominee river is higher than for years past, and several of the factories in this city are unable to operate.

Cyclone In Michigan.

DETROIT, March 26.—A special to The Tribune from Kalamazoo, Mich., says that a cyclone struck the town of Pavilion, a small village about 25 miles southeast of Kalamazoo, which wrecked a number of houses, uprooted trees, tore down telegraph poles and did much other damage. One woman, who was ill in one of the houses blown down, is reported fatally hurt and many others injured.

Train Blown From the Track.

COLUMBUS, Ga., March 26.—A tornado struck a Central of Georgia passenger train two miles below Buena Vista, Ga., yesterday afternoon and blew it from the track. The engine was derailed, and several cars were turned over on an embankment. The train was traveling 15 miles an hour. No one was killed, and there were only a few slight injuries among trainmen and passengers.

COURT MARTIAL IN MANILA.

Halterman Case on Trial—Officers and Bolomen Surrender.

MANILA, March 26. — Lieutenant Colonel Huggins of the Third cavalry, Major Greenough of the Seventh artillery, Major Robinson of the Twenty-seventh infantry and Lieutenant Winship of the Twenty-ninth infantry as judge advocate compose the military commission which is trying the Halterman case. It is attracting great attention. The evidence against the accused is strong.

There have been no further developments in the case of D. M. Carman, the American contractor charged with aiding the insurgents and who was recently released on $10,000 bail. He has sufficiently recovered from the illness with which he was stricken after his arrest to be at his office and is now attending to business.

Colonel Murray of the Forty-third infantry has received the surrender of 7 officers and 32 rifles and also of 52 bolomen at Takloban, island of Leyte.

Ninety Miles For Five Cents.

NEW YORK, March 26.—An eight track trolley line between Jersey City and Philadelphia, with cars propelled at the rate of 60 miles an hour and a 5 cent fare from city line to city line, is the ultimate plan of Albert L. Johnson, the railroad contractor. Mr. Johnson announced yesterday at his office in the Empire building that he had ordered sufficient steel rails to lay 50 miles of trolley track for his new line, the Philadelphia, Trenton and Lehigh Valley railroad. "The new railroad is not merely projected," said Mr. Johnson, "but it is being actually constructed. I have bought an iron bridge across the Delaware at Trenton and have 300 men at work grading between Trenton and Philadelphia."

Brave Seamen Rewarded.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Through M. de Lanessan, the minister of marine of the French republic, the navy department has just received two beautiful silver medals and diplomas awarded to H. Ausseress and Patrick Mullen, sailors on the United States battleship Kentucky, in recognition of courage and devotion exhibited by them on Nov. 11 in the port of Algiers in rescuing four French sailors whose boat had capsized. The two Kentucky sailors leaped overboard from their ship and held up the men in the water until help arrived and they were taken aboard.

Trains Still Snowbound.

OMAHA, March 26.—Contrary to reports that the four snowbound overland trains at Ogallala, Neb., had been released special telegrams from that city yesterday afternoon say the trains are still side tracked. The passengers are being well cared for at the hotels and on board the trains. Although the storm has abated somewhat, the wind continues to blow a gale, and snow plows have made little progress in opening the roads. President Burt of the Union Pacific and a party of friends are also blockaded here aboard their private car.

Railroad Wreck at Poughkeepsie.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., March 26.—The fast mail from New York on the New York Central road ran into a switch engine about a mile south of Poughkeepsie station at 11 o'clock last night. The engineers and firemen saved themselves by jumping. The only person injured was Charles Carpenter, a mail clerk of Syracuse, who was in one of the mail cars and was thrown against the side, receiving a cut over the eye.

No Result In Nebraska.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 26.—After taking 24 ballots last night the Republican senatorial caucus adjourned. The last ballot stood: Rosewater, 32; Meiklejohn, 15, and Currie, 8. Congressman Mercer has arrived on the scene and is attempting to break into the fight as a compromise candidate. The bolters have prepared another ultimatum offering to support any one the caucus will name in place of Thompson.

May Reverse Kentucky Cases.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 26.—It is rumored here that decisions will be handed down by the court of appeals reversing both of the cases of Caleb Powers, under life sentence, and Jim Howard, sentenced to death, for the murder of William Goebel. The cases have been under submission in the court of appeals since last fall, and it is said the court has been considering the cases for a week.

Cotton Mills Close.

DANIELSON, Conn., March 26.—The mills of the Danielsonville Cotton company has just completed a number of outstanding orders and is now shut down for an indefinite period. About 125 hands are thrown out of employment.

A BATTLE WITH STORMS.

Cunarder Etruria Has a Terrible Experience at Sea.

NEW YORK, March 26.—The Cunarder Etruria, which has just docked here, had a most eventful voyage.

The Etruria dropped down the Mersey river and got to sea on March 16, making good weather down the Irish sea and arriving without incident at Queenstown on St. Patrick's day. On the 19th, however, the breeze began to freshen into a storm, which grew steadily worse until on March 21 it blew a full gale from the northwest. The liner labored in a heavy seaway, taking tons of water abroad and shaking up the passengers in no uncertain way. As the day grew the storm increased, and when night fell the ship had been made ready for a hard time. All on board but the crew were kept under cover and passed hours of fear and distress. The steerage passengers during this stormy time were in panic. At the height of this confusion a piercing shriek was heard, and Norah Herlihy of Queenstown, a young Irish girl coming to a new home in America, began to laugh and sing and toss her arms around, a raving maniac. She was seized by the steward's assistants and taken to the ship's hospital, there to be placed in a straitjacket.

This was followed by a still more startling incident. A second cabin passenger, Fred Sanicka, 42 years old, suddenly began to rave and would have dashed his brains out against a bulkhead if he had not been seized and restrained. His life was saved but for a few moments. With great cunning he secured a cord with which some parcels had been tied and rigging it through a hole in a crossbeam of the deck hanged himself there. His body was found by a passenger and cut down. During the succeeding 24 hours a terrific sea breaking aboard the liner sent a cataract of water aft and swept away deck fixtures, smashed boat chocks and boats and thumped against the deckhouse sides as if to batter them down.

When the Etruria reached her dock, the big crowd waiting could see the damage wrought by the storm. On the promenade deck the iron plates and the heavy flooring had been completely torn away over a space 25 feet long and 15 feet wide, and the boats were smashed. The second cabin smoking room had been made untenable, and the men passengers were forced to take refuge in the women's quarters.

Philadelphia Record to Be Sold.

PHILADELPHIA, March 26.—As the result of the decision of Assistant Attorney General James M. Beck, master in the suit pending in the United States circuit court to set aside the assignment of the defunct Chestnut Street National bank, of which W. M. Singerly was president, The Record will be sold at auction to the highest bidder. The master filed a voluminous report, reviewing the entire litigation. After deciding that the United States circuit court had jurisdiction to decree a sale of The Record the master discusses the various claims against the Singerly estate, which he finds aggregated over $2,000,000. The indebtedness of the Chestnut Street National bank alone was $1,149,000.

After Bob Veal Dealers.

ALBANY, March 26.—The state department of agriculture has a large corps of special agents at work in New York city running down violators of the antibob veal law. Last week they seized nearly 100 carcasses which had been shipped to New York city from various points, some outside of the state. Cases are being formulated against the guilty parties, and as soon as all necessary evidence is obtained proceedings will be instituted and several arrests made.

Porto Ricans Want Many Things.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, March 26.—At a meeting of the San Juan Chamber of Commerce it was decided to present a petition to President McKinley through Governor Allen, asking for a loan, for free trade, for an extension of the constitution and for a protective tariff on coffee entering the United States. The president of the Chamber of Commerce, looking upon these requests as unreasonable, has resigned. One thousand emigrants will sail Wednesday.

BOSTON, March 26.—The Herald says: "Although official notice has not yet been received at the navy yard, it is pretty well understood by Admiral Sampson and other officers here that the cruiser Olympia, Dewey's flagship in Manila bay, is to become the flagship of the north Atlantic squadron this summer, is to be commanded by Captain Henry W. Lyon and fly the two stars of Rear Admiral Francis J. Higgin."

THE CHINESE APPEAL

Russia Has No Right to Take Manchuria.

JAPAN'S POSITION IN THE MATTER.

If Russia Secures This Grab, She Will Be In the Way to Seize Korea—A Struggle Seems Unavoidable.

LONDON, March 26.—The Chinese minister, Sir Chih Chen Lo Feng Luh, called at the foreign office yesterday afternoon and urged the British government to bring pressure to bear in order to prevent Russia from securing the necessary signatures of the Manchurian agreement. The foreign office is still in the dark as to whether the agreement will be signed or allowed to lapse when the time expires today. The officials of the Japanese legation are inclined to believe Russia will succeed in getting the necessary signatures.

The situation is still more complicated owing to the fact, ascertained by a representative of the press yesterday, that there are two secret treaties, one of which is to be signed at St. Petersburg dealing with Russia's military control of Manchuria and another to be signed at Peking dealing with her civil powers.

The Chinese appeals for support have failed to produce any direct remonstrances from Great Britain or apparently from any other power to St. Petersburg, for Russia persistently adheres to her contention that the secret agreements concern no one except herself and China. On this ground Great Britain's request for copies of the agreement was abruptly declined.

In the absence of the Japanese minister in London, Baron Hayashi, Mr. Matsui, first secretary of the Japanese legation, who was interviewed, made a comprehensive statement of the issues involved. He said:

"Russia's insistence, China's helplessness and the probable victory of Russian diplomacy tomorrow will bring us to the brink of a dangerous situation, in which none of the powers is so deeply concerned as Japan. Even if the secret treaties have been modified, as is alleged, the changes are so trifling as to make the documents thoroughly objectionable to Japan.

"Assuming that China signs the treaties, I suppose Great Britain, Germany and the United States will protest to Russia. But that is about as far as they will go and about as much as they will get. With Japan it is a matter of fighting.

"The question is whether we are to fight Russia now or to fight her later on. She has no right to Manchuria, and if she secures Manchuria she will be on the way to securing Korea.

"Our government, I believe, are seriously considering the crisis. Their eyes are wide open, and they will not be driven to precipitate action by the jingoists of Japan, who are openly clamoring for immediate war. Yet if they see that war is unavoidable they will not hesitate to strike.

"Japan has no reason to be afraid as to the result. Many reasons occur to the average Japanese mind in favor of forcing at the present moment a struggle which must come eventually.

State Commerce Convention.

SYRACUSE, March 26.—Two propositions will be considered at the adjourned meeting of the state commerce convention in this city which opened today. One is, "Shall the proposition of Governor Odell for a continuation of the $9,000,000 improvement of the canal be indorsed and the question submitted to the people?" The other is, "Shall the proposed 1,000 ton barge canal, as reported in State Engineer Bond's report, be favored?" Among the delegates from Buffalo and New York the feeling is practically unanimous for the 1,000 ton barge canal, and they are confident that the prevailing sentiments of the convention will be along that line.

Promotion For M. de Witte.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 26.—In diplomatic circles here it is regarded as probable that M. de Witte, the finance minister, will be made imperial chancellor within a few years. They also believe the czar will first bestow princely rank upon him. M. de Witte's worst enemies do not deny his energy, mental capabilities and progressive tendencies. His desire to make Russia equally strong at home as abroad promises well for the world's peace. In the meantime his influence is growing so rapidly and steadily that it is considered that but a short time will elapse before he will actually exercise the chancellor's functions even without the princely rank.

Bishop Sweeney Dead.

ST. JOHN, N. B., March 26.—The Right Rev. John Sweeney, D. D., bishop of St. John and dean of the Roman Catholic hierarchy in Canada, succumbed yesterday morning to a paralytic stroke which prostrated him last Saturday. Bishop Sweeney went last fall to live in the Boys' Industrial home with the hope that he might die within the walls he had caused to be erected. His lordship was born in Clones, County Monaghan, Ireland, on May 12, 1821, and in his youth came with his parents to St. John.

Fatal Mine Explosion.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., March 26.—Nine men were injured and it is reported that two were killed in an explosion in the Gales shaft of the American Coke company's mine on Browns run yesterday afternoon. The injured men were taken to a hospital at Connellsville. The officers of the company deny the report that other miners are entombed.

Farmer Robbed and Beaten.

ELMIRA, N. Y., March 26.—The barn of Henry Wright, a farmer residing three miles from Addison, was discovered to be on fire at 7 o'clock last night. He went out to extinguish the flames, when three men set upon him, beat him into unconsciousness and robbed him of $300. He is probably fatally injured.

Senator Russell Stricken.

ALBANY, March 26.—Senator Michael Russell of the Thirtieth senatorial district was stricken with paralysis in the senate lobby at 9:30 last night. He was removed to the clerk's room, where it was discovered that one side was affected.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., MAR. 26, 1901.

COMING EVENTS

March 26—Bible class of William D. Murray at Y. M. C. A. building at 8 p. m.

March 31—Judge William N. Runyon will speak, and Prof. George A. Morris, the great colored basso, will sing at the Y. M. C. A. meeting at 4:15 o'clock in the afternoon.

Our Advantages.

With the coming of the bright spring days, there should be a great influx to our city of home seekers from the large cities of New York and Philadelphia. To the mass of humanity, there is, no doubt, a longing for green fields and running brooks In many instances the demands of business and necessity of earning a livelihood, compel people to live in the great cities. We feel convinced that if the denizens of the great metropolis knew of the bright and sunny homes that exist in Plainfield, and the unequalled facilities that the Jersey Central Railroad system offers for reaching Plainfield, that there would scarce be an unoccupied dwelling within our borders.

With the lowest death rate of any city in New Jersey, beautiful streets, lights, schools, churches and public library, Plainfield offers to families an ideal location for a home. All the advantages with a minimun of the evils of a great city are ours to offer.

Many small towns offer as an inducement a convenient railroad station, but something more is demanded for the wants of a cultured family. Stores, church and school are a prime necessity. To a cultured wife, the matter of society and social surroundings will appeal. As a cultured social centre, Plainfield occupies a most prominent and enviable place. The Casino, the Park Club, the Monday Afternoon Club and similar organizations are congregations of a degree of refinement rarely found elsewhere.

In view of all these manifold advantages what duty have our own citizens to perform? To guard zealously our well earned and deserved reputation, to aid in public spirit and enterprise, to be progressive though not too fast, to urge upon transportation companies low fares, to press upon water and light companies the lowest rates consistent with fair return for honest capital invested, and to insist upon an economical administration of municipal affairs. All these and particularly the latter will appeal directly to the home seeker. Let these thoughts be carried out and we confidently predict that in the next decade the population of this beautiful city will be well nigh doubled.

The trolley interests in this part of the State are now practically consolidated. The consolidation has largely reduced the cost of maintenance and the stockholders enjoy a proportionate gain. Just now the Elizabeth, Plainfield and Central Jersey Street Railway Company wants to dispose of a bond issue amounting to $1,400 000 The president of the company, David Young, speaks in glowing terms of the valuable property of the company and the heavy earnings. A rather significant fact is that the same David Young is also president of the North Jersey Traction Company, which practically controls all the trolley lines north of this section.

The victory of the bowling team of the Roselle Casino in The Daily Press Bowling League was not unexpected. There are some great bowlers down in Roselle. Although most of the old team did not play with the Casino team when it opened the season, they did not fail in the eleventh hour. The Roselle Casino has now won The Daily Press trophy two years. Another win will make the club the permanent owners of the trophy.

The ordinance, passed by the Plainfield Board of Health and regulating the control of the milk supply of the city, was patterned somewhat on the lines of a similar ordinance in force in the city of Montclair. The appointment of Robert A. Meeker to act as inspector for the Board of Health was simply another step in carrying out the purposes of the board to prevent, in the future, any contamination of the local milk supply.

It was rather expected that the Board of Governors of the Muhlenberg Hospital would take some action last evening regardiag the new hospital sight. The committee was not ready for action, however, and final consideration of the question was laid over. In the meantime the finance committee is very anxious to receive as many subscriptions as possible for that very worthy institution.

The street signs have arrived and we are promised that the work of placing them in position will begin within a week. It is too bad that the Council did not act on the subject before so that the signs might have all been in position before the advent of the crowd of home seekers which begins with the last of March. Still it is far better to have them now than not at all.

It must have been a startling experience for the residents of Glen Gardner when the flood of burning oil poured down their main street. Glen Gardner is not a very large community and the disaster there came very near wiping the place out of existance.

Baseball seems to have a bright prospect before it in Plainfield during the coming season. Beside the school team, several local nines are being formed which promise to have an excellent showing with the teams of the neighboring communities

The association football enthusiasts have no preference regarding the weather. They play their game the whole season round and find lots of fun in it. It manages to entertain the spectators as well.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

Clippings From Other Newspapers Which May Be Of Interest to Plainfield and Its Citizens.

The City Collector at Plainfield, under the direction of the Council, has begun to enforce the collection of delinquent taxes. A large number of warrants have been prepared, and some have already been served, with profitable results. There is no reason why this should not be done elsewhere and doubtless we should soon find that a strict enforcement of the law would not only collect much already on the delinquent lists, but also prevent them from becoming so full in the future.—Metuchen Recorder.

LITERARY.

It is said that the powers of either man or woman are developed five-fold by working with a life-companion who is in entire harmony. The ideal wife as a rule has it in her power to make the ideal husband. What constitutes the ideal wife is discussed in an extremely able article by Lavina Hart in the April Cosmopolitan.

NO SERVICE.

On Account of the Rain Rev. Mr. Harney's Meeting Was Given Up.

The evangelistic meeting at Reform Hall was postponed on account of the rain at the hour of service last evening, but that will not hinder the continuation of the meetings this week. There will be a meeting, therefore, this evening at 7:45, and a good attendance and interesting service is anticipated. Mr. Harney's subject will be "Hope in Christ," or "The Ground of the Christian Hope." Miss Clara Mears, soloist, will sing, by request, "I Want to be There; Don't You?" as well as other solos.

All are cordially welcome to these services.

Avoid all drying inhalants and use that which cleanses and heals the membrane. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and cures Catarrh easily and pleasantly. Cold in the head vanishes quickly. Price 50 cents at druggists or by mail.

Catarrh caused difficulty in speaking and to a great extent loss of hearing. By the use of Ely's Cream Balm dropping of mucus has ceased, voice and hearing have greatly improved —J. W. Davidson, Att'y at Law, Monmouth, Ill.

Something About the Attractions Which Plainfield Theatre-Goers May Care to Witness.

The big "White Rats" carnival is the great event at Music Hall tonight, and all who delight in pure and unadulterated amusement will have an opportunity of witnessing one of the best bills of vaudeville entertainment ever seen in this city. The reputation of the several artists whose names figure in the bill is sufficient assurance of the quality of the performance in general, but in addition to this, extra care was exercised by the management of the association that nothing but first-class acts should be given. All are more or less familiar with the work of our fellow-townsman, George Thatcher, but on this occasion, as the "head-liner" of his associate "head liners," he will be at his best and give an entirely new act of witticisms and vocal hits. Illustrated songs, dances, musical and acrobatic features, dramatic sketch and eccentric comedy, all will be seen in this great bill, and, according to all accounts, it is deserving of overflowing patronage.

To Mr. Martell belongs the credit, as organizer of the realistic production "The South Before The War," which is to be at Music Hall Saturday afternoon and night, in bringing before the publice the artistic talents of the colored people. Owing to the financial success of his venture it has found many imitators, the majority of whom have more or less pirated versions and transpositions of his original stage picture, so altered as to avoid the law's interference. It is left for the public to judge for themselves the artistic merits of the performance. The return of the slave to the plantation, the landing of the famous old steamboat Robert E. Lee, and the amusements of the colored people on the levee, the singing, the acrobatic performance, the peculiar dancing, the camp meeting on Frog Island with all peculiarities of character usually seen on such occasions, and the cake walk that finishes the performance altogether make an entertainment deserving the patronage of all who enjoy real fun entirely free from the too frequent abuses of the every day stage.

The plays to be presented by the Little Irene Myers Company during their engagement at Music Hall next week, are surely sufficiently diversified to please the most fastidious, and should be the means of attracting large audiences the entire week. Contained in the repertoire are the following: "The Ensign," "The Stowaway," "The Corner Grocery," "The White Rat," "Little Lord Fauntleroy," "Two Orphans," "Ten Nights in a Bar-room," "Under Two Flags," "Beggar and Prince" and others. Every play is superbly mounted with special scenery, mechanical and electrical effects, and every detail necessary for a perfect production. Little Irene will be seen Monday evening as "Chucky" in "The Stowaway."

Even the hardier Black Cockroaches, Beetles, Wood or Water Bugs, in one or two applications will be completely annihilated. "Rough on Rats" is the only thing that will effectually and permanently annihilate Bed Bugs, and it stands unrivalled the world over for the prompt and effective extermination of Rats and Mice. 15 and 25 boxes at druggists.

Canfield, of Springfield, as the supply.

The corner stone of the first church building was laid November 7, 1851, and the church was dedicated December 28, 1853. The work of building the present edifice was begun in 1873, but was not completed until 1877, when it was dedicated May 30.

The present pastor, Rev. Charles M. Anderson. D. D., was born at Bloomingdale, Passaic county, New Jersey. He studied at the Centenary Collegiate Institute at Hackettstown and is a graduate of Drew Theological Seminary of Madison. He joined the Newark conference in 1885 and was pastor of the Branchville church and of the church at Frankfort for three years and at Rutherford for five years. He was also pastor of the First Methodist church at Bayonne for five years, leaving the latter place to accept a call to the Westfield church.

FOREIGN AND AMERICAN PAINTINGS
Formed by C. Schepflin, Esq., Plainfield, N. J. will be sold by auction within the above galleries on WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY, March 27 and 28, at 3:15 p. m.
Largely represented in this collection is I. VOLWEIDER, who first brought before the public—we had better say the world—the grand scenes the mountains of the Alps afford. His ability to put grandeur of space and expanse of mountain within the narrow limits of canvas has long been recognized, his own country having showered every honor upon him, and also bestowing as a final tribute a life pension.
The American artists are represented by many interesting examples.

WOMEN IN THE COUNTRY.

How They May Earn Money From Live Stock and Gardening.

A friend writes me from a southern county in a state of the middle belt:

"This township has decreased in population 200 in the last ten years. People are leaving the county by the hundreds this spring. There are hardly men enough left to work now, and what are left are no good. The women of the county sew and support themselves, and the land is going back to a wilderness of elm and locust grubs for the unfortunate owners to pay tax on."

It is a picture of desolation and sadness, the country woman sitting in her lonely home bending over a sewing machine, wearing out her eyes and her nerves to earn a pittance making garments for the city department store, while all the land about her that ought to blossom and yield as a fruitful vine is growing up in briers and thistles. I was brought up on a farm, and it makes my heart ache.

EARNING A PITTANCE.

Only a little more than 40 per cent of the population of the country is engaged in agriculture, and the proportion is growing less and less each decade. At the same time the population in general—the population of eaters, that is—is increasing by great bounds. There will be for a century to come a constantly increasing demand for those food products the farmer raises. If men in the country will no longer work the farms, let the women they have left behind take up the industry and make it pay. They can do it, because so many women have done it already.

Professor Ely has said somewhere that nobody in this country knows how to farm. Agriculturists merely "exploit the virgin qualities of the soil." It is true. If the women in the lonely homes deserted of men roused themselves and used their brains and energy exactly where they are, the wilderness of elm and locust scrub growths would shortly become beautiful to the eye and yield them an excellent living besides. Again, I know this is true, for I have seen the statement proved time and again. The vastest unexplored and undeveloped region in this universe is the human will and mind tract.

I know a woman who makes a success of sheep farming on hillside land that long since gave up trying to compete with the west in grain farming. She is well to do and envied of her neighbors, who are going half blind over the department store sewing. I know of another woman who fell heir to a seemingly wornout farm with a ruined old house upon it. She went into dairy farming, thought and hustled and made those about her do the same. She is now a comparatively wealthy woman and owns a herd of Guernseys famous throughout the Union. Yet another woman owns and takes care of the largest apple orchard in South Dakota. Fourth in this list, which might be extended from Jerusalem to Jericho, is the woman with the largest poultry farm in Missouri, her hens yielding 35 dozen eggs a day.

Heavy and extensive farming has passed forever to the west. The deserted lands where the women are left must be made to pay by means of intensive farming, and this is possible everywhere. The farms are specially adapted to woman's enterprise in the field of gardening, flower and fruit raising, the poultry and sheep business and dairying. The American people do not consume so much pork as they did, but are becoming more and more a mutton, egg and poultry and fruit eating nation, to their gain in health and beauty. The poultry industry is already passing into the hands of women.

HENS.

A woman stranded on a farm and determining to make it pay should consider these things: What products is her land best adapted to, what articles do the markets in her vicinity demand, what are the means of transportation to the markets? These questions answered, she may safely begin, confident, yet cautious. In general she should diversify her industries. Fruit and honey production and poultry raising thrive well together. So do the poultry business and dairying. Thousands of women in the country add to their incomes by having summer boarders, and the number of these is ever increasing.

Finally, here is a hint to the wise: I know a lady who obtains from private customers a fancy price for eggs all the year round, simply by letting people visit her chicken houses and see how clean and attractive looking they are. Have all your products choice, dainty and clean or you will not succeed.

THE SANDWICH KING.

That's What His Friends Call Elmer Pfeifer, Who Ate 24 Sandwiches in Just 48 Minutes.

Elmer Pfeifer, of Arcola, Ill., who a few days ago accomplished the almost impossible feat of devouring 24 ham sandwiches in exactly 48 minutes, thereby winning a wager, with side bets, amounting to $75 and establishing a record which is probably a world beater, is in all other respects an ordinary young man of medium physique, is possessed of a bright intellect and temperate habits. He has long borne the reputation of being possessed of a splendid appetite, but even his closest friends feared for his chances of winning at such odds in the above contest.

Mr. Pfeifer, in the presence of a number of his acquaintances, made the remark more in fun than in earnest that he could eat two dozen ham sandwiches in an hour. A traveling salesman who happened to overhear the offer remarked that he would take $25 worth of a bet of that character. Pfeifer immediately accepted the wager and covered a number of side bets sufficient to swell the amount to $75. He then entered a cafe and ordered the required number of sandwiches, and with an air of confidence began to dispose of the big task before him. The first dozen were consumed as if they were mere cream puffs inflated with wind. After this Pfeifer ate with a little less relish, but one by one they disappeared until the last of the 24 had been consumed. In accomplishing the feat Pfeifer used three ordinary table jars of mustard and drank seven large glasses of water.

When the last sandwich had been eaten and young Pfeifer had arisen from his seat the timekeeper announced that he had occupied exactly 48 minutes and won.

Pfeifer claims that he felt no ill effects of his meal and was to all appearances as free from physical pain as were any of the people who watched his performance.

WHIPPED SEVEN BOYS.

Plucky Buckeye Girl Received Praise from the Magistrate Instead of a Punishment.

On one day last week seven of the largest boys in the "White Grocery" school at Akron, O., were soundly thrashed by Miss Minnie Hoff, a pretty brown-haired girl who was acting as schoolma'am in the district. When she accepted the position as teacher she found the classes sadly disorganized and discipline was at a low ebb. First she tried to bring the boys to her way of thinking by treating them kindly. This did not have the effect she anticipated. The boys took the favors extended as an indication that they could do as they pleased. On Friday week they discovered the error of their ways. Miss Hoff opened the school with a direct notice to the bad boys in the front row that she would trounce the first that violated any of the rules and regulations governing the institution. It was only a few minutes before she was called upon to make good her warning. She performed the task in a way that left no doubt in the minds of those who witnessed the episode that she was equal to the occasion.

During the day six others were called forward and trimmed in the most approved fashion. The parents of Rufus Wright, one of the boys, had Miss Hoff arrested on a charge of assault and battery. She was in the police court the next morning to answer to the charge. Practically all of Springfield township was with her After hearing the story of the trouble the court, attorneys for the prosecution and spectators agreed that Miss Hoff was justified, and that she was the right woman in the right place. "The only thing she is to be censured for is that she did not lick more of them, and oftener," said the court, in dismissing the case.

ONE WAY OUT.

A Resident of Plainfield Shows the Way.

Only one way to cure a bad back.

Liniment and plasters may relieve it.

They won't cure it.

Backache means sick kidneys.

Doan's kidney pills cure all kidney ills.

Plainfield people prove this.

Read a case of it:

Mr. S. J. Conklin, traveling salesman for a New York confectionery house, 134 West Front street, says: "I was subject to pain in the back and hips which at times I felt in my side. I tried different kinds of kidney cures but received little or no relief. I read a great deal about Doan's Kidney Pills and I went to L. W. Randolph's drug store and got a box. I took three boxes altogether and was wonderfully improved. Doan's Kidney Pills are a good remedy and accomplished all that is claimed for them"

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

to grow strong. Unless we get good meat we may as well let it alone. There is no strength in tough meat—instead of giving it takes strength to digest it. It pays to be careful in buying meat—pay a little more if need be, and put something in your stomach which will put flesh on your bones and strong blood in your heart.

AGAIN A SENATOR.

Fred T. Dubois, Who Left Congress Four Years Ago as a Republican Now Returns, Democrat.

After an absence of four years Fred T. Dubois returns to the senate. He was a silver republican when he left congress, but is now a democrat, and was elected by the combined democratic, silver republican and populist vote of the legislature of Idaho.

Mr. Dubois is a native of Crawford county, Ill., and is in the fiftieth year of his age. He received a public school and collegiate education, graduating from Yale college in the class of 1872. He was secretary of the board of railway and warehouse commissioners of Illinois in 1875-76, and went to Idaho territory and engaged in business in 1880 For four years he was United States marshal of Idaho, and was elected as a republican delegate to the Fiftieth and Fifty-first congresses, being the last delegate from the territory. At the republican national convention held at Minneapolis in 1892 he was chairman of the Idaho delegation, which was the first delegation from the new state. He served in the senate from 1891 to 1897, being defeated by Henry Heitfeld, the populist candidate, whose term in the senate will expire March 3, 1903.

FLAG WITH A HISTORY.

Condensed Account of the First Emblem of the Confederate States of North America.

The first flag raised as an emblem of the confederacy has had an interesting history. It was first used in South Carolina, the mother state in the afterwards named Confederate States of America. It is in the possession of the family of the late Capt. Henry W. Hand, of New Jersey.

The flag is eight feet long by six feet broad. The body is turkey red and the immense star and crescent in the upper left-hand corner are of white. It was made by the ladies of Charleston, S. C., on the eve of their state's secession, December 20, 1860. The next day it was hoisted over the city customhouse.

Its career began on land, but it closed on water. Shortly afterwards the Dixie, a small privateer and blockade runner, started on its depredations, and, as the young confederacy had adopted no official banner at that time, this flag was presented to it. In the spring of 1863 the Dixie was captured by the United States steamer Keystone State, and Capt. Hand, who was then an under officer, boarded the vessel and hauled down its flag. His commander gave him permission to retain the emblem. It has been a treasure in his family ever since.

FIRST CONFEDERATE FLAG.
(Made by the Ladies of Charleston, S. C., December, 1860.)

Western Diplomacy Won.

Not long ago there was a question about "precedence" at the white house in relation to going in to dinner between the president and the speaker of the house, which was settled. This recalls the story of a western congressman, whose wife was very rich but thought very little on such subjects. She was in Washington for a good time, and resolved to have it without bother. This fearless woman gave a dinner party on one occasion, and when it was time to get her guests from the drawing-room to the dining-room she arose and said: "There is some precedence about all this, but I don't know what it is, and haven't time to learn. Just walk out to dinner, every one of you, and sit down anywhere you please." They say that this stroke of western diplomacy worked perfectly, and the dinner was enjoyed to the utmost.

Where Snow Is Worth Money.

Snow sells in the north of Sicily for about one cent a pound. It is a government monopoly, and the prince of Palermo derives the greater part of his income from it. The snow is gathered on the mountains in felt-covered baskets, and is sold in the cities for refrigerating purposes.

COUNT LEO TOLSTOI.

Excommunicated from the Greek Church in Due Form.

Famous Russian Novelist and Social Philosopher Persona Non Grata with the Members of the Holy Synod.

The official organ of the holy synod of St. Petersburg has just published the formal excommunication of Count Tolstoi, the Russian novelist and social reformer, which was announced early in the year, as follows:

"In its solicitude for the children of the orthodox church to guard them from being led into corruption, and in order to save those who have gone astray, the holy synod has deliberated upon the anti-Christian and anti-ecclesiastical teachings of Count Leo Tolstoi, and has deemed it expedient, in order to preserve the peace of the church, to issue a circular dealing with the heresies of Count Leo Tolstoi. The circular is as follows:

"'Count Leo Tolstoi, to the grief and horror of the whole orthodox world, has, by speech and writing, unceasingly striven to separate himself from all communion with the orthodox church, and this not only clandestinely, but openly and in the knowledge of all persons. All attempts to dissuade him from this conduct have proved without avail. Consequently the orthodox church no longer considers him to be one of its members, and cannot regard him as such as long as he does not repent and does not become reconciled to the church. We, therefore, place on record his apostasy from the church, and pray the Lord to restore him to a comprehension of the truth. We pray thee, therefore, O merciful God, who does not desire the death of a sinner, to hear us, have mercy on him, and restore him to thy holy church. Amen.'"

Commenting on this document, the Detroit Free Press says that the Greek church has dealt with Count

COUNT LEO TOLSTOI.
(Russian Novelist Excommunicated by the Greek Church.)

Tolstoi virtually as the Catholic church dealt with St. George Mivart a few weeks before the death of that eminent English scientist, and we shall probably hear the same clamor about the suppression of liberty of thought and conscience in the Tolstoi case as we heard in the Mivart case. Those persons who find in the excommunication of Count Tolstoi a reproach to the Greek church overlook the important fact that a church, in order to be a church, must have articles of faith, and that these articles of faith must be adhered to. If the bars are to be let down to a Leo Tolstoi, because he is one of the most brilliant novelists of the century, or to a St. George Mivart, because he has achieved a high reputation as a scientist, they must be let down to everybody. There is no liberty of conscience where only this man or that man is permitted to reject such articles of faith as he may see fit, and if this liberty is accorded to all men, it is evident that there can be no church. Something must be accepted, both in government and religion, and there can be no tyranny over either thought or conscience when the man who cannot subscribe to the creed of the church of which he is a member has the liberty of withdrawing.

Tolstoi was as far from orthodoxy as Voltaire. The author of "Anna Karenina," "War and Peace," "The Kreutzer Sonata," "Resurrection," "My Confession," "My Religion," etc., had created a religion for himself as he had created a political economy for himself. However exalted it may have been, it certainly was not the religion of the Greek church. It was not the religion of any church. It was Tolstoiism pure and simple. The Greek church was compelled either to excommunicate Count Tolstoi or to set the seal of its approval upon his religious teachings, which, of course, was impossible. And as Count Tolstoi seems to have preferred his own faith to the faith of the church, he has nothing to complain of by reason of his excommunication. No man can expect to retain the benefits of a church, while denying the teachings of that church.

Robbed by a Clever Ruse.

A sudden illness compelled Robert Winfield, a colored man, to seek treatment at the Bellevue hospital, New York city. While he was there two stylish colored ladies called for his clothing, stating that they had been requested by the patient, who was then confined to his bed, to renovate and press his garments. In a week Robert was well enough to be discharged; but he couldn't leave the hospital, as his entire wardrobe consisted of a four-inch smile and an 11-inch pair of shoes.

APGARS HELD HIGH CARNIVAL.

LANDLORD COULDN'T STAND IT AND MADE COMPLAINT.

Mr. and Mrs. Apgar Appeared Before Judge Runyon This Morning and Were Found Guilty and Fined.

George Apgar and his wife, Lizzie, were before City Judge Runyon this morning on a charge of disorderly conduct preferred by Charles L. Treat.

The Apgars' rent a flat at 311 East Fourth street from Mr. Treat. The landlord has been disturbed of late by alleged carousals which, he claims, are of frequent occurence in the Apgar apartments. Saturday evening the tenants celebrated a birthday of a relative. According to Mrs. Apgar they had purchased only eighteen bottles of beer for three persons.

The carnival, it is claimed, was not closed until early Sunday morning and the noise was too much for Mr. and Mrs. Treat's nerves. A charge of disorderly conduct and using profane and indecent language was made by Mr. Treat.

Patrolman Overbaugh arrested the couple last evening and this morning they were given a hearing. City Judge Runyon was not favorably impressed with the deportment of Apgar at the hearing, and he bore in mind that the pair had been before him on previous occasions for the same offence.

Each offender was ordered to pay a a fine of $20, or undergo sixty days' imprisonment.

KEPT PLEDGE NINE DAYS.

BUT CAMPBELL HAD PROMISED JUDGE RUNYON NOT TO DRINK.

It Was His Third Appearance In City Court This Month And So He Was Sent Down For Sixty Days.

Peter Campbell, an erstwhile pupil of Shakespeare's works, who devotes some of his time to painting and more to drinking intoxicating liquor was compelled to pay another visit to City Judge Runyon at the police headquarters this morning. Campbell had to answer to the charge of drunk and disorderly conduct. He has grown accustomed to this charge now and the indictment does not have any terror for him.

Campbell first formed an acquaintance with the City Court shortly after City Judge Runyon was elevated to the bench. Two weeks ago Friday Campbell reappeared at the morning hearings. He was in buoyant spirits and in his plea enacted, for the benefit of the Judge, the court scene from the "Merchant of Venice, and quoted Scriptural injunctions against the use of intoxicating liquors.

Campbell paid a fine and had not been at large twenty four hours before he was again in the toils of the law. This time he forsook the dramatic character and was apparently as meek as a trappist work. He repented of his waywardness and made a solemn pledge never to imbibe the dangerous fluid for nine long years.

On this promised he was discharged. Somehow he must have mixed his dates, for his nine years' pledge was kept for a little over nine days.

Yesterday afternoon he was skylarking about the streets, tossing pennies to the urchins that were following him, and annoying pedestrians along his line of march. Patrolman Vanderweg took him, and all his belongings which he had with him, in custody.

This morning at the hearing, Campbell explained to the court that he had lost his wife and had taken a little whiskey just to cheer him up.

City Judge Runyon apparently did not have much faith in either Campbell or Campbell's plea and now the wayward genius will have free board at Elizabeth for sixty days.

BOROUGH TALKS OF OWNING WATER WORKS

Present Trouble With Plainfield Water Supply Company Causes Discussion.

THE MAYOR WOULDN'T TALK

REFUSED TO TAKE A STAND AT PRESENT ON WATER QUESTION.

No Plan Yet Formulated, But Some Action on the Part of Borough Citizens in Near Future Seems Likely.

Much discussion, as to the advisability of establishing a water works, to supply the needs of the borough, has arisen of late, and although no specific proposition has assumed formal shape, yet it is more than likely that in the near future some definite steps will be taken by the proper persons.

The grievance against the Plainfield Water Supply Company is two-fold. First, the citizens complain that the water is stale, ill-smelling and filled with foreign matter, and second, that the rates for use are excessive. A North Plainfielder made the statement yesterday that until very recently the company had stored the water intended for use in the borough in a large iron reservoir, where it was allowed to remain for a time sufficiently to permit it to become stale and foul, and during all this time freshly pumped water was being supplied to Elizabeth.

Exactly what course, on the part of the citizens, is best to pursue no one is willing to say. The construction and operation of a water works by the borough is advocated by some, while others believe that there are reponsible parties to be found who will furnish the necessary capital to establish a plant.

The argument is made that other boroughs, much smaller than North Plainfield, have their own private water works, which are run successfully, both as concerns the company and the citizens.

A reporter for The Daily Press interviewed Mayor N. B. Smalley last evening on the subject. Mayor Smalley was non-committal. He desired not to express any opinion as to the view he held in regard to the matter at present, but intimated that when the proper time comes he will be found on the side taken by the people of the borough.

Some of the more influential boroughites say that much depends on the probable cost of construction of the plant. The agitation is persistent and is gaining ground every day.

OVERCOME BY GAS.

Narrow Escape From Death of Employe of Wm. VanNest, Who Lives at Dog Corners.

A man known as "Jack, the Hungarian," who is employed by William VanNest, the produce dealer at Dog Corners, narrowly escaped death by suffocation Sunday. He sleeps in the green-house at Mr. VanNest's home, and during Saturday night and Sunday morning a great quantity of gas escaped from a large stove used in the green-house.

"Jack" failed to appear Sunday morning at the usual hour and an investigation followed. He was found in an unconscious condition and the strong smell of gas soon told the story. The man was carried out doors and restoratives used to bring the man to consciousness. It was fully an hour before he recovered from the effects of the gas, and at one time it looked as though he would never regain consciousness.

Cause of Odor at Station.

The unpleasant odor, which exists in the new station, does not emanate from the tunnel as was stated, but comes from the steam pipe arrangement, which connects the two stations. These pipes are covered with felt to retain the heat and are enclosed in a iron conduit, which is intended to be water tight. It has been discovered, however, that the conduit is not tight, as intended, and consequently water from the ground, has gotten into it. This standing water soaking the hot felt causes a foul smell. The matter will be remedied at once.

PLUCK WON VICTORY.

What an Illinois Boy Wrought for the People of Canada.

Completed the Canadian Pacific Railway After Its Original Promoters Had Given Up Hope—Knighted by Queen.

Sir William Van Horne, the head of the Canadian Pacific railway, has just left Chicago with the statement that after a thorough inspection of Cuba he believes the Cubans are amply able to govern themselves. Sir William is an excellent example of how an individual can govern himself and a good many other people besides. He was born in Illinois 50 years ago, and began life as a telegraph operator on the Illinois Central railroad. He is now several times a millionaire, and one of the most powerful men in Canada.

Nearly 25 years ago, says the Chicago Times-Herald, Mr. Van Horne was called to the general managership of the Canadian Pacific road. The line was then not yet completed to Vancouver. There was a great gap between Winnipeg and the Pacific ocean, and a great many Canadians were in existence who did not believe a rail could ever be laid over that gap. Various governments had tried to complete the road and failed. Various contractors had gone to ruin in attempting to carry out government demands. In 1880 it looked as if a good ten years would elapse before Canada would have a railway from Montreal to the Pacific. Then came in the Van Horne spirit. Capitalists, politicians, settlers, merchants were clamoring for the completion of the road.

Mr. Van Horne visited Montreal. He called on the government and he politely asked how much money or land or other securities were to the credit of the company at that time upon which cash could be raised. An under secretary or under something else said flippantly:

"The government has no cash for you, Mr. Van Horne, but you have control of 25,000,000 acres of land and about 800 miles of completed road on which you ought to get something."

The general manager turned on his heel and left the government house.

SIR WILLIAM VAN HORNE.
(Head of the Great Canadian Pacific Railway System.)

He was facing the problem of building 2,200 miles of road through a mountainous or desert plain country, and he not only was without money, but the road lacked the confidence of capitalists. The story goes that in the next ten days he either personally saw or communicated with by wire or letter 50 of the wealthiest capitalists of England, the United States and Canada. He pledged them to build in five years (his contract with the government for the completion of the road allowed him ten) the uncompleted portion of the road, and also repay them in the same time any advances they might make if they would finance the construction work. Practically his guarantee in the matter was no more than his own private word, but the Van Horne word was pretty well known even at that time.

As a result of his solicitations, peremptory showing of his necessities, he commanded at the end of the ten days $10,000,000 in cash, ostensibly that of the company, although loaned, and in 14 days construction work had begun. In 54 months, or 4½ years, Mr. Van Horne and his associates had built 1,900 miles of the main line and 1,300 miles of side tracks, or two miles per day winter and summer. He took his rails over the Selkirk range, through canyons and gorges, conquered every obstacle of nature, and kept his promise to his backers. Every dollar they advanced or security they gave was either repaid or well protected, and the Canadian Pacific opened to the world. The total amount which Mr. Van Horne is said to have become responsible for during the completion of the road was over $25,000,000—$10,000,000 at first and then $15,000,000 more afterward, and of this sum not one dollar was ever lost to the men who trusted him when he declared that he intended to finish the Canadian Pacific.

The main line of his road cost $100,000,000 to build in all, but it gave to Great Britain a war route which is said to be capable of handling 8,000 armed men in a day, with their baggage, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and of putting a 100-ton gun in Vancouver within 14 days after it leaves Woolwich. That is what the Illinois boy accomplished in Canada, his adopted land, and that is the inside story of how the Canadian Pacific was finished in five years ahead of contract time.

AWAKENED SLEEPER.

It is Charged That Baggagemaster Tinsman Received a Blow in the Face For His Pains.

Lewis Tinsman, of Dunellen, a baggage master on the Jersey Central railroad, swore out a warrant before Justice Nash yesterday, charging James Kiley, of 1238 South avenue, with assault and battery.

The alleged assault took place on Tinsman's train on March 23. Kiley was a passenger and sought to while away the time consumed in the trip from Jersey City by taking a nap. On reaching the Netherwood station Tinsman attempted to arouse the sleeper and was rewarded for his trouble, it is said, by receiving a blow in the face. Being an employe of the railroad company he dared not retaliate and allowed the wrathful Kiley to depart. Tinsman decided that a warrant would be a better way of getting justice and Kiley will probably be arraigned today.

DO THE PEOPLE WANT MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP?

The Daily Press' Plan to Ascertain Public Opinion Concerning That Question.

TO VOTE BY BALLOT.

EVERY TAXPAYER IN CITY AND BOROUGH IS INVITED TO VOTE.

Ballots Are Printed Today—Should Be Cut Out, Filled Out And Sent To Press Office—Balloting Will Continue For a Week.

Under the existing franchise, the Plainfield Water Supply Company has the right to charge the schedule of rates, the enforcement of which has so stirred up the people of Plainfield and North Plainfield. From the water company, there is little or no hope of redress. The only solution of the problem to secure lower water rates is the purchase of the present plant by the city or the the building of a new one by the municipal authorities. Do the citizens desire such a thing to come to pass?

If there is an overwhelming feeling in favor of municipal ownership of the water supply plant, the Common Council should know it. If such a feeling was known to exist there is every reason to believe the Council would act. The members of the Council are the representatives of the people and aim to follow the desires of their constituents. During the next seven days, The Daily Press will aim to secure as fair an expression of opinion as possible.

In today's Daily Press there are two ballots. One is for Plainfield and the other for North Plainfield. It is the desire of The Daily Press to have every taxpayer in city and borough fill out one of these ballots and either send or bring it to The Press office. The names of the signers will not be published and will not be revealed outside of the office except to City Collector Frank H. Smith and City Judge Wm. N. Runyon, who will act as a committee to pass on the correctness and validity of the ballots when there is any question.

Those who are entitled to vote are taxpayers, by which are meant all men or women who are paying taxes of any kind, poll, personal or on real estate, to the municipality in which they live. Those who ballot are requested to fill out the blank in full giving the election district in which they live. This is done so that the final result may be shown by districts as well as giving the total vote in city and borough.

There is a place at the bottom of the ballot so that the taxpayer may signify whether he or she is a property owner. This is done so that the final figures will show how the property owners as well as the other taxpayers feel on this subject. This is particularly important because the bulk of the cost of the water supply now falls on the property owners.

Any ballot which is not completely filled out will not be counted. The ballots will appear in every issue of The Daily Press beginning today and continuing up to April 3. They should be cut out and forwarded to this office as soon as possible. The result of the vote will then be announced.

Those who are anxious to see a fair expression of opinion should see their friends and neighbors who do not regularly subscribe to The Daily Press are given an opportunity to vote. The advocates of municipal ownership should see that others who believe in that principel cast a ballot. It is a chance to gain an insight into the general feeling which prevails in the city and borough and it is the duty of every tax payer to make himself heard either for or against the plan so that his representative in the Council will know how he stands.

THATCHER HERE.

Took Part in White Rats Carnival at Music Hall Last Evening—Sam Edwards Also Took Part.

There is a warm place in the hearts of Plainfield theatre goers for the veteran minstrel, George Thatcher, who has made his home in this city for years. Thatcher appeared at Music Hall last evening as one of the chief attractions in the "White Rats" Carnival, a vaudeville performance given under the auspices of the White Rats Association. Unfortunately the night was a very unpleasant one and a comparatively small audience assembled to hear the well-known minstrel and witness the other attractions.

Of course, everybody was particularly anxious to hear Mr. Thatcher and they found him just as funny as ever. He had a new supply of funny things and told them with that same way of his own which has made his monologues so famous. He had a few local hits ready which the audience properly appreciated.

Sam Edwards, a brother of Manager Maze Edwards, also did a turn, giving a novel little monologue as a "Modern Philosopher." He had some really funny things to say and said them well and proved himself a pleasing entertainer. The other numbers on the programme were by well known artists of the Proctor and Keith circuits.

REPORTS WERE PRESENTED.

VOTES OF THANKS EXTENDED TO THE LOCAL NEWSPAPERS.

How the Finances Stand—Letters to Be Sent Thanking Mr. Hall and Rev. Mr. Henderson For the Gratuitious Services in Plainfield.

The final meeting of the general committee, having charge of the Twentieth Century Gospel campaign in this city, was held last evening in the parlor at the Y. M. C. A. Rev. Dr. W. C. Snodgrass, president, occupied the chair and Rev. G. W. Gardner filled the position of secretary. The meeting opened with prayer by Rev. J. O. McKelvey. Those present included Dr. Snodgrass, Dr. Richards, Revs. G. Kennedy Newell, C. L. Goodrich, A. E. Main, John McMurray and J. O. McKelvey; also laymen, Stephen A. Cahoone, A. L. Force and J. H. Manning.

The secretary was, by a vote, directed to prepare a full history of the recent meetings, under Messrs. Hall and Henderson, including the financial statement of Mr. Cahoone, and submit them to the Ministers' Association for its approval and finally to be put on the secretary's book of minutes for future reference.

Mr Cahoone, chairman of the finance committee, submitted a detailed statement of receipts and expenses, showing all bills paid and a balance of $7 in the hands of Treasurer F. S Runyon. Mr. Cahoone will print his statement in the two city papers in a few days. The amount needed for all expenses was less than $200 over and above the collections at the meetings. Messrs. L. H. Biglow, Jr., and W. F. Arnold were appointed by the chairman as a committee to audit the treasurer's accounts.

Rev. Mr. Newell, chairman of the personal work committee, stated that the 144 persons signing cards without a church preference, had been seen by city missionary, E. R. Taylor, and assigned to such pastor as they selected.

A hearty vote of thanks to the local newspapers was extended by a unanimous vote for the full and accurate accounts they had given of the evangelistic meetings.

Dr. Richards, who had been designated to prepare a letter to Mr. Hall and also one to Rev. Mr. Henderson thanking them for their gratuitous services in conducting the recent meetings, read a carefully prepared letter which met the unanimous approval of all, and after being signed by all the pastors and laymen composing the committee in charge of the meetings, the letters will be mailed to Messrs. Henderson and Hall. Dr. Richards stated that he had received a very tender letter from Mr. Hall urging upon the ministers and personal workers the importance of carefully and prayerfully guarding those who recently signed cards in order that they might be brought out into the full light, etc. There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

RARITAN'S POSTMASTER.

Fight Between Factions in Republican Ranks Ended by Appointment of George W. Hope.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, Marsh 27.—The long and bitter fight over the Postmastership at Raritan has at last been settled by the appointment of George W. Hope.

The fight was not so much over the men as it was fight between the Reed and Thompson factions. J. F. MacGregor, the other candidate, was backed by Senator Reed, Job C. Kenyon, A. C. Mack and A. B. Rolm. The successful aspirant was pushed by Former Senator Thompson, ex-Sheriff Dilts and J. C. Frelinghuysen.

The two factions in the whole county finally took sides and Congressman Howell and Senators Sewell and Kean were besieged for weeks by the rival factions.

ENTITLED TO CERTIFICATE.

Miss Bessie Taylor Passed Difficult Examination in Manual Training Work.

Miss Bessie Taylor, the instructor in cooking and sewing in the manuel training department of the North Plainfield public schools, underwent an oral examination in New York yesterday for a certificate entitling her to teach in the manual training department of Greater New York schools.

The examination was in charge of a supervision of the New York schools and Miss Taylor was required to give a practical demonstration of her qualifications, by instructing a class of small Hebrew children in cooking. Miss Taylor gave the pupils a new lesson and was very successful in holding their attention.

She passed the requisite written examination some time ago and will be awarded a certificate on the results of the two tests. Should Miss Taylor decide to locate in New York, Superintendent Wightman feels that he will lose a valuable instructor on his corps.

WET WEATHER ENDED WITH THUNDER STORM

Lightning Struck One of Thomas Taylor's Cottages Located Near Washington Rock.

CHIMNEY WAS SHATTERED.

WITH THUNDER AND LIGHTNING CAME DELUGE OF RAIN.

Ended Rainy Period Which Lasted Three Days—Cooler Weather Now But Spring Weather Is Close at Hand.

After three successive days of almost incessant rain, Plainfield's wet weather terminated last evening in the first thunder storm of the season. The fact was made known shortly after 7 o'clock when a bright flash of lightning occurred, followed immediately after by a heavy crash of thunder which reverberated across the heavens in deep rolls. Other crashes, though milder in tone, came after, while the flashes of lightning were almost incessant.

A perfect deluge of rain followed and for a time it looked as though a genuine July shower had gotten here a little ahead of time. The downpour was of a brief duration, however, although it was sufficient to defer people from venturing out for the evening. Shortly before midnight the heavy clouds broke and this morning the sun was shining brightly. At times during the morning it was obscured by heavy clouds which seemed to threaten more rain.

With the end of the rain came colder weather and the prophets, self appointed and otherwise, promise a continuance of this for several days, at the end of which time a spring atmosphere may be looked for.

As far as can be learned, the only damage caused by the lightning was to a cottage belonging to Thomas Taylor, at Washington Valley, which was struck and damaged to the extent of $150. The family occupying it were not at home at the time, but Mr. Taylor, who lives nearby, hurried to the cottage, and arrived just in time to prevent its catching fire from the remains of a fire which had been scattered about the room. The chimney was shattered its entire length and the weather boards at one end were torn completely off.

FINE VIEWS.

Rev. J. Madison Hare, of Jersey City, Gave Illustrated Lecture on "The Luray Caverns" Last Evening.

The third entertainment in a series being given under the auspices of the Sunday-school of the Park Avenue Baptist church was held last evening, when Rev. J. Madison Hare, of Jersey City, gave his famous illustrated lecture on "The Luray Caverns, Virginia," and other interesting scenes. There was a good-sized audience present and the lecture was fully enjoyed.

The pictures of Luray Caverns were the finest ever seen, and what makes them more interesting is the fact that they were all taken with the aid of the electric light. It required four hours to take one of the finest pictures in the collection.

The pictures gave one an excellent idea of the grandeur and unusal beauty to be found in the caverns, which cover in all an area of over a mile. Mr. Hare graphically described the caverns and told many interesting facts concerning them. Interspersing these pictures there were other views showing the inauguration of President McKinley and scenes from many famed spots in the sunny south.

LOCATED ESCAPED CRIMINAL.

FRANK FREEHILL IN NEW YORK STATE ASYLUM.

Killed Special Officer Jewell at Rahway in 1896—Defended By C. A. Marsh.

Elizabeth, March 27.—Through the instrumentality of Chief of Police George Wright, of Rahway, and County Detective Keron, of this city, Frank Freehill, the tramp who killed Special Officer Jewell at Rahway in 1896, and who afterward escaped from the State Asylum at Morris Plains, has been located in the New York State Asylum for Criminal Insane at Mattewan. He is now serving a sentence and at its completion he will be brought to this State to pay the penalty which he sought to evade.

The crime for which Freehill was sentenced in this State was the killing of Officer Jewell, who attempted to arrest him. He was tried for murder but through the able defense of Lawyer Craig A. Marsh, of Plainfield, he was convicted of manslaughter and received a sentence of ten years in the State Prison at Trenton. Soon after his incarceration there he feigned insanity and a medical examination resulted in his being declared insane.

He was then removed to the hospital at Morris Plains but was there but a short time when friends aided him to escape. All trace of him for the time being was lost but skilled detectives never gave up the pursuit.

It has since been learned that he went to New York State, where in Cattaraugus county he killed another man and was sentenced to Auburn Prison for nine years. He again played the insanity dodge and was transferred to Mattewan, at which place the Union county officials found him. He has served but one year of the second sentence.

During the second trial the members of the tramp fraternity, who never deserted him, raised about $100 for his defense and did everything in their power to effect his release, but without success.

DEATH CAME SUDDENLY.

Mrs. Thomas Callahan Taken With Apoplectic Stroke Which Proved Fatal.

The death of Mrs. Thomas Callahan, of Richmond street, wife of the well-known groceryman, occurred last evening after a very brief illness. She was attending to her household duties as usual yesterday afternoon when she was taken with an apoplectic stroke. A physician was hurriedly summoned, but, in spite of his exertions, she passed away at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Callahan has been a resident of this city for thirty years, living most of that time in the east end where she was very well known and leaves many warm friends. She was fifty-one years old and is survived by four daughters and two sons, all of whom live in this city. They are the Misses Mary, Ellen, Annie and Norah Callahan and John and Jeremiah Callahan. She also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Henry Bilyeu, of this city and Miss Annie Seery, of Fort Hamilton, L. I., and Patrick Seery, of New York.

The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

MET DESPITE RAIN.

Services Held at Reform Hall Last Evening by Rev. G. L. Harney.

The services at Reform Hall last evening were very interesting and helpful in spite of the pouring rain that kept many away. The evangelist, Rev. G. L. Harney, stated that he never was discouraged when the weather gave him a small audience and did not refuse to speak even to a few. His subject was "Hope in Christ," and the sermon was enjoyed by all present.

Rain does not dampen the ardor of Mr. Harney and his helpers, and they feel that much good is being done. The subject of the sermon tonight will be "A Lesson From the Old Testament," and one of the modern necessities in religious, social and in every department of life will be discussed. Miss Clara Mears will sing a couple of solos. All are earnestly invited to be present.

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES HELD ANNUAL MEETING.

Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies of First M. E. Church Met Yesterday.

ELECTED THEIR OFFICERS.

ANNUAL REPORTS OF WORK DONE WERE RECEIVED.

Both Meetings Were Held in Vincent Chapel Yesterday Afternoon—Goodly Attendance at Both—Treasurer's Reports Very Satisfactory.

The two missionary societies of the First M. E. church held their annual meetings in Vincent chapel yesterday afternoon, and despite the weather there was a goodly attendance at each. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society held its sixteenth annual meeting.

The Foreign Missionary Society held its meeting first. The business transacted was the election of officers for the ensuing year and the reading of the reports of the work accomplished during the past year. The secretary, Miss M. B. Sharp, in her report elaborately sketched the good work done, and the treasurer, Miss S. E. Jackson, submitted a detailed report of the finances of the society. The treasurer's report showed that $82 11 had been gathered by dues and contributions. The organization has contributed $30 toward the support of a Bible reader in the Balphur district, in India.

The officers elected are: President, Mrs. Edward Winter; first vice-president, Mrs. W. C. Snodgrass; second vice president, Mrs. J. G. Cadmus; third vice-president, Mrs. E. Clark, Jr.; recording secretary, Miss M. B. Sharp; corresponding secretary, Miss R. A. Day; treasurer, Miss S. E. Jackson.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society then held its annual meeting and it was also largely attended.

The yearly reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and approved. The treasurer, Mrs. James W. Jackson, reported that the amount raised from all sources during the year amounted to $159 44, and the goods furnished represented a cash value of $153 80, making a grand total for the year's work of $313 24. The society has liberally contributed towards the support of the Deaconesses' Home, at Newark, and has also sent supplies to the Misses Horton and White, two Methodist deaconesses in San Juan, Porto Rico.

At the annual election of officers, the following members were chosen to fill the various posts: President, Mrs. G. W. Smith; first vice-president, Mrs. Percy Dyer; second vice-president, Mrs. J. M. Derby; third vice-president, Mrs. P. M. French; fourth vice-president, Mrs. D. E. Davis; recording secretary, Mrs. N. W. Pike; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Isabella Miller; treasurer, Mrs. James W. Jackson; mite box secretary, Mrs. I. L. McVoy.

AT THE THEATRES.

Something About the Attractions Which Plainfield Theatre-Goers May Care Ito Witness.

Harry Martell's gigantic and successful southern production "South Before The War" will be seen at Music Hall Saturday afternoon and night. The entertainment is a most novel one and is pronounced the best picture of southern darkey life ever attempted. The play introduces a number of scenes that are lifelike, beginning with a representation of a cotton field in full bloom. During this scene famous old time melodies that have made the negro and the plantation never to be forgotten memories are heard. Then the darkey camp meeting with all the characters usually seen there, the levee on the Mississippi and the landing of the famous steamboat, Robert E Lee, is faithfully portrayed. The closing scene is an old fashioned cake walk in which the entire company takes part. There will be a grand street parade on day of performance.

Pursuant to the demands of the public, Manager Will H. Myers, of the Little Irene Myers Company, which will be seen at Music Hall next Monday, headed by that vivacious little bunch of magnetism, with his usual progressive spirit has secured for his little star this season an almost entire new repertoire, every play of which affords her a conspicuous part. A perusal of the following list of standard dramas is in itself convincing that no expense has been spared in this direction: "The Ensign," "The Stowaway," "The Corner Grocery," "Little Lord Fauntleroy," "Under Two Flags," "Two Orphans," "The White Rat," "Maid of the Mill," "Ten Nights in a Bar-room" and others. It is the earnest endeavor of Manager Myers at all times to give the best that money can secure, and thereby hold the confidence of the public.

"Quo Vadis" dramatized by Stanislaus Strange, and given a gorgeous dress by Managers F. C. Whitney and Edwin Knowles, will be seen at Music Hall, early in May. The success which has attended the Whitney-Knowles' "Quo Vadis" is said to be due to the play, the company, the scenery, and the costumes. The latter are fine examples of the costumers' work, and the scenery shows a series of beautiful pictures, each surpassing the other in richness, until the final scene, the exterior of the Circus Maximus, with a view of the arena, closes the play, leaving an impression of vastness and magnificence seldom taken away from a theatre.

—The Young Ladies' Mission Band of the First Baptist church will meet Friday afternoon.

—George A Chapman, of Stelle avenue, has just purchased two fine horses.

—Lucetta Council, Daughters of Liberty, will meet this evening and consider business of importance.

Isn't it Worth 25c. To Be Cured of Constipation

People who suffer from habitual constipation with all its attendant ills, clogged stomach and bowels, sluggish liver, heartburn, indigestion, and thin and impure blood, are too apt to believe that the only remedy is violent purgatives. The contrary is the case. Such cathartics, even if they do move the bowels, are irritating and griping, leave the stomach inflamed and enfeebled and the constipated condition recurs with greater difficulty of cure and the sufferer constantly growing worse. There is a laxative that moves the bowels without pain or griping, cleanses the stomach, sharpens the appetite, stimulates the liver, strengthens the nerves, and purifies the blood, while its marvellous tonic properties tone up the entire system and keep it healthy.

Laxakola Does It

Its remarkable tonic properties reach every organ—the liver, kidneys and stomach, nerve, heart and brain—and removes the cause of your debilitated condition. This is the only way to secure an absolute and permanent cure.

Laxakola is the only medicine for babies, is purely vegetable and its action is gentle, speedy and effective. For coated tongue, simple fevers, colds, chills and the guilt feeling it is the ideal medicine.

It tastes good. ☞ Children like it and ask for it.

Laxakola, the great tonic laxative, is not only the most efficient of family remedies, but the most economical, because it combines two medicines, viz: laxative and tonic, and at one price. No other remedy gives so much for the money. At druggists, 25c. and 50c., or send for free sample to LAXAKOLA CO., 182 Nassau Street, N. Y., or 356 Dearborn Street, Chicago.

MRS. NATION IN OHIO.

Cincinnati's Mayor Gets a Strong Denunciation.

CINCINNATI, March 27.—Mrs. Carrie Nation began the day by attending early mass at the Roman Catholic cathedral, though she is not a communicant of that church.

Mrs. Nation called on Mayor Julius Fleischmann at the city hall in the afternoon and scolded him for operating a distillery here. On her arrival the mayor greeted her cordially and asked her if he could do anything for her. She said: "Yes. I want you to give me some advice as to how to close the hell holes in this city. You will never die well as long as you are a man who manufactures intoxicating drinks. You will have some serious questions to answer when you face your God. I can do no more than warn you, and that I must do."

For 20 minutes the mayor listened to perhaps the strongest denunciation that a chief executive ever received in his own office. When she had finished, Mayor Fleischmann remarked blandly: "I am sorry that we cannot agree. I am afraid you have struck a hard proposition—the mayor of a wicked city and a whisky manufacturer. I am glad to have met you and hope that you may do much good."

From the mayor's office Mrs. Nation called on Chief of Police Deitsch and asked him to send her an escort for her slumming. He assured her that she should have an officer, and as she left she said, "Goodby, and if I don't meet you in this world I hope to see you in heaven."

THE NEW YORK AT TANGIER.

On Her Way to Obtain an Apology From the Sultan of Morocco.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The arrival of the armored cruiser New York at Tangier, Morocco, was reported to the navy department in a telegram from Rear Admiral Frederick Rodgers, whose flagship she is.

Mr. Gummere, the United States consul general at Tangier, will embark on the New York and proceed in her to Mazagan, the nearest port to Morocco city, the capital of the sultan. It is two days' journey from Mazagan to Morocco city. While Mr. Gummere is carrying out his instructions to lay before the sultan certain claims of American citizens and a demand for an apology on account of the threat of the grand vizier and the minister of foreign affairs to remove the court if Mr. Gummere came, the New York will be at Mazagan, ready to take such action as may be necessary to make the sultan accede to the desires of the United States.

New Army Ration Approved.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—President McKinley has approved the new army ration prepared under the direction of General Weston, chief commissary. The principal change is in the increase of the sugar ration, being 20 pounds to each 100 rations instead of 15 pounds as heretofore. The vinegar component, which was 8-25 of a gill, is changed by allowing half that amount in cucumber pickles when desired. In the fruit component 1 2-5 ounces of jam is allowed for the field ration in place of 1 3-5 ounces of dried or evaporated fruit, which is the allowance for the garrison ration. A change is made in the travel ration by allowing the canned tomatoes to be served on the first day instead of the fourth as heretofore.

Frightened to Death.

SOUTH NORWALK, Conn., March 27.—Rendered insane through fear of hydrophobia, Myron R. Olmstead, aged 32, has just died at his home here with all the horrible symptoms of that disease. He was bitten by a dog on Jan. 23, but his physician says the wound would have led to no serious trouble had Olmstead not been frightened by companions in the hat factory where he was employed into believing that he was doomed to an attack of rabies. He was thrown into a state of hysteria by his imagination, according to the physician. Pseudo hydrophobia is assigned as the cause of death.

FLOODS IN MICHIGAN

Grand River at High Water Mark and Still Rising.

MANY FACTORIES FORCED TO SUSPEND

Dams Swept Away In Many Places by the Raging Waters, and Great Damage Done to Farm Property.

GRAND RAPIDS, March 27.—Grand river has reached the high water mark of 1893, 12 feet 6 inches, and is rising an inch an hour. The Rouge, Flat and Thorn Apple, three big tributaries, are pouring a swollen flood into the Grand. All the factories along the canals in this city have been shut down, and their basements are flooded. A portion of the Ninth ward is flooded. The Pere Marquette railroad bridge is in danger, the water being nearly level with the stringers. Hundreds of acres of lowlands along the river north and east of the city are flooded, but as yet no buildings are reported moved from foundations, although many are partially submerged. Croker Hook, a tributary of the Grand north of the city, is out of its banks.

The big dam owned by the Foster-Winchester company at Solcums, behind which was stored more than 1,000,000 gallons of water, gave way, and the roadbed, ties and tracks were torn out for a considerable distance. The water flooded the camp and did great damage along the course of the creek. The Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad men are watching Cedar river at Cedar Springs very closely. The stream is very high and is reported to be rising, but the bridge is still above the water. Near Kinney, on the Grand Rapids and Iowa, the water is up even with the ties.

At Iona the Grand river rose 20 inches yesterday and is still rising. All the railway bridges are being carefully watched. Portions of the city are four feet under water. Three dams along Maple river went out, and the dam at Kidderville also gave way, doing great damage to farmers.

The St. Joseph at Danger Point.

DETROIT, March 27.—A special from Niles, Mich., to The Free Press says: "The St. Joseph river is higher than it has been for several seasons, and the water is dashing over the dam in torrents. In consequence of the high water mills No. 1 and 2 of the Niles Board and Paper company and French's pulp mill have been obliged to close down, and 200 people are temporarily out of employment. Weavers island is entirely inundated, and the house on it is standing in water. The lower South Bend road just above the mills is overflowed to the depth of several feet, and it is impassable."

Wisconsin Floods.

MILWAUKEE, March 27.—Floods which threatened the destruction of the village of Saukville through an ice gorge in the river receded considerably yesterday when a small portion of the gorge gave way and released a quantity of the back water. A small ice gorge in the Milwaukee river near North avenue, this city, broke, and the rush of water which ensued carried away the footbridge south of North avenue, causing a loss of $10,000. It is believed that the danger point in the Menominee river has been passed, unless gorges up stream should suddenly burst and precipitate a large quantity of water into the already swollen stream.

Bessemer Steel Production.

PHILADELPHIA, March 27.—Complete statistics of the production during the year 1900 of bessemer steel ingots and castings and bessemer steel rails in the United States have been obtained by the American Iron and Steel association from the manufacturers. The total production of ingots was 6,684,770 gross tons against 7,586,354 tons in 1899, showing a decrease in 1900 of 901,584 tons, or almost 12 per cent. The production of 1899 was the largest in the history of the association. The production of steel rails for the year was 2,361,921 gross tons, and that of the year 1899 was 2,240,767 tons. This year's total production will include also rails made from open hearth steel and iron rails, and when all the figures are collected it is expected that the entire production will amount to 2,400,000 tons.

General Yatsumi Expects War.

PITTSBURG, March 27.—K. Yatsumi, a general of the Japanese imperial army, accompanied by Captains N. Kayomi and L. Matusi, passed through Pittsburg yesterday en route to California. They have been in this country for the past three weeks securing data for the benefit of the imperial army and intended remaining for three or more months, but were called home. General Yatsumi said: "According to the communications I have received from my government I think that a conflict between Japan and Russia is inevitable. While I have not been notified officially I think that the object of my superiors in calling me home is for the purpose of making preparations for a war with Russia. Japan and Russia are bound to come together sooner or later as a result of the contention over Korea."

Kipling Coming to New Hampshire.

CONCORD, N. H., March 27.—New Hampshire is enthusiastic over the prospect that Rudyard Kipling may be enrolled in the long and distinguished list of its summer residents. C. P. Gibson of Chesterfield has sold one of the handsomest residence sites about Lake Spofford in Chesterfield to Mrs. Kipling. The deed was made in her name. The spot is but a few miles across country from Brattleboro, where Kipling built the Naulakha.

The Indiana For Cadets.

The Indiana is now at the Philadelphia navy yard, where she is to be put in shape for the cadets to go aboard her the latter part of May.

BOERS GOING NORTH

Lord Methuen Waging an Active Campaign.

CONSTANTLY ENGAGED WITHOUT LOSS

Delarey's Plan to Concentrate a Superior Force and Attack While British Were Incumbered Fell Through.

CAPE TOWN, March 27.—Nearly all the invading Boer commandos are now endeavoring to get to the north, as the Orange river is again fordable at almost any point.

Lord Methuen has been very active recently and from a British standpoint has done a lot of good work. He has been constantly engaged in minor skirmishes and so far as reported has not had a single casualty for several weeks, while the Boers have had an average of three killed daily.

On the occasion of the fight near Wolmaranstadt the Boers had an elaborate scheme to concentrate a superior force against Methuen while his column was incumbered with prisoners, cattle, etc. Methuen was too quick for General Delarey, who arrived late, and the plan fell through.

LORD METHUEN.

Small parties of Boers are concentrating near the boundary of the Cradock, Middleburg and Graaf Reinet districts, in Cape Colony. It is said that their object is to terrorize the British inhabitants.

There were two deaths from the plague in the hospital Monday. Seventeen patients have been discharged as cured.

Colonel Harry McCalmont, M. P., who has been fighting with his regiment in South Africa, will sail for England today.

It is understood that the Cape government will endeavor to retain 4,000 town guardsmen as a permanent militia force. The town guards will shortly be disbanded.

Kruger Coming Next Month.

PARIS, March 27.—Le Raphel gives space this morning to the following remarkable communication from Amsterdam: "Mr. Kruger will sail for the United States next month, on the invitation of the American pro-Boer committee, to give a series of lectures. The committee hopes to collect $50,000,000 and to form a volunteer flotilla with which to transport men and ammunition to the Transvaal."

British Troops Captured.

LONDON, March 27.—The Cape Town correspondent of The Daily Express reports the capture by 100 Boers of 130 colonials in a rocky defile near Richmond last Thursday. He asserts that the colonials lost 13 men before they surrendered, adding that they were all liberated after having been stripped of their accouterments.

General French's Success.

VRYHEID, March 27. — General French, with Dartnal's and Pulteney's columns, arrived here Monday, having killed, wounded or captured 1,200 Boers. He has also taken 7 cannon, 1,000 rifles, 1,800 wagons and 226,000 head of horses, cattle and sheep.

Death In a Tunnel.

SEATTLE, March 27.—The first serious accident in the new Great Northern tunnel which was opened for traffic about three months ago took place Monday night and resulted in the death of Engineer W. W. Bradley from suffocation from the poisonous gases in the tunnel. His fireman, Joseph W. Smith, and five other trainmen were overcome, but recovered soon after getting to the open air. The train, which was east bound, became stalled in the middle of the tunnel. The fumes of the engine filled the place, and the men were forced to lie on the floor of the tunnel for safety.

Diamond Thief Arrested.

KANSAS CITY, March 27.—William Dearduff, 20 years old, a clerk, has been arrested, charged with stealing $3,100 worth of diamond rings from his employers, Edwards & Sloan, wholesale jewelers. When he was confronted with the rings, which had been found hidden in the basement of the firm's building, Dearduff broke down and confessed. Dearduff also confessed to having sent Mr. Edwards, the senior member of the firm, a letter threatening to kidnap the jeweler's son if he did not immediately produce $1,000 in gold.

Cause of Cancer Discovered.

The faculty will meet at the university on Thursday night, and Professor Gaylord will make known the results of his two years' work in this direction.

Possible Loss of Twenty-eight Lives.

LISBON, March 27.—A religious riot has occurred in Setubal, 18 miles southeast of Lisbon. Troops were called out. Several persons were wounded, and it is rumored that some were killed. Order was finally restored.

THE ALABAMA STORM.

Birmingham's List of Dead Numbers Thirteen—Order Being Restored.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 27.—Under the harmonious working of the state militia and local police force much order has come out of Monday's chaos incident to the fatal storm which swept portions of this city. A careful revision of the death list places the total number of dead in the city at 13, several persons who were missing and had been reported dead having shown up. Two women reported missing at Irondale are believed to be dead under wrecked buildings. If they are dead, this will increase the total to 15.

Thirty-five persons were more or less seriously hurt in Birmingham. Mrs. R. H. Thomas and Mr. W. P. Dickinson, who are at St. Vincent's hospital, are in a precarious condition.

J. Alexander, the merchant reported killed in previous dispatches, was only severely injured. He crawled out of the ruins immediately after the storm and managed to reach home.

The storm destroyed more than 200 homes, the greater part of which were occupied by negro families.

The relief fund raised by the people of Birmingham is growing and has already reached $4,000. Mayor F. Drennen authorizes the statement that the sufferers are not in need of outside contributions. The property loss is placed at about $300,000.

The storm seems to have lifted after leaving Birmingham, and beyond giving Huntsville, Ala., a slight touch did not make itself felt until it passed over into Georgia.

At Chambers, Ga., near Rome, a railroad depot was blown into a creek and washed away. At Rounsaville a big flouring mill was destroyed, together with many thousand bushels of wheat. The handsome residence of the Rounsaville family was wrecked, but no one injured.

The cyclone struck Buena Vista, Ga., at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The young child of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Harrell was killed, as was also a negro girl. The home of the Misses Woodall was wrecked and the occupants seriously injured.

At Cartersville lightning struck a schoolhouse, killing two children.

Owing to the tremendous rains the rivers in northern and northwestern Georgia are out of their banks.

In Atlanta at 3 o'clock yesterday morning 1.79 inches of rain fell in five minutes, breaking all records.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

The storm disabled 1,000 telephones in Atlanta.

A revolt against Turkish rule has broken out again in Yemen, Arabia.

A daring atempt to kidnap an 11-year-old boy was made at Wilkesbarre, Pa.

Mme. Sembrich has abandoned her opera tour in San Francisco because of illness.

A daring bank robbery occurred at Somerset, O. The bandits are being trailed by bloodhounds.

In New York Albert T. Patrick had a preliminary hearing on the charge of murdering Millionaire Rice.

Pawned Her Legs For $25.

OMAHA, March 27.—Miss Jessie Robinson went into Sam Adler's pawnshop yesterday and startled the proprietor with this request, "Will you loan me $25 on my legs?" Then she quickly explained that they were cork legs. "Madam, have you your legs with you?" he asked, and she assured him that she was standing on them at that moment. At Adler's request the woman lifted her skirt three or four inches, displaying a well rounded cork ankle. She explained that her artificial legs extended above her knees and offered to take them right off and hand them over the counter. "For heaven's sake don't do that! Go home and I will call for them," replied Adler. The young woman left, and half an hour later Adler received a telephone message that the legs were waiting for him.

An Ohio Decision.

COLUMBUS, O., March 27.—The state supreme court has dealt a deathblow to the so called debenture business in Ohio. In the quo warranto proceedings brought by the attorney general against the Interstate Investment company of Cincinnati the court entered judgment of ouster. The decision is based upon the finding of the court that the methods employed by the debenture companies are those of a lottery and that they are fraudulent, contrary to public policy and unlawful. Five of the six judges concurred in the judgment.

Nebraska Deadlock Continues.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 27.—Nearly every one concedes that there will be no election of United States senators in Nebraska this year. The fusion and anti-Thompson blocking combination, which has for one of its objects the election of Bryan as senator two years hence, still holds the balance of power, and there is no sign of a break. The legislature is scheduled to adjourn this week.

Moorish Troops Fight Tribesmen.

LONDON, March 27.—The Daily Express publishes the following from Gibraltar: "News has been received from Marakesh of a great fight between Sus tribesmen and Moorish troops. NEW YORK LEGISLATURE.

Charter Amendments Not Opposed. The Governor's Vetoes.

ALBANY, March 27.—The proposed amendments to the charter of New York city will probably be made with the full consent of the Tammany delegation in the legislature and the consent of Mayor Van Wyck, so that the bill will not be vetoed and the legislature will not be required to pass the bill a second time. This will mean an earlier adjournment of the legislature.

The joint executive session of the two committees on cities last night to discuss the proposed charter changes was marked for its cordiality among the members, and the intimation was plainly given that Governor Odell desired the Democratic minority to be satisfied and that the charter should be arranged so that the mayor should not veto it.

There is some little divergence of opinion over the question of two years or four years as the term for the mayor, but it will probably be made two years, for while Tammany and Mayor Van Wyck are not known to have agreed to it they have made no objection.

Representatives of many charitable and religious orders appeared before the assembly committee on taxation and retrenchment yesterday afternoon in opposition to Assemblyman Davis' bill amending the tax law relative to exemptions of religious and similar property in certain cases.

Nine vetoes in 24 hours is the remarkable record of Governor Odell. Five were sent in Monday night, and four more came in yesterday morning.

CHINA REJECTS.

The Manchurian Treaty With Russia Not Signed.

PEKING, March 27.—The Manchurian treaty, modified as to the fourth, fifth and eighth articles by Russia, was handed on March 13 to the Chinese minister at St. Petersburg for signature within two weeks. Later the sixth article was expunged.

The treaty has been finally rejected by the Chinese government, whose reply, on the expiration of the limit of time for signing, was received here Monday from Singan-fu.

This reply states that the government refuses to assent to the convention.

It is reported that Viceroys Liu Kun Yi and Chang Chih Tung memorialized the emperor, praying him to resist to the utmost a treaty alliance with Russia.

It is also reported that great pressure is still being brought to bear on the Chinese plenipotentiaries.

Convention Not Rejected.

LONDON, March 27.—The Reuter Telegraph company has received the following dispatch, dated Peking, March 26: "The report that China rejects the Manchurian convention is not true. She objects to many points which are under discussion."

No Coal Strike Likely.

NEW YORK, March 27.—The coal operators in this city agreed that a strike of the Pennsylvania coal miners is improbable to say the least. A strike is not thought of by them, according to the statements that were made by the representatives of the coal companies. President Mitchell of the United Mine Workers would not dare to order a strike, it was said, because the consequences would be too serious. It was said by several coal operators yesterday morning that Mr. Mitchell did not come here to threaten the operators with a strike. He came, they said, to ask the operators to recognize the union and that only. This was added to the demands that the miners made last November and is a demand by the union rather than by the men. It is quite plain, too, that the demand by the union for recognition will not be acceded to.

Another Victim of Mine Explosion.

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., March 27.—The Cottage State hospital here is a corridor of horrers. On nine cots lay nine victims of the explosion of gas in the Gates mine of the American Steel and Wire company. All the men in the explosion inhaled more or less of the flame when the gas was ignited, and none can speak, their vocal chords being powerless with the scorching. Last evening James Wilson, one of the English speaking victims, died. He was frightfully burned about the head, face and shoulders. James Murphy is dying. Wilson Gilmore is also on the verge of death as well as two Slavs.

Harlem Newspaper Plant Burned.

NEW YORK, March 27.—Two alarms were sent in last night for a fire which destroyed the building and plant of The Harlem Local Reporter, a semiweekly newspaper at 203 East One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street. The fire started in the pressroom in the basement and soon spread through all of the five stories of the building. The newspaper was founded in 1873 by James J. Graff. Its editor is John A. Mason and its principal stockholder is Isaac A. Hopper, Tammany leader in the Thirty-first assembly district. The damage to the building was estimated to be $6,000 and the loss to the plant $15,000.

Horses For British Officers.

CHICAGO, March 27.—The Chicago horse market broke the record of receipts on Monday, there having arrived during the day 1,697 horses, in 114 cars The highest previous record was June 13, 1898, when 1,608 head arrived. A large number of the horses now being purchased in this market are for the English army. A significant fact is that a large proportion of this consignment consists of horses bought especially for English army officers, many of the mounts having been already selected for certain officers who prefer the American horse to any other.

To Confer With Miners.

HARRISBURG, March 27.—The senate last night unanimously adopted a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee of three senators and four members of the house to confer immediately with the anthracite coal operators and with the officials of the United Mine Workers of America to endeavor to bring about an amicable solution of the difficulties now existing between the operators and miners.

"Yellows" Work Under Guard.

MONTCEAU-LES-MINES, France March 27.—The "yellows," or nonstrikers, worked again yesterday in the mines under the protection of an imposing force of troops. There were several small disturbances. The "reds," or strikers, renewed their hostile demonstrations, but they were cowed by the bayonets of the gendarmery and refrained from serious disorders.

THE CZAR IS DOOMED

Nihilist Plots Thicken About Him.

RUSSIA'S RULER IN MORTAL FEAR.

Explosives Said to Be Secreted In the Most Secret Chambers of the Royal Palace—Many Wild Stories.

PARIS, March 27.—News of the nihilist plots that are threatening about the czar has caused consternation here.

Nihilists say that the full gravity of the situation in Russia is not fully set out even in the mail dispatches.

The czar knows he is doomed. He has collapsed physically. His mental condition is pitiable. Half the time he is mad and pleads with his ministers like a child to save him from assassins whom he sees hiding in every corner.

The secret police are powerless to cope with the plotters. Since the discovery of the mine of bombs under his council chamber at the Tzarkoe-Selo palace the czar has been afraid to trust his advisers, even M. Robiedonostzeff, the procurator of the holy synod, his most intimate friend and confidant.

His physicians have advised him to take a cruise on the high seas in his yacht. This is not so much to cure his nervousness as to get him away from plotters.

He recalls the recent assassination of his minister of education and the attempt on the life of the procurator and believes that he cannot escape even by flight. In despair, he sits tremblingly awaiting his doom.

The nihilists laugh, so confident are they of success, and say that the czar is hopelessly enmeshed.

They look upon the discovery of the mine under the Tzarkoe-Selo palace as a little thing, for they say many others are planted in the most secret chambers of the royal mansions, where no secret police can possibly find them and where they will eventually destroy the tyrant.

They hint at explosives on the imperial yacht.

The czar cannot sleep. He wakes in the night crying for help.

He fears to eat, and an expert on poisons eats first of every dish presented.

Russia Preparing For War.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 27.—Advices from Odessa, the Black sea port of Russia, say that extraordinary preparations for war are being made. The naval dockyards are pushing work on the Black sea fleet, while thousands of soldiers are arriving daily and being dispatched in haste to various points of strategic importance.

The garrisons in all the cities are being doubled, and domiciliary visits are made continually, with many arrests.

The Trouble Spreading.

BERLIN, March 27.—Dispatches from Russia to several papers, including the Tageblatt and the Deutsche Tages Zeitung, tell of the spread of disaffection, especially at Odessa, where 100 arrests have been made; at Riga, where 300 persons are in custody; at Kiev, Kharkov, Dorpat, Tomsk and Moscow, where high officials are involved.

Greenberg's Heavy Sentence.

NEW YORK, March 27.—Louis Greenberg, 22 years old, received a sentence of five years' imprisonment at hard labor and a fine of $800 yesterday from Judge McMahon for the crime of abduction. Greenberg is what is known in police parlance as a "Red Light district cadet." He married Henrietta Kanisowitz, who was only 17 years old, and then placed her in an immoral house and collected her earnings for himself. Judge McMahon, on account of what he termed the atrociousness of the crime, refused to heed a plea for clemency.

Cranks Threaten Morgan.

LONDON, March 27.—An unnamed American financier in London who is associated with Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan is credited by The Daily Express with stating that the boast of New York newspapers that the steel trust would close the iron works of England has caused several British cranks to write threatening letters to Mr. Morgan. The informant added that Mr. Morgan laughs at the threats. He also expressed the opinion that the cranks were confusing Banker Morgan with Senator Morgan.

A $100,000,000 Increase.

PHILADELPHIA, March 27.—By the largest stock vote ever cast in the history of the Pennsylvania Railroad company the shareholders of that corporation have re-elected the old board of directors and authorized an increase of $100,000,000 in the present capital stock. The number of shares voted was 1,793,442, representing 59.18 per cent, a greater percentage than at any previous election.

No Arrests In Maryland Case.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—Director Merriam of the census bureau states that thus far no arrests have been decided upon in connection with alleged census frauds in Maryland in addition to that of Enumerator Abell, but he intimates that further investigations will be undertaken.

Rathbone's Bondsman Shaky.

HAVANA, March 27.—Estes G. Rathbone, former director general of posts, who is now on bail under charges of fraudulent practices, will be taken into custody, his boudsman having refused to continue the guarantee.

COMING EVENTS

March 31—Judge William N. Runyon will speak, and Prof. George A. Morris, the great colored basso, will sing at the Y. M. C. A. meeting at 4:15 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Water Supply Question.

Many subscribers and friends of The Daily Press have called at this office and begged that we denounce the Plainfield Water Supply Company for raising the water rates in city and borough. When the bills first made their appearance last week, the seeming increase was investigated and a fair and impartial statement of the situation made. There was simply an adjustment of the accounts to conform with the schedule of rates which the water company was entitled to charge by the franchise granted to it by the Council in 1891, which The Daily Press discovered after careful investigation.

The trouble was that a great majority of the householders in the city and borough had their bills increased because they did not formerly conform with the rates. Now nobody likes to pay more than they have to and it does seem unpleasant to be compelled to pay an increased price for the very same thing you have been enjoying heretofore at a lesser cost.

All the protests and public meetings in the world cannot make the water company cut its rates. The company did not break its agreement with the city, it simply enforced the rates and rules which had not heretofore been strictly adhered to. While it is not pleasant to pay out more without a corresponding increase of service, it certainly looks as if the citizens had no means of redress directly from the company.

But there is one way in which the householders may be freed for all time from their relationship with the Plainfield Water Supply Company or any other similar corporation and that is in the purchase or establishment of a water supply plant which can be run so that the citizens could obtain their water supply at a reduced rate from that which they are paying at present. Properly run, such a plant should become more than self supporting and annually add a fair income to the municipal treasury.

In response to the great demand that The Daily Press should assist in relieving the householders and property owners from the increased burden which has fallen on so many of them, it has been decided to put the question of municipal ownership in both city and borough to a popular vote. If the taxpayers of the two municipalities take enough interest in the proposition to vote in sufficient numbers to fairly represent the feeling in each, then the result of the balloting is bound to have an important influence on the future actions of both Councils. If the members of those two bodies discover that a great majority of the tax-payers are in favor of the municipal ownership, they will feel justified in taking steps either to purchase the present plant of the Plainfield Water Supply Company or else build an entirely new one.

The anti-spring election law has been declared constitutional by the Court of Errors and Appeals, the highest court in the State. This decision effectually settles the controversy started by some of the Democratic city governments. As far as Plainfield is concerned, it means that there will be but one election and that that one will take place the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. The charter election which heretofore has taken place in December will now be combined with the county and State election, and the voters of Plainfield will cast their ballots for everything from governor to justice of the peace at the election next November.

The election of S St. John McCutchen to the presidency of the North Plainfield Board of Education occasioned no surprise as it was generally conceded that he was eminently fitted to continue in that office. Mr. McCutchen is one of the most valuable workers in State educational circles, and North Plainfield is extremely fortunate in having him at the head of its School Board.

An outline of the work to be done on the borough streets will probably be prepared at the meeting of the street committee of the Borough Council this evening. It behooves those citizens of the borough who desire any particular street macadamized this year to be up and doing at once if they want the street committee to consider it this season.

The plan of having teachers and parents meet, as is being tried by the faculty of the Plainfield High School this afternoon, is not a new one, but it has often proven very satisfactory and brings about more effective co-operation between the school and the home life.

The Republican leaders of the State are much pleased at the result of the decision of the Court of Errors and Appeals in the case of the Meeker Act. Again the Union county Assemblyman figures conspicuously in State affairs.

Do you believe that the city should own its own water supply plant? If you do or if you don't fill out a ballot on the first page and send it to this office.

Plainfielders will look with interest to see what showing the whist four of the Park Club will make in the State whist congress at Jersey City this week.

The first thunder storm of the season arrived here last evening but it was not expected. It is a little early for such things.

The baseball season in Plainfield is close at hand. Already the college teams have begun their spring schedule.

Dunellen, March 27.—Unless a stop is put to the practice, a serious accident is sure to result from the dangerous pastime which the borough boys have of jumping on the cars of the Middlesex and Somerset Traction Company. Hardly a day passes but what some one is thrown from a rear end by a too hasty jump at the approach of the conductor. The conductors have tried in vain to discourage the boys in their attempt to steal a small ride, but they still persist in doing so. One young lad fell yesterday, ane beside torn and soiled clothes he received a number of bad bruises.

Many of those in attendance partook of the excellent supper prepared and the evening programme was greatly enjoyed. Every number on the programme was loudly applauded and those taking part acquited themselves in a very creditable manner. The two sketches, "Cousin Frank" and "The Train To Morrow," were well rendered and caused much amusement.

Scotch Plains, March 27.—A young horse, partly broken, owned by Fred Clark, made a great stir yesterday morning in front of the postoffice. The animal became fractious and kicked the shafts into many pieces. Before he was subdued he managed to mount the porch in front of the postoffice and at one time it looked as though he would break into the office. The horse was finally put under subjection and led home.

The promised new carpet for the Methodist church has been purchased and will be laid during the early part of next week. A fund for this carpet was started when Rev. Mr. Woodruff was pastor and through the efforts of Rev. Mr. Bright, the present pastor, the necessary amount has been raised. The next thing in order will be the painting of the church. This will no doubt be accomplished before a great while.

W. E. Collins, T. R Collins, Edward L. Hand, W. R Stanbery, Frank Allen and William Noble composed the team from Fanwood Council, Royal Arcanum, that worked their special side degree at the meeting of Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum, last Monday evening. The team received many compliments for the excellent work.

Miss Lulu Hollingsworth led the Epworth League service at the Methodist church Sunday evening. John Wade will be in charge next Sunday evening. These services are held at 7:15 o'clock prior to the regular evening service.

Fanwood Council, Royal Arcanum, met last evening. It was expected that one candidate would be initiated, but he was not able to be present. The initiation will probably take place at the next meeting.

There was a christening at the Italian colony last Sunday afternoon, and the event was marked by many special features which the participants seemed to enjoy immensely.

John Hetfield, of Westfield, has purchased John Cook's stone crusher, and the latter will retire from the business which he has conducted for a great many years.

Duncan Monroe has leased the house occupied by Fred Hoagland, who has gone to Pennsylvania, and will move in next week.

Samuel Chappel and daughter, of Kingston, N. Y., were visitors in town yesterday. Mr. Chappel was formerly in business here.

Mrs. Fred Hoagland goes to Pennsylvania this week to join her husband, who has secured a good position there.

Wm. Hollingsworth, a student at Pratt's Institute, New York, has returned home for the Easter vacation.

Twilight Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., will meet tomorrow evening. There will probably be no special business.

The second rehearsal of the Easter music will be held at the Methodist church next Saturday evening.

Cornelius Cocarrano moved to Bridgeport, Conn., yesterday, where he will engage in business.

John Dodd, who has been ill for some time, has returned to his position at the fur mill.

ARRESTED FOR STEALING HAM

MRS. MAGGIE BENFORD HAILED BEFORE JUDGE RUNYON.

She Said That It Was All Johanna Haley's Fault But Judge Runyon Took a Different View.

Mrs. Maggie Benford, one of the most famous of Paradise Alley's population, appeared in city court this morning after an absence of many months This time it was for stealing a ham from Daley Brothers' grocery store on West Front street late yesterday afternoon. The arrest was made by Patrolman Watson.

The police noticed Mrs. Benford on the street late yesterday afternoon. She wandered into one of the little fruit stores and borrowed a crooked banana knife. A colored man from the West End, a former special officer, says he saw her slash at the cord which held the ham and then flit away. He told Patrolman Watson. The ham was found hidden in the alley in the rear of Blatz's saloon while the culprit fled. She was arrested on Front street a few minutes later.

A remarkable tale was ready for City Judge Runyon this morning when the aged woman was haled before him. She was not to blame at all, she explained. It was all the fault of that very naughty woman, Johanna Haley, who is a neighbor of Mrs. Benford's in the alley and is not unknown in police court circles. But the Judge failed to take Maggie's view of the case. He believed that she was guilty. As Daley Brothers did not desire to prosecute, he was compelled to discharge the prisoner, however, but administered a severe reprimand.

During the course of the hearing, Mrs. Benford's little daughter was put on the stand and explained to the Court how she had endeavored to persuade her mother to lead a better life. Judge Runyon complimented her for her noble effort toward that end.

Easter Fashions

After all life is not worth living unless we can have new millinery for Easter. Woe to the woman who has to go to church on Easter morning in an old or made over hat! If the preacher does not single her out for anathema, the other women will, and never can she hold up her head again. At least that is what she thinks at the time. Some women get the grip or headache or hysteria on that fateful day. There is no use telling a woman that beauty unadorned is adorned the most. She knows better, and it is a dyspeptic and mean wretch of a man who refuses her a hat with all the flowers of the field, the birds of the air and a few of the beasts of the forest upon it.

But, to speak a little more seriously, the new millinery is very handsome and becoming and not at all inartistic. The colors are, generally speaking, vivid and showy, though the woman of fine taste can have what she likes, inasmuch as there are infinite numbers of hats in plain colors, with green leaves or draperies for sole garniture. Royal purple, scarlet and yellow combined and, in fact, all the brilliant primary colors are seen and in abundance, and it is not considered a mark of savagery to wear half a dozen of them combined. Still we see black chip in a walking shape with black panne drapery around the crown and with a bunch of shaded green leaves applied in form of a plume curling around the left side of the brim. The left side of the brim is considerably higher than the other. Very pretty combinations are made in different shades of brown, and I may add that panne seems to be the favorite of all the materials for foundations for toques and for draperies. The fancy straws require but little trimming, and that is usually in the shape of flowers, roses of magnificent size and color, such as would cause a florist to dance with joy.

The Aiglon hat is a variation on the Continental. This shape is always very becoming to young faces, but older ones look better in the softer toques, which are still with us. There are many of these in panne and many more in tulle and chiffon draped closely over rather flat frames. These are worn tipped high on the left side and have flowers beneath the brim or ruffles of chiffon or rosettes in some preferred color, for the foundation is almost always black. Evening church and club hats are generally in toque shape, and some of the very prettiest of them have a foundation of white chiffon and over this a piece of fine chantilly thread lace—black, of course. There is nothing softer and better suited for such occasions. An aigret or a few delicate flowers finish these, and they are always refined.

There is a new shape somewhat after the shepherdess form, but this is larger and has the brim much wider on the left side. In black chip, with a drapery of soft, dark green crape and with a small ruche of mignonette green and rusty red gathered under the left side of the brim, this is a hat not to be overlooked.

One may say that the rather flat models are quite as often seen as before, and several unmistakable poke shapes are seen, also a few of the high crowned hats and rolled brims.

Some hats, even those to wear with tailor suits, have the whole top covered with flowers, mostly roses, in light tints. One straw hat has a wreath of white roses around the whole brim. This gives it a sentimental look, like a girl in the old song who "wore a wreath of roses above her marble brow."

Tulle is sometimes painted and dusted with metal dust for making crowns and bows to handsome evening bonnets; also silk mull is often run with gilt threads and used to make fine toques. Capotes are not in the swim this Easter except for old ladies.

HENRIETTE ROUSSEAU.

KING OF CATTLEMEN.

Career of a Rhode Islander Who Went to Texas Penniless and Acquired a Fortune.

In the Pierce family cemetery at Deming's Bridge, Matagorda county, Tex., there is a magnificent monument erected to the memory of A. H. Pierce, known in that portion of Texas as "Shanghai." The monument tells of the virtues of Shanghai. The statements are no doubt true, for Shanghai had them chiseled out to order.

"I'm not going to wait until I'm dead to have a monument raised for me," said Shanghai, in explaining why he anticipated the future. "You may talk as you please about me now, but I don't know what you'll say when I'm dead. I'm entitled to a monument and I'm going to make sure of having one, so I've put one in 'memory' of myself."

This monument is of marble and granite, about 35 feet high, and cost, set in place, about $15,000. The pedestal is of Texas granite, while there is a heroic figure of "Shang" in marble surmounting the whole. Smaller figures commemorative of stirring events in his life are in niches about the pedestal, and panels are chiseled with inscriptions telling of Mr. Pierce's career.

Texas has many queer characters, but none odder than Shanghai Pierce. He is the richest of the cattlemen, the oldest in point of active service, and the most enterprising. A thousand good stories are told about him, some apocryphal, but the majority true. He is as well known in banking circles in New York as on the prairies of Texas, and the big money men of Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City know him almost as well as do the people of the larger towns of Texas. Nothing is too big for Shanghai to take a hand in, be it a poker game or a blind pool in Wall street, but the only thing he prides himself on is his knowledge of cattle. He says he is the best cowman in the world, and it would be difficult to prove that he is wrong in his opinion. It was a chance meeting with Shanghai that led Charles H. Hoyt to write "A Texas Steer." They met on a railroad train, and Hoyt conceived the idea of writing a play around the cattle king.

Pierce died a few days ago, leaving a fortune estimated at $6,000,000.

CRAZED BY RELIGION.

Fanatic in North Carolina Wanted to Offer His Children as a Sacrifice to the Lord.

From Greensboro, N. C., a correspondent writes to the Atlanta Journal that Rev. T. C. Hodgin, a Quaker evangelist who lays special stress on the doctrine of sanctification, has created a genuine sensation in the southern part of that county, where he has been conducting a revival at a country church.

Some of the people who attended the services became so enthused that their religion took on the form of insanity.

In the course of one of the experience meetings a man arose from the congregation and told of a vision which he claimed to have had with the Lord the night before, in which he was commanded to take his youngest children and offer them as a sacrifice to atone for the sins of his past life.

While he was speaking his sister arose and shouted:

"Brother, obey the voice of the Lord."

The excitement was intense, and but for the presence of a few cool heads some of those present would have done themselves personal violence.

The rash father who claimed to have had the vision is being watched by his neighbors to save his children from harm.

Merv, City of the Desert.

At nine o'clock at night another sensation. Merv, once the "Queen of the World," once a household word in England, thanks to O'Donovan and Marvin and Vambery, as the possible cause of war with Russia, whose absorption of Central Asia brought her here in 1884, just a year before parliament, at Gladstone's behest, voted £11,000,000 of war money at a sitting in view of Russia's next step south. Now the whole oasis of Merv, one of the most fertile spots in the whole world, is as Russian as Riga, and when you say "Merv" in Central Asia you mean a long, low, neat, stone railway station, lit by a score of bright lamps in a row, where the train changes engines, while in a busy telegraph office a dozen operators sit before their clicking instruments; and if you are a Russian officer or official you mean also a brand new town where a pestilent malarial fever is sure to catch you sooner or later, and very likely to kill you.—Henry Norman, in Scribner's.

The Water Dog and His Ways.

Some animals spend their lives underground and only see the light by accident. One of these is the water dog, which the farmers years ago believed kept open the water veins that fed their wells. When drawn up in the bucket it was often put back lest the well should dry up. It looks like a very clumsy lizard, with big shoulders and a tail something like a rat's. It has a round, flat head, wide mouth, lumpish feet, a slimy coat of muddy brown and dirty white, and apparently no eyes. Its motion is provokingly slow. On very rare occasions, during a freshet, when the ground is soaked everywhere, it may come to the surface, for it can crawl through a very narrow crevice.—Little Chronicle.

POINTER FOR WIVES.

How They Can Keep Their Husbands from Telling Stories in the Pearly Gray of Dawn.

Elliott Flower says, in the Chicago Evening Post, that when the average man hears a good story he is uneasy until he has told it to some one else, and, if he is not good at telling stories, he is doubly anxious to unburden his mind at the earliest possible moment.

The hero (or, perhaps, he might be called the victim) of this true tale had the usual masculine desire to share his merriment with another. He had attended a banquet and he had heard what he termed "a rattling good story." He chuckled over it as he left the hall, and tried to tell it to the coatroom boy, but an interruption by other departing guests prevented. He was still chuckling when he boarded his suburban train, and, in his jovial frame of mind, it was only natural that he should succeed in engaging in conversation the man who sat next to him. He had just reached the point of saying: "I heard a good story to-night," when the casual acquaintance's station was reached. The conductor sat down beside him for a moment, but his duties compelled him to leave before the story was fairly started and he never came back.

"Never mind," soliloquized the man with the story, "Mary will enjoy it." Mary being his wife, it seemed as if there would be no escape for her. She was sleeping soundly when he reached home, but a little thing like that did not trouble him. He was still chuckling when he entered the room, but the chuckle died away when he saw the placard that was hanging from the dimly burning gas jet. The placard read: "Any story you have heard will keep till morning."

Mary is a resourceful woman who profits by experience, and this was not the first banquet he had attended in the course of their matrimonial life.

EAGLE SHOT IN CHICAGO.

Sad Fate of a Rocky Mountain Bird Which, with Its Mate, Had Strayed Far from Home.

A wild eagle has been captured in the city of Chicago. The great bird, measuring eight feet from tip to tip of wing, was crippled by gunshots and then lassooed, and is now in captivity in the basement of the house of Edward H. Dalton, 55 Seventy-seventh street. The eagle is of the Rocky mountain variety, and previous to its capture was seen soaring in the air together with its mate, a bird of equal size. Why the two eagles strayed so far from their mountain haunts is unexplained. The bird that is now in captivity was wounded while making a raid on Dalton's poultry yard.

CAPTURE OF THE EAGLE.

Dalton had seen the eagles during the day, and toward evening, when one of them swooped down on the poultry, he fired both barrels of a shotgun at it. The bird fell to the ground with a broken wing, but managed to fly to a clump of trees near the lake. Dalton summoned aid in the meanwhile. The eagle again attempted to fly, but fell, flapping, to the ground. A crowd collected, and it was decided that the safest way to capture the eagle was to lasso it. A rope was secured and after nearly an hour the eagle was lariated and dragged to Dalton's house. During the capture of the bird the mate was frequently seen. A number of shots were fired at it without effect.

Mr. Dalton says he will make every effort to keep the eagle alive, and if it survives will present it to one of the parks.

SPORTING.

GOLF.

There have been no committees appointed in the Park Golf Club yet owing to the absence of the president, Charles W. McCutchen, in the south. There is little doubt, however, but that George T. Rogers will again be chairman of the green committee this year. He filled that place last year and aided materially in making a successful season for the club. This year, the work of the committee will be divided between a green committee and a golf committee, the latter to take charge of all play and tournaments on the course while the green committee will look after the course. It is not yet known who will chairman the golf committee.

A change has been made this year in the care of the links of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club. Instead of all the work falling on one committee, the golf committee, the care of the course will devolve on the green committee and the schedule of events on the golf committee. At present, the green committee, which is composed of Elliot T. Barrows, chairman, Lewis E. Waring and Thomas R. Van-Boskerck, is preparing to have the links opened as soon as possible. While there will be no club professional, the committee has engaged Edward Barry as green-keeper and he is now employed in putting the course in shape. It is possible that an expert club repairer and caddie master may be engaged later.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

At the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Plainfield High School Athletic Association, held at a recess yesterday morning, the appropriation of a sum for the purchase of baseball uniforms was approved and an additional appropriation was made to cover incidentals. A committee, composed of Manager C. H. Kineman and Townsend Mason, was appointed to purchase the necessary equipment for the team, such as bats, balls, etc. They went to New York yesterday for that purpose.

ON THE DIAMOND.

The second nine of the North Plainfield High School Athletic Association will hold a meeting, in the basement of the Somerset street school, this afternoon for the purpose of organizing for the coming season. A captain and manager will be elected.

William A. Fisher, of Bound Brook, is playing short stop on the Rutgers College nine. Mr. Fisher played with the Rutgers team in the Princeton-Rutgers game Saturday, which resulted in a score of 21 to 1. He is a graduate of the Plainfield High School.

The members of the P. A. F. C. are practicing daily to get in condition for what will probably be the most exciting association football game of the season, which is to take place Saturday afternoon on the Clinton avenue grounds. The opposing team will be the Prudential Dykers, of Newark, who have the reputation of selecting the best players of all the teams in that city. The game will commence at 3 o'clock.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The third bowling game in a series will be rolled this evening between the Casino and Park Club teams. The Casino bowlers will make every effort to win the match and a lively time is looked for.

Base ball Game Today.

A practice game between the Third Class baseball team and a team picked from the rest of the school will take place this afternoon on Martine common in place of the regular school team practice.

LARGE AMOUNT OF DAMAGES.

Suits to be Instituted Against Trolley Company on Account of Accident.

As a result of the trolley accident on the Elizabeth, Plainfield and Central Jersey Railway at Westfield, a few weeks ago, suits for damages aggregating a large amount are about to be instituted by injured persons. A conservative estimate places the cost to the company when all are settled at $50 000. Lawyer R. M. Clark, of this city, has been retained by four of the injured, among them being Mrs. Klemman, of Newark, and Rev. C H. Hawes, of New York, both of whom received injuries which have prevented their being removed from the North Avenue Hotel at Westfield where they have been since the accident occurred. While as yet no propositions have been made to the company neither will settle under several thousand dollars at least.

BAD WATER FOR PLAINFIELD

D. T. KENNEY WRITES HOW TROUBLE IN BOROUGH WOULD AFFECT CITY.

Any Pollution of Water Supply Would Affect Both Places—How the Mountain Reservoir Works.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—For some time passed I have read different articles in our local paper in reference to "Bad Water in the Borough." In the various newspaper articles it is practically emphasized that the bad water exists only in North Plainfield. For the information of the public I desire to add that bad water in the North Plainfield water works system means bad water in the Plainfield water works system because they are a part of one another and the same system.

Beginning, the water is pumped from the wells at the Netherwood pumping station into the standpipe at the Netherwood station. From this standpipe the water flows towards Plainfield and North Plainfield and as the water rises in the standpipe at Netherwood the pressure rises in the system of piping in Plainfield and North Plainfield. From this system of piping a line of pipe is run up the mountain side and connected with a reservoir or standpipe of much greater diameter than the reservoir or standpipe at the Netherwood pumping station. Not until the standpipe at Netherwood is about three-quarters full does water commence to flow in the reservoir on the mountain side, but when the standpipe at Netherwood is about full the reservoir on the mountain side is about full. Should the water line drop, say about thirty five feet in the standpipe at Netherwood, about 122,000 gallons of water would flow from it, while the entire contents, 1,200,000 gallons, would recede from the reservoir on the mountain side and flow back toward the standpipe; thus the water from the reservoir on the mountain side would be feeding or supplying the Plainfield water works system alternately.

A large fire occurring in the southwestern part of Plainfield would of course require a large draught of water and the water would flow from both standpipe and reservoir. In a 10-foot drop in the water line the mountain reservoir would supply about 350 000 gallons of water to the system of water mains while the standpipe at Netherwood would only supply about 35,000 gallons.

The reason and proof of the above figures are that the mountainside reservoir is about 75 feet is diameter and about 35 feet deep and contains about 35,000 gallons to each one foot in depth, while the standpipe at Netherwood is only about 25 feet in diameter, 140 feet deep and contains about 3,500 gallons for each one foot in depth. While the pumps at the Netherwood pumping station keeps the standpipe absolutely full of water, the reservoir on the mountainside becomes a stagnant pool, a menace to be discharged into the system of water distribution both for Plainfield and North Plainfield.

It seems to the writer that the Board of Health of the city of Plainfield should be alive to the situation and not wait until a 99 per cent. discharge of stagnant water pollutes their water system which previous to the erection of the stagnant tank on the mountain side was one of the purest water systems I believe to be found in the world.

A Record of Coal Consumption.

The machinery of two steamers, the Inchdune and Inchmario, has proved remarkably economical. The engines are a modification of the quadruple-expansion five-crank type advocated by the late Mr. Mudd. The working pressure has been increased 267 pounds per square inch, and the steam is superheated to a temperature approaching 500 degrees Fahrenheit. The general result is that on an extended trial from Hartlepool to Dover the coal consumption was at the unprecedentedly small rate of .97 pound per indicated horse power. If we increase this to one pound, it works out to 15½ tons per day for a ship carrying 6,170 tons at 9½ knots, or to 13¼ tons at 9 knots. In other words, one ton is carried one nautical mile on an expenditure of about one-third of an ounce of coal. Taking coal at 15 shillings a ton, one ton of cargo is carried over 550 miles for an expenditure of one penny for fuel.—London Engineering.

A Stunner.

One of those drummers who does a good deal of driving about the country delights in telling about an old-time boniface who runs a country hotel within a day's drive of Detroit.

"Sharp as a tack," declares the drummer. "Always as smooth as oil until some one tries to make a run on him, and then he can get back harder, faster and in fewer words than any man I ever heard talk.

"I saw a man come in there one day from the city. He is all right at home, but was feeling his oats that day and opened up on the old landlord by saying: 'Hello, grandad, get your frame into circulation. Don't set around like a bump on a log. I want accommodation for man and beast.'

"'Where's the man?' asked the old chap, in a flash."—Detroit Free Press.

Rough on the Bride.

At a small country church a newly married couple were just receiving some advice from the elderly vicar as to how they were to conduct themselves and so always live happily.

"You must never both get cross at once; it is the husband's duty to protect his wife whenever an occasion arises, and a wife must love, honor and obey her husband, and follow him wherever he goes."

"But, sir—" pleaded the young bride.

"I haven't yet finished," remarked the clergyman, annoyed at the interruption.

"She must—"

"But, please, sir" (in desperation), "can't you alter that last part? My husband is going to be a postman."—The King.

Safety of Conveyances.

Railways, automobiles and bicycles are safer conveyances than vehicles drawn by horses, according to statistics just issued by the French government. In a single month 967 accidents occurred for which horses were responsible, and in these 82 persons were killed and 885 injured. There were 145 railway accidents, causing eight deaths and injuries to 137 persons. Thirty-eight automobiles came to grief, and two deaths and 36 injured resulted. Bicyclists had 119 bad accidents, six died and 113 were wounded.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Familiar Phenomenon.

The "bloody rain" reported in Italy is a phenomenon familiar to naturalists. The microscope has demonstrated that the redness of the Red sea, of rare snow and occasional rain is due to living organisms transported by abnormal atmospheric conditions. Sometimes lurid ashes and scoriae from active volcanoes produce the same effects. The "fata morgana" is a mirage of the Straits of Messina and is not rare.—Chicago Chronicle.

Sweetbreads with Parmesan Cheese.

Two tablespoonfuls butter, one pair sweetbreads, cooked and chopped, three tablespoonfuls Parmesan cheese, three egg yolks, salt, cayenne, one tablespoonful butter. Melt butter, add sweetbreads and cheese, cook until cheese is melted, add eggs slightly beaten, and seasonings; just before serving add butter. — Good Housekeeping.

MUCH INTEREST IN DAILY PRESS BALLOT.

Many Citizens are Voting on the Question of Municipal Ownership of Water Works.

BALLOTS COMING IN FAST.

EVERYBODY SHOULD BE SURE TO SEND IN THEIR BALLOTS.

Voting Will Continue For a Week and Then Result Will be Announced—Already Feeling is Strong for Municipal Ownership.

The balloting on the question of the municipal ownership of the water supply plant for Plainfield began yesterday under the auspices of The Daily Press and will be continued up to noon, Wednesday, April 3. The ballot will appear in these columns every day until that time, the last one appearing in the issue of April 2. That will give every taxpayer in city and borough a chance to cast his or her vote and see that it reaches this office.

Great interest has already been shown in the plan of The Daily Press to thus test the public pulse on this all important question of municipal ownership. Another year will see the time when the present contract between the city and the Plainfield Water Supply Company expires. If the Common Council is to prepare to have a plant of its own, action must be taken very soon. The Councilmen naturally want to know how the people of the city stand. The situation in the borough is practically the same. The Daily Press has started this public ballot to obtain a fair idea of public opinion in the matter. In order to be effective it must be general.

Many ballots have already been received, some by mail and others were left at this office. So far the feeling has been shown to be almost unanimously in favor of municipal ownership. The ballots, one for city and one for borough, are printed on this page. They should be cut out, filled out properly and sent to this office. In order to facilitate the efforts of The Daily Press, the taxpayers are requested to send the ballots as soon as possible.

Every taxpayer, who pays poll, personal or tax on real estate, is entitled to vote. The ballot itself explains what is to be done. The names of those who sign the ballots will not be made public. They will be known only by those in this office who are in charge of the vote and possibly by City Judge William N. Runyon and City Collector Frank H. Smith, who have consented to act as a committee to pass on the validity of the ballots.

THE RAHWAY REFORMATORY.

ONE OF THE FOUR PROPOSED WINGS HAS BEEN COMPLETED.

Cells and Industrial Buildings Now Ready For Accommodation of 265 Prisoners.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, March 28.—Provision for the use of the partially completed Rahway Reformatory is made in a recent act of the Legislature that became a law a few days ago by the signature of Governor Voorhees. In its present condition one of the four proposed wings of the reformatory has been completed, and cells and industrial buildings are now ready for the reception and accommodation of 265 prisoners.

Under the new law the reformatory is to be open for the reception of prisoners whenever the commissioners are ready, and thereafter the courts may sentence to the reformatory, instead of the State prison, any male first offenders they think proper, between the ages of sixteen and thirty years. In order to fill the reformatory cells at once and relieve the over crowded condition of the State prison, the law provides that the State prison keeper shall transfer to the reformatory, when requested to do so by the reformatory commissioners, as many first offenders from among the convicts there as the Governor may direct.

The commissioners are given authority to establish rules and regulations for the discharge or parole of prisoners, and are to have the appointment of the general superintendent of the reformatory, who is to be appointed for a term of five years, at a salary of not more than $3 000 a year. This superintendent is to have the naming of all subordinate officers and employes, subject to the approval of the commissioners.

Still Searching for Body.

Fred S. Green, of West Fifth street, has received a letter from Col. A. B. Shaw, a professor in the School of Osteopathy at Des Moines, where his son, Volney F. Green, was recently drowned. Col. Shaw sends no news of the missing body, but says that a constant search is being maintained.

Big Sign.

The Frank L. C. Martin Cycle Company has had a large and attractive advertising sign placed on the building it occupies, on Park avenue. The sign is ten by fifteen feet in dimensions, and is the work of the Keller Sign Company of Newark.

Judge Runyon Will Talk.

City Judge William N. Runyon will address the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Hall Sunday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock. Professor G. A. Morris, the baritone soloist, who had the Jubilee Singers at the services a month ago will sing.

Testimony Meeting.

Tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock another testimony meeting will be held in Warren chapel. The one held last week was a great success and it is expected that the one tomorrow evening will eclipse the former.

SHOWED APPRECIATION OF MR. MAXSON'S WORK

Gift to Superintendent Henry M. Maxson From Teachers in City Public Schools.

A HANDSOME ARM CHAIR.

OCCASION SELECTED WAS THAT OF MR. MAXSON'S BIRTHDAY.

Great Growth And Prosperity of The Plainfield Public Schools During The Nine Years of His Administration at Head of City Schools.

Henry M. Maxson, the efficient superintendent of the city schools, is forty eight years old today and his corps of teachers, seventy in number, have taken the event, as an appropriate occasion, on which to show esteem and good wishes by presenting him with a birthday present in the shape of a handsome large leather upholstered chair of solid mahogany, of a very elaborate and massive design.

The idea of making the gift was carried out very secretly and Mr. Maxson had no thought of the pleasant surprise that awaited him until he found the chair reposing in his home, accompanied by this brief note addressed to him, to which was subjoined the names of the donors:

"Dear Mr. Maxson:—

"On this your birthday, we, the teachers of the public schools of Plainfield, present you with this chair as a token both of our admiration for your wise, progressive and inspiring leadership, and of our appreciation of the unfailing kindness and sympathy which you have always governed your relations with us.

"May your comfort and happiness in the use of the chair be as great as is ours in thus expressing our affectionate esteem and regard."

Mr. Maxson rounds out his ninth year as superintendent of the Plainfield schools in June, having assumed the position in the fall of 1892. Prior to that year he held a similar position in the schools of Pawtucket, R. I.

During his incumbency of the office he now holds, Plainfield's school system has been broadened and improved to a great extent. On his arrival he immediately set about to establish the system on a solid foundation and he wisely began at the base, which is the kindergarten. Then the Bryant school possessed the only kindergarten in the city. Now one is connected with every primary department in the entire system.

He did not confine his labors to this work solely but reached out to improve the other departments. Latin was introduced in the grammar grade and also algebra, while the courses in English literature and composition were made more practical.

In the High School, French and German were introduced and the Greek course extended. Solid geometry and trigonometry were made part of the instruction. The old text book system used in scientific branches was supplanted by practical demonstrations on the part of the teachers, in the laboratory. The commercial course was made a feature of instruction. The course in bookkeeping, business law, stenography, typewriting and business arithmetic, has been put on a solid foundation.

Work has been extended in all branches by relegating to a lower class work formerly done in an upper one.

More buildings have been added. The Whittier school has been established, and in it are gathered all those doing grammar school work. The Lincoln school, which is used for primary instruction, was constructed and equipped according to his ideas and it is claimed that it is a model of what a school should be. The Wadsworth school has been also added as a department for kindergarten work.

When Mr. Maxson came here there were 1 700 pupils enrolled and today there are over 2,500. Then there were forty-five teachers, and now seventy hardly suffices.

His plans are ripe for the introduction of industrial work, and only await the proper conditions and facilities to introduce it.

Another change, that he has perfected, is the one session scheme, in place of the old plan. The hours were formerly from 9 in the morning until noon and in the afternoon from 1:30 to 3:30 o'clock. These are now combined in a session extending from 8:20 o'clock in the forenoon until 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

One of his favorite theories which he has put to a successful practical test is individual development in place

HOW THE BOROUGH SECURED LEGISLATION

Efforts of Mayor and Council of North Plainfield to Repeal Law Were Successful.

HISTORY OF THE ATTEMPT.

OLD LAW EXEMPTED FROM TAXATION NOTES IN BANK.

Senator Reed Introduced Repealer at Beginning of Session and Finally Secured Its Passage—How the Old Law Worked.

To the Mayor and Council of North Plainfield borough, as constituted last year, is due much of the credit for the repeal, by the Legislature last week, of the law which permits deductions from the taxable value of real estate of the amount of notes discounted at bank.

Many thousand dollars of taxable values of real estate in the borough have been in this wise lost to the borough, and the increase of the number who resorted to this method of escaping taxation has resulted in a considerable loss of revenue to the borough. Last year alone reductions to the amount of at least $40 000 were made after the books were closed.

The act in question provided that any person owing money to any bank, borrowed three months or more before the time for making assessments for taxes, should be allowed a deduction for such debts from the assessment on his real estate. To the borough's interests this law was claimed to be especially detrimental.

For instance, a taxpayer could borrow from a Plainfield bank for three months a sum equal to the taxable value of his land, and by arranging with the bank would be able to get it for a nominal discount provided he agreed not to draw the amount during the period of loan. By paying this trifling discount he is relieved from any tax on the land and nothing is paid on the money borrowed.

In October, the Mayor and Council, after much discussion, passed a resolution condemning the Act and petitioning the Legislature to strike it from the statute books. Borough Clerk Rowley, as instructed, sent copies of the resolution to the clerks of each town, borough and city in the State in order to enlist as much support as possible.

A bill to abolish this law was drawn with much care by Senator Charles A. Reed and was introduced in the Senate on the day it convened. The measure was simultaneously brought up in the House.

In both branches, it met with determined opposition. Senator Martin, of Sussex, lead the opposition in the upper chamber and the enemies of the bill fought bitterly and prevented its approval until the day of adjournment, Friday, when through the skillful engineering of Senator Reed it was pulled through in the eleventh hour.

The borough, it is claimed, will be particularly benefitted by the abolition of this act. While this year the reduction only amounted to $10,000 the claims made on this ground hereafter will be reduced to a minimum.

WILL INCREASE DEATH BENEFITS.

Members of Franklin Council Decided in Favor of It—Dues to be Raised.

The members of Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., have decided to increase the death benefit rate from $250 to $500, but no decision has yet been reached as to which association the council will attach itself. The question of adopting an assessment plan has been voted down, and when the increased rate becomes operative the members will pay a little extra money each month as dues. The rate will probably be 15 cents a month additional. This is the same rate paid by many other councils, and the members of Franklin believe that they can successfully work the same plan.

PARENTS AND TEACHERS MET IN SOCIAL WAY.

Reception to Parents Given By Corps of Instructors of the Plainfield High School.

AT THE FRANKLIN BUILDING.

ADDRESS ON HEALTH OF PUPILS BY DR. E. W. HEDGES.

Superintendent H. M. Maxson Also Spoke to the Guests—It Was a Charming Affair and Was Largely Attended—Pupil Assisted in Serving Tea.

A delightful tea and informal reception was tendered by the teachers of the Plainfield High School, to the parents of the pupils, yesterday afternoon, in the chapel of the Franklin School.

The chapel was tastefully decorated by committees representing the various classes. The class colors were festooned about the walls and over the windows. Potted palms and ferns were placed conspicuously about the room, as were also some statuary and bric a brac.

The High School Glee Club sang very effectively a national anthem, entitled "Our Land, O Lord, with Songs of Praise," and received much applause.

Dr. Ellis W. Hedges was introduced and, in a very lucid and concise address, explained to the parents present the "Right Conditions of Health for High School Pupils. Dr. Hedges dwelt upon the important factors of health, and classified them under three heads—exercise, sleep and diet. He emphasized the importance of a pupil exercising and advocated only such as would carry with it recreation.

Pleasure as an ingredient of exercise he regarded as indispensable. The speaker, in referring to the different sorts of outdoor exercise, took occasion to strongly condemn rough and dangerous games and favored those more gentle, which brought all the muscles into play. He also referred to the necessary amount of sleep required at various ages of man. The pupil, said he, in speaking of study, should work as little as possible outside of regular school hours. Work by artificial light is to be avoided, he remarked.

Concerning the diet there is a tendency to overload one's stomach, Dr. Hedges said, and eating too much is exceedingly dangerous, because of the risk of overtaxing the system. The child requires a fair amount of food but such only as is wholesome should be used.

When the Doctor had finished his remarks the glee club sang in a pleasing manner, "O Hush Thee, My Baby." Then Superintendent Maxson spoke on "The Home and the School."

"The school is conducted" said he, "by the State to develope good citizenship. The aim of the pupils should be to use the knowledge acquired for themselves, their neighbors and the State. In the child's education there are three factors; the home, the school and the world. The school is not a substitute for the home, but only an extension of it. Where the home and the school work together the result is a well trained citizen."

Mr. Travell announced that in the near future the teachers desired to entertain the parents during a session of the High School.

At the reception, which followed, the commissioned officers of the High School cadets assisted the girl pupils in serving tea and chocolate, which were poured by Mrs. H. M. Maxson and Mrs. I. W. Travell.

Annual Missionary Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Elizabeth Presbytery will be held Friday in the First Presbyterian church, of Elizabeth. The morning session will open at 10 o'clock and reports of the year's work will be given. The afternoon session will begin at 2 o'clock. Luncheon will be served at noon. Addresses are expected from Miss Florence Stephenson, of the Industrial School, Asheville, N. C.; Dr. S. Hall Young, a pioneer missionary to the gold fields of Alaska, and Dr. W. H. Weaver, of the Board of Freedmen.

Memorial Day Preparation.

In the near future the members of Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., will begin the work of preparation for the annual observance of Memorial Day, May 30. The day will be observed in the usual interesting manner.

ANNUAL SPRING SUPPER.

DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINMENT HELD AT SEVENTH-DAY BAPTIST CHURCH.

Given Under Auspices of the Women's Society for Christian Work—Programme in Evening.

While the annual spring suppers at the Seventh Day Baptist church have always been a success, the one given last evening eclipsed all previous efforts in every way. The attendance was by far the largest seen at similar gatherings in some time.

From 6 o'clock until 10 a steady stream of visitors passed into the dining room where they enjoyed a most appetizing repast, prepared by the refreshment committee and served by dainty waitresses whose only apparent object was to neglect no one and add to the attractiveness of the scene at the same time. In honor of the occasion the room had been decorated in a most tasty manner. Pink and green predominated which with banks of palms at intervals, blended in perfect harmony. The tables were excellent examples of the decorator's art.

While the supper was the feature of the evening, an informal entertainment, and sociability played important parts in the programme. The programme consisted of piano selections by Miss Mabel Maxson, piano duet by Mrs. Frank J. Hubbard and Miss Ethel Titsworth and vocal selections by Miss Cornelia Miller, accompanied by Miss Jessie Utter. Each number was greeted with long applause and was greatly enjoyed.

The committees from the Women's Society for Christian Work which were directly in charge were as follows: Mrs. George H. Babcock, Mrs. C. A. Rogers, Mrs. John B. Mosher and Miss Lucy Dunham; entertainment committee, Mrs. W. C. Hubbard, chairman, Mrs. Joseph G. Miller, Mrs. C. H. Dunham, Mrs. F. H. Smith and Miss Ida Randolph. The waitresses who attended the various tables were the Misses Ethel Titsworth, Louise VanSickel, Bessie F. Randolph, Myrtle Randolph, Zilpha Williams, Mildred Green, Mary St. John, Mabel Rogers, Myra Clark, Bertha Mitchell and Cornelia Miller.

"A BOX OF MONKEYS."

Boys of Leal's School will present a Two Act Farce at Casino, April 11.

The boys of Mr. Leal's school have formed an athletic association, and in order to defray preliminary expenses for its maintenance, will give an amateur theatrical at the Casino, Thursday evening, April 11. It is a two act farce, entitled, "A Box of Monkeys," and will enable the boys to show their talent in representing female as well as male characters.

A prize speaking contest is conducted by Mr. Leal every year, and it has been decided to combine this with the play, and with a number of musical selections will make a very pleasing entertainment. The latter will also be given by home talent.

The following are the officers of the association: President, Robert F. Tilney; Secretary, E. Clinton Hall; Treasurer, Charles A. King. Tickets may be obtained from the above or at Randolph and Armstrong's pharmacies.

INVITED TO EXHIBIT.

City and Borough Schools Asked to Take Part in State Exhibition.

The authorities of the public schools in this city and the borough have been requested to contribute to the exhibit to be made by the State at the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo.

The City Board of Education has taken no action as yet but in the borough President McCutchen has called a meeting of the teachers' committee for this evening at his home at which time a decision will be made. It is probable that no exhibit will be made by the borough schools on account of the limited time allowed to prepare the exhibit.

Montauk Club Meeting.

The Montauk Euchre Club met last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Huff, on Codington avenue. The euchre contest was unusually exciting. Mrs. Huff and Dr. Dundon captured the first prizes, and Miss Nettie Krietling and Francis J. Blatz, the second. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the games. Miss Krietling will entertain the club at her home on West Front street, on the evening of April 10.

One Received Warrior's Degree.

The warrior's degree was worked, one candidate was elected and one proposition was received at the meeting of Paughcaughnaughsinque Tribe, I. O. R. M., last evening.

Bills Against City.

Bills against the city must be in the hands of the City Clerk this evening, in order to insure payment at next meeting of the Common Council.

TWENTY-SEVEN WERE RECEIVED BY CHURCH.

All Were Young People Who Were Converted During Recent Gospel Campaign.

ONE RECEIVED BY LETTER.

ABOUT GROWTH OF CHURCH DURING DR. YERKES' PASTORATE.

During That Time 1,552 New Members Were Received While There Were 382 Deaths—Two of Original Members Remain.

A meeting of unusual interest was held last evening at the First Baptist church when twenty-seven young people, nearly all of whom are converts as a result of the special services held recently, were received into the membership of the church. There was a very large attendance of members. Some statistics, presented by Church Clerk O. B. Leonard, were listened to with much interest by all.

According to the history of the church, Mrs. Sims and Gerome Pack are the only two members now living who united with the church during the pastorate of Rev. Mr. Hill. During the pastorate of Dr. Yerkes there have been 1,552 additions to the membership up to January 1, 1901, and during the same time there were 382 deaths, besides a number of members have moved away and joined other churches. Mr. Leonard also reported that a number of revivals have been held in the history of the church, all of which were productive of much good. The clerk read the names of fifty-seven members, all of whom united during the early years of the church's existence. At the next business meeting the roll will be called and as many as possible are expected to respond.

One person was received into membership by letter from the New Haven Baptist church, and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sperling were granted letters of dismission to the Fourth Avenue Baptist church of Pittsburg, Pa.

A portion of the number received into membership last evening will be baptized Sunday, and the rest some evening during the following week. This arrangement is made on account of the limited accommodations for such purposes.

TRAIN WRECKER AT WORK.

But the Attempt to Derail Train on Lehigh Valley Railroad, Near Perth Amboy, Failed to Suceed.

What is supposed to have been an attempt to wreck a Lehigh Valley passenger train on the South Plainfield-Perth Amboy branch Tuesday afternoon, was discovered by the engineer just in time to prevent a disaster, but not to avoid hitting the obstruction. It was thick and foggy at the time making it impossible to see things any distance ahead. When near the bridge at St. Stephens the engineer was startled to see a tie placed directly across the track. He immediately reversed his engine but was unable to avoid striking the object. The slackened speed, however, prevented an accident.

The train crew immediately began an investigation and in addition to the tie they discovered a heavy iron bar also on the track. No one was found in the near vicinity and the officials are at a loss for an explanation as no employe could be careless enough to leave the obstructions where they were found.

Will Discuss Temperance.

AT THE THEATRES.

Something About the Attractions Which Plainfield Theatre-Goers May Care to Witness.

Of all the plays portraying life in Dixie land during ante-bellum days, none have been half so true to nature and so successful from an artistic and financial standpoint as the famous Martell comedy drama, "South Before The War," which comes to Music Hall Saturday afternoon and night. The play abounds in southern scenery. The cotton plantation in full bloom, the darkies at work picking the cotton, all the old time singing the weird old southern melodies that have made the south and the Negro a never to be forgotten memory. After the day's work is over the steamboat Robert E. Lee is seen coming round the bend in the river and lands at the plantation and is unloaded, which allows of introducing pastimes on the levee, consisting of all kinds and styles of dancing, singing and acrobatic nonsense. Then a camp-meeting on Frog Island is given and in this are portrayed the various incongruities and festivities of such a scene. The company is a large one, numbering some fifty people, composed mainly of Negros who are used to giving realism to the southern scenes. Look out for the street parade.

Little Irene Myers, that popular child star, assisted by a company said to be much larger and better than any which has ever been seen in her support, will begin an engagement at Music Hall next Monday evening. Many new plays will be seen in her repertoire, all of which afford her excellent parts, some presenting her in an entirely new line of business. Among those selected for next week's engagement are: "Chucky Connors," the English newsboy, in "The Stowaway"; "Dot," the soubrette role, in "The Ensign"; "Sue Sterling," in "Maid of the Mill"; the title role in "Little Lord Fauntleroy"; "Mary Morgan" in "Ten Nights in a Bar room"; "Louise," the blind girl, in "Two Orphans"; "The Kid," a waif of the slums, in "The White Rat"; "Jim Nolan," the bad kid, in "The Corner Grocery," and "Cigarette" in "Under Two Flags." The demand last season to see Little Irene in a prominent part at every performance was so great that Manager Myers has gone to great expense this season to satisfy his patrons in this respect. "The Stowaway" has been selected for the opening performance, presenting Little Irene as "Chucky Connors."

LITERARY.

Two of the special articles in the April number of McClure's Magazine are very fitting to this season when the new life of nature in the spring draws our thoughts from cities, merchandise and men to field and wood. The first of these is a wonderful story of the beaver, written by William Davenport Hulbert after a long study of the animal in its home amid the wilds. The author's account is made complete by a series of pictures drawn by A. Radclyffe Dugmore, an artist sent into the beaver-country for this purpose by the magazine. The second article is by Martha McCulloch-Williams, and in it she gives us a georgic on "Ploughing." In fiction this number contains an instalment of "Kim" by Rudyard Kipling, and short stories by Josephine Dodge Daskam, Edith Wyatt, Edwin Lefevre and others.

An intimate and entertaining budget of "Personal Reminiscences of Queen Victoria" will appear in the April Century. It is anonymous, neither the nationality nor the sex of the writer being revealed, the only clew to his or her identity being this statement: "I saw her (the Queen) constantly in the summer of 1886, during my four weeks' peep into English court life, while temporarily forming a part of the suite of an illustrious personage, a guest of the Queen's at Osborne House." In this fresh revelation of her character and habits, Her Majesty appears as a very human and very interesting person.

April brings the Easter issue of The American Queen to us brimful of Easter fashions, fancy work, fiction and all sorts of useful and home life suggestions. The fashions show not only simple styles, but suggest materials, trimmings, linings, etc., to be used in their make-up. The fancy work is inviting, and as all the patterns of the various designs shown are for sale at nominal prices, it is a most practical department. The fiction is excellent, consisting of short, complete stories by celebrated and well-known writers. Five prize articles are also published in this issue on the interesting topic, "What Does a Woman Admire Most in a Man?" Its cover design pictures chiming lily bells and a chorister's voice proclaiming to the world the glad tidings "Christ is Risen."

MOB A MILL SUPERINTENDENT.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., the Scene of a Serious Outbreak.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 28.—A mob of breaker boys and men and women sympathizers with the striking girls of the Bamford silk mills of this city set upon Superintendent Spears and his assistant last evening, and for a time it looked as though there would be bloodshed.

The superintendent was on his way to this city when the crowd of breaker boys met him and with mud and stones fired volley after volley, yelling and jeering. When the city line was reached, the mob numbered about 500, many men and women joining it.

Three policemen assigned to the scene met the mob and ordered it to disperse. Spears and his companion entered a traction car, and the mob, surrounding it, demanded that they be ejected. The conductor at first refused to comply with the demand, and the windows of the car were smashed. Later the two men were ordered to get off the car. The appearance of the superintendent was the signal for an other outbreak. The police surrounded the men and while the riot progressed Spears fell senseless, with a deep gash in his jaw inflicted by a stone thrown by a member of the mob. The officers then drew their revolvers and succeeded in dispersing the crowd.

They, too, were assaulted, but not seriously injured. No arrests have been made.

Superintendent Spears is charged with having repudiated an agreement entered into between a former superintendent and the striking mill girls. The girls were on strike for eight weeks and returned to receive an advance in wages of from 5 to 25 per cent. The management discharged Superintendent Shoemaker, who arranged the settlement, disclaiming all knowledge of the negotiations, and refused to grant the demand. Another strike was inaugurated three days later and is now on.

MARTIAL LAW OPPOSED.

A Heated Debate Before Russian Ministerial Committee.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 28.—It is reliably reported that at a ministerial committee meeting held in the presence of the Grand Duke Vladimir, commander of the St. Petersburg garrison, the proposal to place the capital under martial law should the indications presage further difficulties was heatedly debated. M. de Witte, the finance minister, was energetically opposed to the establishment of martial law owing to financial reasons, not to mention the disastrous effect which it would have upon industry, commerce and the committee's standing with foreign capitalists. The committee accordingly sanctioned a circular which has been issued by the ministry of the interior.

A ministerial council has been called for Friday at Tzarskoe-Selo.

The examination of the 1,150 political prisoners is now being conducted in secret by the police.

Thirty-six prisoners who were arrested as leaders of the student movement before the last riots will probably be released from custody today and will be excluded from the university for different periods.

It is reported from trustworthy sources that the government has decided to make unofficial concessions to the students, and accordingly the military regulations against student agitators have been set aside for the present, though there will be no public announcement to this effect for some time. The prisoners will not be drafted into the army. This is one of the results of the ministerial meeting.

Latest Egyptian Discoveries.

BOSTON, March 28.—Rev. Dr. William C. Winslow, vice president of the Egypt exploration fund, has just received official word that Professor Petrie has unearthed at Abydos the records of kings before Mena, the founder of the first dynasty, nearly 4800 B. C. "We have found," writes Professor Petrie, "the names of Narma Ka and a king named by a fish sign, perhaps also of two kings, Deb and Sam. Of Mena and those earliest kings there are about 30 inscriptions and a heavy strip of gold with the name Aha (Mena). In the tomb of Khasekhemui were found stone vases, each with a gold cap tied on with gold wire; also two broad bangles of gold and a dinner service of a dozen pans and dishes, with 160 models of tools in sheet copper. The frequent use of ivory then is witnessed by the discovery of 40 inscribed ivories and stones and two lions cut in ivory."

Shipbuilding Figures.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—According to a report to the state department by United States Consul Sawter at Glauchau, the shipbuilding yards of Great Britain during 1900 turned out 1,442,471 tons of commercial vessels against 861,692 tons by all other countries combined. With warships added the respective amounts aggregated 1,510,835 and 1,053,792. In the last three years, however, says Consul Sawter, foreign countries have doubled their output, while England has increased only 50 per cent. The United States last year led both Germany and France, the amounts of tons standing respectively 558,557, 260,751 and 165,348.

MORGAN FOR PEACE,

Delegation From Anthracite Region In Wall Street.

NO CONFERENCE WITH LABOR LEADERS

Five Men, Headed by Father Phillips of Hazleton, Pa., Assured by Mr. Morgan That He Will Do All In His Power to Prevent Strike.

NEW YORK, March 28.—A delegation composed of five men representing trade interests in the Pennsylvania anthracite coal regions, with Rev. Father Edward S. Phillips acting as chairman, yesterday afternoon held a conference with Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan in the private office of Mr. Morgan at Wall and Broad streets, this city. The condition of unrest in the anthracite coal region at present was set forth in brief as to possible form by Father Phillips, who presented the delegation to Mr. Morgan and to whom Mr. Morgan expressed his interest in their errand and his willingness to make personal effort to prevent a strike, though he declined to hold a public conference with the labor leaders.

The delegation who met Mr. Morgan comprised Rev. E. S. Phillips, the priest from Hazleton; Edward Lauterbach, the treasurer, and A. T. McAllister, the secretary of the Hazleton board of trade; J. H. Zerbey, president, and L. W. Marquardt, chairman of the manufacturers' committee, Portsville board of trade.

Father Phillips, addressing Mr. Morgan after his formal presentation of the delegation, asked Mr. Morgan if he would meet John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers' association, who has been in New York for several days. Mr. Morgan, replying broadly to this specific question and addressing himself to Father Phillips touching the errand of the delegation, said in substance that his attitude up to the present has been toward prevention of a strike. He said he was much interested in the mission of the delegation, and he assured them that they could rely upon him to do all within his power to prevent any action that would paralyze business. He remarked, however, that he was disinclined to hold a public conference with the labor leaders, indicating as a reason for this attitude the belief that should a public meeting between himself and the labor leaders be held the publicity thereof and possibly attendant conclusion might hamper the achievements of the best ends, which all were seeking. In other words, as Mr. Morgan remarked, should he hold a public meeting or conference "half of New York would be upon his heels." Mr. Morgan added that the ends sought could best be achieved through other channels, and he assured the delegation that he might communicate with the boards of trade later.

"You may rest assured that I believe there will be no strike," remarked Mr. Morgan and then added that these matters could be arranged through proper channels and that there were other people than himself who could look after the details, and he would lend his efforts to accomplishing such results in such manner.

Mrs. Nation's First Lecture.

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 28.—Mrs. Carrie Nation opened her lecture tour here last night, a small audience being present in the Opera House. She had arrived from Cincinnati at noon, and, after dinner in her room at the Phenix hotel and a brief audience with reporters, she spent the afternoon sleeping. Mrs. Nation's lecture on "The Home Defender" was in the main an impassioned review of her experiences in Kansas. She called on Lexington women to follow her example in ridding the state of saloons. She started on a slumming tour at 10 o'clock. Several saloons were visited. A crowd of several hundred followed, and the four policemen had difficulty in keeping them clear of Mrs. Nation.

Texas Crops In Danger.

AUSTIN, Tex., March 28.—Colonel James Gunter of Sherman says the entire wheat and oats crops of northern Texas are threatened with destruction. He has had reports from different sections throughout the wheat belt, and they are to the effect that the fly pest is killing the wheat and oats. Texas last year produced 20,000,000 bushels of wheat and 30,000,000 bushels of oats. This year the average of wheat is slightly less than last year, while the acreage of oats is slightly increased.

A Rush For the Northwest.

ST. PAUL, March 28.—Over 3,000 new settlers, 1,800 of whom were Dunkards, passed through St. Paul yesterday on their way to new homes in the northwest. The present movement of settlers is said to exceed the highest previous record and will exceed that of last year, when the state of Washington alone received 40,000 new settlers, nearly as many going to each of the several other northwestern states.

PARIS, March 28.—The weather throughout France is suddenly again very cold. Heavy snowstorms are reported everywhere. For the first time this winter Paris is covered with a thick mantle of snow, which began falling Tuesday and still continues intermittently. A number of minor accidents have already occurred. Similar weather is reported from Italy.

The building will be built on Monroe avenue at its junction with Campus Martius and will form a part of the new Wonderland theater, which was completed about a year ago.

A PROTEST MADE TO CHINA.

The Signing of Any Convention by China at This Time, Pending Settlement of the Recent Troubles, Deemed Unwise.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The British government has protested against China's making a convention with any power touching territorial or financial affairs until the present troubles in that country are concluded. The fact of the British protest was made known here for the first time yesterday by a dispatch from one of the foreign offices of Europe. It says that the protest was made through Sir Ernest Satow, the British minister at Peking. It does not state when the representations were made, but from the fact that the dispatch was received in Washington it is taken that the protest occurred within the last day or two.

Although the Russian agreement is not specifically referred to, it is said to be clear that the British action is directed against the Russian agreement. The language appears to be similar to that used by Secretary Hay in the American protest. The effect of the British action is to place the United States, Japan and Great Britain in formal opposition to the signing of a convention by China with any power pending the settlement of the Chinese troubles. The course of Great Britain is the more significant from the fact that that government and Germany have a written alliance relating to Chinese affairs.

The concurrence of these protests probably explains why the Manchurian agreement has not been signed. There was no definite information received here at the state department or at any of the foreign embassies as to whether the agreement had been signed or rejected.

There was something of a stir in diplomatic quarters over the report, coming from official sources, that the United States was considering the advisability of addressing Russia directly on the subject. Heretofore the American objections to the Manchurian agreement have been addressed to China. Copies were furnished the Russian authorities, though the protest in form has been to China and not to Russia. Several of the foreign representatives advised their governments that this step was contemplated by the United States, but there is no official information available as to how far the consideration of the move has proceeded.

RUSSIAN COURTESY.

An Incident at Peking Causes Favorable Comment.

PEKING, March 28.—The bodies of six American marines who were killed during the siege of the legations and buried in the Russian legation were removed yesterday for shipment to the United States. In addition to the American troops in Peking the Monocacy, Commander F. M. Wise, sent a detachment of marines to be present at the disinterment.

The courtesy of the Russians deeply moved all the Americans. Two Russian companies participated in all the ceremonies. The Russians guarded the disinterred bodies all night and rendered all the Russian military honors to the dead.

General Chaffee wrote to M. de Giers an expression of his feelings and of the feelings of the officers and men of the entire command.

M. de Giers, referring to the incident, said:

"It was only natural. The Russians and Americans fought side by side during the siege and were virtually brothers."

It is recalled that in the case of an American marine who had done duty beside a Russian soldier and was buried without a coffin the Russian, with the tears streaming down his face, leaped into the grave and arranged the earth as a rest for the head. Those who were present say it was a most affecting scene.

Some Shanghai Rumors.

LONDON, March 28.—The Shanghai correspondent of The Standard, wiring yesterday, says: "Officials here assert that Count Lamsdorff, Russian foreign minister, has accepted the plea of the Chinese minister in St. Petersburg that an imperial edict prohibits the signing of the Manchurian convention and that he has granted a brief delay. China is reported to be raising 50,000 new troops and to be preparing to defend the Yangtse forts, fearing Russian reprisals. Eight anti-Christian rioters have been beheaded at Chang-sha, in the province of Hunan."

Chicago Boiler Inspectors Scored.

CHICAGO, March 28.—According to City Boiler Inspector Schlacks, who testified at the investigation of the Doremus laundry explosion which resulted in the killing and injuring of over 50 people, the boiler of that establishment had not been inspected during his term of office, or since March, 1899. The reason for this, he said, was a clerical error. George Ballard, a stationary engineer, created a sensation by stating that during his 30 years' experience he had not seen one boiler or engine honestly inspected in Chicago. He offered to furnish proof of his assertion. It is believed the coroner's jury will recommend an investigation of the boiler inspector's office by the grand jury.

Smallpox Scare In Des Moines.

DES MOINES, March 28.—Mayor Hartenbower has issued a proclamation requesting that all public schools, theaters, churches and other places of public assembly be closed on account of the prevalence of smallpox. Several new cases were discovered, and the disease is certainly spreading. It is conservatively estimated that there are at least 200 cases in Des Moines now. All the cases are of a mild form, and no deaths have occurred.

A VILLAGE IN DANGER.

Spring Floods Cause Much Alarm In Central New York.

SYRACUSE, March 28.—The residents of Eaton, Madison county, are making preparations to escape a serious flood. The reservoir, situated above the village, gives evidence of being unable to hold the water. If it gives way, nothing can save the town.

A special to The Post Standard from Cortland says that houses in the lower part of the city are surrounded by water, which is rising fast. It is feared that several will be swept from their foundations.

A dispatch from Rochester says that the river at that point during the past 12 hours has risen about 15 inches and is still rising at the rate of an inch an hour. About a mile of the Erie tracks in this city is under water, and Engert's coalyard is inundated. Basements along the river bank are in danger of being flooded, and valuable machinery may be considerably damaged. It is not thought at present, however, that the river will go much higher, as late reports last evening from Genesee indicate that the stage of water there is about stationary.

At Utica the Mohawk river is the highest today in ten years, but slowly receding, and it is believed that further damage there will be avoided. Village roads were flooded so that boats were used in them, and many cellars and warehouses were covered with water, some to the depth of three feet. Fires were extinguished in a number of manufacturing establishments. Trains on all roads entering the city were run very slowly on account of the tracks being flooded.

The Flood Near Little Falls.

LITTLE FALLS, N. Y., March 28.—High water in the Mohawk river has disorganized passenger traffic on the New York Central railroad through the Mohawk valley. Through trains are being run over the West Shore road on account of the flooding of the tracks between Frankfort and Utica.

SOUTH AFRICAN FIGHTS.

Considerable Activity In the Thabanchu District.

LONDON, March 28.—A dispatch from the Thabanchu district of the Orange River Colony, dated Sunday, says that on Saturday night British troops under Colonel White made a night march and surprised 30 Boers, capturing four and wounding one. Dr. White, a British surgeon, while on his way to a farm to attend some wounded Boers, was fired on. His horse and that of his orderly were shot, and the orderly was wounded.

A dispatch from Lord Kitchener to the war office, dated Pretoria, March 27, says:

"Our casualties in General Babington's action were two killed and seven wounded. The Boers left 22 dead and 30 wounded. As their pursuit was rapid many more Boer casualties are likely.

"The operations of March 23 drove the enemy north from their positions at Kaffirs kraal. On March 27 the pursuit was continued by mounted men only. The enemy's rear guard was driven in by a combined movement on both flanks. Their convoy was then sighted at Leeuwfontein. The Greys, New Zealanders and bushmen pushed on. The enemy attempted to take up a position, but the Greys and other troops rode down all opposition and gave him no chance. The convoy was ridden into, and the enemy's retirement became a rout. The pursuit was continued until the horses were exhausted."

The Maryland Census Frauds.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Director Merriam of the census bureau has received information of the arrest of three additional persons in St. Mary's county, Md., who, it is alleged, are implicated in the census frauds recently discovered in that county. Two of these persons, Joseph Ching, a lawyer of Leonardtown, and a former enumerator named Goyter, were brought to Baltimore yesterday morning. The charge against the former is that of aiding and abetting enumerators to make fictitious returns of the population, while that of the latter is padding the returns. The investigation, the directors say, shows that Goyter had returned 198 more persons than were in his district.

Struck by a Train.

FISHKILL LANDING, N. Y., March 28.—W. W. Calkins, who represented the Lowdown Wagon company of Earlville, N. Y., was struck by a freight train on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad at Matteawan. When taken to the general hospital at Fishkill Landing, it was found that his skull was fractured and that he was otherwise injured. In spite of the nature of his wounds the hospital physicians say he has fair chances of recovery.

Married After Thirty Years.

WORCESTER, Mass., March 28.—Lewis C. Cloudman of Boston and Mrs. Caroline H. Pressey of Marlborough were married in Worcester yesterday by Rev. A. W. Hitchcock. They were schoolmates in Newburyport 30 years ago, engaged later and parted in a quarrel. Both have been married since and have children. Mrs. Cloudman was formally Miss Collins. Mr. Cloudman is foreman of street paving in Dorchester district.

Michigan Rivers Over the Banks.

MIDLAND, Mich., March 28.—The Tittabawassee and Chippewa rivers, which are out of their banks, raised nine inches during the night, and both the waterworks and electric light plants were forced to shut down because of the water. Early yesterday, however, the temperature dropped, and the flood was checked by the ice which formed. The city is without fire protection or light at present.

SURPRISE AT ALBANY.

A New Police Bill Bobs Up Serenely at the Capital.

ALBANY, March 28.—A new police bill, offered by a Republican organization senator despite the decision of the conference in New York city last Sunday, has put the leaders here in a state of ferment.

Senator Nathaniel Elsberg of the Fifteenth New York city district is the offender, and the bill, an amendment to the existing police bill, under which Chief Devery was retained, was offered at the meeting of the cities committee as an amendment to the police section of the charter.

The Democrats on the committee smiled, while the Republicans looked aghast. Senator Elsberg coolly read his bill. It amended the police bill by taking away from the chief of police the power to appoint his deputy and lodging in the mayor that power.

"I believe," said Senator Elsberg, "that my amendment will fix the responsibility for such an appointment as Devery more fully and will give the governor a chance to act. As it is now, even if Chief Murphy goes his deputy will remain."

Senator Stranahan, the chairman of the committee, had by this time recovered his breath.

"Don't you know, senator," he said severely, "that further police legislation was unanimously declared against last week in New York city by those of your political belief?"

"Yes," replied the undaunted senator, "but we are discussing perfecting the charter, and I believe this would be an improvement."

"The decision was to not have any further legislation," said Senator Stranahan sharply. "All in favor of Senator Elsberg's substitute say aye; contrary, no. The motion lost," he added quickly, hardly waiting for the members to vote.

Senator Elsberg put his little bill in his pocket and sat down.

To all queries he declined to say where he got it or that anybody wanted it but himself. Asked if Mr. Frank Platt, who was in the city, gave it to him, he said no.

The Gilman House Stripped.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., March 28.—The Bridgeport Trust company is in the exclusive possession of the Gilman mansion at Black Rock. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Potts, the mother of Mrs. Helen Hall; Frank Potts and his fiancee, Miss Clayton, left for New York city, going to the Fairfield station, some four miles from the house, to take the train. With them went eight large trunks and several smaller pieces of luggage. Mrs. Helen Hall when she left some days ago took seven trunks. The search of the Black Rock property has been diligently pushed by Attorney Orange Merwin and the officers who are occupying the house as keepers for the trust company. Mr. Merwin stated that at the conclusion of a day's fruitless search he remarked to Sheriff Fenelon, "Well, nothing in sight yet," to which Mrs. Potts rejoined, "Mr. Merwin, I could have told you that days and days ago." Mr. Merwin says that as the party quitted the establishment Mrs. Potts turned to him and remarked, "We are leaving now, but there may be a day when we shall return again."

AGUINALDO CAUGHT.

General Funston Arrives at Manila With His Prize.

THE INSURGENT LEADER'S CAREER.

The Expedition Was Directed by a Native Officer Who Knew of His Former Chief's Whereabouts.

A Clever Ruse.

MANILA, March 28.—General Frederick Funston's daring project for the capture of Aguinaldo in his hiding place in the province of Isabela, island of Luzon, has proved completely successful.

Aguinaldo was captured there March 23.

The United States gunboat Vicksburg, Commander E. B. Barry, with General Funston and Aguinaldo on board, arrived here this morning.

In January, from his hiding place in the province of Isabella, Aguinaldo wrote letters denouncing the subchiefs who had taken the oath of allegiance to the United States. Later Aguinaldo ordered certain insurgent forces in southern Luzon to join him at a rendezvous in Isabella province. The rebel officer to whom the orders were intrusted secretly negotiated with the Americans. On securing the necessary information General Funston planned Aguinaldo's capture and with General MacArthur's authorization proceeded three weeks ago to make the attempt.

General Funston, with Surgeon Major Harris, Captain Newton of the Thirty-fourth infantry, Lieutenant Admire of the Twenty-second infantry, Lieutenant Mitchell of the Fortieth infantry, six veteran scouts and a company of native scouts, all picked men, embarked on the gunboat Vicksburg and landed on a remote beach above Baler. It was arranged that Aguinaldo's emissary and the native scouts should pass themselves off as insurgent troops who, having captured General Funston and others, were taking them as prisoners to Aguinaldo. At the right time, when brought before Aguinaldo, General Funston was to give a signal, when the tables were to be turned and Aguinaldo was to be seized.

Six days' march into the interior was contemplated. Treachery was considered possible, but every precaution was taken. The troops in Nueva Vizcaya and Nueva Ecija and the gunboats Vicksburg and Albany were to co-operate with General Funston's force.

Several reports have been received from time to time during the course of the campaign in the Philippines that Aguinaldo was dead, and several efforts have been made to capture him, but up to the present time it was not known certainly whether he was alive or dead.

Early in the war there was a story that he had been shot while crossing a river and his body had been seen floating away. Late in 1899 Major Peyton C. March of the Thirty-third infantry conducted a long search for him through the Benguet mountains, but finally abandoned the pursuit, and in May last it was reported that the Filipino leader, driven into the woods by Major March's command, had been slain by the savage Igorrotes. Within a few weeks, however, he was said to be personally organizing a large army in the north.

A dispatch from Manila on June 6 last told of the return of Major March from his long chase after Aguinaldo in the highlands of Cagayan. The men were worn out by their hardships, and only 13 of the 50 horses they had out with them survived. Natives reported the insurgent chief as wounded in the shoulder. Major March, however, had a package of letters captured in the baggage of a notorious leader which he had seized.

AGUINALDO'S LIFE.

Aguinaldo is only 29 years old, but Americans who came in contact with him said that he appeared fully ten years older. He was a native of the island, with Chinese blood in him. He was born in the village of Imus in the province of Cavite and lived there until the rebellion. His family owned rice and sugar fields, the possession of which the order of the "Recollectos," the largest proprietors of the province, contested by incessant lawsuits. The father of Aguinaldo in consequence was kept poor and endured privations in order to enter his son in the college of St. Jean Lateran and afterward to send him to the University of St. Thomas at Manila.

The cost of pursuing a course of study at these institutions was not less than 1,200 francs a year, and the elder Aguinaldo had great difficulty to make both ends meet. Aguinaldo passed easily from the college to the university, but at the latter place he was considered by the professors to have the most obtuse mind of all the students. For three years he wore the costume of the university and observed its severe discipline, its frugal regime, but without obtaining the least intellectual benefit.

In fact, the Dominicans finally sent him home in sheer despair. He then entered the normal school of the Jesuits. Here he made some progress, but at this time his father died, and he was forced to return home to take care of his patrimony, which continued to be threatened by the lawsuits instituted by the order of the "Recollectos." Until 1893 he devoted himself to the tilling of his lands.

In that year the Philippine league was started by Dr. Rizal. Aguinaldo became one of its adherents. Rizal was soon afterward deported.

In 1896 Aguinaldo became mayor of Cavite. He first became prominent in the rebellion which broke out in that year, the result of a conspiracy which had been in preparation for seven years in the Catipunan, the newer circle created for political purposes by the natives in the Masonic lodges into which the Spaniards had initiated them. The outbreak came in August, 1896.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., MAR. 28, 1901.

COMING EVENTS

March 31—Judge William N. Runyon will speak, and Prof. George A. Morris, the great colored basso, will sing at the Y. M. C. A. meeting at 4:15 o'clock in the afternoon.

The City Schools.

It is a matter of no small interest to the people of our city that the public school system has, under the management of Superintendent Henry M Maxson, developed into one of unusual strength and efficiency. While the steady growth of the city has contributed to the increase in numbers, it is due to the quiet, efficient, forceful man at the head that our schools have reached their present high standard.

Plainfield has cause to be proud that the public schools are in the hands of a man who has been called one of the strong superintendents in the United States.

While many cities have been undergoing an upheaval in school systems, Plainfield has been quietly advancing upon the line of steady growth and development.

Under the management of Mr. Maxson, the methods of instruction have brought into touch with the best in the country.

During the nine years of Mr. Maxson's administration of the public schools of our city, he has won the respect and loyalty of pupils, teachers and the public, not only because of the enviable position in which he has placed the schools, but because of his universally courteous and kindly relations with all, his broad charity, and his strong character as a Christian gentleman

While we believe in the principle of municipal government, The Daily Press is conducting this vote on the question of the city ownership of the water supply works with the sole object of obtaining as far as possible an insight into the view which the public of city and borough takes of the matter. Although twenty four hours has not yet passed by since the balloting began, much interest has already been shown. In order that The Daily Press may speak with authority as to public opinion on the subject, we are desirous that every taxpayer in the city, whether a subscriber to The Daily Press or not, shall send in a ballot. If the taxpayers will all send in their ballots without delay, they will greatly expedite matters and the result may have a direct bearing on the future action of the Common Council

What is the matter with the city health authorities? The Borough Board of Health has provided that the property owners along the North Plainfield side of Green brook shall put the banks of that stream in good condition and keep them so. There is really more chance for improvement on this side of the brook than there is on the other and yet the Plainfield Board of Health has not made an effort to improve it. Now that the new bridge over Green brook and connecting Madison avenue and Duer street has opened that section to the public view, it is the duty of the city to see that it assumes a proper appearance. Action should be taken at once.

There is an unusually good demand for houses in Plainfield this spring, and many new families have already decided to make this city their home for the future. It is the duty of every citizen to see that all the advantages of the city are properly presented to them. The habit of some people, in referring to the city in uncomplimentary terms, simply because they happen to live here, cannot be too strongly condemned.

The desire of Mayor Smalley and the Borough Council, in securing the passage of an important act concerning the exemption from taxation of notes in a bank, was realized. Those who have taken time to look into the workings of the old law, cannot fail to see that it had an injurious effect on the borough of North Plainfield and other municipalities as well. Its repeal was a good thing.

Both of the local golf clubs are planning for active seasons this summer. The interest in that sport among the people of Plainfield is now greater than ever before and the summer promises to see more activity in that direction than has ever been seen here since the introduction of the ancient and royal game of golf.

The discovery of Freehill, twice a murderer by Chief of Police Wright, of Rahway, and County Detective Keron, was a piece of clever detective work and Union county is fortunate in having officers of such efficiency.

From the number of ballots already received it is evident that the people of city and borough are deeply interested in this question of water supply and desire to see it properly settled.

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence.)

Dunellen, March 28—An almost unfailing sign of spring is the almost endless procession of moving vans passing through the borough, laden with the goods and chattels of home seekers. This year is no exception to the rule and in addition to those coming from other towns, the local expressman, George Huff, is kept busy moving people about the borough. Some of the recent changes have been as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hack, from the Todd building to John Monyihan's house on North avenue; George Hoffman and family from latter house to Plainfield; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bruch, from Washington avenue to Front street; Freeholder P. C. Staats from North avenue to Dunellen avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Clark, of Brooklyn, to Taylor house on Grove street; William Doty, of North Branch, to his own house on North avenue, formerly occupied by P. C. Staats. Expressman Huff has a number of orders ahead which will keep him busy for some time.

A strange dog, frothing at the mouth and showing every sign of an attack of rabies, ran into the yard of John McMahon, of Prospect avenue, yesterday, and began biting at various objects. Mr. McMahon obtained a pistol and with two well directed shots put the animal out of its misery No owner has as yet put in an appearance.

Although not yet definitely decided, it is possible no more lectures will be given in the Board of Education series. Those given, however, were very successful and more will be arranged next fall. If it can be arranged within a short time, a concert will be held, similar to that which took place at the beginning of the series last fall.

Landau. Vor dem Kriegsgericht der 5. bayerischen Division hatte sich der aus Cham gebürtige Sergeant der Reserve, Xaver Franz, wegen Mißbrauchs der Dienstgewalt zu verantworten. Er hatte beim 2. Train-Bataillon die Funktion eines Reitlehrers und mißhandelte die ihm untergebenen Soldaten. Er schlug sie mit der Hand in's Gesicht, mit dem Säbel an die Beine, mit dem Reitstock auf den Rücken, versetzte ihnen Faustschläge auf die Brust, daß sie von den Pferden fielen, riß sie von der Pferden herab und stieß sie mit den Köpfen wider die Reitsättel. Das Urtheil lautete auf 3½ Monate Gefängniß.

Das Mädchen-Gymnasium hat sich bereits so vergrößert, daß weitere Räumlichkeiten gemiethet werden mußten.

Balingen. Mehrere junge Leute hatten sich im Gasthaus „Zur Krone" in Erlaheim versammelt, um eine Probe zu einer Theater-Aufführung abzuhalten. Aus geringfügiger Ursache entstand ein Streit, wobei der Söldnersohn Ant. Maurus dem Sattlergehilfen Mich. Heilbronn. Die Strafkammer verurtheilte einen Hochstapler, den ehemaligen Gerbergesellen Julius Steinbacher aus Dubeningken, Ostpreußen, zu drei Jahren und sieben Monaten Zuchthaus. Steinbacher gab sich mit Erfolg für den vor 20 Jahren nach Amerika ausgewanderten Bruder des Landwirths Friedrich Weißmann in Wieslensdorf aus und prellte diesen Leichtgläubigen und andere Familienglieder um erkleckliche Beträge. Später stellte sich der Betrüger der Polizei in Gumbinnen.

Straßburg. Das gut entwickelte Kanalnetz, welches das deutsche Reich bei der Einverleibung Elsaß-Lothringens im Jahre 1871 übernahm, ist im Laufe der letzten zehn Jahre dadurch bedeutend leistungsfähiger gemacht worden, daß diejenigen Kanalstrecken, die zu geringe Wassertiefe oder auch zu gering bemessene Schleusen hatten, durchweg auf Normalabmessungen gebracht sind, welche den Verkehr von Schiffen mit 280 Tonnen Ladung gestatten. Die Frequenz der elsaß-lothringischen Wasserstraßen hat denn auch eine stetige Zunahme erfahren, und dies gilt nicht allein von den Hauptlinien (Rhein-Marne-Kanal, Ill-Rhein-Kanal und sonstigen Kanälen um Straßburg), sondern auch von kleineren Stichkanälen. Von den letzteren hat z. B. der Kolmarer Zweigkanal, welcher 13.30 Kilometer lang ist und den Hafen von Kolmar mit dem Rhein-Rhone-Kanal verbindet, in den fünf Jahren von 1895 auf 1900 eine Verkehrszunahme von 41,681 Tonnen auf 60,112 Tonnen erfahren. Er dient im Wesentlichen der Beförderung von Steinkohlen, Steinen, Bau- und Brennholz.

The Popularity of the Separate Waist Continues

During the Spring and Summer They Will Be Worn Upon All Sorts of Occasions

The Separate Waist Retains Its Popularity

JUST about a year ago it was gravely debated as to whether or not the separate waist would hold out another season. It did, and not only did it last out the spring and summer seasons, but was popular to a certain extent all through the fall and winter. Now as the spring and summer seasons are again upon us no one is questioning the lasting qualities of the vogue for separate waists, but are wondering how far the vogue will carry us in this direction, and exerting every effort to secure a goodly supply of these same garments that a year ago were promised but a few weeks more of popularity.

Men laugh at us, that is the men who have to buy for us rather than sell to us, for our furbelows, our frills and all the other dainty fashionings so dear to the feminine heart, pronounce us at times senseless and impractical in matters of dress, and yet here we are clinging with desperate tenacity to the most sensible style that has been known for many years—the separate waist. But for the sake of truth we must admit that if masculine man put upon the separate waist his seal of disapproval it would soon vanish, but he does not, he approves of it, and that is at least one of the reasons why it remains popular. There have been other styles within the past two or three seasons that he did not approve of, and they died the death they deserved within a short time after being born.

The separate waist is now popular for all occasions. Silk ones are in vogue for evening wear at the theater or the cafe; fancy dress waists for either the dinner or opera; darker silk ones for morning or traveling, and the light weight flannel waists are for morning or shopping purposes. For the distinctly summer waist, the kind that will be seen especially at the seaside resorts, sheer and thin materials are used. They are being made of gauzy chiffons, mousselines, white organdies, grass linen, malines and embroidered effects.

TWO POPULAR SEPARATE WAIST MODELS.

Some Models of the Parisian Summer Gowns

OF THE new waists a charming model is of black glace silk, and soft white silk, with pipings and stitchings of violet silk. It is made with blouse effect of the black glace silk, with strappings of white silk piped with violet, forming a deep sailor collar. A high stock and vest of tucked white silk, stitched with the violet. The sleeves are of black silk, with puffings at the wrist, having narrow bands above and below, stitched in violet.

An evening waist model made in soft white silk that I have seen has tucks arranged to form a small box plait, and stitched with violet silk. It is slightly bloused both in front and back, with a stitched girdle to finish. A chic black velvet tie, dotted with violet silk dots, and tied in low sailor knot, with long ends finished with gold spikes. The sleeves have three box plaits on the upper half. They are loose half way below the elbow, forming a puff that is finished at the wrist in two stitched bands.

A charming summer waist is of organdie in heliotrope, and trimmed with ecru lace applique. The yoke is in clusters of tucks, with lace beading between, having black velvet ribbon run through. Wide lace applique finishes the front of the yoke, with clusters of tucks of organdie below in a girdle of black velvet. The sleeves are a pointed bell shape, trimmed with lace beading and black velvet, with full undersleeve of tucked white chiffon finished in a narrow band of lace insertion.

A beautiful lace is of fine French lawn in white, the entire front and back being trimmed with all-over lace, narrow tucking and lace edging from the neck to the waist line. The new bishop sleeves are trimmed from shoulder to cuff with a wide all-over lace and fine tucking in a narrow band of tucks.

Features of Spring and Summer Hosiery

VARIETY is a striking feature of the spring and summer in hosiery, just as it is in other lines of women's fashions. In the matter of colors everything is used, and to the designs there is seemingly no end. To get the variety that is seemingly demanded manufacturers have gone back to the days of our grandmothers and resurrected the elaborate designs they wore, while from France there have come many dainty and striking effects in open work, appliques and lace insertions.

That the colorings are brilliant is illustrated by one combination of yellow and black, with embroidered flowers to decorate the ankle and half-way to the knee.

A style that is designed to simulate a garter is of yellow, black and white. There is a band around the calf of the leg of yellow and white embroidery, and from this is suspended a strapping of the same embroidery that extends almost down to the instep.

The more elaborate designs are, however, those with which our grandmothers were familiar. One of these shows a printed pattern of purple grapes that covers the stocking from toe to top, and in which all the brilliant colorings of the fruit are displayed.

Another of these shows a printed design of red cherries on a dark green background. They would have been great favorites 50 years ago.

SARAH DAVIDSON.

TWO CHARMING SUMMER WAISTS.

HON. PARIS GIBSON.

Founder of the Town of Great Falls Elected United States Senator from the State of Montana.

Paris Gibson (democrat), who was elected United States senator for the short term by the Montana legislature, is the founder of the town of Great Falls, Mont., and one of the leading capitalists of the state. He was born at Brownfield, Me., on July 1, 1830. His father was a farmer and lumberman. He graduated from Bowdoin college in 1851, and soon thereafter was elected to the Maine legislature.

In 1858 he removed to Minneapolis, Minn., where, in association with W.

HON. PARIS GIBSON.
(New United States Senator from the State of Montana.)

W. Eastman, he built the Cataract flour mill, the first in the city, and operated the North Star woolen mills. He met with reverses during the panic of 1873, and in 1879 removed to Fort Benton, Mont., where he engaged in sheep raising. He was among the first in that region to take up the industry, and has continued the business with profit. In 1882 he visited the falls of the Missouri river, and on examining the resources of the surrounding country, was impressed with the advantages of the place for a city, because of its unlimited water power, its deposits of coal, and extent of agricultural and grazing lands. With James J. Hill, of St. Paul, he acquired title to the town site and coal lands, and in 1884 founded a town and named it Great Falls. By the completion of the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba railroad to that point in 1887 a great stimulus was given to the town, which increased to a city of 18,000 inhabitants. To Mr. Gibson is due its splendid public park system, the first in the northwest. He was organizer of the Great Falls Water Power and Town Site company and has been active in the support of every enterprise in the city. He has much of his wealth invested in the gold, silver, iron and coal industries of the surrounding region.

He was a delegate to the Montana constitutional convention in 1889, and was senator from Cascade county to the first legislature, where he advocated the consolidation of all state institutions for liberal education under the name of the University of Montana.

been especially gratifying. The prospective governor of the Philippines is the son of Alphonso Taft, who was United States minister to Russia and who had been attorney general in one of the cabinets of President Grant. He is a native of Cincinnati, 54 years old, and a graduate of Yale university and of the Cincinnati law school. His first public office was that of assistant prosecuting attorney of Cincinnati. In 1882 he was United States collector of internal revenue for the First Ohio district, and in 1887 was made judge of the superior court of Cincinnati. In 1890 he resigned that post to become solicitor general of the department of justice, and resigned that place in 1892 when he was appointed a judge of the federal bench.

MAKES FREAK CLOCKS.

Frenchman Manufactures Reliable Timepieces of Straw, Wood and Common Paper.

In Coutances, France, lives M. Le Boullat, a curious man, who devotes his energies to the manufacture of curious clocks. He makes timepieces of straw, of wood, of paper, and sometimes of solid gold, inlaid with diamonds. For 20 years he has been working at his "freak" clocks and has made them of almost every conceivable material. One of Boullat's clocks is made out of old newspapers. He collected a lot of papers, made them into a pulp, which he mixed with a hardening material, and carved his clock out of the resultant mass. When he got through preparing the paper pulp it was as hard as steel, but very brittle. Nevertheless, by the exercise of great care, he was able to carve out the wheels, posts, teeth, pendulum, etc. The pendulum rod and other large pieces were made by casting the material in a mold.

TWO FREAK CLOCKS.
(One Is Made Entirely of Paper, the Other of Logs.)

Another is a clock of wood. He calls it a rustic clock, and it certainly is rustic in appearance. It looks like a collection of logs and sticks held together by wires. On closer inspection one sees that it is a veritable clock constructed on scientific principles. All the parts of this wooden clock are complete, though they are simple, almost primitive in design. The base of the clock is made of two logs of firewood, fastened crosswise. Two upright sticks solidly connected at top and bottom serve as a support for the spindles of the wheels. The motor weight is suspended from the drum of a four-armed wheel, which occupies the central part of the timepiece. The mechanism consists of a motor weight, the four-armed wheel and encasement rack, a pendulum and two pulleys, one of which has a crank and handle for winding. A dial and hands complete the clock, all of which is made of wood except the wheel range of the rack, which is of metal. This clock keeps excellent time, never varying more than two minutes a week, a remarkable thing when one considers the construction.

Several years ago M. Boullat made a clock of straw which attracted much attention. Frequently the clockmaker receives commissions from rich Frenchmen for the construction of clocks of silver or gold, decorated with precious stones. He has made clocks entirely of gold, with diamond-tipped hands and rubies, garnets, pearls, opals, emeralds and other precious stones to represent the figures on the dial. Some of the clocks are small, but beautiful.

ate, is a Connecticut man, and has represented his state in the United States senate since March, 1879. He has been reelected every succeeding six years since that time, and his present term will expire in 1903. Mr. Platt says he is tired of having to stay silent upon measures he wishes to talk about and to listen to unlimited discussion about measures to which he is opposed. This sort of sentiment is considered revolutionary by the senatorian code, but Mr. Platt doesn't care by what name they call his programme so long as he can hope to secure it. The Connecticut senator has been associated with parliamentary matters since 1855—when he became clerk of the senate of the legislature of his state. In 1869 he was speaker of the Connecticut house, all of which, together with his 22 years' experience in Washington, makes him a competent parliamentary critic.

HEAD OF CHEYENNES.

Mary Big Buffalo Assumes Leadership of Indian Tribe.

Although Only 30 Years of Age, She Is Very Shrewd and Maintains Her Power by Seemingly Occult Methods.

Much pomp and several incidents attended the ceremony of installing Mary Big Buffalo chief of the Cheyenne Indians, who live on a reservation in Oklahoma territory.

Not only is Mary the first woman ever appointed to rule an Indian tribe, but she is also gifted with power direct from the Great Spirit, her tribesmen believe. Besides being chosen to attend to all business of the tribe, she will also act as chief medicine man, or woman one should say, for the handful of Cheyennes who have survived the effects of wars and civilization.

Mary Big Buffalo, now chief of the Cheyennes, is a woman of much tact and common sense. It was she who started the plan to have all of her people go to Mexico to live, and then when she found that she was opposed in her plans by the United States Indian agents, who were sure to balk her scheme, she called the Cheyennes together and told them she had received a call from the Great Spirit, and that he told her to remain in the United States. So, instead of showing her weakness to the tribe, she only strengthened her reputation.

Her installation, says the Chicago American, took place on the reservation near Darlington. The valley is covered with green grass, even in the depth of winter, and the warm sun beats down, making it a most pleasant spot to live in.

Here for nearly a week the whole Cheyenne tribe lay in their tents and enjoyed life.

Quite suddenly one night Big Snake, chief of the medicine men, came forth from his tent. He had been fasting for three days and was very weak. He called in a loud voice that all was in readiness to declare the new chieftain elected.

CHIEF OF THE CHEYENNES.

The camp was soon astir. Squaws and bucks commenced to paint and sing songs. Everything was in a state of excitement. As the night grew older the other medicine men made their way to the tent of the chief-to-be and sang weird songs.

At daylight the whole tribe of 300 Indians had painted and was ready to greet the new queen.

Big Snake lifted the flap of her tepee at sunrise and cried:

"Woman, come forth!"

Then Mary Big Buffalo stepped forth. She wore only a breechcloth. Her brown skin was nearly white from fasting. Her limbs were pale from exhaustion. She smiled at the reds as she marched forth between the big medicine men and took her seat on the grass while they gathered around her.

The medicine men also were clad in naught except a white sheet which girded them. Big Snake wore a straw hat and a linen duster which some white man had given him. He looked more like a Quaker than an Indian, for his skin is nearly white.

At a given signal they all commenced blowing on their medicine whistles and the other Indians, who were interested spectators, sang weird songs. This lasted fully two hours, while the women sat on the grass and performed such feats as catching snakes apparently out of the air and eating them, and calling aloud and receiving answers, which the Indians said were entirely audible to them, but which the white people who witnessed the ceremony said they could not hear at all.

Finally the dancing broke up and the whole tribe sat down on the grass and partook of a repast of dog meat, furnished by their new chief. After this he went through the ceremony of blessing all the people of the tribe by rubbing them on the head, and the inauguration was over.

The new chief will have power to make treaties, power to banish any member from the tribe if he does something which does not suit her, and power, with the consent of a majority of the medicine council, to allot and sell the lands.

She is 30 years old and her husband was a noted warrior. She has one child, which at the tender age of five is said to be possessed of much power to commune with unseen powers. Spiritualism plays a leading role among the Cheyennes and the greater the power to see things the higher is one's standing in the tribe.

Because of her feats of jugglery and claims of supernatural power, Mary Big Buffalo was chosen chief.

SON WAS AGAINST FATHER.

FRED'K ANDERSON CHARGED WITH THREATENING CHILDRENS LIVES.

They Live on Mrs. Percy Ohl's Farm Out Central Avenue—Anderson Claims It a Scheme to Drive Him Out.

Frederick Anderson, who farms Mrs. Percy Ohl's place out on Central avenue, was arrested last night for drunkenness, disorderly conduct and threatening to do bodily harm to his son, Eddie Anderson, who swore out the warrant for his parent's arrest.

The story told by the son at the hearing, this morning, was thrilling in its details. He declared that for some time past his father has been coming home in a drunken condition and disturbing the household, by using profane and indecent language and threatening to use his gun.

Last evening, according to the boy's story, he came to the farmhouse of Mrs. Ohl, where he resides with six of his children, and upon entering through a window, which he smashed, took the son to task for having appropriated some eggs and poultry. The son, re-inforced by Mrs. Ohl and her daughter, had a merry war of words with Anderson, whom, they allege, hurled epithets at Mrs. Ohl's daughter.

They claimed that the prisoner went after his gun and they concluded to call in the police. Mrs. Ohl alleged that Anderson's presence in the household had become intolerable.

The story told by the prisoner sheds a different light on the affair. He stated that his son had always been a dutiful son until he had become subjected, as the father claimed, to the influence of Mrs. Ohl. The persecution of him was concocted, he believed, for the purpose of getting him out of the place and substituting the boy as lessee. He frankly admitted climbing through the window last night, but said this was done in order not to disturb his children. His propensity to drink was confessed, but he promised to abstain hereafter.

City Judge Runyon apparently believed the tale related by the prisoner and decided to inflict a fine of $10 or forty days imprisonment, but the sentence is suspended during his good behaviour.

After the hearing was concluded, Mrs. Ohl started to express her opinion as to the justice of the court's decision but was quickly informed that the matter was closed for the time being and that she could leave the court room at her pleasure

Preparing to Open the Netherwood.

Major Coleman, who has been stopping in New York for some time past, was in Plainfield yesterday calling on friends. He is now preparing to open the Netherwood Hotel, and already he has received many applications for rooms. The Major will come to Plainfield Saturday accompanied by several New Yorkers, who desire to spend the summer at the Netherwood Hotel and who want to select their rooms early. A very promising season is looked forward to by Major Coleman, and he hopes to attract many prominent people to this locality.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1 00. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

COMPANY K'S FIRST DRILL.

HELD IN CENTRAL HALL UNDER CHARGE OF LIEUT. WHERLEY

Committees Appointed To Draw Up Constitution and Recruit New Members.

The first drill of the members of Company K was held last evening in Central Hall. It was intended to drill in Washington Hall, but a misunderstanding prevented this. The next drill will be held in this hall. Lieut. Wherley, of Somerville, was in charge and put the company through the preliminary movements, forming by twos and fours, falling in and out, etc. The drill was a very satisfactory one and Lieut. Wherley expressed himself as pleased The drill lasted from 8 o'clock to 9:30 o'clock.

Two committees were appointed after the drill, one on constitution and by-laws consisting of J. P Mosher, chairman; Harold Whitney, Harry Kitchell, O B Pierson, V. H. Voorhees and Corporal Pearsall. The other committee is to look after recruiting new members. Those on this committee are J. P. Mosher, chairman; Harry Kitchell, Charles Peterson, John S Johnson and Asa F. Randolph.

The officers will meet Tuesday evening, April 2, for instruction, and the company will drill the following evening, at which time it is expected the uniforms and guns will be here.

New York's Military Show.

The annual tournament of the Military Athletic League is now in full swing at Madison Square Garden, New York, and a great number of people from this city and vicinity are attending the various performances. The Government sends its soldiers to the show. There are the daring riders of the Cavalry, the spendid show of the Light Field Artillery, the fine work of the Jackies from the warships, the Naval Militia, the Signal Corps. The West Point cadets are making a great hit, and the exhibition by Troop C, of Brooklyn, is a feature, all of which makes a strong attraction. Various high dignitaries are attending the show. Athletic contests begin each evening performance for the championships, then follows the military show. There is a change of programme at each performance.

Run Down By Horse.

Bertram Leggett, the twelve-year-old son of Mrs. Ann Leggett, of Madison avenue, was thrown from his bicycle and knocked unconscious while riding on that thoroughfare Friday. The boy was removed to the home of Rev. C. L Goodrich, and upon an examination by Dr. Zeglio, it was found that he had sustained no injuries except a bruise on the chest. Young Leggett recalls seeing a horse approach him, and just before he became unconscious he saw horse's hoofs above him.

SPORTING.

ON THE DIAMOND.

In a practice base ball game between the Third class and a combination team of the Plainfield High school, played on Martine's Common yesterday afternoon, the latter won by a score of 14 to 4 Their victory was probably due to the fact that the Third class lacked a good pitcher. Denton, who pitched the first few innings, became wild and he was replaced by Van Auken. The latter did good work but could not save the game.

AFTER CARNEGIE'S MONEY.

GESANG AND TURN VEREIN WANTS TO ESTABLISH A LIBRARY.

Society Has Invited Retired Steel King to Assist In Endowing Such An Institution.

The continued reports of Andrew Carnegie's liberality in founding public libraries and benevolent institutions, which have reached this city, have induced a Plainfield organization to take the initiative in bringing the needs of this city to the attention of the great philanthropist.

At a meeting of the Plainfield Gesang and Turn Verein held recently, it was decided to communicate with the retired steel king and request a donation for the establishment of a library for the society and also to defray the expenses toward the mental and physical culture of the members' children. The letter has since been written and will be forwarded in a few days.

As Mr. Carnegie generally heeds all such requests, the members are confident of receiving a favorable reply. The society has always had the best interests at heart for the members and their children and with a first-class library beneficent results will be far-reaching Flattering Foreign Mention.

One of the most esteemed papers in France, The Pitit Marseillais, printed in its number of January 31 1901, the following about the Black Diamond Express of the Lehigh Valley Railroad: "THE FASTEST TIME IN THE WORLD.

We expose in our reception and telegram rooms a picture of the 'Black Diamond Express,' a train of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, of the United States. This road, which, leaving New York, takes the direction of Buffalo and the region of the great lakes of North America, runs along the Lehigh river through the most picturesque country of the United States that which is popularly known as the Switzerland of America. The train represented in the picture which we exhibit, makes the seven hundred and nineteen kilometers that separate New York from Buffalo, in nine hours and twelve minutes, deducting the time of the thirteen stops. The two greatest runs made were between Alpine and Kendaia, where, in November, 1899, sixty-nine kilometers were run in thirty-three minutes, and where, in July, 1900, this train beat its own record in covering a distance of fifty-four kilometers in twenty three minutes."

This newspaper, which has a circulation of 300,900, is known to many Americans who travel abroad, and particularly on the Riviera, for the many courtesies which it is always ready to extend to the citizens of America. The article shows how closely the publishers follow American items of interest, and their readiness to acknowledge the superiority of American railroading.

BALLOTS COMING IN FAST

EVERY TAX PAYER IN CITY AND BOROUGH ENTITLED TO VOTE.

So Far the Ballots Have Been Almost Entirely For Municipal Ownership—Women Who Pay Taxes are Voting as Well as Men.

If the ballots on the municipal ownership question already received at The Daily Press office are a fair sample of those yet to arrive, the people of Plainfield are greatly in favor of municipal ownership of the water supply plant. From every part of the city ballots are arriving. Before the time for balloting closes, The Daily Press hopes to have the votes of a majority of the tax payers of the city.

Do you favor the municipal ownership of the local water works? That is what the Common Council wants to know and that is what The Daily Press is trying to find out. The ballots, one for the city and the other for the borough, are printed below. If you have not already voted, do not fail to send in your ballot. Let it be remembered that the names will not be made public. Fill the ballot out with ink or pencil and mail it or leave it at this office.

There are women among the taxpayers of the city and already a number of them have voted. All you have to be is a taxpayer, either, poll, personal or on real estate, to be entitled to vote. Don't put off sending the ballot, cut it out and send it at once. Many ballots have been received, but the vote will not attain its object unless everybody files their opinion at this office. Don't forget it and call your neighbors attention to it. If the vote is to be for municipal ownership, let it be an emphatic one and the Common Council will see how the public stands.

SAYS TROLLEY HURTS TRADE.

W. L. SMALLEY HAS SUGGESTIONS REGARDING SOMERSET STREET LINE.

Farmers Fear to Come to Town as Horses Are Frightended By Cars—He Would Extend Line.

A new suggestion, concerning the route of the proposed extension of the Somerset street trolley line, has been advanced by Wm. L. Smalley, the venerable father of the present mayor.

Mr. Smalley's idea is that the trolley people should continue the road on a straight line parallel with Somerset street after passing Johnson's drive until the brook is met. The trolley should cross the brook, Mr. Smalley believes, at this point, and then continue along the far side of the stream as far as the valley.

The general proposition has been that the trolley follow along the extension of Somerset street from the bend of the road at the intersection of Johnston's Drive. This idea Mr. Smalley believes to be detrimental to the interests of the borough.

He claims that a large percentage of the farmers' trade at the borough stores has been driven away by the trolleys. The farmers' horses are afraid of the trolley cars and the risk of driving along the line of the cars is too great, and, hence, a large share of the trade goes to towns on the other side of the mountain.

This is the opinion of Mr. Smalley and to it he adds that in the event of the trolley extending farther out Somerset street to the valley, much more damage will be done to the business of the borough merchants.

Mr. Smalley does not desire to appear as an enemy of the trolley system, which he regards as a feature in the advancement of the last century, but he wishes to express his opinion on the subject.

SIDEWALKS LAID.

Borough Improving Condition of Duer Street, Between Craig Place and the New Bridge.

A gang of men were placed at work by the borough authorities, yesterday, placing the curb stones in position on Duer street, near the bridge, along the side of the German Reformed church. Today the flag stones are being laid at the same point.

When completed, this will be a decided improvement, because of the muddy condition existing there heretofore. Under an agreement made when Duer street was opened from the brook to Craig place, the borough will bear all costs of setting the curb and laying the flag stone walk opposite the church's property.

CITY PASTOR AT 'PLAINS.

SAID THAT HE HAS BEEN SUSPENDED FOR MISCONDUCT.

Was Pastor of Presbyterian Church at Flatbush, L. I.—Now Stopping at Scotch Plains With Mr. Noon

The New York Herald of today publishes a lengthy story concerning Rev. Dr. Alfred Moment, of Brooklyn, formerly pastor of the Immanuel Presbyterian church in Flatbush, whom it is alleged is guilty of misconduct, On this charge, it is said, that Dr. Moment has been suspended by the Judicial Commission of the Brooklyn Presbytery.

Dr. Moment was charged with betraying the confidence of a family with whom he had been on terms of warm friendship for twenty years, and of misconduct with a young married woman whose name has been kept secret. The whereabouts of Dr. Moment was somewhat of a mystery until a short time ago.

It has since been learned that he is stopping with Mr. Noon at Scotch Plains. The residence is on the mountains near the fur mill, about one mile from Scotch Plains proper. According to the newspaper accounts, Dr. Moment stoutly denies the charges preferred. Today's Herald also publishes what appears to be a very good picture of the accused clergyman.

PREPARING FOR EASTER.

One of the events of the spring season is the millinery opening at Bonn's. The women who want to appear in hats that are not only well-made, but correct as to style, should not fail to inspect the endless variety to be found there. The store is handsomely furnished with every convenience and is in every way adapted to please.

This season is marked by many changes in millinery. Bonn presents some very choice styles to select from. One very stylish picture hat is a black Neapolitan. The brim is tucked with white maline and edged with narrow black French lace. Two large white ostrich plumes give a pleasing finish. Another hat that attracts the eye is of green foliage covered with white chiffon, pink and white applique roses. A large velvet bow and steel buckle adorn the crown, while tiny velvet bows surround the brim. A folded facing of pink and white chiffon makes this hat complete.

A third hat that is very select is a Spanish turbin made of black horsehair braid with gold and black lace drapery around the edge. Salmon pink and corn colored roses form a very pretty and stylish trimming that is exceedingly attractive. There are scores of other pretty hats just the thing for Easter.

CHRISTIAN UNION.

Evangelist Harney Will Speak on That Important Topic Tonight.

The subject of the sermon of Rev. G. L. Harney, the evangelist, at Reform Hall this evening, will be "United in Christ." This will be a sermon on the union of God's people in Christian work, and will be illustrated in various ways, and possibly in the use of the blackboard or chart. One of the fundamental principles of the Disciples of Christ is the union of all Christians, and it will be seen this evening that this is no plea for all others to come to the Disciples, but only for what it says, a union of Christians.

Miss Clara Mears will sing one or two solos this evening. Altogether, it is expected that this will be one of the best and most interesting services of this series. All are invited, and it is hoped that all, especially those interested in the subject of Christian union, will attend.

HEARTS AND GOOBERS.

Pleasant Evening Arranged by Miss L. A. Force in Honor of Her Guest, Miss DeCamp.

A novel and pleasing affair called a "Heart and Goober Party" was given last evening by Miss Lillian A. Force, of Duer street, in honor of her friend Miss DeCamp, of Chester, N. J., to about forty of her friends. There were many features that made the evening one of great pleasure to all.

During the first part of the evening the guests thoroughly enjoyed the game of hearts. There was much rivalry in the contest for prizes, and not a little fun. Robert DeCamp, who substituted for one of the other sex, was awarded the first prize for women. This was a dainty vinaigrette. The second prize, a Wedgewood bon-bon, was presented to Miss Evans. F. H. Smith was awarded the first men's prize, a sterling silver key ring, and the second prize, a Mexican leather cushion, was presented to F. E. Woodruff. All the prizes were heart shaped.

At this time the guests were regaled with delightful refreshments served in dainty style by the hostess. Then followed "goober" games. These were very amusing and caused no end of fun. The honors were also of an amusing character. The winner of "the hunt," received a prize of a small bisque dog labelled the "Champion Hunter," and the person who could hold the greatest number of "goobers" in his hand was presented with a big toy pig filled with salted "goobers." After the playing of the "goober" games the guests were favored with two pleasing solos by William Holmes.

SOLD WITHOUT LICENSE.

Peddler of Small Cakes Arraigned Before City Judge Runyon for a Hearing This Morning.

John B. Quinn, of Jersey City, was placed under arrest this morning by Detective McCarty for peddling without a license. He was immediately given a hearing by City Judge Runyon.

Quinn claimed that for fifteen years past he had made regular trips to Plainfield and other places in this vicinity for the purpose of selling a special line of small cakes which are not generally handled by bakers. He was unaware of the necessity of providing himself with a license.

City Judge Runyon suspended sentence on condition that the prisoner would cease selling his goods without a license. This Quinn agreed to and he was permitted to go.

WRECKED WHEEL.

Careless Driver Ran Over Samuel Clouston's Bicycle But He Escaped Injury.

Samuel Clouston, of West Front street, narrowly escaped serious injury shortly after 6 o'clock last evening when on his wheel he collided with a wagon on North avenue, opposite the depot.

The driver of the latter turned suddenly to the wrong side of the road directly in front of the bicyclist, who was speeding toward home. Before Clouston could stop, he struck the horse but by a dexterous move jumped to one side and escaped being knocked down. The wagon passed over the front wheel of his bicycle and completely wrecked it. The identity of the driver could not be learned.

ONLY BORROWED; DIDN'T BEG.

JOHANNA HALEY THUS EXPLAINED HER SOLICITATIONS FOR MONEY.

But City Judge Runyon Had Heard of Her Before and Sent Her to Jail For Ten Days.

Johanna Haley, for sometime a resident of Paradise Alley, and an occasional lodger at Police Headquarters, was detected by Roundsman Flynn soliciting money on East Front street. The Roundsman promptly placed her under arrest. This morning Johanna answered the charge before City Judge Runyon.

She claimed that borrowing, not begging, was what she was practising when arrested. Her method, it appears, was to solicit from women only, and according to the Roundsman she had met with much succes. The Roundsman said that Johanna was under the influence of liquor, but the woman swore she had only taken two drinks, one at the house of a friend in Dunellen and the other a few moments before she was placed under arrest.

City Judge Runyon incidently informed her that Maggie Bentford, her neighbor, who was charged with stealing a ham yesterday had sworn that she was the prime mover in the theft. Mrs. Haley claimed that she had not seen the Bentford woman for three weeks at least and had taken no part in the larceny.

City Judge Runyon, in deciding the case, recalled that Mrs. Haley was no stranger to the police department, and that he felt it a duty to punish her for the offense charged. The court gave her the alternative of paying a fine of $3 or spending ten days in the Elizabeth jail. Circumstances compelled her to accept the free board provided down the road.

Burglars Operated at the Residence of Former Plainfielder Now in Elizabeth, But Were Frightened Away.

The residence of James P. Powers, counselor at law, a former resident of this city, but now of Elizabeth, was entered by burglars Wednesday night during the absence of the family and thoroughly ransacked. The discovery of the intruders' visit was made by a member of the household who returned unexpectedly, evidently putting the burglars to flight.

The police were notified and a thorough investigation was made, but to no purpose. As far as can be learned only a few small articles were taken, although a large amount of silverware had been tied in a bundle ready for removal.

JAMESBURG'S HEAVY LOSS BY FIRE.

Main Industry of the Village Destroyed—Loss More Than $100,000.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Brunswick, March 29.—A fire, thought to be of incendiary origin and the most disastrous in the history of Jameesburg, broke out in that village Wednesday night. The flames started in the grocery store of Louis Bennett, in Railroad avenue, and are believed to have originated from an overheated stove.

The large shirt factory of Koblenzer & Daxlan, which immediately adjoined the store, was bufned to the ground, all efforts to save the building proving futile. This factory employed over three hundred people, who are thrown out of work. The villagers were obliged to stand about and watch their mainstay burn, while they were unable to raise a hand to save it.

Koblenzer & Dazlan's loss is close to $100 000 about one half of which is covered by insurance. The loss of Louis Bennett is $3,000, and he is insured for $1,800.

The fire was discovered by Dr. H. D. Zandt, who is a brother-in-law of Mrs. A. V. D. Honeyman, of Grove street, Plainfield.

CLAIMS MIND WAS UNSOUND.

WIDOW OF GEORGE W. MOORE WILL TRY TO BREAK HIS WILL.

He Left Her Income of Realty and Personal—Mrs. Moore Has Begun Proceedings Before Judge Vail.

The last will and testament of the late George W. Moore, which was proven in the Surrogate's office of Union county January 19, 1901, is to be contested by the widow, Alletta S. Moore, she having appealed from the order of the Surrogate admitting the will to probate to the Orphans' Court. Judge Vail will set a date later for a hearing in the matter.

Mr. Moore died January 8, 1901, and John S. Gibson, of Newark, and James M. Atwood, of Trenton, were named as executors of the will. By the provisions of the will Mrs. Moore is to receive the income of realty, valued at $2 000, and personal, valued at $6,000, except a gold watch left to Charles W. Dodd, Jr., and a case of badges left to John Hand Camp, No. 28, Sons of Veterans. If the will is broken Mrs. Moore will get one half of the personal property outright and the use of one-third of the realty for life.

Mrs. Moore gives as her reason for contesting the will that when her husband made his will he was of unsound mind, and therefore takes this action to have the instrument broken. Winfield S. Angleman has been retained by Mrs. Moore to contest the will, while George Ball representing the executors, will defend the present will The appeal was filed with the Surrogate March 27.

POLICE SAY POOL RODE TOO RAPIDLY.

First Arrest of Season For Alleged Violation of the Bicycle Ordinance.

HEARING TOMORROW A. M.

CHARGED WITH SCORCHING ON PARK AVENUE ONE AFTERNOON.

Police Say That He Nearly Ran Down Two Women at North Avenue Crossing and Failed to Warn Pedestrians of His Approach.

The first case this year of an arrest for the violation of the city bicycle ordinance came before City Judge Runyon this morning, when Ray Pool, a well-known young bicyclist, living in the borough, appeared to answer the charge of having ridden faster than the prescribed limit of speed.

Mr. Pool and another bicyclist named Emmons, it is alleged, were scorching up Park avenue shortly before 6 o'clock on the afternoon of Thursday, April 14 When crossing the intersection of North avenue, the police claim that Mr. Pool, riding at the rate of fifteen miles an hour, barely escaped running down two women who were on the street crossing and that he had failed to ring his bell as required.

Roundsman Flynn notified Pool to appear and answer the charge. This morning City Judge Runyon adjourned the case until tomorrow in order that Emmons might be present.

Chief Kiely proposes to make an example of this class of violations of the ordinance, because it is believed that fast riding on the streets in the central part of the city is an exceedingly dangerous practice, and the sooner it is suppressed the better it will be for the safety of pedestrians.

It is the intention of the police to likewise put a stop to the practice of riding on pavements in the residential portion of the city. This it is said has occasioned much annoyance of late, and the police will put an early end to this violation of the ordinance.

AT THE THEATRES.

Harry Martell's original "South Before the War" Company appears at Music Hall tomorrow afternoon and night. It is a picture of southern life in slavery days, bringing out the peculiarities and fun loving qualities of the colored people. The company is composed of fifty performers, mainly colored, the chief characters, however, being taken by white artists who stand in the front rank of their profession. The singing of the company is inspiring and the rich melody awakens the music loving soul to sympathetic fellowship. There is pathos and fun depicted in the play and all lovers of clean entertainment should not miss this opportunity. It opens on the scene of a slave returning from the north to the plantation, his wife Chloe and numerous children who are giving a holiday to celebrate the event and celebrate it in their own peculiar way. The levee on the Mississippi River with the dancing and singing, the camp meeting on Frog Island with all the peculiarities of character usually seen there, the cake-walk which closes the performance, all together combine to make the entertainment one to be thoroughly enjoyed, and will be appreciated by those who love good music and fun There will be a parade by the company at noon tomorrow, starting from the palace car in which the company travels.

That youth forms no barrier to success when there is genuine talent and ability, is shown in the advancement of that popular child star, Irene Myers, who appears at the head of her company at Music Hall all next week. The charm of this dainty little actress lies largely in her convincing sincerity, added to which she has a graceful figure, an exceedingly sweet face and an entire freedom from affectation An absolutely natural and easy presence, an absence of that parrot-like reading, so common among children of the stage, enables her to interpret her parts with intelligence and feeling, indicating that her work is not the result of the rigid coaching the ordinary child is subjected to, but that of genius, which no amount of training can accomplish. Critics throughout America unanimously pronounce her the most remarkable child every seen on this continent, and look upon her in amazement, because of such heretofore unseen talent in one so young.

The programmes of continuous performances are still kept up to their usual mid-winter standard at Proctor's Twenty-third Street Theatre The specialty numbers for the week of April 1 include Patrice, a dainty comedienne, in her novel playlet, "The Girl in the Moon," in which she uses a special scenic and lighting outfit; T. W. Kennard, acrobatic comiques; N. Y Ladies' Quartette; George Hammeresmith, monologue; John Nealy, blackface comedian; Ingram and Jacklin, illustrated melodies, and many more. FOR ENDEAVORERS.

Interesting Side of the Work Being Carried on by Young Christians.

(Conducted by Press Department Union County C. E. Union.)

The plan to hold State Christian Endeavor conventions biennially in the future is meeting with much favor Missouri is the first state to fall in line and announces that her convention in October will be the last annual gathering.

Union County Endeavorers have new cause for pride because of the fact that within their borders was published the first paper devoted to Christian Endeavor interests. In May, 1886, the society of the Third Presbyterian church, Elizabeth, issued the first number of "Christian Endeavor." In its current number the Christian Endeavor World presents a facsimile of the first page of this publication and says that it antedated "The Golden Rule" itself, as the latter did not come under Christian Endeavor auspices until October, 1886

The World's Christian Endeavor Union has resolved to assist some of the foreign Christian Endeavor unions in securing secretaries for the work within their boundaries. The unions of Africa and India have secured secretaries, but some other countries are prevented through lack of funds from obtaining this help in their work Some of the workers in the office of the United Society and Christian Endeavor World feel so keenly the need of this work that nine of them have pledged sums aggregating over $100 a year for five years.

AGUINALDO IN JAIL.

General Funston Tells Story of the Capture.

TASK SUCCESSFULLY PERFORMED.

Trusted Macabebe Scouts and Four Former Insurgent Officers Aided the Americans in Their Clever Scheme.

MANILA, March 29.—Aguinaldo, who was captured by General Funston and brought to Manila on the United States gunboat Vicksburg, was brought ashore late yesterday afternoon and taken before General MacArthur at the Malacanan palace. He talked freely, but seemed ignorant concerning what had happened recently. He appeared to be in good health and was even cheerful. He took luncheon with the officers of General MacArthur's staff and was then escorted to the Anda street jail.

Aguinaldo's capture was attended with considerable difficulty, an insurgent major being killed at the time of the event. Twenty rifles and a number of important papers were captured. General Funston has given out a detailed statement of the affair which is very interesting. We produce the main features:

The confidential agent of Aguinaldo arrived Feb. 28 at Pantabangan, in the province of Nueva Ecija, northern Luzon, with letters dated Jan. 11, 12 and 14. These letters were from Emilio Aguinaldo and directed Baldermero Aguinaldo to take command of the provinces of central Luzon, supplanting General Alejandrino. Emilio Aguinaldo also ordered that 400 men be sent him as soon as possible, saying that the bearer of the letters would guide these men to where Aguinaldo was.

General Funston secured the correspondence of Aguinaldo's agent and laid his plans accordingly. Some months previously he had captured the camp of the insurgent general Lacuna, incidentally obtaining Lacuna's seal, official papers and a quantity of signed correspondence. From this material two letters were constructed, ostensibly from Lacuna to Aguinaldo.

One of these contained information as to the progress of the war. The other asserted that pursuant to orders received from Baldermero Aguinaldo Lacuna was sending his best company to President Emilio Aguinaldo.

His plans completed and approved, General Funston came to Manila and organized his expedition, selecting 78 Macabebes, all of whom spoke Tagalog fluently. Twenty wore insurgent uniforms and the others the dress of Filipino laborers. This Macabebe company, armed with 50 Mausers, 18 Remingtons and 10 Krag-Jorgensens, was commanded by Captain Russell T. Hazzard. With him was his brother, Lieutenant Oliver P. M. Hazzard, both of the Eleventh United States cavalry. Captain Harry W. Newton, Thirty-fourth infantry, was taken because of his familiarity with Casiguran bay, and Lieutenant Burton J. Mitchell, Fortieth infantry, went as General Funston's aid. These were the only Americans accompanying the leader of the expedition.

With the Macabebes were four ex-insurgent officers, one being a Spaniard and the other three Tagalogs, whom General Funston trusted implicitly.

General Funston and the American officers wore plain blue shirts and khaki trousers. They carried each a half blanket, but wore no insignia of rank. The Macabebes were carefully instructed to obey the orders of the four ex-insurgent officers.

On the night of March 8 the party embarked on the United States gunboat Vicksburg. It was originally intended to take cascoes from the island of Polillo and to drift to the mainland, but a storm arose and three of the cascoes were lost. This plan was abandoned. At 2 a. m. March 14 the Vicksburg put her lights out and ran inshore 25 miles south of Casiguran, province of Principe. The party landed and marched to Casiguran. The Americans had never garrisoned this place, and the inhabitants are strong insurgent sympathizers. Having arrived there, the ex-insurgent officers, ostensibly commanding the party, announced that they were on the way to join Aguinaldo between Pautobagan and Baler, that they had surprised an American surveying party and that they had killed a number, capturing five. They exhibited General Funston and the other Americans as their prisoners.

The insurgent presidente of Casiguran believed the story. Two of the Lacuna letters, previously concocted, were forwarded to Aguinaldo at Palanan, province of Isabella. General Funston and the others were kept imprisoned for three days, surreptitiously giving orders at night. On the morning of March 17, taking a small quantity of cracked corn, the party started on a 90 mile march to Palanan. The country is rough and uninhabited, and provisions could not be secured. The party ate small shellfish, but was almost starved. Wading swift rivers, climbing precipitous mountains and penetrating dense jungles, they marched seven days and nights, and on March 22 had reached a point eight miles from Palanan. They were now so weak that it was necessary to send to Aguinaldo's camp for food. Aguinaldo dispatched supplies and directed that the American prisoners be kindly treated, but not be allowed to enter the town.

On the morning of March 23 the advance was resumed. The column was met by the staff officers of Aguinaldo and a detachment of Aguinaldo's bodyguard, which was ordered to take charge of the Americans.

While one of the ex-insurgent officers conversed with Aguinaldo's aid another, a Spaniard, sent a courier to warn General Funston and the rest, who, with 11 Macabebes, were about an hour behind. Having received this warning, General Funston avoided Aguinaldo's detachment and joined the column, avoiding observation. The Tagalos went ahead to greet Aguinaldo, and the column slowly followed, finally arriving at Palanan.

Aguinaldo's household troops, 50 men in neat uniforms of blue and white and wearing straw hats, lined up to receive the newcomers. General Funston's men crossed the river in small boats, formed on the bank and marched to the right and then in front of the insurgent grenadiers. The Tagalos entered the house where Aguinaldo was.

Suddenly the Spanish officer, noticing that Aguinaldo's aid was watching the Americans suspiciously, exclaimed, "Now, Macabebes, go for them!" The Macabebes opened fire, but their aim was rather ineffective, and only three insurgents were killed. The rebels returned the fire. On hearing the firing Aguinaldo, who evidently thought his men were merely celebrating the arrival of re-enforcements, ran to the window and shouted: "Stop that foolishness! Quit wasting ammunition!"

Hilario Placido, one of the Tagalog officers and a former insurgent major, who was wounded in the lung by the fire of the Kansas regiment at the battle of Caloocan, threw his arms around Aguinaldo, exclaiming, "You are a prisoner of the Americans!"

Colonel Simeon Villia, Aguinaldo's chief of staff; Major Alambra and others attacked the men who were holding Aguinaldo. Placido shot Villia in the shoulder. Alambra jumped out of the window and attempted to cross the river. It is supposed that he was drowned. Five other insurgent officers fought for a few minutes and then fled, making their escape.

When the firing began, General Funston assumed command and directed the attack on the house, personally assisting in the capture of Aguinaldo. The insurgent bodyguard fled, leaving 20 rifles. Santiago Barcelona, the insurgent treasurer, surrendered without resistance.

When captured, Aguinaldo was tremendously excited, but he calmed down under General Funston's assurance that he would be well treated. General Funston secured all of Aguinaldo's correspondence, showing that he had kept in close touch with the subchiefs of the insurrection in all parts of the archipelago.

It was also discovered that Aguinaldo, Jan. 28, had proclaimed himself dictator. He had been living at Palanan for seven months, undisturbed except when a detachment of the Sixteenth infantry visited the town. On that occasion the entire population took to the mountains and remained there until the troops retired.

Aguinaldo admitted that he had come near to being captured before, but he asserted that he had never been wounded, adding: "I should never have been taken except by a stratagem. I was completely deceived by Lacuna's forged signature." He feared he might be sent to Guam, and he was quite glad to come to Manila.

Palanan was guarded by numerous outposts and signal stations. During the fight none of the Macabebes was wounded.

The expedition rested March 24 and then marched 16 miles the following day to Palanan bay, where General Funston found the Vicksburg, which brought him to Manila. Commander Barry of the Vicksburg rendered General Funston splendid assistance.

Aguinaldo, who talked freely of past events, said he supposed General Trias would proclaim himself dictator, evidently not knowing that Trias had surrendered. He behaved courteously and gave no trouble.

General Funston says Aguinaldo is above the average in intelligence and has prepossessing manners.

THE NEWS IN WASHINGTON.

Speculation as to What Will Be Done With the Captive.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—A cablegram received at the war department late yesterday from General MacArthur tells in a succinct way the history of Aguinaldo's capture, gives all credit for the brilliant exploit to General Funston, whose reward it suggests should be that of a brigadier general in the regular army, and finally closes with an expression of confidence in the speedy cessation of hostilities throughout the Philippine archipelago as a result of the capture. Except that it makes no reference to the disposition to be made of Aguinaldo, the dispatch covers the whole field of gossip and speculation excited in Washington by the news that Funston's adventurous expedition had been crowned with complete success.

Representative Long of Kansas was at the war department and discussed with officials the matter of adequately rewarding General Funston for the capture of Aguinaldo. Mr. Long says that about six weeks ago the Kansas delegation called upon Secretary Root and the president and recommended General Funston for promotion and asked that he be given some recognition for past services. It was said then that there was no place for General Funston except in one of the staff departments unless he was made a brigadier general, and it was said that he could not expect such a promotion as that. The action of the delegation was purely voluntary.

The war department has not had time as yet to consider the exact status of Aguinaldo, whether he is to be tried and what punishment, if any, is to be meted out to him.

It is nearly a year since anything definite has been heard about Aguinaldo. Then the information was not very authentic. He was being pursued in northern Luzon by different expeditions under Colonel Hare, Colonel Howe and Major Peyton C. March. The troops under the last named officer captured his equipments, and it was supposed the chief insurgent had been wounded. His escape was effected, it was said, by placing him upon a raft and covering him with leaves, vegetables and bushes. This raft was floated down the stream and passed the points occupied by the American troops. This stream was the Rio Grande de Cagayan, which flows northward and parallel with the eastern coast of northern Luzon, near which the capture was made. Reports of the death of Aguinaldo have been frequent. The fact that many orders issued in Aguinaldo's name never were actually signed by him encouraged the belief that his name was being used by his followers even after his death. There was another story that Aguinaldo was once captured by General Young, but was in the garb of and appeared as a common laborer of the district, not understanding a word of English and Spanish, and was turned loose after a few days.

General Otis on the Capture.

CHICAGO, March 29.—Major General Elwell S. Otis, formerly in command of the army in the Philippines and now in command of the department of the lakes, expressed satisfaction over the capture of Aguinaldo. "The influence of Aguinaldo has been waning for some time," said General Otis. "Therefore the importance of the capture is not so great as might be supposed. He has been a fugitive in hiding for so long that a large number of his followers have dropped away and a great majority of people are tired of the whole thing—tired of being robbed and tired of the warfare. In fact, affairs in the islands are as quiet now as they have been for 25 years under Spain. There are only two Filipino officers of any importance now left in the islands who still maintain their hostility to the United States. These are General Cailes and General Luchan. The former is now hiding in the mountains of the east coast of Luzon, and the latter is in central Luzon with a small band. As to the effect the capture of Aguinaldo will have on our affairs in the islands, I believe it will hasten the time when peace will be restored."

Rejoicing at Funston's Home.

IOLA, Kan., March 29.—Business in Iola, the home of General Funston, was practically suspended yesterday, while the citizens gave vent to the enthusiasm they felt over the Kansas soldier's feat. General Funston's parents live on a farm five miles from Iola. When the news was taken to them, they were overjoyed at the story of their son's remarkable achievement.

What Sixto Lopez Thinks.

BOSTON, March 29.—Sixto Lopez, formerly secretary to Aguinaldo, who said that the capture of Aguinaldo would not necessarily end the war, amplified that statement by saying that any one of the principal generals, Tinio, Mascardo, Alejandrino, Maxilon, Cailles or Arejola would make as good or, in the opinion of many Filipinos, better leaders than Aguinaldo.

China's Minister Injured.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 29.—Last Monday, when the world expected that the Russo-Chinese convention as to Manchuria would be signed, the Russian foreign office received word that the Chinese minister in St. Petersburg, Yang Yu, had fallen and been seriously injured. This news was received at the time with a grain of salt, but it is said at the United States embassy that Yang Yu not only slipped on a wax floor, bruising his elbow and leg, but hurt his head and was consequently confined to his bedroom. Yang Yu is over 60 and fleshy. He has recently displayed great anxiety in reference to the convention and has hesitated to sign, particularly since he is in doubt about his reception should he return to China, as he belongs to the Liberal party.

Arbitration Favored.

ALBANY, March 29.—State Commissioner of Labor McMackin has issued his quarterly labor bulletin. Among other things it says: "Negotiations are progressing toward a compact between the American Newspaper Publishers' association and the International Typographical union which, if adopted, will establish the peaceful methods of arbitration in place of strikes or lockouts in that large part of the printing industry controlled by the Publishers' association.

To Tax Bachelors.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., March 29.—State Senator Dawson has introduced a bill providing for a tax on bachelors. The bill requires that when a man above the age of 40 who has not been previously married applies for a marriage license he shall be charged an additional fee of $100. This fee is to be applied to a fund known as the bachelors' tax fund and is to be used for the erection and maintenance of a spinsters' home under the jurisdiction of the state.

Highway Slides Into Canal.

UTICA, N. Y., March 29.—As a result of the flood a section of highway 50 feet long and 30 feet deep, running along the Black river canal in the town of Western, 25 miles north of here, slid into the ditch. The road was 50 feet above the level of canal, and the slide is attributed to quicksand in addition to the flood. The earth has filled the canal at that point. Nothing can be done at present in the way of repairs owing to the high water.

The Home of Ulysses.

BERLIN, March 29.—Professor Wilhelm Doerpfeld, the archaeologist, has discovered that the island of Ithaca, in the Ionian sea, is not identical with ancient Ithaca, famous as the dominion and home of Ulysses, but that the classic territory was really the neighboring island of Leukas. In the latter island, therefore, he has begun excavations on a large scale.

TALKS OF A REVOLT.

The German Emperor Warns Troops to Be Ready.

ADDRESS CREATES A SENSATION.

He Said That a Revolution Might Even Now Be Impending—German Press Says There Is No Reason For the Kaiser's Assertion.

BERLIN, March 29.—The emperor yesterday personally led the Emperor Alexander Grenadier regiment from the Lustgarten to their new barracks.

This was the emperor's first appearance on horseback since the attack on him in Bremen. He received an ovation along the entire route of march.

At the barracks the emperor addressed the troops, cautioning them to be ever alert for their country's good.

The emperor created something of a stir by saying that a revolution might be impending in Germany and warned his soldiers to be ready to crush it.

The Freisinnige Zeitung was the only paper commenting upon the address last evening. It says: "Emperor William had no reason to talk about revolution and the like, because Weiland's deed was the act of an irresponsible epileptic. Moreover, his majesty forgets that the revolution of 1848 was part of a general uprising throughout the whole of Germany."

This paper also criticises the reply of the regimental commander, who called the Bremen attempt a "bestial crime." Today's press comment throughout Germany will intensify the sensation.

The New Cereal Combine.

CHICAGO, March 29.—Representatives of ten of the largest cereal mills not affiliated with the American Cereal company met here yesterday to take final steps in the consummation of a combine projected by O. C. Barber, president of the Diamond Match company. The new combine will be known as the Great Western Cereal company and will, it is said, have an authorized capitalization of $4,500,000, $1,500,000 of which will be preferred stock. It is said negotiations have been opened with the American Cereal company for a combination of all the interests connected with both companies, which would form a $20,000,000 deal, but the officials of the latter concern say that such a combination will never be effected.

Iowa Boy Rewarded.

VINTON, Ia., March 29.—Word has been received from Washington that President McKinley has appointed Calvin Pearl Titus a cadet to West Point as a reward for his heroic exploit in scaling the Chinese wall surrounding the foreign legation at Peking during the relief expedition last August. Young Titus was born in this city. He enlisted for service in the Philippines, but was later sent to China with the Fourteenth Iowa infantry, under command of Brigadier General A. S. Daggett. General Daggett says the printed accounts of the bravery of Titus were not exaggerated, that he was the first soldier to scale the wall by climbing hand over hand for a distance of 30 feet. Titus is only 19.

Affairs at Tien-tsin.

LONDON, March 29.—The Daily Mail has received the following from Tientsin, dated yesterday: "Colonel Macdonald politely asked the Russians to remove their flags from the British portion of the disputed territory, where they surreptitiously placed them after a mutual evacuation had been agreed upon. The Russians flatly refused. It is understood that the question of an arbitrator on the title to the concession has not yet been settled."

Electric Cars Collide.

NORFOLK, March 29.—There was a head on collision between two electric cars on the Norfolk and Atlantic Terminal Railway company's line near Tanners creek in which five persons, two white and three colored, were seriously injured. L. A. Poole, superintendent of the barn, had one foot crushed, the leg broken and cut about the head. Thomas Bunch, motorman, had his hand badly smashed and his head and face cut.

The Marseilles Strike Over.

MARSEILLES, March 29.—More than 3,000 dock laborers have resumed work. The negative result of the visit of a deputation of strikers to Prime Minister Waldeck-Rousseau and M. Millerand minister of commerce and industry, has left the strikers little hope, and the speedy collapse of the movement is foreseen. Nevertheless, the remaining strikers say they are resolved to persist.

CUBANS CAN'T AGREE

GREAT VARIETY OF OPINIONS.

Committee Will Report to Constitutional Convention on Monday—A Delegation May Be Sent to Washington.

HAVANA, March 29.—The meeting held yesterday by the committee on relations of the Cuban constitutional convention was not harmonious. Each of the five members offered a different report. Senor Juan Gualberto Gomez, who was appointed a fortnight ago to prepare one, submitted a report of great length, rejecting the Platt amendment, particularly clauses 3, 4, 7 and 8. Senor Silva reported in favor of leaving the question of relations to the future government, but he afterward voted in favor of the report submitted by Senor Gomez.

Senor Villuendas reported in opposition to any further action regarding the matter by the convention. Senor de Quesada in his report accepted the Platt amendment with the provisos that the establishing of coaling stations should not interfere with the internal government of Cuba and that the United States should be given the right to intervene, according to the treaty of Paris, only when the Cuban government should be unable to protect life and property. Senor Tamayo's report was in line with the Platt amendment, allowing the United States to make Cuba a base of operations in case of war, in return for which the United States should guarantee the permanent independence of Cuba, but should not intervene except at the request of the Cuban congress.

Members of the committee said last evening that they would report to the convention next Monday.

La Discusion editorially favors sending a committee to Washington to discuss the whole question with the cabinet, and many delegates approve this suggestion.

Dr. Quiloz, civil governor of the province of Pinar del Rio, has addressed a communication to the convention advising the acceptance of the Platt amendment. He was elected as an independent delegate to the convention and asserts that the people of the province support his view.

Mexican Central Changes Hands.

NEW YORK, March 29.—The Evening Post says control of the Mexican Central railway has been secured by New York interests, and at the annual meeting in May it is expected that there will be a complete change in management. W. L. Snow of W. L. Snow & Co., who have been heavy purchasers of shares in the New York market and recently openly solicited proxies from shareholders, announced yesterday that he had been entirely successful in securing a majority of the shares and that those for whom he was acting are now in absolute control of the Mexican Central railway. The identity of the interests for whom the property has been secured is not disclosed, but the acquisition was made, it is stated, for one of the two connecting railroads at El Paso, which are the Atchison and the Southern Pacific.

Bodies Eaten by Rats.

NEW YORK, March 29.—The bodies of a man and woman named Meade were found in their rooms at 152 Virginia avenue, Jersey City, yesterday. The bodies were badly decomposed. They presented a shocking sight and had the appearance of having been eaten by rats. For several weeks past nothing had been seen of the Meades by their neighbors. As they had not told anybody of an intention to go away their disappearance caused a suspicion that something was wrong. The police forced an entrance to the house and in one of the rooms found the dead bodies of Meade and his sister. The woman was found sitting on a chair, and the body of her brother was in the bed.

Skipped Rope Too Much.

NEW YORK, March 29.—Sadie Purcell, a 9-year-old pupil of St. Nicholas' school, Passaic, N. J., during recess skipped the rope 406 times. A few minutes after she had returned to the schoolroom she complained of feeling dizzy and dropped from her seat unconscious. Physicians were called, the girl taken to her home, and during the afternoon paralysis set in. A medical consultation was held, and the doctors say they have little hope of saving her life.

Voluntary Increase of Wages.

READING, Pa., March 29.—Nearly 1,500 of the Reading Iron company's 3,000 employees have received a voluntary increase in wages, some nearly 10 per cent. The increase is confined to the puddling department. Puddlers will be increased from $3 to $3.25 per ton. It was announced that the ruling prices of iron will not permit an increase in wages in the other departments.

Naval Movements.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The torpedo boat Shubrick has joined the Thornton at Annapolis for the trial runs of these two little vessels. The Pompey has left Hongkong for Cavite, and the Zafiro has left Cavite for Hongkong. The Dolphin has arrived at Washington, the Vixen at Sagua de Tanamo, the Winslow at Norfolk and the Buffalo and Nanshan at Cavite.

Iron Works Destroyed.

CHESTER, Pa., March 29.—The Crum Lynne Iron company's works at Leiperville, near this city, were destroyed by fire. The loss is $60,000, partially covered by insurance. The works manufactured light merchant iron and gave employment to 200 men.

COMING EVENTS

March 31—Judge William N. Runyon will speak, and Prof. George A. Morris, the great colored basso, will sing at the Y. M. C. A. meeting at 4:15 o'clock in the afternoon.

Needed Trolley Road.

Since the New Jersey Legislature decided on the plan for the reapportionment of the Congressional districts in the State and the counties of Union, Morris and Warren were united to form the Fifth Congressional district, the Elizabeth Journal has been strongly advocating a trolley line to connect Elizabeth and Summit One of the particular arguments in favor of this plan was the necessity of connecting this part of Union county with Summit and subsequently Morristown, now that Union and Morris were to be in the same district.

There is no doubt but that a trolley line from Elizabeth to Summit would be an excellent thing. Although Summit is in this county, it has never been in touch with this end of the county for the reason that it is so difficult to reach it. At present, it is necessary to go by the way of Newark, changing cars several times. A trolley line direct would be of great advantage in uniting the county.

There is no trolley line from Summit to Morristown at present but it is among the probabilities of the next few years. That section would undoubtedly give good patronage to a trolley line as the present transportation facilities are utterly inadequate.

There has been considerable talk about a trolley line between this city and the Passaic valley. If such a line should be built, it would be very advisible to extend it over to Morristown Such a line could be made to pay well as the section which it would pass through now has no means of rapid transportation while there are many residents who would gladly patronize any plan that would bring them in closer touch with the rest of the world

This new Fifth Congressional District is an unwieldly thing and the Plainfield politicians will probably have to travel some distance to reach the meeting place of the Congressional conventions. While Morris county is not so much out of the way, the people of Union Union county are not acquainted with Warren and hardly know where it is located. It will take several years to become accustomed to the new adjustment.

It is to be hoped that the Elizabeth Journal wil be successful in starting a movement for the Elizabeth-Summit trolley. At the same time, the line from Plainfield northward over the mountains to the Passaic valley and thence possibly to Summit and surely to Morristown is greatly needed, and would undoubtedly do much toward developing a section which has heretofore felt but little the growth of the suburban boom in New Jersey.

It is truly wonderful the vastly different ways in which the accomplishments of the New Jersey Legislature, during its last session, may be viewed. The Democratic newspapers all over the State are pointing out the terrible things that were done. To read some of their scathing editorials, one could almost believe that the top notch of corruption and partisanship had been reached. The Republicans, on the contrary, have eulogized the accomplishments of the legislators and point out with pride what great and lasting good they have done. To the unprejudiced mind, the doings of the Legislature do not seem to differ greatly from those of past years. Some truly excellent measures were passed. There was naturally some partisan legislation but the acts of this session did not seem to brand it as any worse than its predecessors.

Plainfield's militia company has been organized and is now settling down to work. It should be the best company in the State and can be if the members will take the proper interest and work hard toward that end A question which is bound to trouble the company in the near future is that of a proper drill hall. Now that the Crescent Rink is devoted to other purposes, there is no hall in the city which is really suited to the requirements of the company. It will probably be only a question of time before there will be a great demand for an armory. Somerville is to have one and if that town can have one, it is likely that the Plainfield company will feel that this city is entitled to one as well.

While amateur theatricals are no new thing in Plainfield, the school boys of the city are now to make their first trial at giving a play without assistance from the fair sex. The college dramatic clubs have long been a feature of life in many of the universities and their work has been seen in Plainfield. The boys of Mr. Leal's School are now preparing to enter that field and give a dramatic sketch for the benefit of their athletic association. The result of their efforts will be watched with much interest.

The Rahway reformatory will soon be put into use. The Legislature has provided for its maintenance under the direction of the commissioners and it will not be long before the first of the prisoners will be confined there. While the reformatory will be used long before it is fully completed, it is now tenable and all that is necessary is to organize the force in charge and provide the necessities of life.

What experienced business men regard as good advertisement, remarks the Philadelphia Record, is one which tells in a clear, straightforward and common sense way about articles that people want. Such an advertisement if put in a newspaper which has a large and steady circulation throughout the community will always bring satisfactory results.

If the members of the Plainfield Board of Health will take the trouble to cross over the new bridge which spans Green brook and connects Duer street and Madison avenue, they will see why The Daily Press has so strenuously urged immediate action by the board in having the banks of that stream kept in proper condition.

The schools of Plainfield and North Plainfield have been invited to send an exhibit to the Pan American Exposition at Buffalo this summer. At the World's Fair in 1893 the Plainfield public schools made an excellent showing in the educational exhibit in the New Jersey State building.

The capture of Emilio Aguinaldo, the Philipino leader, by General Funston, is one of the most important events of the war in the new possession of the United States. It should have a direct bearing on the settlement of the troubles there.

Don't forget to fill out one of the Municipal Ownership ballots, to be found on the first page, and send it in. Nothing can be done until the trend of public opinion on that subject is known.

It is expected that the work of placing the new street signs in position will begin next week. They will be very welcome.

City and borough are fortunate in possessing very able men at the head of their respective school systems.

Short and Gossipy Sketches That Are Not Always News, But Just as Interesting.

A letter from the secretary of the Army Young Men's Christian Association at Manila says: "We have recently sent out packages to more than one hundred outlying posts, but we greatly need larger quantities of reading matter which will enable us to send supplies to every place occupied by the U. S. land or naval forces." So reasonable a request should bring a ready response from the friends of the soldiers and sailors. The international committee under whose direction the work of the Y. M. C. A. in the Philippines is carried on, will be glad to forward without further expense to donors such contributions of books or magazines as are sent to its office in New York with shipping charges prepaid. As this committee has representatives in various parts of the islands as well as in China, its facilities for judicious distribution of such material are of the best. It is suggested that books, standard magazines and illustrated papers are most desirable. Small packages may be sent at domestic postage rates direct to Army Young Men's Christian Association, Manila; while freight or express packages should be addressed to Army Department, International Committee Young Men's Christian Associations, No. 3 West Twenty ninth street, New York City.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1 00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1 00 Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

Two Missionaries Will Speak.

Home and foreign missions will be combined in the Christian Endeavor meeting at the Crescent Avenue church this evening. Miss S. J. Elliott, M. D, for eight years a missionary in Utah, will speak of the Mormons and their methods. Kikutaro Matsuna, superintendent of the Japanese Christian Home of Brooklyn, will talk of the progress of Christian work in Japan, and more particularly of the work which is being carried on in the island of Hokkaido by Rev Mr. Pearson, formerly of Elizabeth, N. J.

Reception of W. S. S.

The second reception of the W. S. S private dancing class, which was given in Central Hall last evening, was attended by over one hundred young people from this city and vicinity. It proved a very enjoyable affair. Dancing was the feature and was kept up until an early hour this morning, with the exception of a brief time at midnight, when refreshments were served. Music for the occasion was furnished by Suhr and Stewart.

—Delicious Florida oranges and Indian River grape fruit are among the good things to be found at Neuman Brothers.

—When you are bilious, use those famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers to cleanse the liver and bowels. They never gripe. L W Randolph.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Oesterreich.

Wien. Eine Anzahl Frauen aus allen Bevölkerungsschichten Wiens hat einen Aufruf zur Errichtung eines Kaiserin Elisabeth-Denkmals in Wien erlassen. — Der Hofballmusikdirektor Eduard Strauß kam um seine Entlassung ein, weil ihm in Folge einer Verletzung, die er bei einem Eisenbahnunfall in den Ver. Staaten erlitten, die Handhabung des Taktstocks unmöglich sei.—Hier wurden internationale Juwelendiebe angehalten. Die Hauptperson, genannt Morley, entpuppte sich als ein preußischer Deserteur Namens Karl Heinrich Wolf, der wegen Juwelendiebstahls schon mehrere Male vorbestraft ist. Zuletzt hatte er in London als Kammerdiener seinem Herrn James Brittain einen kostbaren Schmuck und Geld gestohlen. Der Kellner Hauser, der in London schon wegen Juwelendiebstahl bestraft wurde, und der Kellner Slaby, der von London als Begleiter mit nach Wien kam, wurden als Mitschuldige verhaftet.

Bozen. Der Finanzwachinspektor Decarli wurde nächst Brentonico durch Steinwürfe getödtet aufgefunden. Er wurde das Opfer eines Attentats, dessen Ursache große Strenge im Dienst sein dürfte. Der Thäter ist unbekannt.

Budapest. Mehrere ungarische Dörfer wurden durch Ueberschwemmungen der Donau und ihrer Nebenflüsse vollständig isolirt. Der angerichtete Schaden ist groß. Der untere Stadttheil von Budapest stand fünf Fuß unter Wasser. Die bittere Kälte trieb Wölfe aus den Karpathen in die Dörfer. Innerhalb vier Wochen wurden zwölf Menschen von Wölfen zerrissen.

Fiume. In Virje lebt eine Frau Namens Caroline Hitter, die vor Kurzem das 103. Lebensjahr erreichte. Die Matrone erfreut sich noch einer staunenswerthen geistigen und körperlichen Frische. Frau Hitter ist der Geburt nach Französin und bedient sich auch heute noch gern ihrer Muttersprache.

Innsbruck. Auf dem Tristentopf in der Pertisau entdeckte ein Jäger ein Erzwerk. Einige nach Innsbruck zur Untersuchung gesandte Stücke ergaben Galmei, Blei und Silber. Der Erzstollen hat über einen Meter, und das zu Tage geschaffene Erz wurde von zwei Professoren auf 10 bis 15 Kronen per Centner geschätzt. Demnächst sollen die Knappenarbeiten begonnen werden.

Klagenfurt. In Zödl hantirte der Knecht Bartel Ronacher in der Wohnung seines Freundes Granig unvorsichtig mit einem Gewehr. Der Schuß ging los, und die Kugel traf die im Zimmer anwesende Mutter des Freundes mitten in's Herz. Die Frau war sofort todt.

Lemberg. Hierorts wurde Frau Anna Lozinska, welche das elfjährige jüdische Mädchen Golda Reyßler entführt hatte, um es gegen den Willen der Eltern in ein Kloster zu bringen und taufen zu lassen, von den Geschworenen schuldig gesprochen und vom Gerichtshof zu drei Jahren schweren, durch Fasten verschärften Kerkers verurtheilt.

Reichenberg. In einem Personenzug der Lokalbahn Teplitz-Reichenberg erschoß sich der Formstechereibesitzer Heinrich Grumpe aus Reichstadt bei Niemes. Aus zwei hinterlassenen Briefen ging hervor, daß der junge Mann die That aus unglücklicher Liebe verübt hatte.

Schweiz.

Bern. Im Jahre 1900 sind aus der Schweiz ausgewandert 3816 Personen, das heißt 1323 mehr als im Vorjahr, aber 981 weniger als im Jahresdurchschnitt 1890 bis 1899. Von den 3816 Auswanderern gingen 3341 nach den Ver. Staaten, 339 nach Südamerika, 50 nach Afrika.—Der Stadtrath zu Bern beschloß eine Aktienbetheiligung von 100,000 Francs für die Bern-Schwarzenburgbahn. Davon ist die Bedingung geknüpft, daß die Bahn elektrisch betrieben und die Kraft vom städtischen Elektrizitätswerk bezogen werde.

Zürich. Weil die Koksvorräthe ausgegangen waren, beschränkte der Stadtrath von Zürich den Verkauf von Brennholz und Gaskoks zu ermäßigten Preisen auf Einwohner, die kein Vermögen und nicht über 800 Francs Einkommen haben.

Solothurn. Eine gewiß seltene Verzichtleistung hat die Stadt Solothurn zu verzeichnen. Die Bürgergemeinde Solothurn hatte beschlossen, dem nicht wiedergewählten früheren langjährigen Bürgerkommissär B. Tschuy einen Ruhegehalt von 1500 Francs zu verabfolgen. Tschuy lehnte aber in einem Schreiben an das Ammannamt die ihm zugedachte Pension ab.

Thurgau. Das Schwurgericht verurtheilte die 44jährige Giftmischerin Maria Widmer, geschiedene Brauchli von Bischofszell, zu drei Jahren Zuchthaus. Sie hatte versucht, ihren früheren Mann vermittelst Gift aus der Welt zu schaffen. Der Mann indessen entdeckte die Absicht seiner einstigen besseren Hälfte und erstattete Anzeige.

PARK AVE. AND RAILROAD

A Kentucky school teacher who had for years endured what she describes as "perfect martyrdom," from headache and dyspepsia, writes, in a letter from Louisville, to say: "When I was teaching school in Pittsburg, Laurel County, a friend, a merchant there, who has also suffered much from dyspepsia and headache, said he had found a sure cure for these diseases in Ripans Tabules, and he gave me a few to try. I found my headache left me. I then sent to New York, to the manufacturer, for a box, and whenever troubled with indigestion took them. I soon found myself much better; but, after some months and after indulging imprudently in eating, I again suffered from my old enemy—'indigestion.' I sent to Louisville and got a box. Finding great relief from this I got another, which certainly proved my confidence in the medicine. I grew so much better that I now only take them when I find I need them; but if I am imprudent in eating I find nothing better than these Tabules. Being a teacher, I lead a sedentary life, so that oftentimes I find myself bilious and feeling heavy and dull; then I avail myself of the good effects of Ripans Tabules. The gentleman from whom I bought the first Tabules tells me that he has found them more beneficial in sickness than any other remedy. Like myself, he thinks they are infallible in dyspepsia."

WANTED—A case of bad health that RIPANS will not benefit. They benefit at once. They help pain and prolong life. One gives relief. Note the word RIPANS on the package and accept no substitute. RIPANS, 10 for 5 cents, may be had at any drug store. Ten samples and one thousand testimonials will be mailed to any address for 5 cents, forwarded to the Ripans Chemical Co., No. 10 Spruce St., New York.

THE RIGHT SORT OF WOMAN

She Goes Through Life Making Every One Happy.

It is no good howling over spilled milk, and the right sort of woman does not allow the frets and worries of everyday life to disturb her serenity. Whether the day be dark or bright she preserves her calm and cheerful spirit and is a perfect godsend to the nerve racked and irritable folk around her.

It is she who tames the gouty old uncle and the fractious infant. To her both old and young alike turn in their troubles to be cheered and comforted. Her kindly sympathy and large heart make her see the reason for other people's sins and frailties and to extend to them the right hand of fellowship. She might not do well as a judge in a court of law, but she is a very pleasant and lovable woman, and by her very charity and her power of seeing the best in every one she calls forth their best even from society's black sheep, inspiring them to strive to rise on stepping stones of their dead selves to higher things. She never gives a dog a bad name, and by not doing so she saves many a one from earning it.

A CHILD'S CONFIDENCE.

What It Means For the Children to Have Trust In Their Mothers.

Confidence, implicit trust—what beautiful words these are, and how much they mean! How pleased we are when some one believes in us, and when some one has implicit and boundless confidence in us how deeply flattered we are and how hard we try not to spoil that person's opinion of our wisdom and goodness! Yet some people don't care whether their children believe in them or not!

There is nothing so beautiful as the way a little child looks up to its mother. To him she is the perfection of wisdom and goodness. More's the pity that impression doesn't last. "Oh, yes," I hear some one say, "that's all very well when the child's small, but he soon gets to thinking he knows more than his parents. I haven't the least hesitation in saying that in nine cases out of ten this is the parents' fault, the mother especially, for she should be the confidant, the grown up chum of her children. A mother should always find time to listen to the troubles of her children; she should advise them wisely, and never scold or laugh at them when they come to her with their little confidences. A mother should be more than a creature who issues commands; she should be her children's best friend. The fear of hurting the gentle heart of this best friend will prove more efficacious than all the rules and punishments ever devised, and it will be an influence which will last through life. The girl who cannot make a confidant of her mother will find such a bosom friend elsewhere, and the boy who feels that his mother does not understand him will find some one who does; for it is human nature to demand sympathy and to exchange confidences with another.

"The woman who has no time to listen to her children's troubles, who never joins in their games and whose sole interest in their studies consists in finding out whether they have high marks is no mother at all. She may be obeyed implicitly, her household may be a well ordered one, but her children after the first few rebuffs will never consult her when in difficulties. They will decide things for themselves, and in after years when they come to the crisis in their lives it will be the same. "Mother doesn't know," "She wouldn't understand"—how often one hears these words from a girl's lips! And what do they mean?

CHUMS.

That mother never has understood. That she has stood on her high pedestal and never condescended to come down to the child's level and read the secrets of a child's heart. Mother does not understand, but some one else does, and, guided by that somebody or perhaps guided only by her lonely self, the girl takes her course for good or for worse and perhaps ruins her life forever. Then the mother wrings her hands and asks heaven why it ever sent her such an ungrateful child, and she dares—oh, the irony of the thing—to complain because the girl did not consult her! MAUD ROBINSON.

When women love us, they forgive us everything, even our crimes. When they do not love us, they give us credit for nothing, not even for our virtues.—Balzac.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning March 31—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Topic.—Missions: Love of souls.—Rom. x, 1.

Paul, the greatest of missionaries, loved all men. He loved the gentiles and gave his life for their conversion. Paul loved the Jew, his countryman. in Rom. ix, 3, 4, he says, "I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh, who are Israelites." No more patriotic sentiment was ever expressed. In the topical inference his love for and interest in the Jews is again set forth, for he says, "Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is that they might be saved."

The secret of Paul's love for all men lay in the fact that he recognized the great truth that all men are "brethren" in Jesus Christ. Paul earnestly and practically believed in the fatherhood of God and in the brotherhood of man. If ever we would become great missionaries, if ever we would have a burning love of souls, these great truths must be burned into our souls. All men naturally are not lovable. All men naturally are not attractive. Many would repel and repulse were it not for the fact that Christianity makes all men brethren. Christianity breaks down all barriers between men. It recognizes no classes and no caste systems. This brotherhood in the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of Christ makes it possible for us to love all men, and we must love men if we would save their souls. Without love it is impossible to lead a soul to Christ. An intellectual interest, a financial interest in unsaved humanity is not enough. If we succeed, it must be a heart interest—our "hearts' desire."

Paul's love for men made him earnestly desire their salvation. This was natural and logical. We covet the best gifts for those whom we love. Salvation is the best gift. Therefore if we truly love our countrymen, if we truly love mankind, our hearts' desire will be for their salvation. It is not enough to be interested in the physical and mental welfare of men. We must be interested in their souls. It is not enough to try to advance them industrially and socially. We must desire their moral and spiritual elevation and improvement.

Paul's love of souls and his desire for their salvation led to practical endeavors to bring about their salvation. As a result of his heart's desire for Israel's salvation he prayed that they might be saved. "My heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is that they might be saved." Men usually try to realize that which they intensely desire. If therefore it is our heart's desire that all men should be saved, we should try to bring about such a result. We should pray to God for the salvation of men, for "who can forgive sin but God only?" We should give liberally of our means that missionaries may be sent to those who do not have the gospel, for "how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard, and how shall they hear without a preacher?" Believing that all men are brethren in Jesus Christ, loving all men as brethren, let us earnestly desire and strive to bring about the salvation of all men.

THE PRAYER MEETING.

This would be an opportune occasion for a "home missionary meeting." Paul was a "Jew" and desired "Israel's" salvation. As Americans we should desire the salvation of Americans. Make a special study of the unChristianized of our land—the Indians, Mormons, colored people of the south, the unevangelized masses of our great cities, the mountain whites and the Filipinos.

BIBLE READINGS.

Isa. iii, 7; Jonah iii, 1-10; Nah. i, 15; Math. xxviii, 19, 20; Luke xv, 1-10; John iii, 16; Acts i, 1-8; Rom. i, 14-17; ix, 1-5; I John iv, 19-21.

It Does Matter.

Occasionally I hear some one say with a pious air, "It doesn't matter what people think of me; I know my heart is right." Ah, my friend, but it does matter. Let me give you an illustration: In sight of my office window is a church tower. On each of the three sides there is a clock face. On one of these one of the hands has been broken, making the old clock tell strange tales. Of course there are people who do not understand the circumstances and are therefore misled by it. At heart the old clock is all right, but that doesn't alter the seriousness of the fact that people have been late in meeting their engagements and have missed their trains because the face is not an index of that which it covers.—Outlook.

Friendship.

Friendship is the cradle of love. The distinction between love and friendship is one of degree. When the new wine becomes old we call it by another name. There can be no love devoid of friendship and no friendship which does not involve the possibility of love farther on. The greater must always include the less, just as the bud is a part of every flower. As love is not ever susceptible of analysis, neither is friendship. Why two men should be known as friends may be a mystery even to themselves. The tie that binds them together is invisible. They know the fact and but little else.—Presbyterian Journal.

Going Home.

I wish de day was neah at han';

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Topic For the Week Beginning March 31, "Love of Souls." Text, Rom. x, 1.

"That they might be saved."

Anxiety for men's salvation is based on the belief that men are lost and that Christ came to save them. Preparation for work in saving men is best found in recognition of your own lost condition and in reception of salvation through Jesus. A deep, live experience and intense love for Christ is the first fitness in a worker for souls.

The lack of conversions in our churches arises largely from the lack of earnest spiritual life in the membership. Multitudes have no deep consciousness of Christ ever present with them. Heart life is lacking.

Another difficulty is that many members of the church have no real thought that men are lost. They never gave it much thought, anyway. And the unconverted have never given it much consideration.

Without consciousness of sin and its peril there is no realization of Christ's power to save, no longing for salvation of self or others.

What shall we do, then?

Take time to think. Sit down a half hour and compel yourself to think on the condition of those around you who do not know Christ. Think of His own offers of pardon and warnings against neglect. Think of your own past neglect to commend Jesus and invite them to seek Him.

Give time for thought, then will your heart cry out in agony at your own negligence and at their peril. Do this, and you will find time to do something to help them.

Carey and His Work.

There are some men who belong to the whole world because of the influence their labors have had on the affairs of men. Such a one was William Carey, the English missionary to India. No one can afford to be ignorant of the career of those who have been so influential in making destiny. Some men conquer nations and have a genius for organization of government. They not only make history, but they compel all after civilization to flow in certain channels which they have dug. Such were Julius Cæsar and Charlemagne. Others have a genius for righteousness and alter the face of the world by conquering the vices of men, their sinfulness and ignorance.

Carey had a genius for language. He left England as a Baptist missionary. After various perils and perplexities he was settled at the head of one of the educational institutions of India under governmental auspices. He became not less the missionary, but more useful because of wider opportunities. Under his care the Bible in whole or in part was translated into all the leading languages and dialects of northern India. Some 40 different varieties of speech were mastered, and 300,000,000 people were given the gospel in their own tongue.

This story should be read and in condensed form given to all our chapters, that the enthusiasm of noble example may affect our souls and incite us to like sacrifice and devotion for Christ.

Faith Not Sight.

Still must we ever while in this life walk by faith. While this is not sight, it is far from being blindness. Sight is by no means an infallible guide to truth, but must often be most carefully corrected by other senses or betray us into falsities and danger. Faith is far from superstition and is indeed a kind of inner sight which arrives at surety by a process more akin to intuition than reasoning. Many facts are beyond the realm of all senses and out of reach of bodily powers. We can neither see nor feel, touch, taste nor smell them, but we are none the less certain of their actuality.

Thomas doubted of Jesus' resurrection and was convinced of it only when he saw nail prints and spear wound. Then he believed, but was no nearer than before to a rational explanation of the processes. Our very distance in time aids us to a quicker faith, since we can see that all the events of the life of Jesus converge to this one focal point of death and resurrection. We need no sight of riven side and mangled members to fix our minds. The testimony of those who saw is better for us than even a vision of Christ, and we believe in the resurrection of the dead.

How Much Are You Worth?

Not how large is your bank account nor how many certificates of stock in your safety deposit box nor how many horses, houses, cattle, acres, stores and goods do you claim; all these are trust funds loaned or in your care for God's use.

What are you worth to the world, to yourself, the church and to God—yourself? Is the world richer or poorer because you are here? Do you drag back or pull ahead? What have you ever done anyway? Can you sing, or have you only learned to growl and snarl? Do you speak in prayer meeting or only after prayer meeting in criticism? Do you use your money to help the church and all good causes, or do you squander it on yourself and family and begrudge what little you are obliged to pay the church and benevolent causes?

What are you worth anyhow? Are your boys and girls, your brothers and sisters, your associates, better, purer, nobler, wiser, more charitable and gentler because you are here?

If you have never amounted to anything before, begin now to be worth something. Be a positive factor in church life. Get into that prayer meeting. Wake up and get to work!

Some folks are always late—punctually late to a minute. How much better to be on hand at the right time! It requires no more effort. Punctuality is worth much to Leaguers.

NEBRASKA ELECTS.

Republicans Choose Millard and Dietrich For Senators.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 29.—The unexpected has happened in the Nebraska senatorial deadlock. David E. Thompson, the Republican caucus nominee for the short term, who has lacked but half a dozen votes of election, withdrew from the contest.

In less than half an hour two nominations were made. They were Governor C. H. Dietrich of Hastings and J. H. Millard of Omaha.

Millard and Dietrich were elected to the United States senate at noon by the legislature in joint session. The Republicans voted unanimously for the two caucus nominees, the bolters lining up with the straights.

The ballot resulted: Dietrich (Rep.), 70; Millard (Rep.), 70; Allen (fusion), 58; W. H. Thompson (fusion), 52; G. M. Berg (fusion), 2; G. M. Hitchcock (fusion), 8.

Governor Dietrich will resign as soon as the legislature adjourns.

Mr. Thompson appeared before the caucus at 10 o'clock yesterday and formally withdrew his name. He said he did so because he was unwilling that the fruits of the Republican victory last fall should be lost. He had become convinced that because of the fight made upon him he could not be elected. He withdrew in favor of Governor Dietrich.

The action of Thompson was followed immediately by the withdrawal of Edward Rosewater, who suggested either George W. Lininger or J. H. Millard as the most available men for the long term senatorship. Meiklejohn and Currie immediately followed suit.

Joseph H. Millard is president of the Omaha National bank, one of the wealthiest citizens of Omaha and well known for his push and energy. He was born in 1833 in Hamilton, Ont., and came to Omaha when 20 years of age.

Charles H. Dietrich is a banker of Hastings and was elected governor last fall. He had not previously mixed in politics. He is a wealthy man. He was born in Aurora, Ills., in 1853.

Republican Legislators Issue an Address to the People.

ANNAPOLIS, March 29.—After the adjournment of the legislature yesterday afternoon a meeting of the Republican members was held, at which an address "to the people" was adopted and signed by 11 senators and 25 representatives. In the course of the address exceptions are taken to every important measure passed during the extra session. The address in part is as follows:

"The extra session idea had its birth as a result of a political deal that was to put one man in the United States senate by stripping 50,000 citizens of their constitutional and sovereign right to vote and to give to another man the control of the construction of the sewerage system of Baltimore city that will cost $20,000,000 before it is completed. The new election law renders it impossible for the citizens who cannot read to vote and is so cunningly drawn that it will be difficult for the educated to avoid having their ballots thrown out."

LOSS FOR CITY.

One of the Effects of Increase in Water Bills is Pointed Out by W. J. R. Hegeman.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—

A new adjustment of water rates was mailed by the Plainfield Water Supply Company to its patrons on the twenty-first of this month. Surprise and indignation were in evidence at the office of the company as the crowd increased and demanded an explanation for the increase of water rates. Noticeable was a charge for an extra faucet on most of the bills. A prompt remittance of this charge was made upon the assurance that no extra faucet was in use.

This effort to largely increase the revenue of the Plainfield Water Supply Co. at the expense of its patrons is a menace to the growth of our city and many would be seekers of homes among us are induced to locate elsewhere, and thus the injury becomes two fold, viz. the city loses in taxes and desirable citizens and property owners on their investments.

The abuse of such a franchise should lead to a just and equitable value placed upon the property of the water company and the city and borough assume ownership, thus securing to both residents and manufacturers a reasonable charge for pure and wholesome water. W. J. R. Hegeman.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

Clippings From Other Newspapers Which May Be Of Interest to Plainfield and its Citizens.

The decision of the Court of Errors and Appeals sustaining the decision of Justice Garrison in the case of the Meeker anti-spring election bill, will cause little or no surprise, for, as Governor Voorhees says, previous decisions of the courts of the State in similar cases so clearly disposed of the question that all doubts that may have existed have been removed. A trial will satisfy the people as to the merits or demerits of the new law. If it works well they will want it; if it does not, they know how to get rid of it.—Trenton Times.

The failure of ex-Senator L. A. Thompson to secure a reappointment to the clerkship of the Court of Chancery should be a matter of regret to the people of Somerset county, without regard to their political affiliations. As a man and an official he was beyond criticism; as a political leader he was always a fair fighter, and his influence was ever for clean politics. His enemies are entirely in his own camp. Subserviency to a boss appears to be the sine qua non to success in Republican politics. There is no apparent use for a man with any independence of thought or action, and, as a consequence, Senator Thompson, for the present at least, is completely eliminated as a factor in his party's councils in the county and State.

The appointment of Wm. H. Cawley as a member of the State Board of Arbitration follows as a corollary to Mr. Thompson's retirement. He is an acknowledged leader of the faction in his party just now in the ascendency, and which undermined the former regime. He has undoubtedly worked hard for and contributed liberally to his party's success, and under any system of awards is entitled to the consideration shown him. No one will deny his fitness for the office, and the duties of the position will be safe in his hands.—Somerset Messenger.

LITERARY.

The day when "Long live the King" was shouted in London for the first time in sixty years was a day that will live in history. In the April number of Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly appears a most interesting account of the inauguration of the new king, written by its special correspondent, Curtis Brown.

"Shooting Oil Wells" describes one of the most hazardous occupations by which men of today earn their living, and gives a number of authentic anecdotes of the extraordinary vicissitudes of "Shooters," who keep daily company with nitro glycerine.

Charles G. D. Roberts contributes one of his famous animal stories, and A. T. Quiller Couch a capital story of adventure, touched with humor. "Bettina's Easter Stock," by Marion Hill, is a story of children, as pretty and sympathetic as it can be, while Arthur Colton's "The Musidora Sonnet" is the clever story of an unparalleled social situation.

Leslie's Series of Patriotic Stories is continued by one which touches on the close of the Revolutionary war, and "Marginalia" will be a markedly popular feature of the magazine. Among its contents will be numbered three brisk, amusing stories by writers who have learned to tell a good story in fifteen hundred words. "Personalities" accompanied by some very unusual portraits is another attraction.

The April number of Success contains Governor Benjamin B. Odell, Jr.'s first magazine article. That rising young statesman, who delivered ice from his father's wagons for a number of years in Newburg, N. Y., and who has now attained a rather formidable position in American politics, chooses for his debut in literature, the subject, "Politics and the Demands of Good Citizenship." This is a well-sustained argument in favor of active participation in current political movements by all young men, without regard to social status or business cares. The Governor argues that it is as much the duty of a young man to enter politics, in the sense of participating, as to go into business; but that he should not seek political office until after he won success in business. Senator Dolliver, of Iowa, Bishops Potter and Vincent, and a host of other distinguished writers, assist in making this Easter issue of Success a notable one.

William Tobin, who is at the hospital for treatment for injuries received at the Pond Tool Works some time ago, is improving steadily.

CUSHION FRAME WHEEL.

The Pierce is Equipped With it and is Now Shown at Rogers', North Avenue.

In another column you will find illustrated the difference between a Pierce cushion frame bicycle and the rigid frame bicycle. The success of the cushion frame bicycle has been remarkable, and it is a recognized fact that vibration fatigues, not pedaling, and as there is absolutely no rebound in this devise it permits one to ride with great speed over rough surfaces, which would be impossible if the wheel were of rigid construction. A fair trial will convince the most skeptical that it is the greatest improvement in cycle construction since the pneumatic tires, and anyone wishing to satisfy themselves that this is a fact can do so by calling at Rogers', 132 North avenue, where they may have the privilege of trying a Pierce cushion frame wheel. While he claims the cushion frame to be the most comfortable bicycle in the world, care should be taken to obtain the spring best suited to the weight of the rider.

TIME FOR BALLOTING WILL SOON BE OVER.

There Should Be No Delay in Voting on Question of City Ownership of Water Works.

VOTES ARE COMING IN FAST.

MUCH INTEREST IS BEING TAKEN IN DAILY PRESS PROJECT.

An Expression of Opinion From Every Taxpayer in City and Borough Is Earnestly Desired—Ballots Will Be Found Below.

There is no doubt but that the people of Plainfield are in favor of the municipal ownership of the water supply plant. The ballots already received at this office clearly demonstrate that fact. If there are many advocates of the private ownership of such institutions they should be up and doing and see that The Daily Press receives their ballots. In order to make this attempt of The Daily Press to obtain the public verdict on the subject, it is necessary that every taxpayer in the city and borough should fill out one of these ballots and send or bring it to the office before Wednesday noon.

Yesterday saw the ballots coming in in a steady stream. There was another batch this morning. Much interest is being shown in the balloting. Everybody should vote, however. If you have voted, see that you neighbors go and do likewise. If the vote is heavy enough, it will clearly demonstrate to the Common Council that the people of Plainfield want municipal ownership. The same will apply to the condition in North Plainfield. Mayor Smalley and the Borough Council are anxious to know the feeling of the taxpayers of that municipality.

If you desire to see the city in possession of a system of water works, don't fail to fill out the ballot which is to be found below and see that it reaches The Daily Press office before Wednesday noon. The time for the ending of the balloting is not far away and it behooves every taxpayer to vote without delay.

Council Meeting.

It is expected that at the regular April meeting of the Common Council Monday night the appropriations for the coming year will be made. All of the committees have about completed their estimate of expenses.

SPRING SUPPER WAS A DECIDED SUCCESS.

Delightful Affair Held in Chapel of First Presbyterian Church Last Evening.

SPRING FLOWERS THERE.

A FEATURE WAS DISPLAY OF MILLINERY MADE OF TISSUE PAPER.

Excellent Supper was Served Under Auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society—Musical Programme During Evening—The Committees.

A successful spring supper was given last evening in the chapel of the First Presbyterian church under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society. There was a very large attendance, and, as the name implied, it was truly a spring affair. The decorations, consisting of roses, daffodils, tulips, marguerites, with green and white bunting prettily draped about the chapel, lent a decided attractive appearance. The floral decorations were kindly furnished by John Brower, the New York florist.

Four tables were arrangned in the main part of the chapel and here a most appetizing supper was served by the women. The menu comprised chicken, salads, with side dishes of jelly, pie, etc. Those who presided at the tables were Mrs. R I. Glen, Mrs. Robert H. Radford, Mrs. Clarence E. Bond and Miss Blish. Mrs. Joseph A. Haynes was in charge of the supper room, and to her and the women assisting her is due the fine supper served. Those helping the chairman were Miss Sallie Boss, Mrs. Steadman, Mrs. A. E. Hoagland, Miss Jessie Pruden, Miss Jennie Abbott, Mrs. L A. Hummer, Mrs. Wm. Dunn and Mrs. Englehardt.

Those who served as waitresses were the Misses Ada Abbott, Christine Maag, Eva Dayton, Julia Williams, Bessie DeForest, Lizzie Bitterbender, Bertha Wilcox, Maude Hazeltine, Louise E Wilbur, Beatrice Miner, Mildred Ulrich and Miss Miller.

A very attractive place was the room devoted to millinery. Here all the spring styles in hats were displayed, and it was a pretty showing. The headgear was made up chiefly of various colored tissue paper, but they were readily sold at good prices. Those in charge in this room were Mrs. Harry Williams, Mrs. LeRoy Gates, Miss Lucia Wood, Miss Edith Pruden, John S. Johnson and Russell Bond.

Mrs. John S. Johnson was chairman of the cake committee and those assisting were Miss Gertrude Hazeltine, Miss DeForest, Mrs. Currie and Miss Ada Dunham. At the candy table were Mrs. L M. Hummer, Mrs. Fred Bettman and Mrs. Horace Huff. Those in charge of the ice cream were Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Joseph Allen and Miss Kendall, and the waitresses were the Misses Jean Dunham, Florence Martin, Ella Lounsbury, Leah Hammond and Marion Englehardt. Those to whom credit is due for the decorations are Mrs Grove Hinman, Mrs. Charles Hummer, Mrs. Willis Anderson, Miss Nettie Remsen, Howard George and Wesley Messersmith.

The chairman of the whole affair was Mrs. Edgar W. Williams, and she deserves unstinted praise for her earnest and untiring efforts in planning the supper. The profits will be devoted to building an addition on the rear of the church to be used for a kitchen. Over two hundred suppers were served and financially and socially the affair was a great success.

During the evening Martin A. Korff's orchestra discoursed a fine programme of classical and popular music, thus assisting to make the evening pass pleasantly. A novelty was on exhibition in the shape of a bouquet made by John Burroughs, of East Fifth street. It was made entirely of vegetables such as radishes, turnips, beets, carrots, etc., and all were so trimmed as to form a perfect bouquet comprising the various colors. Mr. Burroughs received many flattering comments for the pretty showing.

DR. MOMENT WENT AWAY.

HAS BEEN STOPPING NEAR SCOTCH PLAINS SINCE CHRISTMAS.

Left For Brooklyn Yesterday Afternoon—Has Been Guest of Frank Noon, at "Wildwood."

Rev. Dr. Alfred Moment, the Brooklyn minister, who is charged with a serious offense, and who has been stopping with Frank Noon, at "Wildwood," near Scotch Plains, returned to Brooklyn yesterday noon. He received a letter during the forenoon from a Mr. Smith, of Brooklyn, presumably a person interested in the case.

A reporter for The Daily Press called at Mr. Noon's home yesterday and learned the foregoing facts It is not known whether Dr. Moment will return today or not. The supposition is that the published accounts of the case in yesterday's New York papers had something to do with the clergyman's return to Brooklyn. Mr. Noon said that Dr. Moment frequently visited his daughter in Brooklyn, and would be away a few days at a time.

Dr. Moment has been stopping with Mr. Noon since Christmas time and has lived a quiet retired life. While he frequently visits the village of Scotch Plains, chiefly for mail, there are very few people in that locality who know him or in fact know anything about the pastor. He is reported to be of pleasant and genial manner, and while he does not associate with people generally, he always speaks to those with whom he frequently comes in contact.

WHERE TROLLEY SHOULD GO

RECORDER DOUD AGREES WITH W. L SMALLEY REGARDING TROLLEY.

Believes That It Should Be Built on Opposite Side of Somerset Street Notch From Present Road.

Recorder Thomas Doud believes the suggestion of Wm. L Smalley in regard to the proper route for the Somerset street trolley extension, as printed in yesterday's Daily Press, to be an excellent idea.

Mr. Doud agrees with Mr. Smalley that when Johnson's drive is met, the trolley line should continue straight on to the brook, which the traction people should bridge in order to permit the cars to pass over to the other side. From this point, he believes the course of the trolley should be along the far bank of the brook until the valley is reached. The Recorder believes that inasmuch as there is but one road to the valley from the borough it should not be encroached upon by the trolley line.

He holds the opinion that much of the former trade the borough merchants derived from the farmers has been driven away by the trolleys, because of the reluctance on their part to drive along the line of a trolley. This trade, he thinks, has gone to Morristown and other points on the other side of the mountain.

This opinion as to the proper route of the trolley is concurred with by a number of boroughites, but many disagree with him as to the statement in regard to the diminution in the trade by reason of the trolley line.

TOLD OF MISSIONARY EFFORT IN JAPAN.

Interesting Address By Kikutaro Matsuno of the Work in His Country.

AT CRESCENT AVE. CHURCH.

MISSIONARY MEETING HELD UNDER CHARGE OF C. E. SOCIETY.

Noble C. King Was in Charge—Miss S. J. Elliott, M. D., Was Unable to be Present and Speak—Talk on Japan Was Interesting.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church held a missionary meeting in the church parlor yesterday evening. The services were conducted by Noble C. King and the address of the evening was delivered by Kikutaro Matsuno, of the Japanese Christian Home in Brooklyn.

A short talk was given by Mr. King, who chose as his subject "Good Tidings," and based his remarks on the story of the lepers, as related in II Kings vii:3. He impressed upon his hearers the duty, or rather, as he preferred to call it, privilege, of all Christian people, today, to tell the good tidings.

At the conclusion of his few helpful words, Mr. King announced regretfully that Miss S. J. Elliott, M. D, of Utah, who was scheduled to speak before the meeting on the growth and evils of Mormanism, was unable to be present.

Mr. Matsuno was introduced and, in a brief instructive speech, he told of the missionary work accomplished, particularly by the Americans in Japan. He spoke of the obstacles that confronted the Christian missionaries and the causes of the reluctance of his countrymen to accept the teachings of Christ. The missionaries must contend with the mistaken ideas of the Japanese race regarding Christianity, he said. The reason of the decrease within the past ten years of the number of native church-goers was explained at some length.

The speaker related the story of his own conversion to Christianity and his explanation of the argument he advanced to overcome his father's objections to his leaving Japan was truly amusing.

After a short prayer offered by Dr. B. Van D Hedges, the meeting closed with a prayer by Noble C King.

The appropriations during the past year were contributed towards the support of Hope chapel, Westfield Camp and Dorland School at Hot Springs, South Carolina and between the Ambala Medical School at Lodiana, India, and the mission of Rev. Mr. Pearson, Hokkaido, Japan.

SERVICE AT REFORM HALL.

Rev. G. L. Harney Preached Interesting Sermon on Christian Union.

The service at Reform Hall was very interesting last evening. The sermon on "Christian Union" was listened to carefully and thoughtfully, and the solos by Miss Mears added much to the service.

There will be no service in the hall tomorrow morning, but in the evening at 7:45 Mr. Harney will preach on "The View of Christ Demanded by Modern Conditions." This is a general subject of interest to everyone and all are invited to be present. Miss Mears will sing one or two solos and as usual will add to the delight of the service.

These meetings have already accomplished what was mainly intended when they were begun, in spite of the constant breaks in the series by other use of the hall, the weather and so forth. Further announcements will be made Sunday evening.

Will Tell About China.

In the Trinity Reformed church tomorrow evening a service of unusual interest will be held. Rev. Daniel Rapalje, for forty years a missionary in China, will tell of some of the things Confucianism does not do for the Chinese, comparing it with Christianity. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, will also speak.

After the Back Taxes.

Collector F H. Smith is now busily engaged in furnishing tax warrants for collection of back taxes. Constable George Rogers is also kept busy every day serving the warrants. Thus far he has experienced little trouble, and he has not been obliged to arrest anyone.

Repairing the Culverts.

The culverts at the corner of Park avenue and Fifth street have been undergoing repairs under the direction of Street Commissioner Gavett.

HANDSOME MEMORIALS.

Magnificent Sanctuary Lamp and Bench to Be Used in St. Joseph's Church Easter Sunday.

Two handsome memorials will be used for the first time at St. Joseph's R. C church Easter Sunday.

A magnificent sanctuary lamp has been given by Mrs. David T. Kenney, as a memorial to her mother. Mrs Annie M. Gross has presented the church with a sanctuary bench of an exceedingly elaborate design. The gift is in memory of her late husband, Eugene A Gross. The bench was constructed of quartered oak by Richard H. McCullough and is claimed to be the second finest specimen in any church in this State.

KING'S DAUGHTERS' TEA.

GIVEN AT RESIDENCE OF JOHN VALIANT ON MYRTLE AVENUE.

Fine Display of Home-made Dainties—Musical Programme Given During the Afternoon.

A charming afternoon tea was given at the residence of John Valiant, on Myrtle avenue, by the Golden Rule Circle of the King's Daughters yesterday between the hours of 3 and 6 o'clock. The spacious parlors and dining hall were prettily decorated for the occasion and the tables were loaded down with cakes, candies and an abundance of other toothsome dainties.

Assisting Mrs. Anna Most, the chairman in charge, were: Mrs. Charles E A. Heywood, Mrs. E. E. Winckler, the Misses Mary Steiner, Della Voehl, Belle Lunger, Ida Fountain, Ada Woolston, Lottie Huff and Clara VanFleet.

A highly entertaining musical programme was rendered. The Misses Grace and Alice Carroll, each of whom possess rare contralto voices, sang solos and duets in a manner that added much to the pleasure of the delightful affair. Master John Valiant entertained the guests with several well-chosen selections on the banjo and his performance was truly commendable.

The rapid sales of the home-made candy and cake made the tables look bare sooner than was expected, but much to the gratification of the committee of arrangements. Mrs. E. E. Winckler and Mrs. C E. A. Heywood presided at the tea table.

The receipts of the tea will be contributed by the organization for the purpose of defraying the expense of the city nurse.

BIBLES FOR FIREMEN.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Taylor Have Presented Them to Different Houses of Fire Department.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward R Taylor, of East Fifth street, have very thoughtfully and generously provided the fire laddies of this city with copies of the Holy Bible Two volumes were given for use at the headquarters on East Second street; two for No. 1 house on West Second street, and one for the West End house on West Fourth street.

The fire boys express their thankfulness for the kindly remembrance on the part of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor.

Some time ago, Miss DeKlyn donated two years' back numbers of Scribner's Monthly.

The men necessarily have spare time, which they must spend at the respective fire houses, and consequently any opportunity of reading wholesome and entertaining books, which may be provided, is thoroughly appreciated by them

HACKMEN IN COURT.

Same Old Charge of Soliciting Inside Limit at North Avenue Station.

Dennis O'Brien and Michael Kennedy, two hackmen who do business at the North Avenue station, were arrested by Detective McCarthy last evening for violating city hack ordinance.

O'Brien failed to appear at the hearing this morning before City Judge Runyon, but Michael Kennedy was present and claimed that he had stood at the proper distance and inquired of a man, coming from the station, whether a cab was wanted. The negative wave of the hand was mistaken for a beckoning by the cabby and he was arrested while on the pavement.

The case was continued until Monday in order that the court might inquire into the truth of the matter.

WARDEN HAWKINS IN TOWN.

CAME HERE TO NOTIFY SPORTSMEN OF PROVISIONS OF LAW.

Hundreds of Local Sportsmen Who Frequently Went Out to Spear Fish at Night Must Refrain From That Sport Hereafter.

State Fish and Game Warden C. M. Hawkins was in Plainfield yesterday to call the attention of the local sportsmen to one of the important changes in the game laws made by Statute No. 302, which was passed by the Jersey Legislature during the last session and signed by Governor Voorhees last Monday. The important part of the new law is that it forbids the spearing or "gigging" of any kind of fish, day or night, in fresh water, under penalty of $50 fine.

Under the old law, it was permissable to spear suckers, carp or eels and there were hundreds of men and boys in this vicinity who have enjoyed the sport in the neighboring brooks and streams. "Gigging" at night was particularly popular and many stories of big catches have been reported in the past. While State authorities did not object to the capture of suckers, carp and eels in that fashion, they claim that many of the hunters were not particular in distinguishing what the fish were they speared and that the result was that many valuable game fish were destroyed. To protect the game fish this provision has been made. In addition to the fine of $50 for spearing any fish, there is an additional one of $20 for any bass or trout or $10 for any pickerel captured in that manner.

Knowing that the sport was so prevalent in this part of the State, Warden Hawkins called at The Daily Press office yesterday afternoon so that this newspaper might announce the change for the benefit of the sportsmen of this section. Warden Hawkins desires to give the people plenty of warning of the change in the game laws so that there will be no opportunity to claim ignorance and will then see that the law is enforced.

There are hundreds in this city alone which the change in the law will affect and who will be very sorry indeed to learn of this new provision. It may be that some will try to go "gigging" on the quiet but it will be dangerous work as the game wardens are on the lookout and the penalty is such a severe one that there will be few indeed who will care to run the risk. As the law reads at present, the only way fish can be captured in the fresh waters of this State is with hook and line.

Another provision of the new game law is that no dog, trained to hunt rabbits, shall be allowed to run loose under a penalty of $20 for each offence. The State authorities have found that these dogs are responsible for the death of many young rabbits which they run down and kill before the rabbits are old enough to escape them.

PROFESSIONAL TALENT.

Entertained Large Audience at Hope Chapel Under Auspices of Y. M. A.

A very large and pleased audience was entertained at Hope chapel last evening by two professional artists, Miss Taylor, an elocutionist of much merit, and Rosani, an expert juggler, both of New York city.

Miss Taylor rendered a number of pleasing selections which completely captivated the audience. Her interpretation of one of Eugene Field's characters was especially fine. Rosani's performance was a series of startling surprises, his feats of balancing being almost magical and called forth continued applause. The entertainment was given under the auspices of the Y. M. A. connected with the chapel.

Inspected Fire Department.

Mayor N. B. Smalley, accompanied by Councilman elect Jas. P. Northrop, made an inspection of the fire department of North Plainfield last evening. Councilman Northrop was introduced to the fire boys at both Warren engine house and the West End, and he was warmly received.

IRENE MYERS HERE NEXT WEEK

WILL BE THE CHIEF ATTRACTION AT MUSIC HALL DURING COMING WEEK.

"South Before The War" Will Be Here This Afternoon And Evening—Other Attractions Booked.

The big White Rat Carnival at Music Hall Tuesday night has already been commented on in these columns, so little more need be said other than it was a very enjoyable affair, reflecting credit upon all concerned and had the weather been favorable, there would have undoubtedly been a crowded house.

Tonight and for the matinee today, Manager Maze Edwards has secured a most novel entertainment in Harry Hartell's realistic southern production, "South Before The War," which is a most faithful portrayal of life below Mason's and Dixon's line in antebellum days.

It is thoroughly realistic and should be enjoyed by those who delight in old southern plantation festivities The old time darkey is truly depicted, his sorrows, his joys and his merry making. Through it all there runs a story of deep romantic interest and the whole is intensely picturesque and enjoyable. The play is presented with a strong cast of capable players and during its action a host of specialities are introduced, fully in keeping with the spirit of the drama. The dancing, the cake walk, the landing of the steamboat and the camp meeting are striking triumphs of realistic stage art. While most of the company, to the number of fifty or more, is composed of colored people, all of the leading parts are played by competent white artists.

The Little Irene Myers Repertoire Company begins a week's engagement, Monday night, in a series of plays, new in repertoire, in which Little Irene is the bright particular star She is a winsome little miss, devoted to her art, and the pet of every member of the company. A year ago during the performance of "The Two Orphans" at the Grand, Wheeling, she met with an accident, which resulted in a sprained ankle. Her company went from Wheeling to Johnstown, and Irene was unable to appear. She was placed at a window, where she saw the people entering the theatre, and when the members of the company departed she wept and refused to be comforted. Her physician advised that she be taken to the theatre in a chair, remarking that she would die of a broken heart unless this was done. She was unable to stand on her foot for five weeks, but at each performance she sang from a chair, and she sang with more feeling than ever before.

Little Irene plays important parts in about twelve productions, stellar roles in some of them, and members of the company say she has not missed a line or a "cue" this season. "The Corner Grocery" will be presented for the first time during the coming week At the second rehearsal Irene was the only member of the company who was perfect in her part, and those who are familiar with the play know what an important part the "bad boy" is. In "Little Lord Fauntleroy" alone she has memorized eighty type-written pages. It is doubtful if any child of her years on the stage could duplicate her performances behind the foot lights. "The Stowaway" in which she will be seen as Chucky Connors, is the bill for Monday night. "Ladies tickets" and popular prices are features which will undoubtedly attract a full house.

Tuesday, April 9, Joseph K. Emmett and Lottie Gilson appear in one of the well known "Fritz" plays, made famous by the elder Emmett, the most versatile of all dialect and singing comedians. "At Piney Ridge," always a sterling attraction, piloted by that fellow townsman, John Daly, will be seen Thursday, April 11 Other attractions to follow include a new rural play entitled "Down on the Farm;" a stirring melodrama, "After Business Houre;" a comedy drama, "Nip and Tuck;" Vogel and Deming's Minstrels. "Rip Van Winkle," by Thomas Jefferson, son of Joseph Jefferson; the great Whitney production of "Quo Vadis," and other novelties.

—Prof. Ivison, of Lonaconing, Md., suffered terribly from neuralgia of the stomach and indigestion for thirteen years and after the doctors failed to cure him they fed him on morphine. A friend advised the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and after taking a few bottles of it he says: "It has cured me entirely, I can't say too much for Kodol Dyspepsia Cure." It digests what you eat. L. W. Randolph.

—The clerks at Boehm's dry goods store will give a dance soon after Easter.

—The Volunteer League and Missionary Bible Study class will meet at the Y. M. C. A. building Monday evening.

—Their promptness and their pleasant effects make DeWitt's Little Early Risers most popular little pills wherever they are known. They are simply perfect for liver and bowel troubles. L. W. Randolph.

S'SH SLEEP AT LAST

LAXAKOLA DOES IT

NO ONE BUT A MOTHER can appreciate the benefit that sound refreshing sleep gives to an ailing, teething, feverish, colicky, fretty infant.

Almost distracted by its constant crying, and worn out with weary, anxious care and watching, she tries everything possible to obtain even relief for the little sufferer.

With what comfort and delight she sees her little one drop off into a deep peaceful health-giving slumber, after its little clogged bowels are cleared of their poisonous burden by a single dose of Laxakola, the great tonic laxative and mother's remedy.

Laxakola is a pure, gentle and painless liquid laxative, and contains valuable tonic properties which not only act upon the bowels, but tone up the entire system and purify the blood. A few drops can be given with safety to very young babies, which will often relieve colic by expelling the wind and gas that cause it. Great relief is experienced when administered to young children suffering from diarrhœa, accompanied with white or green evacuations, as it neutralizes the acidity of the bowels and carries out the cause of the fermentation. LAXAKOLA will aid digestion, relieve restlessness, assist nature and induce sleep. For constipation, simple fevers, coated tongue, or any infantile troubles arising from a disordered condition of the stomach it is invaluable.

The Laxakola is the great tonic laxative, is not only the most efficient of family remedies, but the most economical, gives 50 doses of two medicines, viz: laxative and tonic, and at one price. No other [illegible] At druggists, 25c. and 50c., or send for free sample to THE LAXAKOLA CO., [illegible] N. Y., or 359 Dearborn Street, Chicago.

GRIGGS TAKES LEAVE

United States Attorney General Retires From Office.

PRESENTED WITH A SILVER PITCHER

Department of Justice Marks the Departure of Its Official Head With a Unique Testimonial of Esteem.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Attorney General Griggs has taken leave of his associates in the department of justice and today will depart for his home in Paterson, N. J. During the leave taking Solicitor General Richards, on behalf of the officers and employees of the department, presented to the retiring attorney general a large solid silver claret pitcher of classic shape and unique design. On one panel of the pitcher was the following inscription: "Presented to John William Griggs on His Retirement From the Office of Attorney General of the United States, March 29, 1901. Qui Pro Domina Justitia Sequitur." On the other panel was a monogram of the letters "J. W. G."

Following is the response of the attorney general in accepting the cup:

"Mr. Solicitor General and Gentlemen of the Department—For an expression so kind as this and so hearty perhaps the best response would be the simple words, I thank you. But they seem wholly inadequate, as indeed seem any other words that I can give expression to at this time. You have touched my heart. Not only the beautiful gift that you have just presented to me, but the language of its presentation and your presence here today, with your kindly faces, will be to me in all after life one of my most precious treasures.

"If the department has during the time that I have belonged to it achieved anything in the way of public commendation, if the demands of the public business have been met, if those who came here have been treated promptly and courteously and gone away satisfied, it has been more due to the uniform courtesy, kindliness, faithfulness and ability of you gentlemen than to any qualities of mine. And I want to say for you each and all that I never knew in all my experience or never heard of a corps of assistants who were so absolutely loyal and faithful to their chief and to the government they served as are all the employees of this department in Washington.

"It has been a great pleasure from day to day to serve with you. I have come to look upon you as my colleagues, my assistants and my friends. And I want to take away with me full faith in the assurances you give that I shall always be remembered in your hearts and minds as a true and loyal friend and associate."

There seems to be no reasonable doubt that Mr. P. C. Knox, who has been tendered the appointment of attorney general, will accept eventually, but he is not expected to take charge of his office for some weeks. Until he qualifies Solicitor General Richards will be acting attorney general.

Music at the Fair.

BUFFALO, March 30.—The finest organists in the country are responding to the request of the committee on organ music to give recitals in the Pan-American Temple of Music. There will be a free daily organ recital by some distinguished organist, and this feature of the exposition will be unique and will doubtless attract national attention. Arrangements for 70 organists and 18 of the best bands in the country to appear during the exposition have been completed.

Russian Students Released.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 30.—The 41 students who were arrested a fortnight ago for participation in a student meeting were released on Thursday. They spent one week in solitary confinement. Under the law 1,100 prisoners taken into custody recently on account of political demonstrations must be released within a month unless their prosecution has legally begun before the expiration of that time. Several students have committed suicide, and it is reported they did so because of the crushing of their political hopes.

A Wisconsin Town Flooded.

BARABOO, Wis., March 30.—Hunt's milldam has given way, overflowing the lowlands east of the city, carrying away small bridges and doing damage to other property. The waterworks wells are also flooded from the Baraboo river, into which the sewer empties, contaminating the water and making it unfit for domestic use.

A Beet Sugar Proposition.

NORWALK, O., March 30.—A number of officers and stockholders of the Continental Sugar company are here in consultation with farmers and business men for the purpose of starting a beet sugar factory. They agree that if the farmers will raise 400 acres of beets to build in Norwalk a refinery to cost $350,000.

Heavy Storm in Missouri.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., March 30.—For 24 hours a storm, by turns rain, sleet and snow, has been raging in northern Missouri. The soil has not been so thoroughly soaked in 20 years as it is now. Farmers are unable to market grain or live stock in many sections by reason of the bad roads.

NO MINING STRIKE.

President Mitchell Issues a Statement.

A PARTIAL RECOGNITION OF RIGHTS.

Miners' Union Hopes to Gain Other Desired Ends During the Coming Year—Operatives Call the Action a "Backdown."

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 30.—The threatened strike of 143,000 miners in the hard coal region will not take place. At a meeting of the executive committee of the United Mine Workers of the three anthracite districts held in this city it was decided that the men should continue at work.

This committee was given arbitrary power by the general convention of miners held at Hazleton in the fore part of the month to declare a strike if the circumstances warranted it.

In the opinion of the committee in a lengthy address issued last evening and which was prepared by Mr. Mitchell himself the circumstances did not warrant a strike at this time.

Following is the address:

The general committee issued the following statement last night to the miners and mine workers of the anthracite region:

"Pursuant to the instructions embodied in the resolutions adopted at the Hazleton convention, your committee, consisting of national and district officers, have made every possible effort to arrange a joint conference of operators and miners prior to April 1, 1901.

"In prosecuting the duties assigned to us your committee addressed a communication to each of the presidents of the coal carrying railroads inviting them to join us in holding a joint conference with representatives of the mine workers. Failing to receive any favorable replies to our invitations, a subcommittee composed of the national and district presidents proceeded to the city of New York, and through the instrumentality and assistance of influential friends of organized labor a conference was secured with representatives of the coal carrying railroads, to whom your committee presented the claims of the mine workers in as able and lucid a manner as they were capable of. The representatives of the operators listened attentively to the presentation of our arguments, and while they would not agree to meet in general joint conference with the miners this year they did agree that the notices which were posted continuing the advance in wages until April 1, 1902, and agreeing to take up and adjust with their mine employees any grievances they might have should be interpreted and construed to mean that such grievances should be considered and adjusted with representatives or committees of the mine workers, and they held out the hope that if during the present year the mine workers demonstrated their willingness and ability to abstain from engaging in local strikes full and complete recognition of the organization would unquestionably be accorded at a future date.

"While your committee regret to report that they were unable to secure all the concessions we hoped for and believe we are justly entitled to, we are of the opinion that the willingness of the various coal companies to receive commitees representing the mine workers for the adjudication of grievances records an important advance step in the right direction and presages more harmonious and equitable relations between employers and employees than have prevailed in the anthracite region heretofore.

"In consideration of the vast interests involved and in view of the fact that at least partial recognition of our organization has been secured and with the hope that a greater degree of justice will be obtained in the not distant future, your committee, to whom was delegated the power and authority to determine whether work should cease or continue after April 1, would respectfully recommend that work be continued and that committees be selected at each mine, colliery, stripping and washery and instructed to wait upon the mine superintendents or other persons in authority and in a respectful, conservative, fearless and able manner present any grievances, either as to price or conditions of employment, that the mine workers may have and ask that such grievances be adjusted.

"Your committee would also recommend that the various committees report the result of their efforts to have grievances adjusted to the national and district officers. We would further recommend and urge upon mine workers everywhere to refrain from engaging in local strikes except when authorized by the district presidents in accordance with the constitution and laws of the national and district organizations. If this policy is adhered to, we believe that the work of our organization to establish humane and progressive methods of adjusting wage differences will be very much facilitated."

A number of coal operators, when shown the statement issued by the committee, said it was a graceful backdown on Mitchell's part, but they give the president of the mine workers credit for his conservative policy. It is conceded that had he so desired he could have made a great deal of trouble.

Austrian Materials Only.

VIENNA, March 30.—The Austrian minister of railways, Dr. von Wittek, has issued strict instructions that only Austrian materials shall be used in the construction of locomotives, carriages and rails for the state railways. The minister of national defense, Count Welser von Welsersheimb, has given similar instructions regarding the guns for rearming the artillery.

Blizzards In England.

LONDON, March 30.—Snowstorms and blizzards were general throughout the north of Great Britain yesterday and strong, cold winds in southern England. In Scotland 25 degrees of frost were registered and in Lincolnshire, England, 14. Much damage was done to telegraph and telephone wires.

New Consul at Valparaiso.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The president has appointed Robert Mansfield of Indiana to be consul at Valparaiso. The appointee was formerly a private secretary to Senator Beveridge.

Fierce Storm In Texas.

DALLAS, March 30.—A terrific rain and hail storm swept over northern Texas yesterday afternoon. The damage at Dallas from water in cellars and stores is estimated at $100,000.

TRADE CONDITIONS.

Dry Goods Continue Dull—Other Departments Prosperous.

NEW YORK, March 30.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

The condition of general business is in most respects satisfactory. The dry goods trade, and particularly the cotton division, is gloomy, with further reductions in prices of staple goods this week and demand failing to increase with the shading of quotations, but from every other department of business reports are cheerful, and the outlook for a good spring retail turnover is encouraging.

Aside from the expected advance in structural shapes, there is comparative steadiness in iron and steel. The rise of about $2 per ton in angles, beams and other similar forms will not materially affect the cost to large consumers, as contracts for much of the year's tonnage had been placed in anticipation of the new rate.

Prices of boots and shoes are well sustained without any quotable change. There is some improvement in the local jobbing trade, and retail houses begin to feel the impetus of Easter demand. New England shops report fewer orders, but most concerns have sufficient work for some months on old contracts.

Wheat did not respond to rumors of damage, but found reason for strength in Atlantic exports, including flour, in four weeks of 11,432,947 bushels against 6,078,762 in 1900.

Failures for the week numbered 206 in the United States against 203 last year, and 29 in Canada against 33 last year.

A Steel Construction Trust.

NEW YORK, March 30.—There has been filed today at Trenton a certificate of incorporation providing for the largest construction company ever organized and one of especial importance to the real estate and building interests of this city. The new corporation will be known as the George A. Fuller company and is in effect a reorganization of that concern, already well known in connection with the construction of steel skeleton buildings, by which its capital stock will be increased to $20,000,000 and its field of activity widened so as to include steel structures of all kinds. The full significance of the reorganization lies in the fact that the new capital for the enterprise comes from prominent financial men in this city who are largely interested in the Central Realty, Bond and Trust company.

A Find of Old Coins.

GLOU[illegible] 30.—While digging a cellar on Trask street yesterday afternoon, three laborers displaced a large stone, under which a mass of silver coins lay. One began to fill his pockets, but his fellow laborers observed his actions and pitched in and secured their share. In all 225 pieces of coins were found of Spanish and American mintage. Some of the Spanish coins bore dates of 1720, 1800 and 1806, while the American coins ranged from 5 cent pieces to half dollars dating from 1806 to 1859. The face value of the treasure was about $50.

A Practical Memorial to the Queen.

PITTSBURG, March 30.—Mrs. Annie Frettwell, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Allahabad, India, in a letter gives the details of a movement among the native and European residents of India for the erection of a memorial to Queen Victoria. Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been subscribed, and an immense system of canals to irrigate the famine stricken country will probably be made the lasting tribute to the honored name of the late empress of India.

A Man Without a Stomach.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The operation of gastrotomy, or removal of the stomach, was performed at the German hospital in Brooklyn yesterday on Jacob Wichman. Though the patient was in very poor condition to undergo so severe an operation, he stood it rather better than the physicians had expected. It is too early as yet to know whether the operation was successful to the extent of saving Mr. Wichman's life, but the probabilities are that it was.

Mrs. McPherson Dead.

NEW YORK, March 30.—Mrs. John R. McPherson, the widow of the late senator from New Jersey, is dead of pneumonia at her home, 331 Lexington avenue. Mrs. McPherson recently returned from a trip south with her daughter. Mrs. Joseph Muir of 41 West Thirty-sixth street. The daughter's marriage to Dr. Muir in 1898 was the cause of a temporary estrangement from her mother, but they had become reconciled.

President Schurman Sails For Cuba.

NEW YORK, March 30.—President J. G. Schurman of Cornell university and Mrs. Schurman sailed for Cuba today on the steamer Morro Castle and will spend the Easter vacation on the island, returning to Ithaca in two weeks. President Schurman said before leaving that his trip had no political significance whatever and was planned entirely for pleasure and rest from his duties.

CHARTER REPORTED.

New York City Bill In Line For Early Passage.

ALBANY, March 30.—The New York city charter revision commission amendment bill, as amended by the senate cities committee, was reported favorably in the senate yesterday and ordered to a third reading.

An important change in the New York city charter made by the senate committee is an amendment changing from four to two years the term of office of the city comptroller to correspond with a proposed like change in the term of the mayor. Among the other important changes proposed are the following:

A board of aldermen to consist of 73 members, each assembly district in the city being constituted as a separate aldermanic district, except that each ward of Queens borough is made a separate aldermanic district; an eight hour day for policemen and a single headed dock commission.

It is expected that the revision of the New York city charter will be passed so as to reach Mayor Van Wyck before the end of next week. Representations have been made to the Republican leaders that the mayor will act upon the charter speedily and not hold it for the 15 days allowed him under the constitution. If the mayor should do as expected, his action will permit of an earlier adjournment of the legislature by at least a week.

An Old Offender Caught.

OMAHA, March 30.—A man giving his name as John R. Hall, who was arrested in this city as a suspicious character, has been identified as Prentice Tiller, who is alleged to be the author of a host of crimes against the government and for whose arrest a number of rewards have been offered said to aggregate several thousand dollars. His pal, whose name is Fisher, is now under arrest at Hastings, Neb., and gives his name as Grant. Hall has confessed to the chief of police that on March 5 Grant and he robbed the postoffice at Cincinnati of a draft for $500, and it is for this crime that Grant is being held at Hastings. Tiller is known to the police throughout the country and is said to have operated in many cities of the south.

Odell's Economic Policy Bears Fruit.

ALBANY, March 30.—Commissioner John McMackin of the new state labor department has dispensed with the services of 18 employees of his department with salaries aggregating $22,120 annually. This is the first actual reduction in the working force of the state under Governor Odell's economy policy and is made possible by the consolidation of the bureau of labor statistics, the factory department and the board of mediation and arbitration into one department. The removals are to take effect on May 1.

Historic House In Question.

SALEM, Mass., March 30.—By chance merely it has been found that by a deed placed in 1874 the tax collector, in default of a bid at public sale, had seized the historic custom house here, used for the ports of Salem and Beverly, in default of a sewer tax amounting to $182.98. There has been no redemption of the property. In this building Nathaniel Hawthorne worked, and in it he found the material for his "Scarlet Letter." The counter claim is that no city has a right to assess taxes upon government property.

Steel Corporation Reaching Out.

CLEVELAND, March 30.—It is stated that the United States Steel corporation is endeavoring to secure control of additional iron mining properties in the Lake Superior region operated by parties in this city. Among the mines said to be wanted by the new combine are those owned by S. G. Mather & Co., Oglebay, Norton & Co. and Corrigan Bros. Representatives of these firms have been in consultation with J. Pierpont Morgan at New York during the past few days.

Better Pay For Firemen.

CLEVELAND, March 30.—The Lake Shore and Michigan Railroad company has granted its firemen the increase in wages demanded some time ago. Freight firemen will get $2.20 per 100 miles instead of $2.10, firemen of heavy passenger trains $1.95 instead of $1.85, and the firemen of smaller passenger trains will be paid $1.90 instead of $1.85, as formerly. For overtime the scale has been increased from 18½ cents to 20 cents per hour.

Heirs Seek Straus Millions.

BERLIN, March 30.—The heirs of Mr. T. Straus, the American millionaire who perished on board La Bourgogne July 4, 1898, have now put in a claim for the estate, which the American authorities have held in consequence hitherto of a lack of claimants. It is alleged that the heirs in East Prussia have retained counsel in Stallupönen. The estate is understood to be valued at $4,000,000.

Disfigured Woman Adjudged Insane.

BRITISH CANAL TALK.

Divergent Views Expressed In Two Prominent Periodicals.

LONDON, March 30.—The Spectator, discussing the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, says today: "We cannot help thinking that instead of contriving a very effective diplomatic score Lord Lansdowne would be better employed in asking himself what were the essential interests of the United Kingdom. We believe the British mercantile circles demand that the canal shall be made and that when it is made it shall be held by America, as we hold the Suezcanal, and except for keeping British Honduras, which of course we shall keep, the less we have to do with Central America the better. As long as we keep command of the sea, and unless we keep it we shall cease to count as a nation, we have no need to get into a panic over the Americans fortifying the canal. Sea power will control the canal and not land batteries."

The Saturday Review, discussing the Nicaragua canal controversy in a page article, says: "There is little hope of the United States doing anything agreeable to England, and if the American government should persist in defiance of its pledges in attempting to obtain exclusive control of the canal whose neutrality is of the highest importance to the whole world there would be only one course open. The rest of the world must take steps to protect itself." The article alludes to "American aggression" and advocates "united European representations."

Ohio Potteries May Shut Down.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., March 30.—There is a prospect of every pottery in this section of the Ohio valley being shut down on Monday unless the strike at the Goodwin pottery is adjusted by that time. Thursday ten girls employed in the biscuit warehouse at the Goodwin pottery quit work, making the claim that they were working short handed. President Hughes of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters suggested that the trouble be submitted to the joint arbitration board, but this was refused. It is said that if this trouble is not adjusted by Monday every pottery here will be shut down, according to an agreement that exists between the manufacturing potters of this place, who have posted a forfeit of $2,000 a kiln in good faith that they will stick with each other in time of trouble.

A Million Dollar Hotel Burned.

RICHMOND, March 30.—The Main street front of the Jefferson hotel of this city, which was erected by the late Lewis Ginter at a cost for building and furnishing of about $1,000,000, was destroyed by fire last night. The magnificent structure covered half a block in the ultra fashionable part of the city, was built of buff brick and granite foundation and was regarded as semifireproof. The flames were discovered in the upper part of the Main street side shortly before midnight, and in a short time that part of the building was a roaring furnace. As far as can be learned no lives have been lost, though there was great difficulty in getting out some of the guests.

A Big Electrical Scheme.

ROCHESTER, March 30.—A rumor is current to the effect that the capitalists who are backing the Citizens' Light and Power company of Rochester are also back of a gigantic enterprise having for its object the connection of Syracuse and Rochester by trolley line. Several franchises for electric lines have been granted recently along the route, and rumor has it that in addition to the trolley line the promoters will secure so far as possible all of the electric lighting franchises in the towns touched by the line.

Tragedy In North Dakota.

DEVIL'S LAKE, March 30.—Emil Segerlin, a well to do farmer living eight miles northeast of this town, killed his three children and then stabbed himself to death. He went to the barn, accompanied by his two little daughters, aged 7 and 5 years. As he did not come to dinner his oldest daughter, aged 9 years, was sent to call him. It is thought that before she reached the barn her father had killed the others and immediately killed her. Both the other children were killed with a knife.

Dietrich to Hold Governorship.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 30.—Senator Elect Dietrich has announced definitely that he will not resign as governor unless late in the fall, probably not until after election, barring of course an extra session of congress, which he did not regard as probable. Governor Dietrich justified this action by saying he had outlined a plan of state administration which he was anxious to put into effect, and in this he is upheld by Lieutenant Governor Savage.

Snow In Nebraska.

OMAHA, March 30.—Five inches of snow has fallen here. The storm covers the entire state and parts of Iowa, extending north of Sioux City and west to the Wyoming and Colorado lines. Incoming trains on the Union Pacific were three hours late, and other railroads report considerable delay. In Omaha the street car service is badly hampered, especially on the Council Bluffs line, where it was nearly suspended.

Seals From the Gulf.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., March 30.—The sealing schooners Maggie, Euthansea and Emily, with 1,200, 900 and 800 seals respectively, have returned from a seal hunt in the gulf of St. Lawrence. They report excellent prospects for steamers fishing there.

Fire In a Pennsylvania Town.

BEDFORD, Pa., March 30.—Fire here destroyed several establishments in the business portion of the town, causing a loss estimated at $60,000. One of the buildings destroyed was the old Boquet House, built by Charles Boquet 130 years ago.

Bernhardt Recovered.

PITTSBURG, March 30.—Mme. Sarah Bernhardt, who was obliged by illness to cancel her date at the Alvin theater Thursday night, was so far recovered last night as to allow her to fill her part.

Two Miners Killed.

PITTSTON, Pa., March 30.—Two miners, Morgan Davis and Scott Vengellis, were instantly killed by a fall of coal while they were at work in the Keystone mines.

Salisbury's Illness.

LONDON, March 30.—Lord Salisbury, according to The Daily Express, is suffering from a kidney affection which is likely to incapacitate him for some time.

AGUINALDO'S FATE.

May Become an Agent In Pacification.

A POSSIBLE RESIDENCE IN GUAM.

Washington Officials In No Haste to Decide as to the Future of the Government's Distinguished Captive.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The secretary of war is not inclined to act hastily in determining what shall be done with Aguinaldo. His attitude toward the American government will in a great measure determine the question. Should he fulfill the hopes of General MacArthur and issue an address to the Filipino insurgents to lay down their arms and accept American supremacy there is no doubt he will be paroled, provided, however, that he himself takes the oath of allegiance to the United States. He will not, of course, receive his liberty immediately upon the promulgation of his address.

It is learned at the war department that any promise of parole will provide that some time shall elapse after his announcement of loyalty, during which the American government can test his sincerity. If his address to the natives is made in good faith and he shows his ability to secure good results from it, he will be paroled in Manila and the freedom of the city will be given him, but he will be kept under surveillance for some time, pending the final determination as to his loyalty.

On the other hand, if Aguinaldo makes no agreement by which he will acknowledge American authority in the islands and refuses to take the oath of allegiance, his probable resting place for some time to come will be Guam, the home of other exiled agitators, including Mabini, who furnished the brains for Aguinaldo's undertakings.

The view of the majority of the cabinet was that the time is not yet ripe to decide what course should be pursued in the disposition of Aguinaldo. It is felt that some little time should elapse to permit an opportunity to deliberate carefully over what course would prove the wisest.

The question as to how Funston will be rewarded for his services in capturing the head and front of the Philippine insurrection continues to be a topic of discussion in all official circles. In view of General MacArthur's specific recommendation, indorsed by General Wheaton, that General Funston be appointed a brigadier general in the regular army there seems to be no doubt in well informed quarters that the president will meet promptly the popular demand in this matter and appoint General Funston to one of the existing vacancies in the list of brigadier generals.

MORE INSURGENTS YIELD.

Aguinaldo's Capture Has a Disheartening Effect.

MANILA, March 30.—After being convinced of Aguinaldo's capture, General Geronimo, the insurgent leader in the province of Morong, Luzon, has surrendered, with 6 officers, 46 men and 50 rifles, to Colonel J. Milton Thompson of the Forty-second regiment, at San Mateo.

Twelve thousand Filipinos have just taken the oath of allegiance to the United States in South Ilocos province, Luzon.

As the news of Aguinaldo's capture spreads through the archipelago the insurgents are becoming disheartened, and there is a marked increase in the number of individual surrenders.

General Cailles, who is practically outlawed on account of his atrocious crimes, sent an emissary to General Bates, who answered that he must surrender unconditionally and stand trial.

The former insurgent officers and the Macabebe scouts who took part in the capture of Aguinaldo will probably receive a monetary reward. The amount has not been specified. It has also been recommended that every man participating in the capture of Aguinaldo receive a special medal.

Aguinaldo is now detained in a comfortable room situated in a wing of the Malacanang palace. He is in charge of Captain Benjamin H. Randolph and Lieutenant Gilbert A. Youngberg of Battery G, Third artillery.

When Aguinaldo was captured, he wore a plain, dark blue suit, with the coat closely buttoned at the throat, and a wide white helmet with a leather band. He takes his capture philosophically. He is generally cheerful, but sometimes moody. His health during the past year has been very good.

It is uncertain what attitude he will now assume.

Mindanao Pacified.

ZAMBOANGA, Island of Mindanao, March 30.—The Philippine commission arrived here yesterday from Isabela, island of Basilan. At Isabela they took the testimony of the marine garrison officers. The native condition of Basilan is peaceful. One dato controls. The Moros discourage schools, and only the Chinese attend them. For a week the commission will remain here investigating and establishing civil government. The provinces of Mindanao are now all pacified. The population is a conglomeration of Moros, Filipinos, Chinese and native tribesmen. Without doubt the commission will organizze the province of Zamboanga, but no decision has yet been reached regarding the other provinces of the island.

COMING EVENTS

March 31—Judge William N. Runyon will speak, and Prof. George A. Morris, the great colored basso, will sing at the Y. M. C. A. meeting at 4:15 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Bicycle Ordinance.

The season is now here when the bicyclists are once more to be seen at every hand. The good roads of this city has made bicycling unusually popular here, and there are thousands of wheelmen and wheelwomen living in the city and borough. When the bicycle first came into prominence, an ordinance was passed by the Common Council regulating its control.

According to the provisions of that ordinance, bicyclists must not ride on the sidewalk under any circumstances; they must carry lamps between one hour after sunset and one hour before sunrise; they must carry bells on the handlebars of their bicycles and ring them on approaching every corner.

The first arrest of the season under the provisions of that ordinance was made yesterday when Raymond Pool, a reputable young man of the borough, was ordered before City Judge Runyon on the charge of riding his wheel faster than the law allows. The local police have also announced a determination to see that the bicycle ordinance is strictly enforced this spring. They are particularly after those who ride too fast and those who fail to keep off the sidewalks.

Every law should be enforced. If it is an obnoxious law, the very enforcement of it will soon bring about its repeal. The bicycle ordinance is no different from the rest. It is the duty of the police of the city to see that it is enforced and enforced constantly, not spasmodically. That has been the great trouble in the past. There have been times when the law was practically a dead letter, then suddenly a wave of virtue would sweep over the authorities and it would be enforced rigidly for a time.

If Chief Kiely will see that it is enforced continually and with judgment throughout the entire summer, the wheelmen of the city, as well as the rest of the inhabitants, will thank him. There is nothing unfair in the ordinance and it is but justice to the rest of the law-abiding citizens that it should be enforced. In enforcing it, however, judgment should be used and wheelmen held to the spirit of the law without deviation or break. Chief Kiely says that he is not going to start a crusade against offending wheelmen but merely to see that the law is obeyed. These "crusades" are only spasmodic affairs at best and if Chief Kiely continues the policy he has laid down he will win the commendation of all

The information to be found in another column to the effect that the spearing of fish in this State is now forbidden by law, will be a surprise to most of our readers. There are so many statutes passed by the Legislature every session that only those who keep carefully in touch with the work of the Legislature are able to get any idea of but very little that is done. This move was taken with a view to protect the game fish in the lakes and streams of this State. While the spearing of carp and suckers was not objected to, the State authorities found that many game fish were killed in these "gigging" expeditions. It was to protect the game fish that this practice so common in this State was forbidden by statute. It will be a matter of great regret to many sportsmen who have found many evenings of pleasure when out armed with "gig" in search of suckers and carp.

The idea of the establishment of trolley lines being an injury to trade is rather a new view to take of those public improvements. It cannot be denied that the trolleys are the means of greatly assisting trade. Everybody who has driven a horse that was at all afraid of the trolley cars can appreciate that it might affect the trade of farmers whose steeds seriously object to that sign of modern civilization.

Don't forget that the last Municipal Ownership ballot will be published in The Daily Press of Tuesday and that all votes must be mailed or left at this office by noon Wednesday in order to be counted. Every citizen in city or borough should show enough interest in the welfare of the municipality in which he lives to record his opinion either for or against the proposition of city ownership of the water works.

The meeting of the Common Council Monday evening will be one of unusual importance. It will be the time for the presentation of the annual budget by the finance committee. It will then be decided how much money the city of Plainfield will spend during the coming twelve months in conducting its various departments.

There is no doubt but that baseball is popular at the Plainfield High School when the pupils of that institution raise $100 by subscription for the support of the team. The young women were just as enthusiastic as the young men and contributed their share toward the fund.

By all means let the Plainfield Board of Health continue in its effort to protect the city's milk supply, but it seems as if the members of that body might spend a few minutes at least in providing for the city's share in keeping the banks of Green brook in proper condition.

The improvement made by the borough in laying sidewalk and curbing on Duer street, between Craig place and the brook, is one that will be greatly appreciated by pedestrians who have been compelled to wade through the mud there most of the winter.

General Funston's achievment was one which will add his name to the list of military heroes whose brilliant and heroic feats have placed their names on their nation's honor roll.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

Clippings From Other Newspapers Which May Be Of Interest to Plainfield and its Citizens.

No appointment by Gov. Voorhees has caused more universal regret than that of Senator Stokes as Clerk in Chancery, to succeed Lewis A. Thompson. This is not because of any unfitness on the part of the appointee, but it means the turning down of one who has filled the office in a most satisfactory manner. Mr. Thompson has in years past done much to promote the welfare of the Republican party in this county and in the State at large, and his services should have received recognition from the Governor.—Bound Brook Chronicle.

Plainfield, which loves to tell of how progressive and up-to-date it is, has to depend upon a private corporation for its water supply. Like all private corporations the water company is in business to make money, and recently made a large increase in the water rates. Now Plainfield is kicking, and there is talk of a municipal water supply system. New Brunswick has owned its water supply system for thirty years, and the plant is one of the most valuable assets of the city.—New Brunswick Times.

It is unfortunate for the people of this commonwealth that officials of the business capacity and character of Hon. Lewis A. Thompson should be refused a second term as a proper reward of merit, while others, far less deserving, have been kept in their positions by the Governor. It is casting no reflection upon Hon. E. C. Stokes, Mr. Thompson's successor, to say that he will find it no easy task to keep the office of Clerk in Chancery up to its present standard, though the careful oversight of his predecessor will lessen his official burden.

Mr. Thompson retires with the highest encomiums from the Chancellor, from members of the bar and from those who have assisted in conducting the affairs of the office. He has maintained a most dignified attitude while inimical political influences were at work to prevent his reappointment. Under the policy established by Governor Voorhees he was entitled to a reappointment, but no one has heard him murmur against the Governor's decision.

We only wish to add that if the reward of merit is not to be bestowed on such officials as Mr. Thompson, then party fealty, official capacity, careful attention to duty and integrity are not worth fostering in the public service.—Somerville Unionist-Gazette.

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence.)

Dunellen, March 30.—Sparks from a locomotive set fire to the long, dry grass in the lot bordering on Washington avenue and the railroad, yesterday afternoon. On account of the high wind which prevailed at the time it spread in all directions and in a short time had assumed dangerous proportions, reaching almost to the residence of Travis Sutphen. The timely arrival of Owen Mohan's section gang averted the threatened danger of a more serious conflagration.

Several borough merchants were visited by a slick talking stranger yesterday, who engaged in conversation and after having told a plausible story of locating in Dunellen, ended with an appeal for a small loan. He succeeded in some of his attempts, but at other places he failed to make an impression and his request was politely but firmly refused.

The small storehouse situated in the rear of the flag house on Washington avenue, belonging to A. E. Sampson, was removed to his place yesterday by Charles Clark. Mr. Sampson will in the future use it as a bicycle storehouse.

The household goods of George Blair, of Grove street, will be disposed of at auction Wednesday, April 3. The sale will be in charge of C. E. Kelley.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD

(Special Correspondence.)

South Plainfield, March 30.—Warrants to appear before the Grand Jury, in the State's defence, have been served upon Ad Bergen and John Howell. It is rumored that this has to do with furnishing indictments against local saloons for Sunday selling of liquor.

The topic for tomorrow evening's Christian Endeavor meeting is "Missions." The leader appointed by the prayer meeting committee is Miss Nellie Manning.

The Lehigh Valley switch tower is completed and all the levers in place. It still remains to connect the signals and switches before the old plant will be abandoned.

William Buckley Growing Worse.

William Buckley, of Scotch Plains, who for several days past has been ill with pneumonia, had a sudden turn for the worse yesterday, and last evening the attending physician, Dr Westcott, held a consultation with Dr E. W. Hedges, of this city. It was learned that both lungs are affected and today they are rapidly filling. The physicians do not believe that Mr Buckley will recover, as he is steadily growing worse. He has a host of friends in this city, as well as at his home, who will learn of his condition with sincere regret.

Bed Bugs and Cock Roaches.

For destruction and complete riddance of Cock Roaches, Beetles, Wood and Water Bugs, Bed Bugs, Ants, Rats, Mice, etc., "Rough on Rats," though poisonous, if used with care is most effective. Is the most extensively advertised, the best know and has the largest sale of any article of its kind on the face of the globe. It gives satisfaction every time. Beware of imitations. I employ no peddlers. Have a suspicion of any dealer offering substitutes said to be as good. 15c. and 25c.

DUNELLEN BOARD OF TRADE.

BOROUGH CITIZENS MET AND ORGANIZED LAST NIGHT.

The Meeting Was Well Attended and Much Interest Was Manifested—The Officers.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, March 30.—After two preliminary meetings the citizens of the borough met last evening and showed their interest in the welfare of Dunellen by organizing a permanent Board of Trade. The attendance was very good and it was the opinion of all present that the formation of the board would result in the borough taking rapid strides in growth and advancement.

The first business of the evening was the election of officers, which resulted as follows: President, George W. Day; secretary, Adam Dealaman; treasurer, Frank Humpston. The election of seven directors resulted in the following: John Monihan, A. N. Randolph, J. R. Campbell, W. S. Fredericks, Paul Reusch, H. S. Garretson and W. G. Runyon. Two communications from the Board of Trade at Reading and Sunbury, Pa., were read by the clerk. In a brief but convincing way they told what benefits their respective cities had derived from the board and what good work a representative body of citizens was able to perform. The meeting adjourned to meet again Thursday evening of next week.

FINED $20 AND COSTS.

John Scott, a Truckman, Arrested For Dumping Garbage at the End of Grove Street.

John Scott, a truckman residing in North Plainfield, was arrested yesterday on the complaint of Louis Wyckoff, who alleged that Scott had dumped garbage and ashes in a lot at the farther end of Grove street, which contaminated the stream of Stony brook and constituted a violation of the health ordinance of the borough.

Scott was arrested by Constable Pangborn and given a hearing last evening by Justice Mattison. There was no question as to facts in the case, and it became the duty of the Justice to inflict the penalty provided. Scott was fined $20 and costs, and was ordered to stand committed until the fine is paid.

An elderly lady living on Market St., Camden, N. J., has been through a most distressing ordeal. "For the past three years," she says, "I have had stomach and bowel trouble, and as I am a woman advanced in years, I had supposed there was no relief for me. In the fall of 1895 I was confined to my bed, and my physician had great difficulty in checking a severe attack of stomach and bowel trouble. Since then, up to four months ago, I had these attacks often, each one more weakening than the other. My health became so impaired and I lost flesh so rapidly that I became alarmed. My son, who suffered from chronic nervous troubles and had obtained beneficial results from using Ripans Tabules, often asked me to try them, but I never had any faith in patent medicines, and considering my case hopeless I concluded not to experiment. But while suffering great distress he one day persuaded me to try the Tabules. I took one and it gave me relief. I sent out for a package and, after using that, was so much relieved that I now only take one occasionally, but I have them constantly in the house."

WANTED—A case of bad health that RIPANS will not benefit. They banish pain and prolong life. They cure sick headache. Note the word RIPANS on the package and not an imitation. RIPANS sold by druggists or by mail. Ten samples and one thousand testimonials will be mailed to any address for 5 cents, forwarded to the Ripans Chemical Co., No. 10 Spruce St., New York.

ACCESSORIES.

Pretty Additions to the Costume of the Moment.

Wide, tight corselets are immensely worn. Belts of silk elastic, with a large clasp, are again seen, and gold elastic webbing is the newest importation. These are very expensive, even the plain black elastic girdles of great width being costly. Both the black and the gold corselets are often embroidered with beads, spangles and cabochons. A short bolero is the frequent accompaniment of a wide corselet of any kind.

The collars of gowns are always very high and much trimmed with tabs and plaitings of lace. All sorts of cravats are worn, imagination being exhausted to devise new kinds. Black velvet with gold embroidery, spangles, buttons or cabochons is a favorite combination, and needle points of metal, especially gold, are used so extensively as to have already become common and undesirable.

For the house there is a fancy for ornamental aprons. They are often quite impracticable, but give a pretty, domestic finish to the costume for luncheon, tea, etc. The one illustrated is of white brocade silk, with a plaiting of white mousseline de soie all around it, headed by narrow passementerie. There is a bib which is held in place by a sort of fichu passing around the shoulders. This fichu is trimmed with a plaiting of mousseline and is fastened to the bib by bows of white ribbon and buckles of rhinestones. A band of ribbon passes down each side if the ribbon is secured to the waistband by a buckle and falls in a long end upon the tablier, the end being finished with a mousseline plaiting.

EVENING PETTICOATS.

They Are Very Elaborate and Are of Silk or Fine Batiste.

Petticoats to accompany ball gowns or other elaborate costumes are very long, but have not a train. They are tight at the top, with a large plait behind, and have deep flounces and plaitings around the foot. The top has no regular waistband, but is finished with a fine, firm piping. Wide waistbands have quite disappeared for underwear, as they add to the size of the waist and serve no good purpose.

The picture shows a costume of silver gray cloth. The skirt consists of a long tunic embroidered with dark gray silk and gold, draped over a plain skirt of gray velvet. The bodice is plain at the back, but has open fronts embroidered with gray and gold, the embroidery passing around the shoulders. The draped and crossed chemisette is of silver gray bengaline, the collar of white linen. The sleeves are open below the elbow and embroidered with gray and gold and have white linen puffs beneath, gathered into a band at the wrist. A knot of gray velvet with gold tips at the ends is placed at the left side of the waist. The hat of gray panne is trimmed with gray tulle and large pink poppies.

HORSE STOOD SENTRY.

Great Racer Stood Guard Over an Intoxicated Colored Boy Who Had Him in Charge.

This reads like a fairy tale, but it is true. At the sale of the late Marcus Daly's thoroughbreds Willam Lakeland, one of our well-known metropolitan trainers, bought Ogden for $4,200. This is a valuable horse by Kilwarlin—Oriole, foaled in 1894, winner of the futurity of his year and many other important events, and whose family figures show 12 English Derby winners. All this just to show the kind of gentleman he is. Lakeland wished him taken down to his Sheepshead stables that night, and after a talk with his foreman, Frasch, Ogden was dispatched by road in the care of a colored stable boy, to whom Lakeland gave five dollars as an inducement to take extra good care of the horse, says the Spirit of the Times.

Blanketed and hooded from hoofs to ear tips, Ogden serenely wended his way through the falling snow, and doubtless wondered if he were going back to Montana and the familiar Bitter Root farm. Later Mr. Lakeland went home and sat up hour after hour waiting for the coming of his new purchase, but none came. His feelings may be better imagined than described. He loves his horses, as evidenced by his wonderful success with Tea Tray and other erratic animals which he brought round to a proper state of mind. He sat up all night, sending messengers in all directions until dawn, and by that time he was ready to take up the quest himself.

It was not the money that was worrying him; it was the exposure of a good horse to the inclement weather and what the probable results might prove. Just then came a call from the telephone which sent him flying down the boulevard at a rapid gait. The police precinct wanted to know if he had lost a horse and what he was like, reporting that Ogden had been found by an officer standing in the road, with a colored boy drunk at his feet. In other words, the horse was taking care of the drunken lout, as many a horse has done before, and will again, bless them for it! Mr. Lakeland found Ogden safe and sound at the precinct, apparently very much at home, and soon had him in his own stall. As for the stable boy, Mr. Lakeland declined to bother with him. He did not want a justifiable case of assault and battery on his hands. He had Ogden and that was all he cared about.

HIS JOKE COST MONEY.

Lover's Roommate Forced to Replace a Box of Candy Which He Had Appropriated in Fun.

There is a young man living in one of the northern suburbs of Chicago who has a girl in Ohio. He made preparations the other day to go to the Ohio town to call on her. Part of his preparations was to buy a box of candy, a large box of the very best. But when he started he forgot the box of candy and his roommate at once sent it to his own girl.

The next day the roommate received a note from his sweetheart thanking him for the candy, and in the same mail came another from the young man in Ohio asking him to forward the box of candy which had been left behind.

There was nothing left for the roommate to do but to buy another box, says the Chicago Chronicle, and after hunting for two hours along State street he finally found the place where the candy had been purchased. He remembered how the box looked and he ordered one just like it. The young woman behind the counter wrapped it up and then shoved toward the bewildered roommate a slip of paper calling for $2.50. This he paid, but he swore under his breath at the Ohio girl.

President Porfiro Diaz, a Mexican Revolutionist

Incidents in the Life of a Man Who Has Ruled Mexico Long and Well

CONSTERNATION, not alone in Mexico, but in all parts of the civilized world interested in the development of the Central American republic, followed closely the announcement that President Porfiro Diaz had lost his mind, and would probably have to retire from the head of the Mexican government. Capitalists with financial interests in Mexico heaved a sigh of relief when the rumor was authoritatively denied, and President Diaz had returned to the castle of Chapultepec, from which it was alleged he had fled because his disordered brain had led him to believe that assassins lurked in the great building with an intent to kill him at the first opportunity.

When we stop to consider the condition of Mexico when the reins of government were placed in the hands of Diaz and its condition to-day; the millions of foreign capital that are invested there, and the probable results to Mexican investments should revolutionary factions again disturb the peace of the republic, this care for the life and health of the Mexican president is not strange.

But the strange feature of the case is President Diaz himself. Born and raised in a hotbed of revolution; the instigator of some of the bloodiest and most costly revolutions that have darkened the pages of Mexican history; who has led insurrection after insurrection against the organized and legal government of the republic; that such a man should ever become the safeguard of Mexican peace is certainly strange.

The autobiography of President Diaz reads like a stirring story of adventure, and, in fact, that is what it is, and a true story at that, which but lends to it more interest.

President Diaz is nearing 71 years of age, being born on September 15, 1830. Until he was 17 he led the life of the average Mexican boy of the better class, receiving a liberal education at an institution of learning in his native city, Oaxaca. With the beginning of the American invasion of Mexico began the military career of Diaz, a career that was to lead him through revolution after revolution to the highest place in the gift of the Mexican people.

His military career began as a sublieutenant in the Mexican army, and he served in this capacity throughout the war with the United States. By 1852 he had advanced to the rank of captain of artillery, and about the same time began to take an active interest and participation in Mexican politics. He opposed the elevation of Santa Anna to the dictatorship of Mexico, and when that fact was accomplished he quit the army for a time and gave his attention to the study of law. But two years later he was back in the military service, commanding a battalion in the army that put Santa Anna to flight, and for his part in this was appointed military and political chief of the district of Yxtlan.

Two years later came another change, and Diaz quit the reactionary, or church, party and went over to the liberals, and served with considerable distinction through the bloody three years' revolution called "the war of reform." When the liberal party had triumphed he was elected a deputy to the Mexican congress, but he soon took the field again in a new revolution. He fought with distinction all through the wars with the French invaders. Through the latter months of the reign of Maximillian he constituted the main defense of the republican cause. The invading army paid him the compliment of giving him and his small band of followers, numbering less than 5,000, especial attention, and he was finally forced to surrender, but soon afterward escaped and again took the field to oppose the troops of Maximillian with but 900 followers, and with these won several important victories before his force was increased. During these campaigns it is said that Diaz was almost merciless toward the captives who fell into his hands, and many charges of cruelty have been brought against him.

THE CASTLE OF CHAPULTEPEC.

His fight for the Mexican presidency began in 1867, when he was an unsuccessful candidate against Juarez. With this defeat begins the time of his revolutionary movements against the Mexican government. He led plot after plot against the government, some of them reaching the civil war stage and others being squelched before the clash of arms had come. To save himself from capture he escaped to the United States three different times, but was always allowed to return. The first of these revolutions planned by Diaz came in 1870-71. The second followed a few months after. A third came in 1872. Another in 1876, and still another in 1877. The last resulted in the election of Diaz to the presidency of the Mexican republic. After his election he was called upon to suppress a number of insurrections against the government, but by the time his term of office was completed had the satisfaction of turning over the government to his successor with peace reigning throughout the republic.

In 1884 Diaz was again inaugurated president of Mexico, and before his term of office had expired the Mexican constitution had been so amended as to permit of a president succeeding himself, and he has continued at the head of the republic ever since.

Under his rule Mexico has enjoyed a great measure of prosperity. Manufacturing industries have been encouraged, railroads have been built, and a development along all lines has been going steadily forward. From a revolutionist, ready at any moment to take the field against a government that did not suit his ideas, President Diaz has developed into a peace loving official, a dictator perhaps, but at all events a wise one, and one whom Mexico can ill afford to lose.

Old Proverb in Rhyme.

The Boonville (Mo.) Advertiser has the "early to bed and early to rise" proverb sized up as follows: "Early to bed and early to rise does very well for sick folks and guys, but it makes a man miss all the fun till he dies and joins the stiffs that are gone to the skies Go to bed when you please and lie at your ease; you'll die just the same of some Latin disease."

CYCLISTS MUST OBEY.

City Judge Runyon Announced This Morning That Bicycle Ordinance Would be Enforced.

A warning against violations of the city bicycle ordinance was sounded by City Judge Runyon this morning, at a hearing given Raymond Pool and another cyclist named Emmons, who were charged with having scorched on Park avenue on the afternoon of March 14.

The court stated that it had obtained a satisfactory explanation of the affair, but it did not want the occasion to pass without taking the opportunity of serving a general notice on the cyclists, through the medium of the newspapers, that the city demands a strict compliance with the ordinance relating to bicycle riding. Any violation will be punished severely because, in the opinion of the court, the violations are exceedingly dangerous to the safety of pedestrians and are likely to result in unexpected disaster.

The court suspended sentence in this case.

CITY SPRINKLER AT WORK.

The high winds of the past few days have raised the dust from the streets throughout the city and have caused much inconvenience, to the business section particularly.

This morning Street Commissioner Gavett ordered out the city sprinkler to lay the dust as much as possible. The sprinkler was put to work on Front street and later on Park avenue. The machine will be kept at work as long as it can be spared from where macadamizing is being done.

The merchants are exceedingly grateful for the thoughtful and timely action on the part of Mr. Gavett.

P M. French will commence Monday to sprinkle the streets for the season in accordance with the terms of his private contract with the residents.
